Chapter 1

Introduction

What Is Rise?

Rise is a role-playing game. In Rise, you play a character of your own design. Your character can try to do anything you can imagine in a world that the game master, or GM, creates. Of course, you won't always succeed. Your character's abilities are defined in the pages ahead; when you're done creating a character, it will have a personality of its own, along with strengths, weaknesses, and special abilities. Usually, your character will go on adventures with other characters, each of which is played by other players. Together, you will create and experience a story with the Game Master, or GM, who defines the universe that the player characters inhabit.

Defining the Undefined

This book does not attempt to include specific rules for every aspect of a realistic world. Unless defined otherwise - or if it's not worth the effort to look up Rise's exact rules in the flow of a game - you should assume that the universe works more or less like the real world does, and as long as everyone agrees that something is reasonable, it's not worth worrying about in more detail. For example, Rise does not have specific rules for how long it takes to eat a meal, the arc that a thrown ball takes through the air, or how much extra weight a well-made chandelier can hold without breaking. It's possible to imagine situations where each of those might be important to a game, however, so you'll have to guess what would be reasonable as obscure situations arise. The Game Master's has the final word when defining ambiguities like this.

How To Do Things

Mechanical and Narrative Actions

There are two broad categories of actions that a character can take in Rise: mechanical actions and narrative actions. Sometimes, you choose one of a list of clearly defined actions that your character can take. For example, if you are a wizard who knows the fireball spell, you can cast that spell, and there are specific rules for determining its area and effects. You can think of that as a mechanical action: there is a specific set of rules and mechanics associated with your chosen action. Mechanical actions aren't limited to combat. Abilities such as the create water spell or the leap ability can be relevant outside of any combat or even outside of a dramatically interesting scene.

At other times, you simply describe what you want your character to do. For example, you can say that your character steps out of their room in the inn and walks over to knock on a friend's door. In those cases, your character isn't taking a specific "knock on door" action that the rules define. You can think of that as a narrative action: you're narrating what you want to do. Although Rise has rules concerning some aspects of that scenario, such as an Awareness check to see if your friend notices you knocking, you don't have to use the rules all the time. If something seems reasonable, it probably is, and you don't need to worry about the fiddly bits.

Sometimes, it's useful to use rules and dice rolls to determine the effects of narrative actions. There is no specific "do a backflip off of a wall and dive into a small pool of water" action, but only particularly skilled or lucky characters should be able to do that successfully. You can use one of the broad category abilities that Rise provides to resolving narrative actions. That usually involves a check with a skill or attribute.

Each character has a set of specific mechanical actions they can take. Some are unique to that particular character, such as a wizard's spells known. Others are common to all characters, such as the sprint action. In addition, each character has a set of numerical statistics that describe how good they are at various things. These statistics can be referenced by mechanical actions, but they are also used to resolve narrative actions that need dice rolls to resolve.

Making Dice Rolls

In general, you should use rules and dice rolls to resolve narrative actions if they meet two conditions. First, the action should be dramatically interesting. No one wants to waste time determining the success or failure of a series of completely irrelevant actions. Second, the action should have a meaningful chance of both success and failure. Sufficiently skilled characters may not need to roll to accomplish simple tasks, and there's no point in rolling for things that are obviously impossible.

If both conditions are met, you can roll a ten-sided die, or d10.

You add a number based on how competent your character is with the action to the number you rolled on the die. This result is compared to a number representing how difficult the action is. If your result is at least as high as the number you were trying to get, your character's action succeeded. Otherwise, the action fails. Depending on the context, failure may be simply equivalent to having never attempted the action, or it may have serious consequences.

Attacks and Checks

Almost all rolls you will need to make can be described as an attack roll or a check. Anything that affects another creature in a potentially harmful way is considered an attack. When you make an attack roll, you add a bonus based on your accuracy with the attack. If the result of your roll is at least as high as your target's defense, your attack hits. Otherwise, it misses. Attacks often deal damage, but they also impose penalties or have other effects.

Dice rolls that don't directly affect other creatures are generally checks. When you make a check, you add a bonus based on your competence with the activity, which is often a skill. If the result of your roll is at least as high as the difficulty rating of the activity, your check succeeds. Otherwise, it fails.

Opposed Actions

Sometimes, you're competing with another creature, such as when you are trying to hold a door closed and a ferocious ogre is trying to shove it open. In that case, you both make a check, and the creature with the higher result wins. This is called an opposed check. If you both get the same result, roll again to break the tie.

Narrative Pacing

A typical game of Rise is broken up into two distinct concepts. Sometimes, you will interact with the world in broad, sweeping descriptions, as you describe in general terms what your character does. For example, you and your group may decide to travel overland for seven days to reach a distant city. Just like you don't need to mention every time your character breathes or takes a step, you don't need to track every second of time spent on that journey. Until something of dramatic significance happens, the GM should narrate the events of the journey in general terms to avoid spending time on irrelevant details.

If something important happens, the pace of the game should change to focus on the current events. For example, if your group is ambushed by roaming bandits, the exact actions you take become important. This is called an encounter. During an encounter, the GM should ask each player to describe their character's actions more precisely. If the encounter is time-sensitive, such as combat, the GM should track the flow of time in rounds. A round represents six seconds of time, so there are ten rounds per minute.

Not all encounters require tracking time precisely. For example, if you and your party encounter a broken-down caravan carrying an angry prince, your exact actions can be important. Whether you show appropriate deference and fix his caravan, ignore him, or kill him to steal his jewelry can have important repercussions in the game world. However, the exact time it takes to make that decision and execute on it is not usually important.

Not every challenge needs to be handled with the narrative pacing of an encounter, especially if the outcome of the challenge is uninteresting or predetermined. Even combat can be described in broad terms, such as if you are significantly more powerful than your foes and your victory is assured. In all cases, the GM decides how to handle the flow of time and the narrative pacing. They may have information you don't about what is important and what is irrelevant.

Principles of Rise

- The Game Master controls the world. Everything about the game world is up to the GM: the people your character meets, the challenges they will overcome, and the very ground under their feet. Even the "rules" of the game are completely subject to the GM's whim.
- You control your character. A GM should never tell you how your character feels or what they try to do — unless, of course, your character is being controlled by hostile magic or some other power.
- Respect and trust are critical. The GM has a great deal of power in Rise, and the players have to trust that the GM knows what they are doing. Likewise, the GM needs to let the players do what they want — even if it doesn't suit their idea of what "should" happen. Some of the most memorable events happen when players do things that are totally unexpected.
- Everything is flexible. Rise contains hundreds of pages of rules. We think they're pretty good rules. But sometimes, you don't need them all — or you think you've come up with something better. Do whatever works for you and your group.
- Do what makes sense. This book doesn't contain rules for how to drink water, sleep, or blink. If something isn't described explicitly here, assume that it works the same way it does in reality.
- It's just a game, so have fun.

Rule of Drama

The Rule of Drama is simple: Only dramatic actions matter. In general, an action has dramatic significance if there is a consequence for failure, the exact time required to perform the task is important, or the game master says so. This has several effects.

Checks without Rolls

A check represents an attempt to accomplish a dramatically significant goal, usually while under some sort of time pressure or distraction. When there is no dramatic significance to the task, a check should not be rolled.

Taking 5: Normally, if a check would be required but there is no dramatic significance to the check, assume the character rolled a 5 when determining whether the check is successful. This is called “taking 5”.

Taking 10: If a character would not succeed when taking 5, the character can try to “take 10” instead. Taking 10 requires spending ten times the amount of time normally required to accomplish the task. If a task takes a variable amount of time, assume it took the average amount of time required to make a check. In exchange, the character calculates their check result if they had rolled a 10.

Essentially, taking 10 means the character repeatedly attempts the task until they succeed. It is possible to take 10 on a task that has consequences for failure, but taking 10 guarantees that those consequences occur.

Narrative Time

In most cases, the exact time of day and exactly how long an action takes is not very important. No one really cares whether the orc horde broke through the town gates at the crack of dawn, or at 6:55 AM. Likewise, travelling from a tavern in a city to the blacksmith probably takes a few minutes, depending on the size of the city, but it’s not usually important.

Rise contains rules which you can use to decide exactly how much time things take, but when it’s not important, it’s generally better to only worry about time in broad strokes. It makes everyone’s life a bit easier — especially for the GM.

Character Creation

The first thing you will probably want to do in Rise is create a character. This involves a mixture of thematic and mechanical decisions that will work together to create a fun character that is rewarding to play. There are five thematic considerations when creating a character: concept, personality, motivation, background, and appearance. There are five mechanical considerations: attributes, species, class, skills, and feats. These decisions are described below in a recommended order. However, you can make these decisions in any order, and you may find it easier to create a character in a different way.

Narrative Choices

Character Concept

Fundamentally, who is your character? You should think of a short phrase that describes the core concept behind the character you will create. It’s best to think in broad strokes when creating a character concept. Your concept should be more than just a factual description of your species or what you do. It should be something that makes you memorable. Some sample character concepts are given below for inspiration.

- Pragmatic wanderer
- Artistic pixie

- Mushroom-obsessed hermit
- Bumbling do-gooder
- Dim-witted bodyguard
- Cowardly storyteller
- Bear-barian
- Parsimonious law enforcer
- Peaceful naturalist
- Trigger-happy pyromaniac
- Heroic, simple-minded warrior
- Friendly necromancer
- Chaotic speed demon
- Pompous ex-noble
- Sarcastic mercenary
- Battle-scarred priest
- Ambitious arcane prodigy
- Charismatic musician
- Aloof scholar
- Blunt-spoken warrior
- Crazy prophet
- Polite warrior
- World-weary pirate
- Devout cultist
- Con artist with a heart of gold

Personality

How does your character behave? You should decide, in broad terms, what your character’s personality is. This will change over time, especially as you start playing the character in the game, so you don’t need to define everything perfectly. However, having a general sense of how your character behaves is helpful.

For most games, it’s important to have a personality that can tolerate working with others in a group. A character that is excessively aloof, moody, or obnoxious can make the game more difficult to enjoy for everyone. Likewise, a character who tries to speak for everyone or who repeatedly steals the spotlight from others can be frustrating to work with. You should figure out the right balance with your fellow players and your GM.

Motivation and Goal

Why does your character put in all of the effort that adventuring requires? They probably have a goal that they are trying to achieve, or an ideal that they are trying to embody. Writing down a specific goal or ideal can be helpful as an anchor point when defining the character.

Alignment

Your character’s alignment reflects their moral character: are they more inclined to good or evil, and to chaos or order? Alignments are described in more detail at Alignment, page 308.

Background

What happened in their character’s past to make them the way that they are? What were their parents like, and where are they now? You don’t have to have all of the answers when you first create a character, but it’s good to have some idea. The richer your backstory, the more the GM can weave that into the narrative of the current story. Sometimes, it's fun to take a break from saving the world to go visit someone's grandma.

Appearance

What does your character look like? What would someone's first impression of them be? This can be helpful for understanding how other characters in the game world - or even monsters - would react to you.

1/2 items, and a standard adventuring kit. Individual campaigns or character backstories may change what starting equipment is available, so check with your GM.

Mechanical Choices

Species

Is your character a surly dwarf, an agile elf, or a dim-witted half-orc? There are six core species in Rise: Humans, dwarves, elves, gnomes, halflings, and half-orcs. Your character's species has only a mild effect on your character's abilities, but it can be important when thinking about your personality and background. Species are described in more detail at Species, page 35.

Attributes

Is your character strong and stupid, frail but agile, or just generally talented? There are six core attributes in Rise: Strength, Dexterity, Constitution, Intelligence, Perception, and Willpower. These attributes determine a great deal about your character's strengths and weaknesses. Attributes are described in more detail at Attributes, page 18.

Class and Archetypes

Your character's class is what they have chosen to focus on, and their source of power — the fundamental element that makes them rise above a mere commoner. It is the most mechanically significant choice you make. Each class has five archetypes. You choose three of those five archetypes for your character. Classes are described in more detail at Classes, page 37.

You can choose to be a multiclass character instead of only having a single class. This allows you to choose archetypes from any of the classes that you have. For details, see Multiclass Characters, page 37.

Spend Insight Points

You can spend insight points to gain new special abilities or to learn new proficiencies. For details, see Insight Points, page 21.

Spend Skill Points

You can spend skill points to gain training in skills. For details, see Skill Points, page 21.

Choose Proficiencies

You are automatically proficient in specific languages and weapon groups based on your species and class. For details, see Communication and Languages, page 376, and Weapon Groups, page 313.

Equipment

Items have item levels that indicate the approximate level that characters can reasonably get access to them. Typically, you can start with a single level 1 or lower item, up to three level

Chapter 2

Core Mechanics

This chapter describes the core mechanics of Rise. It defines how attributes work and explains how to make attacks in combat.

Combat Time

The world of Rise can be a harsh one, and not all disagreements can be resolved peacefully. At some point, you will be forced to enter combat. This section explains how time passes in combat.

Rounds

Combat takes place in a series of rounds, which represent about six seconds of time. Each round of a combat is divided into three phases (see Phases, page 9). After all phases are complete, the round ends and the next round begins.

Actions

You can take actions in combat to defeat your foes. There are four types of actions: standard actions, minor actions, move actions, and free actions.

Standard Actions

Most common activities require a standard action, such as attacking with a weapon, casting a spell, and using many special abilities. Using a standard action generally takes about three seconds of time within the game, and it requires most of your attention during that time.

You can take one standard action per round.

Minor Actions

Some special abilities require a minor action. Using a minor action does not take much time or attention, and it can be done at the same time as any other actions. You cannot use a minor action during the movement phase.

You can normally take one minor action per round. However, you can choose to take an additional minor action in place of a standard action.

Move Actions

Abilities that require a move action typically move you around the battlefield, and are usually used in the movement phase. Using a move action generally takes about three seconds of time within the game, and it requires most of your attention during that time.

You can normally take one move action per round. However, you can choose to take an additional move action in place of a standard action.

Free Actions

Many minor activities require a free action, such as drawing or sheathing a weapon. Using a free action does not take much time or attention, and it can be done at the same time as any other actions.

You can take any number of free actions per round.

Phases

There are three phases in each round: a movement phase, an action phase, and sometimes a delayed action phase. Each phase specifies the types of actions that can be taken during that phase. As a special case, free actions may be taken during any phase.

The Movement Phase

During the movement phase, you can take one move action. The most common move action is the hustle ability, which allows you to move a distance equal to your speed. For details, see Movement and Positioning, page 13.

The Action Phase

During the action phase, you can take one minor action and one standard action. Alternately, you can take a move action or additional minor action in place of your standard action. Most of the time, you will simply take a single standard action.

The Delayed Action Phase

During the delayed action phase, you can take a minor action, a standard action, or both if you did not use the corresponding action in the action phase. Alternately, you can take a move action or additional minor action in place of a standard action. In addition, some abilities have effects during the delayed action phase instead of or in addition to their effects in the action phase. For example, the spring attack maneuver allows you to move during the action phase and again during the delayed action phase (see Spring Attack, page ??).

Triggered Ability Timing

Some abilities trigger at the start or end of particular phases, or at the start or end of the round. Here is the order in which these abilities trigger each round, and some notable events that occur during the round:

- Start of round
- Start of movement phase
- End of movement phase
- Start of action phase
- End of action phase
- Start of delayed action phase
- End of delayed action phase
- End of round

Resolving Actions

Within each phase, actions of all creatures are simultaneously resolved in the following order. All allies with the ability to communicate can freely coordinate their actions with each other, within reasonable limits.

1. Choose actions.
2. Determine targets affected by actions.
3. Apply the results of Swift abilities.
4. Check action success. Example: Making attack rolls.
5. Determine action results. Example: Making damage rolls.
6. Apply action results. Examples: Adding vital wounds, moving creature locations, and applying penalties.

In the vast majority of cases, there is no need to go through this order explicitly. Combats will run much faster if attack and damage rolls are generally made and announced at the same time as those actions are chosen, even before all characters have explicitly stated their actions. The order of resolution matters when creatures take actions that directly conflict with each other.

Swift Abilities

Some abilities resolve before other actions in the same phase. These abilities have the Swift tag. They resolve after targets are determined, but before attack rolls are made. Swift abilities never require attack rolls, and almost always affect only the creature using the ability.

For example, the total defense ability is a swift ability. It increases your defenses against attacks made during the same phase (see Total Defense, page 29).

Some abilities have only part of their effect resolve early. For example, the reckless attack ability immediately reduces your defenses, which affects attacks made against you during the current phase, and makes an attack with the normal timing.

Conflicting Actions

Sometimes, actions that occur in the same phase can conflict with each other. In this case, each creature involved with conflicting actions in that phase rolls an initiative check (see Initiative, page 22). Starting from the highest check result and continuing to the lowest, each creature decides to resolve its chosen action or delay to choose a different action. After the lowest initiative check result has made its choice, each creature that delayed can resolve a different action of its choice, starting from the lowest check result and continuing to the highest. When deciding, each creature knows the resolved effects of the actions chosen by previous creatures that it can observe.

When determining whether two actions conflict, it is best to be generous and consider the intention of the action. The only downside to treating actions as conflicting is the time required to resolve the initiative checks and consider action changes.

For example, one of the most common conflicts occurs when a creature tries to move into melee range with a foe that unexpectedly moves away. Although the two movements not mutually impossible, the first creature can easily end up out of melee range from all foes at the end of the phase if it doesn't have enough movement to reach its target. Treating the movements as conflicting allows the first creature to sprint or change its action if it chooses.

Checks

Checks are required to perform actions that have a chance of failure where the difficulty is not measured by the defense of another creature or object. For example, climbing a wall or remembering an obscure piece of trivia may require a check.

To make a check, roll 1d10 and add your modifier with the check. You compare that result to a difficulty rating that represents the difficulty of the task. The more difficult the task, the higher the difficulty rating will be. If your result is equal to or higher than the difficulty rating, the check succeeds. This usually means you accomplish a task successfully. Normal Difficulty Ratings are described in Table 2.1: Difficulty Ratings (page 10).

Table 2.1: Difficulty Ratings

Difficulty Rating	Example (Skill Used)
Trivial (0)	Hear a conversation from 10 feet away (Awareness)
Average (5)	Tie or untie a typical knot (Devices)
Tough (10)	Swim in rough water (Swim)
Challenging (15)	Balance on a one-inch wide wood beam (Balance)
Heroic (20)	Open a high quality lock (Devices)
Legendary (25)	Leap across a 30-foot chasm with a running start (Jump)
Epic (30)	Convince a wise mayor her husband is secretly a werewolf (Persuasion)
Godlike (40)	Track three orcs across firm ground after 24 hours of rainfall (Survival)

Critical Success

If your check result is at least 10 higher than the difficulty rating, your check is a critical success. Some checks have a special effect on a critical success. For example, a critical success while climbing means you move twice as quickly (see Climb, page 122).

Critical Failure

If your check result is at least 10 lower than the difficulty rating, your check is a critical failure. Some checks have a special effect on a critical failure, which is usually bad for the character making the check. For example, a critical failure while climbing means you fall (see Climb, page 122).

Types of Checks

There are two types of checks: attribute checks and skill checks. Your bonus with an attribute check is normally equal to your total value for that attribute. Your bonus with a skill check is based on your training with that skill, as well as the base value for any relevant attribute (see Skills, page 116).

Some abilities give you bonuses to checks based on a particular attribute, such as "Strength-based checks". Those bonuses apply to both attribute checks and checks with skills based on those attributes.

Attacks

Anything that affects another creature in a potentially harmful way, such as striking a creature with a sword, is an attack. Many abilities are always considered attacks, even if you use them in a way that you believe is not harmful. To make an attack, you must make an attack roll.

Attack Rolls

To make an attack roll, roll 1d10 and add your accuracy with the attack. The sum of your die roll and your accuracy is called your attack result. You compare your attack result to a defense that your target has (see Defenses, page 21). All attacks specify which defense they are compared to. If your result is equal to or higher than your target's defense, the attack hits. This almost always means the target suffers some harmful effect, such as taking damage (see Damage, page 11). Otherwise, the attack misses.

Exploding Attacks

When you make an attack roll, if you roll a 10 on the d10, the die explodes. In addition, some effects can cause your roll to explode without rolling a 10.

When an attack roll explodes, you roll it again and add the second result to the original result before applying your accuracy. If you roll a 10 on the extra roll, you keep rolling until you stop rolling a 10 and add all of the rolls together.

Critical Hits

If your attack result is at least 10 higher than your target's defense, your attack is a critical hit. Many attacks have special effects on critical hits. Unless its critical hit effects are otherwise noted, any attack that deals damage deals double that damage on a critical hit.

Objects are not normally subject to critical hits. Some creatures are also not subject to critical hits, as noted in their descriptions.

Glancing Blows

When you miss on an attack by 2 or less, it is called a glancing blow. Some attacks have effects when you get a glancing blow, as indicated in their descriptions or in other abilities. Glancing blow effects are always weaker than the effect of a successful hit, but they are always better than missing entirely. A glancing blow is no different from a complete miss unless some abilities have specific effects on glancing blows.

Damage

Many attacks deal damage to their targets. In general, most damaging attacks deal an amount of damage determined by rolling some number of dice and adding some multiplier of your power. The details are given in each attack's description.

When you would be dealt damage, you first reduce your damage resistance (see Damage Resistance, page 22). Any damage in excess of your remaining damage resistance causes you to lose that many hit points (see Hit Points, page 20). Whenever you take damage that would reduce your hit points below 0, you gain one or more vital wounds (see Reaching Zero Hit Points, page 20).

Dealing Damage, Taking Damage, and Losing Hit Points:

You deal damage whenever you hit with a damaging attack, regardless of whether the target loses hit points or only damage resistance. Likewise, you take damage whenever anything deals damage to you. However, you only lose hit points if the damage is not mitigated by your damage resistance. Many special abilities require the target to lose hit points from a damaging attack, which does not happen if the damage is resisted.

Dice Increments

Many attacks deal damage based on the result rolled from a pool of dice. Many abilities can increase or decrease your damage. Some modifiers add or subtract flat values from the damage you deal. Others add or subtract dice increments. Increasing by one die increment is written as +1d, and decreasing by one die increment is written as -1d. Damage dice change in size according to the following pattern:

- 1 damage (minimum)
- 1d2
- 1d3
- 1d4
- 1d6
- 1d8
- 1d10

- 2d6
- 2d8
- 2d10
- 4d6
- 4d8
- 4d10
- 5d10
- 6d10
- 7d10
- 8d10

For each die increment that increases the damage, move one space down the list. Likewise, for each die increment that decreases the damage, move one space up the list. After the damage dice reach 8d10, each additional die increment simply adds an additional 10 flat damage.

Vital Wounds

A vital wound represents serious damage to your body. Each vital wound has a specific detrimental effect on you. You gain vital wounds by taking damage in excess of your remaining hit points (see Reaching Zero Hit Points, page 20).

To determine the effect of a vital wound, make a vital roll and find the corresponding effect in Table 2.2: Vital Wound Effects. The effect of the vital wound lasts until you remove that vital wound. The effects of vital wounds stack with each other, even if you roll the same effect twice for different vital wounds.

Vital Rolls

To make a vital roll, roll 1d10 – the number of vital wounds you already had, ignoring the vital wound you are rolling for. This includes vital wounds that have no specific vital wound effect. The result determines the effect of the vital wound, as listed in Table 2.2: Vital Wound Effects (page 12). Vital wound effects from vital rolls below 1 are lethal if untreated, but the Medicine skill can be used to prevent you from dying (see Medicine, page 134).

Delaying Death: Vital wounds with a vital roll below 1 can kill you. While you are dying in this way, if you receive healing that causes you to regain hit points, you delay your death by one round. This benefit applies even if you are already at full hit points. You cannot delay your death in this way by more than 5 rounds.

Removing Vital Wounds

Vital wounds take time to heal. Whenever you take a long rest, you remove one of your vital wounds. If you have multiple vital wounds, the vital wounds heal in order from highest vital roll to lowest vital roll.

Damage Types

All damage falls into one of two categories: energy damage or physical damage. Physical damage is the most common type of damage. Energy damage is usually caused by magical effects.

Table 2.2: Vital Wound Effects

Vital Roll	Effect
–6 or less	You immediately die
–1–5	You are unconscious, and you die at the end of the next round
0	You are unconscious, and you die after one minute
1	You are unconscious while you have less than full hit points
2	Your maximum hit points and damage resistance is halved
3	You take a –2 penalty to accuracy
4	You take a –2 penalty to all defenses
5	You take a –1 penalty to future vital rolls
6	You move at half speed while you have less than full hit points
7	Your maximum damage resistance are halved
8	You take a –1 penalty to accuracy
9	You take a –1 penalty to all defenses
10 or more	No extra vital wound effect

Damage Subtypes

Physical damage has three subtypes: bludgeoning damage, piercing damage, and slashing damage. Energy damage has five subtypes: acid damage, cold damage, electricity damage, fire damage, and sonic damage. Damage of a particular subtype is also considered damage of its primary type. For example, if you are impervious to physical damage, that applies against bludgeoning damage because bludgeoning damage is a subtype of physical damage.

Some damage types have special properties, as described below.

Cold: Abilities that deal cold damage can freeze liquids and have similar effects appropriate to a sudden drop in temperature.

Electricity: Abilities that deal electricity damage can ignite nonmagical fires if they damage combustible objects.

Fire: Abilities that deal fire damage provide light equivalent to a torch for their duration. Abilities without a duration create a brief burst of torchlight. While underwater, they deal half damage and have no nondamaging effects.

Multiple Damage Types

Some attacks deal damage that has multiple damage types. Defensive abilities such as defense bonuses or damage immunities apply against an attack only if they apply to all damage types dealt by the attack.

Special Damage Types

These special damage types are separate from the standard damage types, like fire damage or energy damage.

Subdual Damage

Some attacks and environmental effects deal subdual damage. Subdual damage works in the same way as normal damage, except it cannot inflict vital wounds. If an attack that deals subdual damage would inflict a vital wound, the target increases its fatigue level by three instead. Whenever you make a strike, you can choose to deal subdual damage instead of normal damage. If you do, you deal half damage with the strike.

Environmental Damage

Some abilities and environmental effects deal environmental damage. Environmental damage is never dealt as the result of a successful attack roll. Environmental damage works in the same way as normal damage, except that environmental damage is reduced by your damage resistance without subtracting from its remaining value. Any environmental damage in excess of a creature's damage resistance is causes the creature to lose hit points just like normal damage.

It is possible for damage to be both environmental damage and subdual damage.

Movement and Positioning

This section describes how creatures move and position themselves on a battlefield.

Measuring Movement

For simplicity, all movement in combat is measured in five-foot increments. While it is possible to be more precise than that, it's generally not worth the complexity.

Squares: Area is commonly measured in 5-ft. by 5-ft. spaces called squares. A single square represents the area occupied by a single humanoid creature in combat. Sometimes, movement and distance are represented by the number of squares travelled. A 30-ft. movement is the same thing as moving six squares.

Diagonals: When measuring distance, the first diagonal counts as five feet of movement, and the second counts as ten feet of movement. The third costs five feet, the fourth costs ten feet, and so on. You can move diagonally past corners and enemies.

Movement Abilities

Almost all creatures can use these abilities to move around a battlefield. Many movement abilities are reactive, allowing you to move automatically in response to the movement of other creatures. For example, you can try to follow a creature wherever it goes that round. In all cases, if you run out of movement speed before accomplishing your intended task, you simply stop where you ran out of movement.

The most common types of reactive movements are the block, follow, and withdraw abilities, which are described below. However, you can come up with other reactive movements. The only requirement is that a reactive movement must have a simple criteria for determining how you move.

Hustle: As a move action, you can use the hustle ability to move. This is the most common movement ability.

Hustle

Instant

Choose a path that you want to travel. You travel that path, up to the limit of your movement speed.

Block: As a move action, you can use the block ability to prevent a creature from entering a particular area.

Block

Instant

Choose a creature to block, and the area you want to block it from entering. During the current phase, you automatically move to intercept the target as it approaches the blocked area, up to the limit of your movement speed. Usually, blocking a target requires an opposed initiative check against the target. Success means you successfully keep ahead of the target as it moves, preventing it from entering the area (unless it can move through you). Failure means the target moves around you (if there is room) to enter the area.

Multiple creatures can coordinate to block a single creature. The blocked creature must beat the initiative of all blocking creatures to enter the blocked area.

Follow: As a move action, you can use the follow ability to follow a creature as it moves.

Follow

Instant

Choose a creature to follow, and the maximum distance you want to follow at. During the current phase, you automatically move such that your distance to the target is no greater than your desired follow distance, up to the limit of your movement speed. If the target uses an ability that makes it impossible for you to follow its movement, such as teleporting or disappearing from your sight, you stop moving when you become adjacent to the position where it used that ability.

Withdraw: As a move action, you can use the withdraw ability to keep away from creatures as they move.

Withdraw

Instant

This ability functions like the follow ability, except that you specify a minimum distance between you and the target instead of a maximum distance. In addition, you can specify multiple targets and try to keep away from all of them.

Movement Impediments

Difficult Terrain: Some terrain is hard to move through, like thick bushes or a swamp. If a square is difficult terrain, it doubles the movement cost required to move out of the square.

That generally means it takes ten feet of movement, or fifteen feet if you are moving diagonally.

If a square is considered difficult terrain for multiple reasons, the cost increases stack. For example, a square in a swamp that also has thick bushes blocking your passage would take twenty feet of movement, or thirty feet to move diagonally.

Obstacles: An obstacle is anything that gets in your way. Enemies and large solid objects like walls completely block your movement. If you can get past an obstacle, like a low wall, that square is treated as difficult terrain. Some obstacles require a check to bypass, such as an Balance check (see Balance, page 120).

Squeezing: In some cases, you may have to squeeze into or through an area that isn't as wide as the space you take up. You can squeeze through or into a space that is at least half as wide as your normal space. While squeezing (-2 accuracy, Armor, and Ref), you move at half speed, and you take a -2 penalty to accuracy, as well as Armor and Reflex defenses. You can squeeze into tighter spaces with the Flexibility skill.

Creatures that take up multiple squares take up half their normal number of squares while squeezing. For example, a Large creature who normally takes up four spaces takes up two spaces while squeezing.

Accidentally Squeezing: Sometimes a character ends its movement while moving through a space where it's not normally allowed to stop. When that happens, the character is squeezing in the space until it can move. If squeezing is impossible, the creature immediately moves to the closest available space. Try not to do this.

Undergrowth: Vines, roots, bushes, and similar plants that can obstruct movement are common in forested areas. These small plants can impede movement in large quantities. There are two kinds of undergrowth: light undergrowth and heavy undergrowth.

Light Undergrowth: Light undergrowth provides concealment and is difficult terrain.

Heavy Undergrowth: Heavy undergrowth provides concealment and is doubly difficult terrain, which quadruples the movement cost required to move out of each square. In addition, using the charge and sprint actions is impossible in heavy undergrowth (see Movement Abilities, page 13, and Special Combat Abilities, page 27).

Movement Modes

A movement mode is a method of moving from one location to another. The most common movement mode is a land speed, which allows creatures to move across the ground. Unless otherwise noted, all creatures have a land speed equal to the base speed for their size (see Movement Modes, page 14). In addition, some abilities grant creatures the ability to move in unusual ways. These forms of movement are described here.

Burrowing: A creature with a burrow speed can move through the ground at the indicated speed in any direction, even vertically.

Unless otherwise noted, the creature can only burrow through dirt and loose earth, not rock or harder substances. It does not leave behind a usable tunnel for other creatures.

Climbing: A creature with a climb speed can move a distance equal to its climb speed with a successful Climb check (see Climb, page 122). In addition, it gains a +10 bonus to any Climb checks it makes.

Flying: A creature with a fly speed can fly through the air at the indicated speed. Flying is more complicated than some other movement speeds. For details, see Flying Mechanics, page 14.

Gliding: A creature with a glide speed can glide through the air at the indicated speed. It must not be carrying weight in excess of its maximum carrying capacity (see Weight Limits, page 374). Whenever a creature glides, it takes a -2 penalty to Armor and Reflex defenses until the end of the round.

While in the air, a creature with a glide speed can control its fall as a move action. This allows it to move up to its speed horizontally in a direction of its choice while moving only five feet down. If it desires, it can move half as far horizontally and fall down twice as fast. It takes no falling damage if it touches the ground while gliding.

Land: A creature with a land speed can move across the ground at the indicated speed. Most creatures have a land speed.

Flying Mechanics

A creature with a fly speed cannot fly while it is carrying weight in excess of its maximum carrying capacity (see Weight Limits, page 374). In addition, it cannot fly while it has encumbrance.

Maximum Height: Some abilities that grant a fly speed also have a height limit for the maximum height you can reach with that fly speed. This height measures your maximum distance directly above an object at least two size categories larger than you that is free-standing and capable of supporting your weight. You can fly above surfaces like water as long as they are thick enough to support your weight.

Falling: If a flying creature loses control, usually by failing to maintain its minimum forward speed, or loses the ability to fly, it falls just like any other creature would in midair. As long as it still has the ability to fly, it can regain control of its fall as a standard action, causing it to resume flying normally.

Flying Maneuverability

Each creature with a fly speed also has a maneuverability: good, average, or poor. Unless otherwise specified, a creature with a fly speed has average maneuverability.

Good Maneuverability:

- Minimum speed: The creature does not need to move forward to maintain its flight, allowing it to hover.
- Turning: The creature can turn in place without spending movement.
- Vertical movement: The creature can move up or down at the same speed as it moves horizontally.

Average Maneuverability:

- Defense penalties: Whenever the creature flies, it takes a -2 penalty to Armor and Reflex defenses until the end of the round. This is a Swift effect, so it affects attacks made against the creature during the phase that it flies.
- Minimum speed: The creature must move forward by at least half its fly speed each round. If it does not, it falls.
- Turning: Turning by 90 degrees costs 5 feet of movement, and the creature can't turn in the same place by more than 90 degrees.
- Vertical movement: The creature can move up by only one square vertically per square traveled horizontally, but it can fly directly down if it chooses. The creature can fly up at half speed, but can fly down twice as fast.

Poor Maneuverability:

- Defense penalties: Whenever the creature flies, it takes a -4 penalty to Armor and Reflex defenses until the end of the round. This is a Swift effect, so it affects attacks made against the creature during the phase that it flies.
- Minimum speed: The creature must move forward by at least half its fly speed each round. If it does not, it falls.
- Turning: Turning by 45 degrees costs 5 feet of movement, and the creature can't turn in the same place by more than 45 degrees.
- Vertical movement: The creature can move up or down by only one square vertically per square traveled horizontally. The creature can fly up at half speed, but can fly down twice as fast.

Forced Movement

Some abilities can physically move you against your will. Effects that limit movement speed, such as difficult terrain, similarly limit the distance you can be moved by forced movement effects. There are two kinds of forced movement: push effects and knockback effects. Unless otherwise noted, all forced movement effects move the target in a single straight horizontal line.

Push Effects

A creature affected by a push effect is being pushed by a constant force. If it encounters another creature or a solid obstacle during the movement, the forced movement effect ends without causing additional harm to the creature or the obstacle. Similarly, if a creature being pushed stops being supported and would fall, it falls instead of being pushed further. This can allow creatures pushed off the edge of a cliff to grab the edge of the cliff.

Knockback Effects

A creature affected by a knockback effect is thrown backwards by a single point of impact. If it encounters another creature or a solid obstacle during the movement, it and the obstacle each take 1d6 damage per 10 feet of movement remaining. A creature moving as a result of a knockback effect does not have to be supported during the movement by solid ground. This can allow you to knockback creatures off of cliffs without allowing them to save themselves.

Ability Mechanics

Magical and Mundane Abilities

There are two types of abilities: magical abilities and mundane abilities.

Magical Abilities: A magical ability is an ability fundamentally composed of or fuelled by magic. Magical abilities often have effects that would be impossible without magical intervention. Examples include spells, a dragon's breath weapon, and a paladin's ability to smite foes. Abilities that are magical in nature are indicated with a (Magical) indicator. Abilities that are not magical are mundane.

Mundane Abilities: A mundane ability has some form of natural explanation and does not fundamentally originate from a magical source. Examples include weapon attacks, a dragon's frightful presence, and a barbarian's rage. Mundane attacks often target Armor defense. Unless otherwise indicated, all abilities are mundane in nature. Abilities that are not mundane are magical.

Targets

Almost all abilities affect targets. A target of an ability is a creature directly affected by the ability in some way. Many abilities affect targets within a specific range.

Targeted Abilities

Some abilities allow you to choose specific targets. There can be restrictions on the targets of the ability, such as "a creature or object" or "an ally". These abilities are called targeted abilities.

Area Abilities

Some abilities affect all valid targets within a given area. There can be restrictions on the targets of the ability, such as "all creatures" or "all enemies". However, you cannot individually choose to include or exclude specific targets. These abilities are not targeted abilities.

Invalid Targets

You can always attempt to use an ability on an invalid target. If the target is still invalid when the ability resolves, the ability automatically fails and has no effect on the target.

Range

Many abilities can only affect targets or areas within a given range of you. For abilities that affect specific targets, all targets must be within the range. For abilities that affect an area within a range, the area's point of origin must be within the range (see Point of Origin, page 16). There are five common ranges: Short (30 ft.), Medium (60 ft.), Long (120 ft.), Distant (240 ft.), and Extreme (480 ft.). Unless otherwise noted, all abilities with a range require both line of sight and line of effect to the point of origin or to all targets.

Line of Sight

Almost all abilities, including strikes, must have line of sight to target creatures or objects. Unless otherwise noted in an ability's description, you cannot target a creature, object, or location that you do not have line of effect to.

A line of sight is a straight, unblocked path between you and a target. To check if you have line of sight, find a path from any corner of one square within your space to any two corners of one square within the space of your target. If those lines are not blocked by any obstacles that impede sight, you have line of sight to your target.

Line of Effect

Almost all abilities, including strikes, must have a line of effect to function. Unless otherwise noted in an ability's description, you cannot target a creature, object, or location that you do not have line of effect to. In addition, abilities that affect an area do not affect targets that the ability does not have line of effect to.

A line of effect is a straight, unblocked path between you and a target. It is identified in the same way as line of sight, except that it is blocked by physical obstacles instead of obstacles that block sight. For example, a pane of glass would block line of effect, but not line of sight.

Area Line of Effect

Abilities that affect areas normally measure line of effect from the area's point of origin. This can allow you to affect targets that you do not have line of effect to as long as the point of origin has line of effect to both you and the target.

Areas originating from creatures do not have a single point of origin. Instead, line of effect is measured from all grid intersections within or touching the creature's space. If any such grid intersection has line of effect to a location, the area as a whole is considered to have line of effect to that location.

Destroying Barriers

Some abilities deal damage to both creatures and objects. If a physical barrier is broken by an ability, that barrier does not affect the ability's line of effect. For example, a thin curtain of silk normally blocks line of effect. However, an ability that destroyed the curtain would have its full effect on everything behind the curtain.

Inside Creatures

Creatures block line of effect to the inside of their own bodies. As a result, you cannot use an ability that takes effect inside a creature unless you are also inside the creature. This restriction applies even if there is no physical barrier to the inside of the creature. You cannot place point of origin for an area inside a creature's mouth, even if the creature has its mouth open at the time.

Area

Some abilities affect targets within an area. All areas have a point of origin, an area shape, a measurement of their size in feet, and an area type.

Point of Origin

When you use an ability that affects an area within a range, you choose one grid intersection to serve as a starting point for the area. This grid intersection is called the point of origin for the area. Areas that originate from a creature do not have a single point of origin. For the purpose of effects that care about the area's point of origin, all grid intersections within or touching the creature's space are used.

Area Shapes

Cone: A cone extends from the point of origin in a quarter-hemisphere, up to the given length. A square is affected by a cone if it is within the cone's 90 degree arc and all of the square's points of intersection are no more than the cone's length away from the cone's point of origin.

Cylinder: A cylinder extends out from the point of origin in a circle, up to the given radius. Cylinders also have a specific height. Unless otherwise specified, a cylinder's height is the same as its radius. Cylinders ignore obstacles that partially block line of effect, as long as there is a path around the obstacle that lies entirely within the ability's area.

Line: A line extends from the point of origin in a straight line, up to the given length. Lines also have a specific width and height. Unless otherwise specified, a line-shaped ability affects an area 5 feet wide and 5 feet high. The affected squares are chosen such that they stay close to the chosen line as possible. All squares affected by a line must be contiguous, so every square is adjacent to another affected square, disregarding diagonals.

Sphere: A sphere extends from the point of origin in all directions. Any ability which only specifies a radius for its area is sphere-shaped.

Wall: A wall is like a line, except that its width is not defined in squares. In a narrative sense, most walls have a defined width. However, in a mechanical sense, walls are considered to have no width and simply occupy the boundary between squares. Like lines, walls can be shapeable.

Walls can normally be created within occupied squares, but not within solid objects. Some walls are called solid walls, and cannot be created within occupied squares.

Specific Shapes: Some abilities specify a series of volumes that make up the area of the ability. Most commonly, the volumes are cubes. You may arrange the volumes as you want, with the restriction that each volume in the ability's area must be adjacent to one other volume in the ability's area.

Area Size

The area affected by many abilities falls into one of six sizes. Each size defines the extent to which the ability extends out from its origin, whether as a radius or as a length. Many abilities have specific sizes, as given in the ability description.

Tiny: Tiny areas extend 5 feet from their point of origin.

Small: Small areas extend 15 feet from their point of origin.

Medium: Medium areas extend 30 feet from their point of origin.

Large: Large areas extend 60 feet from their point of origin.

Huge: Huge areas extend 120 feet from their point of origin.

Gargantuan: Gargantuan areas extend 240 feet from their point of origin.

Area Types

Burst: A burst ability has an immediate effect on all valid targets within an area.

Emanation: An emanation ability has effects within an area for the duration of the ability. It emanates from a specific creature or object, rather than a location. If that creature or object moves, the emanation moves with it.

Zone: A zone ability has effects within an area for the duration of the ability. Unless otherwise noted, it does not move after being created.

When casting an area ability, you select the point where the ability originates. The point of origin of a ability is always a grid intersection. When determining whether a given creature is within the area of a ability, count out the distance from the point of origin in squares just as you do when moving a character or when determining the range for a ranged attack. The only difference is that instead of counting from the center of one square to the center of the next, you count from intersection to intersection.

You can freely decrease a ability's area, provided that you decrease it uniformly across all of the ability's dimensions. For example, you can cast a fireball spell that affects a 5 foot radius if you choose to do so, but you can't cast a fireball with any shape other than a sphere.

You can count diagonally across a square, but remember that every second diagonal counts as 2 squares of distance. If the far edge of a square is within the ability's area, anything within that square is within the ability's area. If the ability's area only touches the near edge of a square, however, anything within that square is unaffected by the ability.

Ability Durations

An ability's duration determines how long its effect lasts. Abilities can have one of several different kinds of durations.

Conditions

Many abilities impose conditions on their targets. A condition lasts until it is removed. You can remove conditions by taking a short rest or using the recover ability (see Recover, page 28). There are several other abilities that can also remove conditions.

Attunement

Many abilities last as long as a creature attunes to them. Attuning to an ability costs an attunement point. As long as you remain attuned to that ability, you cannot recover that attunement point by any means. After you stop being attuned to that ability, you can recover that attunement point when you take your next short rest.

As a free action, you can use the release attunement ability to stop being attuned an ability you have attuned to.

Release Attunement

Instant

You stop being attuned to one effect you have attuned to.

Attuned abilities continue to work across any distance, but not across planar boundaries. At the end of each round, your attunement to all abilities created by creatures on a different plane than your current plane ends. Planar travel that does not last a full round, such as teleportation within a plane, does not interrupt your attunement.

Attunement Types

There are three types of attunement abilities: self, target, and ritual.

Attune (self): A self attunement ability requires the creature using the ability to attune to the effect.

Attune (target): A target attunement ability requires the target of the ability to attune to the effect. If the ability targets multiple creatures, each creature must attune to the ability independently.

As a special case, if a target attunement ability targets an inanimate object, the creature using the ability must attune to the effect.

Attune (ritual): Only rituals have the Attune (ritual) tag. A ritual attunement ability requires any participant in the ritual to attune to the effect. In addition, ritual attunement abilities are not subject to the normal restrictions on multiple attunement. You can maintain any number of activations of a particular ritual attunement ability at once.

Multiple Attunement

You can attune to multiple Attune (target) and Attune (self) abilities, and multiple creatures can attune to different uses of abilitytag same Attune (target) ability you have. However, you cannot attune to the same ability more than once, regardless of whether it is Attune (self) or Attune (target).

Sustained Abilities

Some abilities last as long as you take an action to sustain them each round. The type of action required is always specified in the ability's tag, such as "Sustain (standard)" for a standard action, or in the ability's description. At the end of each round, the ability is dismissed unless you initiated the ability that round or took the action to sustain the ability that round. Taking an action to sustain an ability is not a Focus ability, even if the ability itself has the Focus tag.

If a sustained ability has effects that trigger at the end of the round, it ends before having its effects if you fail to sustain the ability.

Taking an action to sustain an ability only allows you to sustain a single use of that ability. However, you can sustain multiple separate abilities at once if you have available actions.

You can normally only sustain an ability for up to 5 minutes. After that time, the ability's effect is dismissed.

Permanent

Some abilities last permanently. Such abilities never expire on their own, but can be dismissed or removed by other abilities appropriately.

Targeting and Durations

If an ability targets creatures or objects directly, the effects travel with the targets for the ability's duration. If an ability creates or summons objects or creatures, they last for the duration of the ability, and are capable of moving outside the ability's initial range. Such effects can sometimes be destroyed prior to when their duration ends.

Combining Effects

Abilities do not generally affect the way another abilities function. However, sometimes multiple effects can be in conflict on a creature. If one effect makes another effect irrelevant or impossible, the latter effect is ignored. If two effects both conflict with each other, the most recent effect takes precedence, and the other is ignored. Unless otherwise noted, two different uses of the same ability are always considered to be conflicting with each other.

All abilities will still have as much of their effect as possible. It is possible for an ability to be partially effective in this way.

Suppressing Abilities

Abilities can be suppressed by effects such as the suppress magic spell. While an ability is suppressed, it has no effect. However, if it stops being suppressed, its effects continue as if they had not been interrupted.

Ability Tags

Many abilities have tags that describe the nature of the ability. Many of these tags have no game effect by themselves, but they govern how the ability interacts with spells, other abilities, unusual creatures, and so on. For a list of ability tags, see Ability Tags, page 391.

Attributes

Each character has six attributes: Strength (Str), Dexterity (Dex), Constitution (Con), Intelligence (Int), Perception (Per), and Willpower (Wil). Each attribute represents a character's raw talent in that area. A 0 in an attribute represents average human capacity. That doesn't mean that every commoner has a 0 in every attribute; not everyone is average, after all.

Attribute Descriptions

Strength (Str): Strength measures your muscle and physical power. It has the following effects:

- Strength determines how much you can carry (see Table 11.2: Weight Limits by Strength (page 374)).
- You gain a bonus (or penalty) to your power with mundane abilities, such as normal weapon attacks, equal to half your Strength (see Power, page 21).
- You reduce your total encumbrance from armor by an amount equal to your base Strength (see Encumbrance, page 22).
- You gain a bonus (or penalty) to your fatigue tolerance equal to your base Strength (see Fatigue, page 20).
- You apply your base Strength as a bonus or penalty to Strength-based skills: Climb, Jump, and Swim (see Skills, page 116).
- If your base Strength is at least 3, you are trained with your Strength-based class skills (see Class Skills, page 116).

Dexterity (Dex): Dexterity measures your hand-eye coordination, agility, and reflexes. It has the following effects:

- You gain a bonus (or penalty) to your Reflex defense equal to your base Dexterity.
- You gain a bonus (or penalty) to your Armor defense equal to your base Dexterity. This bonus can be reduced if you wear medium or heavy armor (see Table 9.5: Armor and Shields (page 324)).
- You apply your base Dexterity as a bonus or penalty to Dexterity-based skills: Balance, Flexibility, Ride, Sleight of Hand, and Stealth (see Skills, page 116).
- If your base Dexterity is at least 3, you are automatically trained with your Dexterity-based class skills (see Class Skills, page 116).

Constitution (Con): Constitution represents your health and stamina. It has the following effects:

- You gain a bonus (or penalty) to your hit points equal to your Constitution.
- You gain a bonus (or penalty) to your damage resistance equal to half your Constitution (see Damage Resistance, page 22).
- You gain a bonus (or penalty) to your Fortitude defense equal to your base Constitution.
- You gain a bonus (or penalty) to your Armor defense equal to half your base Constitution.
- You apply your base Constitution as a bonus or penalty to the Constitution-based skill: Endurance (see Skills, page 116).
- If your base Constitution is at least 3, you are automatically trained with your Constitution-based class skills (see Class Skills, page 116).

Intelligence (Int): Intelligence represents how well you learn and reason. It has the following effects:

- You gain a bonus (or penalty) to skill points equal to twice your base Intelligence (see Skill Points, page 21).

- You gain a bonus (or penalty) to insight points equal to your base Intelligence (see Insight Points, page 21).
- You apply your base Intelligence as a bonus or penalty to Intelligence-based skills: Craft, Deduction, Disguise, Knowledge, Linguistics, and Medicine (see Skills, page 116).
- If your base Intelligence is at least 3, you are automatically trained with your Intelligence-based class skills (see Class Skills, page 116).

An animal has an Intelligence score of –6 or lower. A creature of humanlike intelligence has a score of at least a –5 Intelligence.

Perception (Per): Perception describes your ability to observe and be aware of your surroundings. It has the following effects:

- You apply your Perception as a bonus or penalty to Perception-based skills: Awareness, Creature Handling, Social Insight, Spellsense, and Survival (see Skills, page 116).
- If your base Perception is at least 3, you are automatically trained with your Perception-based class skills (see Class Skills, page 116).
- If your Perception is negative, you take a accuracy penalty with all attacks equal to half your Perception.
- You apply half your base Perception as a bonus or penalty to accuracy with all attacks (see Accuracy, page 21).

Willpower (Wil): Willpower represents your ability to endure mental hardships. It has the following effects:

- You gain a bonus (or penalty) to your power with magical abilities, such as spells, equal to half your Willpower (see Power, page 21).
- You gain a bonus (or penalty) to your Mental defense equal to your base Willpower.
- You gain a bonus (or penalty) to your fatigue tolerance equal to your base Willpower (see Fatigue, page 20).

Base Attributes

Most statistics depend on your base attributes, rather than your total attributes. Your attributes automatically increase with level as defined in Table 2.3: Increasing Attributes With Level (page 19), but your base attributes do not automatically increase with level.

A small number of abilities can increase your base attributes after 1st level. If you change a base attribute, the total value for that attribute changes appropriately.

Determining Attributes

There are several options for how to determine attribute scores.

Predefined Attribute Scores

This is the simplest method. Simply take the following set of attribute scores and distribute them as you choose among your attributes:

Table 2.3: Increasing Attributes With Level

Base Attribute	Bonus
0 or lower	0
1	+1 at 4th level and every 4 levels thereafter
2	+1 at every even level
3	+1 per level after 1st
4	+1 per level after 1st, and an additional +1 at every even level
5	+2 per level after 1st
6	+2 per level after 1st, and an additional +1 at every even level

3, 2, 2, 1, 1, 0

This set of attribute scores is called the “elite array”. For more extreme characters, you may use the “savant array”:

4, 2, 1, 1, 0, 0.

Finally, for more well-rounded characters, you may use the “balanced array”:

2, 2, 2, 2, 1, 1

Point Buy

With this method, you can fully control your attribute scores to match what you want to be able to do. All your attribute scores start at 0. You get 10 points to distribute among your attributes. Attributes can be bought according to the costs on Table 2.4: Attribute Score Point Costs. The listed cost is the total cost required to gain the listed base attribute. You are 1st level when you start, which adds appropriately to your total attribute score.

Table 2.4: Attribute Score Point Costs

Base Attribute Score	Total Attribute Score	Cumulative Point Cost
1	1 + one quarter level	1
2	1 + half level	2
3	2 + level	4
4	3 + one and a half times level	6
5	3 + twice level	—
6	4 + two and a half times level	—

Attribute Penalties

Regardless of how you determine your attributes, you can voluntarily take penalties to your attributes. If you reduce an attribute to a total of –1, you gain an additional skill point. If you reduce an attribute to a total of –2, you instead gain an additional insight point. You cannot gain these benefits from reducing more than two attributes below 0 in this way.

Extraordinary Attributes

Some abilities can increase your base attributes above 4. For each point of base attribute beyond 4, you increase your current attribute by half your level.

For example, a 20th level half-orc cleric with the Strength domain who spent 6 points on their base Strength would have a total base Strength of 6. Their total Strength would be equal to 4 + two and a half times their level, for a total of 54.

Resources

Characters have many resources that they can expend. Insight points and skill points are spent during the character creation and leveling process, while all other resources are spent throughout the in-game time. Many resources can be regained by resting (see Resting, page 30).

Attunement Points

You can use attunement points to attune to effects such as spells or items (see Attunement, page 17). Abilities that require attunement have the Attune tag (see Ability Tags, page 391).

Your class gives you a certain number of attunement points. At higher levels, you gain additional attunement points (see Character Advancement, page 34). A small number of abilities can also grant additional attunement points.

When you take a short rest, you recover all attunement points that you released from attuned effects. For details, see Resting, page 30.

Fatigue

Throughout the day, you can become fatigued by your exertions both in and out of combat. While hit points are easy to restore, reducing your fatigue level generally requires a long rest. Fatigue is still easier to recover from than vital wounds.

Fatigue Level

Your fatigue level measures how fatigued you are. A number of abilities and attacks can cause you to increase your fatigue level. The most common abilities that increase your fatigue level are the desperate exertion, recover, and sprint abilities. All of those abilities are described in Universal Abilities, page 26.

Fatigue Tolerance

Becoming slightly fatigued is not immediately detrimental. Your fatigue level can be as high as your base Strength + your base Willpower without suffering any consequences (minimum 0). This value is called your fatigue tolerance. Your class gives you a bonus to your fatigue tolerance, and some abilities can also modify it.

Fatigue Penalty

You take a penalty to accuracy and checks equal your fatigue level – your fatigue tolerance. This penalty is called your fatigue penalty.

Exhaustion

When your fatigue penalty reaches –5, you fall unconscious until your fatigue penalty is reduced below –5. Generally, this means that you are unconscious for 8 hours.

Recovering From Fatigue

When you take a long rest, your fatigue level is restored to 0.

Hit Points

Your hit points measure how hard you are to seriously injure or kill. Whenever you take damage that is not prevented by your damage resistance, you lose that many hit points (see Damage, page 11). When you run out of hit points, you start gaining vital wounds instead (see Reaching Zero Hit Points, page 20).

The number of hit points you have is based on your level, as defined in Table 2.8: Character Advancement (page 34). In addition, each creature gains a bonus (or penalty) to its hit points equal to its Constitution. Some special abilities can give you additional hit points.

Reaching Zero Hit Points: At the end of each phase, if you took damage in excess of your remaining hit points during that phase, you gain a vital wound and your hit points are set to 0. Damage you take at the end of the round is considered to be part of the delayed action phase for this purpose. If the combined excess damage you suffered from all sources in a given phase is greater than half your maximum hit points, you gain an additional vital wound. You gain an additional vital wound for each increment of half your maximum hit points that you take in excess damage.

What Hit Points Represent: Hit points represent a combination of durability, luck, divine providence, and sheer determination, depending on the nature of the creature being damaged. When lose a single hit point from an orc with a greataxe, the axe did not literally carve into your skin without affecting your ability to fight. Instead, you avoided the worst of the blow, but it bruised you through your armor, the effort to dodge the blow fatigued you, or it barely nicked you through sheer luck – and everyone's luck runs out eventually.

Regaining Hit Points and Damage Resistance

Some abilities cause you to regain lost hit points or damage resistance. For example, the recover ability allows you to regain all of your lost hit points (see Recover, page 28). You can't normally exceed your maximum hit points or maximum damage resistance, even with magical abilities.

Timing: If you regain hit points and lose hit points in the same phase, the two values offset before checking other effects or limitations on the healing or damage. The same applies to regaining and losing damage resistance. For example, if you were at five hit point and both regained six hit points and lost six hit points simultaneously, you would not receive a vital wound for dropping below 0 hit points. Instead, you would simply be at one hit point after both the healing and damage were applied. Similarly, if you were at your maximum hit points and both regained and lost two hit points simultaneously, you would still be at your maximum hit points.

Insight Points

You can spend insight points to gain new special abilities or to learn new proficiencies. Your class gives you a certain number of insight points, and you gain a bonus (or penalty) to that number of insight points equal to your base Intelligence. Some abilities can also grant insight points.

Any character can spend insight points in any of the following ways.

- You can spend two insight points to become a multiclass character (see Multiclass Characters, page 37).
- You can spend an insight point to gain two skill points.
- You can spend an insight point to gain proficiency in an additional usage class of armor (light, medium, or heavy). You must be proficient with light armor to become proficient with medium armor, and you must be proficient with medium armor to become proficient with heavy armor.
- You can spend an insight point to gain proficiency in an additional weapon group.
- You can spend two insight points to gain proficiency with exotic weapons from a single weapon group you are already proficient with.
- You can spend an insight point learn two common languages or one rare language (see Communication and Languages, page 376).

In addition, every class has at least one way to spend insight points to learn additional abilities.

Skill Points

You can spend skill points to gain training in skills (see Skills, page 116). Your class gives you a certain number of skill points, and you gain a bonus (or penalty) to that number of skill points equal to twice your base Intelligence. You can spend insight points to gain skill points at a rate of two skill points per insight point (see Insight Points, page 21). In addition, some abilities can grant additional skill points.

Skill Training

There are three levels of training in skills, described below. Acquiring more training in a skill costs more skill points.

- Untrained Becoming untrained in a skill costs no skill points. You are untrained in all skills by default. Being untrained in a skill grants no bonus to the skill.
- Trained Becoming trained in a skill costs one skill point. In addition, if the base value for one of your attributes is at least 3, you become trained in all of your class skills associated with that attribute. Being trained in a skill gives you a bonus with the skill equal to 2 + half your level.
- Mastered Mastering a skill costs three skill points, or two skill points if the skill is a class skill for you. Being mastered in a skill gives you a bonus with the skill equal to 3 + your level.

Character Statistics

This section explains how character statistics, such as how strong you are or how accurate your attacks are, should be calculated.

Accuracy

Your accuracy with an attack is the number that you add to the attack roll. Your accuracy with an attack is normally equal to your level + half your base Perception. In addition to this base number, your accuracy can include any number of bonuses and penalties from other sources.

Proficiency: Each creature is proficient with a number of weapons. For details about the weapons you can be proficient with, see Weapons, page 313. Your proficiencies are primarily determined by your class, but some abilities also grant proficiency with additional weapons. If you make an attack with a weapon you are not proficient with, you take a -2 accuracy penalty.

Power

Your power with an ability is a general measure of how strong the ability's effect is. Many abilities have stronger effects depending on your power, but not all. Your power with an ability normally depends on whether it is magical or mundane. Some abilities specify an unusual method of determining your power with them in their descriptions.

Magical Abilities: Your power with magical abilities is normally equal to half your Willpower.

Mundane Abilities: Your power with mundane abilities is normally equal to half your Strength.

Defenses

Usually, when you are attacked, the attacker has to make an attack roll against a specific defense. If the attack roll is at least as high as that defense, the attack succeeds.

- Armor defense (AD): Your Armor defense protects you from normal physical attacks, such as attempts to hit you with a sword. It is the most commonly used defense.
- Reflex defense: Your Reflex protects you from physical attacks that armor does not help against, such as pit traps or bolts of lightning.
- Fortitude defense: Your Fortitude defense protects you from attacks you have to physically endure or resist, such as poisons and deadly spells.
- Mental defense: Your Mental defense protects you from attacks you have to mentally endure or resist, such as terrifying creatures and magical manipulation.

Defense Values

Your defenses are calculated in the following way:

- Armor: Level + base Dexterity (modified depending on equipped armor) + half base Constitution + class defense bonus + defense bonuses from equipped body armor and shield

- Fortitude: Level + base Constitution + class defense bonus
- Reflex: Level + base Dexterity + class defense bonus
- Mental: Level + base Willpower + class defense bonus

In addition to the normal calculation, each defense may have additional bonuses or penalties applied by various abilities.

Class Bonuses: Each class provides bonuses to some combination of Armor, Fortitude, Reflex, and Mental defenses.

Natural Armor: Creatures with unusually tough skin or thick hide, including most monsters, gain bonuses to their Armor defense. These bonuses stack with any armor such creatures might wear.

Resisting Attacks

If an attack fails against you, you almost always suffer no effects from the attack. Even if the attack had no obvious physical or visual effects, a creature that resists an attack still feels a hostile force or a tingle, but cannot usually deduce the exact nature of the attack. The Spell sense skill can be used to learn about failed magical attacks against you (see Spell sense, page 140).

Lowering Defenses: When you are subject to an attack that you are aware of, you can voluntarily lower your defenses against the attack. If you do, your defense is treated as 0 against the attack.

Encumbrance

Your encumbrance is a value that represents how much you are burdened by armor and weight. You apply your encumbrance as a penalty to all Strength and Dexterity-based checks you make. You can increase your encumbrance by wearing armor. In addition, you reduce your total encumbrance from armor by an amount equal to your base Strength, to a minimum of 0. You apply this reduction to the total encumbrance applied by both your body armor and your shield, not individually for each piece of armor. Most shields do not cause encumbrance, so this only matters for tower shields.

Resting in armor is difficult. If you take a long rest while you have any encumbrance, you finish your rest with a fatigue level equal to the value of your encumbrance. In addition, only half the time you spend sleeping while you have encumbrance counts as sleep for the purpose of determining your fatigue (see Sleep and Fatigue, page 33).

Initiative

When multiple creatures take mutually impossible actions simultaneously, such as racing to be the first one to a door, they must roll initiative checks. For details, see Conflicting Actions, page 10. Your initiative is normally equal to the your base Dexterity + your base Perception. In addition, some abilities grant you bonuses that specifically apply to initiative checks.

Movement-Based Initiative: When making initiative checks to determine the success of movement, having a faster movement speed is helpful (see Movement and Positioning, page 13). For every 5 feet of movement you would have available after completing your movement, you gain a +2 bonus to any initiative checks necessary to determine whether your movement succeeds. Regardless of whether your initiative check succeeds or fails, you cannot use that “excess” movement to move in the same phase after making such an initiative check.

Damage Resistance

Most creatures can resist some damage before they start losing hit points. Whenever you take damage, you first apply that damage to your damage resistance before applying it to your hit points. You reduce your remaining damage resistance by an amount equal to the damage you take. If the damage is less than your remaining damage resistance, you do not lose any hit points. If the damage is more than your remaining damage resistance, your damage resistance is reduced to 0 and you lose hit points equal to the excess damage.

Essentially, your damage resistance function like extra hit points that are always subtracted before you start losing actual hit points. Many attacks have specific consequences if you lose hit points from them, and your damage resistance can protect you from those consequences.

You restore your damage resistance to its full value whenever you take a short rest. Damage resistance cannot be restored by effects that cause creatures to regain hit points. Some specific special abilities can restore damage resistance.

The base value of your damage resistance is based on your level, as defined in Table 2.8: Character Advancement (page 34). In addition, all creatures gain a bonus to their damage resistance equal to half their Constitution. Body armor provides a bonus to damage resistance, and many special abilities also increase your damage resistance.

Noticing Damage Resistance: In general, it is impossible to determine whether a creature has damage resistance simply by observing them unless there are obvious visual cues like body armor. However, when a creature takes damage from an attack, an observer can determine the result of the attack with an Awareness check with a base difficulty rating of 10 (before applying the normal modifiers for distance, visibility, and so on). The creature dealing the damage gains a +10 bonus to this check. Success on this check allows an observer to distinguish between the following three possibilities:

- The creature resisted all damage from your attack.
- The creature resisted some damage from your attack, but also lost some hit points. This means that the target’s damage resistance was reduced to 0 during this phase.
- The creature did not resist any damage from your attack, and took all damage from the attack from their hit points.

Timing: If you take damage from multiple sources simultaneously, you apply your current damage resistance value against all of them equally for the purpose of determining whether any individual attack caused you to lose hit points. For example, if you have 5 damage resistance remaining, and you take 3 damage and 8 damage from different sources in the same round, only the 8 damage attack would be considered to have caused you to lose hit points. This is meaningful for determining the effects of attacks that have special effects if they specifically cause you to lose hit points.

Circumstances, Bonuses, and Penalties

Many effects can grant bonuses or penalties to actions you take.

Size in Combat

Your size affects your space and reach in combat, your speed with any movement modes that depend on your size category's base speed, your base attributes, and how noticeable you are (see Stealth, page 141). These effects are shown on Table 2.5: Size in Combat.

Space

A creature's space is the area its body occupies while fighting. All humanoid species take up a 5-ft. by 5-ft. space in combat, which is a single square. Normally, other creatures can't be in the space you occupy. Most creatures have a space significantly larger than the physical space their body occupies because they need room to maneuver in combat.

Reach

A creature's reach is the distance that its melee attacks can reach.

Base Speed

Each size category has a base speed that indicates how far creatures of that size category can generally move. Most movement modes use a speed equal to the base speed for a creature's size category. For details about other speeds, see Movement Modes, page 14.

Other Effects

A creature's size affects some additional skills and abilities. For example, larger creatures have a penalty to the Stealth skill (see Size and Stealth, page 141). The effects of unusual size are described in those skills and abilities. Unusually large or small creatures also have other special rules apply to them, as described below.

Very Small Creatures

Space: If a creature takes up less than a single square of space, you can fit multiple creatures in that square. Ignoring flight, you can fit four Small creatures in a square, twenty-five Tiny creatures, 100 Diminutive creatures, or 400 Fine creatures. If the creatures can fly, the number of creatures that can fit into a space increases drastically.

Reach: Creatures that take up less than 1 square of space typically have a natural reach of 0 feet, meaning they can't reach into adjacent squares. They must enter an opponent's square to attack in melee. You can attack into your own square if you need to, so you can attack such creatures normally.

If a creature without a natural reach uses a Long weapon, it gains no benefits or penalties (see Long Weapon, page 315).

Movement: Creatures two size categories smaller than you are not considered obstacles and do not hinder your movement.

Very Large Creatures

Space: Very large creatures take up multiple squares. Anything which affects a single square the creature occupies affects the creature.

Reach: Creatures that take up more than 1 square typically have a natural reach of 10 feet or more, meaning that they can reach targets even if they aren't in adjacent squares. Creatures with a large natural reach can attack anyone within their reach, including adjacent foes.

Creatures with a large natural reach using Long weapons can strike at up to double their natural reach but can't strike at their natural reach or less, just like Medium sized creatures (see Long Weapon, page 315).

Movement: Creatures two size categories larger than you are not considered obstacles and do not hinder your movement.

Immunities: Creatures at least two size categories larger than you are difficult to fight. You cannot get a critical hit with melee strikes against such creatures. If you can reach a vulnerable point on the creature, such as by flying, climbing on the creature, or knocking it prone, you can get critical hits normally.

Circumstantial Modifiers

Circumstances frequently modify your odds of success when making attacks and checks, or when defending yourself from attacks. There are two kinds of circumstantial modifiers. Circumstances that make you better or worse at your task give you a bonus or penalty to your attack or check. Circumstances that make the task easier or harder increase or decrease the difficulty rating of the task, or the defense of the attacked creature.

Most circumstances grant a +2 bonus or impose a -2 penalty. Extraordinary circumstances can potentially have greater modifiers. All circumstantial modifiers should be used at the discretion of the GM.

Being Surrounded

When you are being attacked by multiple foes at once, you are less able to defend yourself. If every space adjacent to you either contains an enemy or is adjacent to an enemy, you are surrounded. While surrounded, you take a -2 penalty to your Armor and Reflex defenses.

Cover

Cover represents any obstacle that physically prevents you from striking your target, such as a tree or intervening creature. A creature or object behind cover gains a +2 bonus to Armor defense. If an attack misses the Armor Defense of a creature or object behind cover by no more than the defense bonus provided by the cover, the attack is applied to the obstacle instead of to the intended target. In addition, a creature behind cover can hide (see Stealth, page 141).

Partial Obstacles: Many obstacles, such as trees and low walls, can provide cover without normally blocking line of sight or providing total cover. Unusually small creatures, or creatures who intentionally take cover behind such obstacles, may be able to gain total cover from them.

Improved Cover: Cover of the same type generally doesn't stack; a creature behind two trees is not substantially more protected than a creature behind a single tree. However, exceptionally well covered creatures, such as a creature behind an arrow slit in a castle, may gain a greater than normal benefit to defenses from cover.

Measuring Cover

When you make an attack, choose a single square within your space and a single target square within your target's space. If you are making a ranged attack, choose one corner of your space. If you are making a melee attack, choose any two corners of your square. These corners are called the points of origin for your attack. For the purpose of determining cover, your attack originates from your chosen points of origin and travels to the target square.

First, check if you can attack the target at all. For each point of origin of your attack, you must be able to draw two lines to any two corners of your attack's target square. These two lines must not overlap each other. In addition, each line must not be blocked by solid objects, though they can touch the edges of spaces blocked by solid objects. The lines can pass through obstacles that do not take up the entire area within their space

(such as most creatures). Finally, the line must not be blocked by other squares within the target's space, preventing you from targeting the "inside" of large creatures. If you cannot draw such a line, the target has total cover from you. This makes all targeted attacks impossible.

Second, draw a line from the points of origin of your attack to the center of your attack's target square. If any such line touches a square with an obstacle that grants cover, even at an edge or corner, the target has cover from you. Otherwise, if the line is uninterrupted, the target does not have cover from you.

Total Cover

If a creature is completely behind an physical object that blocks sight, it has total cover from attacks. A creature with total cover cannot be targeted by any attacks. Abilities that ignore cover do not ignore total cover unless they say otherwise.

Concealment

Concealment represents anything which makes it more difficult to see your target, such as shadowy illumination. All attacks against a creature or object with concealment from you have a 20% miss chance. Determining concealment works similarly to determining cover. You must use the same points of origin and target square when determining concealment that you would use to determine cover.

Determining Concealment: There are two things that can cause a creature to be concealed: poor lighting, and intervening obstacles that block sight. Determining concealment from obstacles that block sight works the same way as determining cover.

Determining concealment from lighting conditions is simpler, since it ignores lighting conditions between you and the target. If your target square is in lighting that provides concealment, the target has concealment. Otherwise, it does not.

Helpless Defenders

A helpless creature is completely at an opponent's mercy. It takes a -10 penalty to its Armor and Reflex defenses. In addition, it is unaware (-5 Armor and Ref) of all attacks against it, but the penalty for being unaware does not stack with the penalty for being helpless. Paralyzed, bound, and unconscious creatures are helpless.

Awareness and Surprise

In combat, creatures are sometimes not fully aware of danger, which makes them less able to defend against it. A creature can be described as either aware, unaware (-5 Armor and Ref), or partially unaware (-2 Armor and Ref) of an attack against it. Normally, creatures are aware of all attacks against them in combat. This causes no special bonuses or penalties.

Sometimes, creatures are fully unaware (-5 Armor and Ref) that they are in danger from attack. This typically happens as a result of stealth, but it can also happen as a result of sudden treachery. A creature takes a -5 penalty to Armor and Reflex defenses against attacks that it is unaware of. After being attacked, an unaware creature typically stops being fully unaware of future attacks. If it cannot see or identify its attacker, it becomes partially unaware (-2 Armor and Ref).

A creature that knows that it is in danger and is attempting to defend itself, but does not know the exact location or nature of its attackers, is partially unaware (-2 Armor and Ref). For example, a creature that is already in combat that is attacked by a previously unseen foe is partially unaware of the attack. Similarly, a creature that just barely fails to beat an opponent's Stealth check may hear an ominous sound that makes it partially aware of danger without knowing the exact location of any attackers. A creature takes a -2 penalty to Armor and Reflex defenses against attacks that it is partially unaware of.

Surprise Attacks

Sometimes, creatures are not aware that combat is taking place when the combat starts. This most commonly happens with ambushes. Any creature that is not aware of the combat continues taking whatever actions it would normally be taking until it becomes aware of the combat. It is usually unaware (-5 Armor and Ref) of all until that point, though unusually vigilant or perceptive creatures may be partially unaware (-2 Armor and Ref).

Invisibility

Invisible objects and creatures cannot be seen. By itself, this does not make them impossible to detect, but it poses unique challenges. If you succeed on an Awareness check to notice an invisible object or creature, you still cannot see it, but you know its location.

If it is impossible to see your target, you can still try to attack a square you think it occupies. An attack into a square occupied by an invisible enemy has a 50% miss chance. If an adjacent invisible creature attacks you with a strike, you can automatically identify the space it occupied when it attacked you. Even if you know the existence and location of an invisible creature, you are still partially unaware (-2 Armor and Ref) of any attacks it makes.

Unusual Combat Situations

Mounted Combat

Horses in Combat: Warhorses and warponies can serve readily as combat steeds. Light horses, ponies, and heavy horses, however, are frightened by combat. At the start of each round, you must make a difficulty rating 10 Ride check to control such a horse. Success means you can act normally that round, directing the horse's movements as if it was trained for combat. Failure means that the horse acts of its own volition that round, usually fleeing in panic.

Space: A horse (not a pony) is a Large creature, and thus takes up a space 10 feet (2 squares) across. While mounted, you share your mount's space completely. Anyone who is close enough to hit your mount can attack either you or your mount. However, your reach is still that of a creature of your normal size. Thus, a Medium paladin would be able to attack all squares adjacent to their Large horse with a longsword, and all squares 10 feet away from their mount with a lance.

In the case of abnormally large mounts (two or more size categories larger than you), you may not completely share space. Such situations should be handled on a case-by-case basis, depending on the nature of the mount.

Flying Mounts: Flying mounts are harder to ride and control than terrestrial mounts, especially mounts that can change directions rapidly. The difficulty rating for all Ride checks on a mount using a fly speed is increased by 10 if the mount has poor or average maneuverability, or by 15 if it has perfect maneuverability.

Combat while Mounted: With a difficulty rating 5 Ride check, you can guide your mount with your knees so as to use both hands to attack or defend yourself. This is a free action.

If your mount is moving in the current phase, you take a -2 accuracy penalty with ranged strikes. If your mount uses the sprint ability, this penalty increases to -4 (see Sprint, page 28).

If Your Mount Falls in Battle: If your mount falls, you fall to the ground with it.

If You Are Dropped: If you are knocked unconscious, you fall from your mount to the ground, which may cause you to take falling damage. If you have a military saddle, you stay on your mount instead. In either case, the mount acts according to its nature. Most mounts flee combat without a rider.

Unarmed Combat

Every creature can attack with its body using an unarmed attack. An unarmed attack normally deals subdual damage. If you are proficient with your unarmed attack, you can choose to deal non-subdual damage with it.

You may use any appropriate part of your body to make an unarmed attack – fists, feet, elbows, and so on. However, you only have one unarmed attack. You cannot dual-wield unarmed attacks as if you were fighting with two weapons at once unless you are proficient with your unarmed attack (see Strikes, page 26).

An unarmed attack is a type of natural weapon. Abilities that affect natural weapons can affect your unarmed attack. Gauntlets can also be worn to attack with your fists, but attacks with gauntlets are not considered unarmed attacks.

Underwater Combat

Land-based creatures have considerable difficulty when fighting in water. You take a –4 penalty to accuracy, Strength and Dexterity-based checks, and Armor and Reflex defenses. In addition, all ranged weapons have range limits of 5/15, regardless of the attack's normal range limits or any other modifiers.

Universal Abilities

All creatures can use the following abilities.

Strikes

A strike is the most common type of attack. There are three kinds of strikes: melee, projectile, and thrown. Many abilities allow you to make one or more strikes. Whenever you make a strike, you can choose which kind of strike to make.

All strikes are mundane abilities. Your accuracy with a strike is the same as your accuracy with most other abilities (see Accuracy, page 21). Your damage with a strike is determined by your mundane power and the weapon you hit with (see Strike Damage, page 26).

Whenever you make a strike, you must choose one weapon to make the strike with. Wielding two weapons does not change anything about each strike you make. However, wielding two weapons can allow you to make an additional strike each round. For details, see Offhand Strike, page 28.

Melee Strike

Instant

Choose one melee weapon you are wielding and are able to attack with. Make an attack vs. Armor with that weapon against anything within that weapon's reach.

Hit: The target takes damage from the weapon (see Strike Damage, page 26).

Critical hit: The target takes double damage from the weapon, as normal for critical hits (see Critical Hits, page 11).

Projectile Strike

Instant

Choose one projectile weapon that you are wielding and are able to attack with. Make an attack vs. Armor with that weapon against anything that you have line of sight and line of effect to. You suffer a longshot penalty if the target is at long range from you with that weapon (see Weapon Range Limits, page 314).

Hit: The target takes damage from the weapon (see Strike Damage, page 26).

Critical hit: The target takes double damage from the weapon, as normal for critical hits (see Critical Hits, page 11).

Thrown Strike

Instant

Choose one thrown weapon that you are wielding and are able to attack with. Make an attack vs. Armor with that weapon against anything that you have line of sight and line of effect to. You suffer a longshot penalty if the target is at long range from you with that weapon (see Weapon Range Limits, page 314).

Hit: The target takes damage from the weapon (see Strike Damage, page 26).

Critical hit: The target takes double damage from the weapon, as normal for critical hits (see Critical Hits, page 11).

Strike Damage

When you deal damage with a strike, you roll your weapon's damage dice and add your power with the strike to get the total damage. Almost all strikes are considered mundane abilities, so you would normally use your power with mundane abilities to determine their damage.

Weapon damage dice are defined in the Equipment chapter (see Weapons, page 313). Some abilities modify your weapon damage dice with dice increments, such as by granting you a +1d bonus to your weapon's damage dice. For details about dice increments, see Dice Increments, page 11.

Secondary Strike Targets

Some abilities allow you to make strikes that affect secondary targets in addition to the primary target or targets. You make the same attack roll and damage roll against all targets of the strike. For example, weapons with the Sweeping weapon tag can make attacks against secondary targets adjacent to the primary target. If a strike has multiple primary targets, you must choose a single creature to be treated as the primary target for the purpose of all abilities that reference secondary targets.

Multiple abilities that cause a strike to affect secondary targets stack normally unless noted otherwise.

Special Combat Abilities

Table 2.6: Special Combat Abilities

Ability	Defense	Brief Description
Charge	Armor	Move and attack
Desperate Exertion ²	—	Gain a bonus on a single roll
Dirty Trick	Fort or Ref	Impose penalty on a foe
Disarm	Ref	Attack item, knocking it free

Offhand Strike	Armor	Make a strike with an offhand weapon
Overrun ¹	Fort	Move through foe's space
Recover ¹	—	Regain hit points, remove conditions

Total Defense	—	Gain +2 to defenses
Throw	—	Throw a held object
Trip	Ref	Trip a foe

1. This ability increases your fatigue level when used.

Charge: You can use the charge ability as a standard action.

Charge

Instant

After you use this ability, you briefly take a -2 penalty to all defenses. This ability does not have the Swift tag, so it does not affect attacks made against you during the current phase.

Move up to your speed in a single straight line. At the end of your movement, you can make a melee strike from your new location.

Desperate Exertion: You can use the desperate exertion ability to succeed at a critical moment when you would otherwise fail. Using this ability is not an action, and can be done at any time. You can decide to use this ability after you learn whether the original roll succeeded or failed. You can even use it after you learn what the effects of a successful attack or check would be, if that is information you could normally learn if it succeeded. However, you must use it before the phase is over.

Desperate Exertion

Instant

Swift

After you use this ability, you increase your fatigue level by two (see Fatigue, page 20).

You reroll any attack or check you just made and gain a +2 bonus. You must reroll the entire roll, not just one die from the roll (such as if the original roll explodes). You cannot use this to affect rolls that are not attacks or checks, such as vital rolls. You cannot use this ability multiple times to affect the same roll.

Dirty Trick: As a standard action, you can use the dirty trick ability to creatively impair a foe's ability to fight.

Dirty Trick

Duration

When you use this ability, you must describe the kind of dirty trick you are performing. For example, you can pull a creature's pants down, throw sand, or otherwise use your environment to attack. The same creature can be affected by multiple dirty tricks, but each must apply a different penalty.

Make a melee attack with a free hand against the Fortitude or Reflex defense of one creature within your reach. The target uses whichever defense is appropriate to the nature of the trick you describe.

On a hit, the subject suffers a -2 penalty to one defense of your choice: Armor, Fortitude, Reflex, or Mental. You choose the defense, which must be appropriate for the action you described. If the subject is at its maximum hit points, this effect lasts briefly. Otherwise, this effect is a condition.

Disarm: As a standard action, you can use the disarm ability to knock an item out of a foe's hands.

Disarm

Instant

Make a melee strike against an object. Unlike most abilities, this ability can target specific items attended by creatures. This attack must beat the target's Reflex defense. If the target is attended by a creature, the attack must also beat the attending creature's Reflex defense.

Hit: You choose whether the target takes damage from the weapon you hit it with. In addition, if the target is attended and is not held in a hand or well secured, you can choose to knock it loose. Well secured objects include rings worn on fingers, equipped shields, and similarly affixed objects. If you do, it falls to the ground in the square occupied by the attending creature that is closest to you.

Critical hit: As above, except that you can deal double damage and you can also knock loose objects that are held in a single hand, but not objects that are held in two hands or well secured.

Grapple: As a standard action, you can use the grapple ability to physically grab and restrain a creature.

Grapple

Duration

Make a melee attack with a free hand against the Fortitude and Reflex defenses of one creature within your reach. For each size category by which the target is larger than you, you take a -4 penalty to accuracy.

On a hit against both defenses, you and the target are grappled by each other. For details, see Grappling, page 29.

Offhand Strike: As a minor action, you can use the offhand strike ability to quickly attack with an offhand weapon while you attack with a primary weapon. Your Dexterity must be at least 1 to use this ability.

Offhand Strike

Instant

Choose one non-heavy weapon you are wielding and are able to attack with. You cannot use this ability unless you also make a strike with a different weapon as part of a standard action during the same phase.

Make a strike with your chosen weapon. You take a -2 penalty to accuracy, and you do not add your power to damage with the strike. In addition, you take a -1 penalty to accuracy with the strike for each non-light weapon you attack with this phase, including the weapon used to make this strike.

Overrun: As a move action, you can use the overrun ability to move through creatures in your way.

Overrun

Instant

After you use this ability, you increase your fatigue level by one.

Move up to your movement speed in a straight line. You can try to move directly through creatures in your way during this movement. Each creature in your way can choose to avoid you, allowing you to pass through its square unhindered. If a creature does not attempt to avoid you, you make an attack vs. Fortitude against it. For each size category by which you are larger or smaller than the target, you gain a +4 bonus or penalty to accuracy. If you move into a creature's space with this ability, but you do not move out of it, you and the creature are both squeezing (-2 accuracy, Armor, and Ref) as long as you continue sharing space.

On a hit, you can move through each target's space. On a critical hit, each target is also knocked prone (quarter speed, -2 accuracy, Armor, and Ref). On a miss, you end your movement immediately.

Recover: You can use the recover ability as a standard action. As long as you are conscious, no effect can prevent you from using this ability, even effects that prohibit using any other abilities.

Recover

Instant

After you use this ability, you increase your fatigue level by two, and you cannot use it again until you take a short rest.

You regain hit points equal to your maximum hit points. In addition, you remove all brief effects and conditions affecting you. This cannot remove effect applied during the current round. If you take damage in the same phase that you use this ability, the healing and damage offset, which can prevent you from gaining vital wounds from dropping below 0 hit points (see Regaining Hit Points and Damage Resistance, page 20).

Shove: As a standard action, you can use the shove ability to physically move a creature.

Shove

Instant

Choose either one creature within your reach or all creatures grappling you (see Grappling, page 29).

Make a melee attack with a free hand against both the Fortitude defense and total Strength of each target. Your accuracy with this attack is equal to your Strength. If you are not able to use any of your movement speeds, such as if you are being carried by a flying creature, you automatically fail when you try to use this ability, and your defense is treated as 0 against this ability.

On a hit, you can move up to half your movement speed in a straight line, pushing each subject as you move. On a critical hit, you can move up to your full movement speed instead.

Sprint: As a move action, you can use the sprint ability to move more quickly.

Sprint

Instant

After you use this ability, you increase your fatigue level by one.

You move up to double your normal movement speed.

Struggle: As a standard action, you can use the struggle ability to move despite movement impediments.

Struggle

Duration

Until the end of the current phase, your land speed becomes five feet, regardless of all other effects that would modify your land speed. In addition, you can move a distance up to your land speed. This does not allow you to pass obstacles unrelated to movement speed penalties, such as walls.

Throw: You can use the throw ability to throw an object. You can use the ability as a standard action. Alternately, you can use it as a move action. If you do, you take a -20 penalty to the check, and you cannot make an attack roll to hit with the thrown object.

As long as you have a Strength of at least -2, you do not have to use this ability to throw weapons that are sized appropriately for you and which are designed to be thrown. Instead, you can simply use the listed range limits for those weapons.

Throw

Instant

Make a Strength check to throw an object you hold in at least one hand. The base difficulty rating of this check is 0. For each size category larger or smaller than the target that you are, you gain a +10 bonus or penalty to the check. You cannot throw an object whose weight exceeds your maximum carrying capacity (see Weight Limits, page 374).
If you succeed, you throw the object five feet. For every 5 points by which you succeed, you double the distance you throw the object: ten feet, twenty feet, and so on. If you throw the object at a creature or object, you can make an attack roll to hit it with the thrown object, as the thrown strike ability. That attack roll is rolled separately from the Strength check you make to use this ability.

Total Defense: As a standard action, you can use the total defense ability to focus entirely on defending yourself.

Total Defense

Duration

Swift

You gain a +2 bonus to your defenses until the end of the round. Because this ability has the Swift tag, this improves your defenses against attacks made against you during the current phase.

Trip: As a standard action, you can use the trip ability to trip a creature.

Trip

Instant

Make a melee attack with a free hand against a creature's Reflex defenses. For each size category by which the target is larger than you, you take a -4 penalty to accuracy.
On a hit, the subject becomes prone (quarter speed, -2 accuracy, Armor, and Ref).

Grappling

A grappled creature is physically struggling with at least one other creature. While grappled, you suffer certain penalties and restrictions, as described below.

Being In A Grapple

While grappling, you suffer certain penalties and restrictions, as described below. Other than these restrictions, you can act normally. You can also take certain actions in a grapple, as described in Grapple Actions, page 29

- You are unable to use one of your hands for any purposes other than grappling. This prevents humanoid creatures from taking any actions which would require having two free hands, such as attacking with heavy weapons.
- You take a -2 penalty to Armor and Reflex defenses.
- Abilities that have somatic components have a 50% chance to fail with no effect when used.
- You cannot move unless you push all creatures grappling you, such as with the shove ability (see Shove, page 28).

Grapple Actions

While grappled, you can use two special abilities to try to affect the grapple.

Escape Grapple: As a standard action, you can use the escape grapple ability to try to stop being grappled.

Escape Grapple

Instant

Make an attack against any number of creatures that you are grappled by. You may use the Flexibility skill or your total Strength in place of your normal accuracy with this attack (see Flexibility, page 130). The defense of each creature is equal to the result of the attack it made with its maintain grapple ability. If a creature did not use that ability during the current round, its defense against this ability is 0. For each target, if you hit that target with this attack, it stops being grappled by you and you stop being grappled by it.

Maintain Grapple: As a free action, you can use the maintain grapple ability to maintain a grapple that you are part of. If you do not use this ability while you are in a grapple, then creatures can easily escape the grapple with the escape grapple ability.

Maintain Grapple

Instant

Swift

Make an attack using a free hand. You may use your total Strength in place of your normal accuracy with this attack. This attack has no immediate effect. The attack result determines how difficult it is for a creature to escape the grapple during the current round using the escape grapple ability.

Asymmetric Grappling

Normally, when you use the grapple ability, both you and the target become grappled by each other. Some abilities allow you to grapple other creatures without becoming grappled yourself. You can release a creature that you are not grappled by as a free action. If you do, the creature stops being grappled by you.

Resting

When you have a moment to relax, you can rest to regain some of your expended resources. There are two main types of rests: a short rest and a long rest. Resting is not actually an ability in the same sense as most other abilities. You do not declare that you are using the “short rest” ability, and you do not have to differentiate between whether you intend to take a short rest or a long rest. The benefits of taking a short rest or long rest happen automatically after you spend enough time avoiding strenuous activity.

Short Rest

Resting for ten minutes is considered a short rest. When you take a short rest, you gain the following benefits.

- Your hit points become equal to your maximum hit points.
- Your current damage resistance becomes equal to your maximum damage resistance.
- You regain any attunement points you released from attuned abilities (see Attunement, page 17).
- You remove all conditions affecting you (unless they cannot be removed normally).
- Some other abilities have specific effects that last until you take a short rest. For example, a barbarian cannot use their rage ability again after raging until after they take a short rest (see Rage, page 40).

Long Rest

Resting for eight hours is considered a long rest. When you take a long rest, you gain the following benefits.

- You remove one of your vital wounds (see Removing Vital Wounds, page 12). The Medicine skill can increase this healing (see Accelerate Recovery, page 134).
- Your fatigue level becomes 0.
- Some other abilities have specific effects that last until you take a long rest.

Categories of Magic

Magic Sources

There are four magic sources that characters can use to cast spells and perform rituals: arcane (cast by mages), divine (cast by clerics and paladins), nature (cast by druids), and pact (cast by warlocks). Each magic source has a set of associated mystic spheres (see Mystic Spheres, below).

Characters with Multiple Magic Sources

A character can have access to multiple sources of magic through the use of abilities like the Hybrid Training ability (see Half-Elves, page 36). The mystic spheres, spells, and rituals that character knows are tracked separately for each source of magic that character has access to. If you have access to the same spell or ritual from multiple sources, the two versions of the ability are generally considered to be the same ability. When you cast the spell or perform the ritual, you choose which source you are using for the ability.

Mystic Spheres

A mystic sphere is a collection of thematically related magical effects that includes both spells and rituals. Each mystic sphere can be associated with any number of magic sources. The mystic spheres are listed at Mystic Spheres, page 170.

Spell and Ritual Mechanics

Spells and rituals share many common properties, defined here.

Ability Tags

All spells have the Magical and Spell ability tags, and all rituals have the Magical and Ritual ability tags. Since spells and rituals are already clearly indicated in the Mystic Spheres chapter, the tags are omitted here for convenience. Elsewhere in this book, such as in monster descriptions, those tags are used to indicate that some abilities are considered spells and rituals.

Casting Components

Unless otherwise noted, all spells and rituals require verbal components to cast or perform. In addition, spells and rituals from arcane and pact mystic sources require somatic components. You cannot start casting a spell or performing a ritual without all required components. If you lose those components before the ability resolves, the spell fails with no effect.

To provide the verbal component for a spell or ritual, you must speak in a strong voice with a volume at least as loud as ordinary conversation. To provide the somatic component for a spell or ritual, you must make a precise series of movements with at least one free hand. These movements involve your whole arm in addition to gestures with your fingers.

Somatic Component Failure

Encumbrance from armor interferes with the somatic components required to perform arcane spells, pact spells, and all rituals. When you cast a spell or perform a ritual that requires somatic components while you have an encumbrance, you must roll 1d10. If your result is less than or equal to your encumbrance, the spell fails with no effect. When you perform a ritual, this roll must be repeated at the end of each round during the ritual.

Dismissal

As a minor action, you can dismiss any spells or rituals you used that have lasting effects. This requires the same casting components (verbal and somatic) as casting the spell or performing the ritual normally. Spells and rituals can also be dismissed in other ways, such as after their effects have finished. When a spell or ability is dismissed, all of its lingering effects immediately end.

Resurrecting the Dead

Several rituals have the power to restore dead characters to life.

When a living creature dies, its soul departs its body, travels through the Astral Plane, and goes to abide on the plane where the creature's deity resides. If the creature did not worship a deity, its soul departs to the plane corresponding to its alignment. Bringing a creature back from the dead means retrieving their soul and returning it to their body.

Death and Old Age: While a creature is dead, it still tracks that time towards its maximum age. A creature's maximum age is largely determined by the strength of its soul, not the condition of its body. No magic can return a creature to life when it has passed its maximum age.

Preventing Resurrection: Enemies can take steps to make it more difficult for a character to be returned from the dead. Except for true resurrection, every ritual to raise the dead requires a body, so keeping or destroying the body is an effective deterrent. The soul bind ritual prevents any sort of revivification unless the soul is first released.

Involuntary Resurrection: A soul cannot be returned to life if it does not wish to be. A soul infallibly knows the name, alignment, and patron deity (if any) of the character attempting to revive it and may refuse to return on that basis.

Functioning Like Other Spells

Many spells and rituals say they "function like" some other spell or ritual, often with some noted changes. Except as otherwise noted, they retain all of the original effects and targets of the spell. However, they do not have the same rank upgrades as the original spell or ritual.

Impossible Spells and Rituals

When you try to use a spell or ritual in an impossible way, the ability fails with no effect. This most commonly happens if you attempt to declare an invalid target for a spell.

Spells

A spell is a discrete magical effect with a name, a rank, and an effect. Each mystic sphere has a number of spells associated with it. An ability that gives you access to mystic spheres will define how many spells you know. A spell's rank is the minimum archetype rank you must have in the relevant spellcasting archetype to be able to learn and cast the spell.

Cantrips

Some mystic spheres have minor spells called cantrips. Anyone who has access to a mystic sphere knows all cantrips from that sphere.

Rituals

Each mystic sphere has a number of rituals. Some spellcasting characters can learn and perform rituals. Rituals are ceremonies that create magical effects. Like spells, each ritual has a name, a rank, and an effect. Although rituals are similar to spells, abilities that affect spells do not affect rituals unless they say they do in their descriptions. A ritual's rank is the minimum archetype rank you must have in the relevant spellcasting archetype to be able to learn and perform the ritual.

You don't memorize a ritual as you would a normal spell. Rituals are too complex for all but the most knowledgeable sages to commit to memory. To perform a ritual, you need to read from a book or a scroll containing it. You must have access to the mystic sphere a ritual is from in order to perform the ritual.

Ritual Descriptions

Rituals are described in the body of the mystic sphere they are associated with, following the description of spells from that mystic sphere.

Ritual Books

A ritual book contains one or more rituals that you can use as frequently as you want, as long as you can spend the time and fatigue level to perform the ritual. Scribing a ritual in a ritual book costs an amount of precious inks.

Ritual Costs

The costs to scribe rituals are described on Table 2.7: Ritual Costs.

Performing Rituals

To perform a ritual, you must have a ritual book containing the ritual and the material components required for the ritual. Some rituals cause the creatures performing them to increase their fatigue level, as indicated in their descriptions. Other creatures can suffer this fatigue to help you perform rituals; see Ritual Participants, below.

Table 2.7: Ritual Costs

Ritual Rank	Cost to Scribe	Item Level
1	50 gp	1st
2	125 gp	2nd
3	800 gp	5th
4	2,750 gp	8th
5	10,000 gp	11th
6	37,000 gp	14th
7	125,000 gp	17th
8	400,000 gp	20th

Ritual Participants

Creatures can assist in the performance of rituals even if they are unable to perform rituals themselves. A creature that helps perform a ritual is called a ritual participant, and the creature performing the ritual is called the ritual leader. A ritual participant may increase their fatigue level in place of or in addition to the fatigue level gained by the creature performing the ritual. If multiple creatures are willing to increase their fatigue level or attune to effects, the ritual leader decides which creatures increase their fatigue level or attune to the ritual’s effects.

The steps required to participate in rituals can be complex. Ritual participants must be given specific instructions for the actions they must perform during a ritual by a creature who knows how to perform the ritual. This instruction generally takes one tenth of the time required to perform the ritual. A creature cannot participate in rituals unless it has an Intelligence of at least 0, can speak at least one language, and has the fine motor control required to perform the somatic components of rituals.

Normally, a ritual participant can only contribute fatigue levels up to a maximum of their fatigue tolerance. If the participant has access to the same magic source as the ritual, they can contribute any number of fatigue levels (until they drop unconscious). Creatures willing to fatigue themselves generally tire at a rate no faster than one fatigue level per ten minutes spent performing the ritual.

Changing Ritual Participation: Rituals are deeply complex magic, and they cannot be abandoned or paused partway through. If the number of ritual participants in a ritual decreases below its initial value, the ritual fails at the end of the next round if the number of participants is not restored. However, ritual participants can transfer their participation to other creatures without disrupting the ritual.

In order to transfer ritual participation, the new creature must be able to participate in the ritual. Similarly, the ritual leader can transfer their leadership to another creature. In addition to the requirements for transferring ritual participation, the new leader must know the ritual and be able to perform it themselves.

Changing ritual participation and leadership is usually done when performing extraordinarily long or demanding rituals.

Attunement Rituals: Rituals with the Attune (ritual) tag require a single ritual participant to attune to the ritual’s effect. Any ritual participant can attune to the effect, but only one ritual participant can attune to the effect unless otherwise noted in the ritual’s description. For details, see Attunement, page 17.

Magical Writings

To record a spell in written form, a character uses complex notation that describes the magical forces involved in the spell. The notation constitutes a universal language that spellcasters have discovered, not invented. Each writer uses this universal system regardless of their native language or culture. However, each character uses the system in their own way. Another person’s magical writing remains incomprehensible to even the most powerful spellcaster until they take the time to study and decipher it.

You can identify magical writing using the Spellsense skill (see Identify Magical Writing, page 141).

Special Rules

General Calculations

Stacking Rules

Usually, modifiers stack with each other, meaning that you add or subtract all of the modifiers to get the final result. However, some modifiers do not stack with each other, as described below. When bonuses don’t stack with each other, you only apply the largest bonus. Likewise, when penalties don’t stack with each other, you only apply the largest penalty.

Special Exceptions:

- Effects from the same source do not stack. Any ability with the same name has the same source.
- Magic bonuses do not stack with each other.
- If a creature gains the same condition multiple times, the effects do not stack, but each instance of the condition is tracked separately. The creature must remove all instances of the condition before the effects are removed.
- Multiple effects that change a creature’s size category do not stack. If multiple effects both increase and decrease size, size increases offset size decreases on a one-for-one basis to determine the creature’s final size.
- If you have two separate abilities which let you add the same attribute to a given roll or statistic, the attribute is still only added once.

Maximum Bonuses

Some bonuses specify that they cannot increase the value beyond a given point. These bonuses must always be applied last, and cannot be combined with other bonuses to exceed the maximum value. If multiple bonuses specify different maximum values, use the lower maximum value. If a bonus with a maximum value is applied to a value that already exceeds the maximum value the bonus can provide, simply ignore the bonus and its maximum value.

Doubling

If you double any in-game value twice, it becomes three times as large. An additional doubling would make it four times as large, and so on. For example, if you make an attack that deals double damage and you get a critical hit, you deal triple damage.

Real-World Values: Values that are “real”, such as movement and distance, are an exception. Any real value has a unit that it measures, such as feet. Abstract values, such as bonuses and penalties to attacks and checks, do not have units. If you double a real-world value twice, it becomes four times as large.

Changing Statistics

Your modifiers and defenses can change for many reasons. In general, all changes take effect immediately, though some side effects of those changes may not happen until you rest or level up.

Numerical Modifiers: Changes to numerical modifiers always take effect immediately. For example, if a barbarian enters a rage, their damage and defenses are all adjusted immediately.

Skill Points: Effects that change a character’s skill points take effect immediately. However, the character cannot spend additional skill points on new skills until they level up. If a character’s total skill points are decreased below their currently spent skill points, they immediately lose training from skills until their spent skill points are equal to their total skill points.

Rounding

In general, if you encounter a fractional number, you round it down.

Multipliers

Sometimes a rule makes you multiply a number or a die roll. As long as you’re applying a single multiplier, multiply the number normally. When two or more multipliers apply to any abstract value (such as a modifier or a die roll), however, combine them into a single multiple, with each extra multiple adding 1 less than its value to the first multiple. Thus, a double (x2) and a double (x2) applied to the same number results in a triple (x3, because $2 + 1 = 3$). Some other effects specifically multiply additively in this way.

When applying multipliers to real-world values (such as weight or distance), normal rules of math apply instead. A creature whose size doubles (thus multiplying its weight by 8) and then is turned to stone (which would multiply its weight by a factor of roughly 3) now weighs about 24 times normal, not 10 times normal. Similarly, a blinded creature attempting to negotiate difficult terrain would need to spend 20 feet of movement to move 5 feet (doubling the cost twice, for a total multiplier of x4), rather than as 15 feet (adding 100% twice).

Allies and Enemies

Each creature you interact with in Rise is either an ally, an enemy, or a neutral party. Some beneficial abilities only affect allies, and some offensive abilities only affect enemies.

You can choose how you consider each creature at the start of each phase. You cannot consider yourself an ally or an enemy. While you are unconscious, you treat all creatures as allies.

Allies: An ally is any creature you consider an ally who also considers you an ally. If you consider someone an ally, but they do not consider you an ally, you treat them as a neutral party for the purpose of your abilities. Allies can move through your space.

Enemies: An enemy is any creature who you consider to be an enemy. Enemies cannot move through your space.

Neutral Parties: A neutral party is any creature who is neither an ally nor an enemy. You treat all creatures you have not declared an opinion of as neutral parties. Neutral parties can move through your space.

Sleep and Fatigue

A typical creature needs a minimum of 6 hours of sleep for every 18 hours spent awake, and a minimum of 50 hours of sleep every week. You can stay awake beyond those limits with the Endurance skill (see Stay Awake, page 129).

Teleportation

Some abilities can teleport creatures or objects. When you are teleported, you move through the Astral Plane and arrive at a new location. You can be teleported between two different locations on the same plane, or between two different locations on different planes. If for some reason you cannot access the Astral Plane, you cannot be teleported.

Unless an ability explicitly teleports to other planes or specifies otherwise, anything being teleported must have both line of sight and line of effect to its destination. Otherwise, the teleportation fails without effect.

Teleportation Noise

Creatures and objects that are teleported make a sound when they depart and arrive. This noise is caused by the displacement of air (or other substances) created by the teleportation. The base difficulty rating of an Awareness check to hear this sound for a Medium creature or object is 10. This difficulty rating changes based on the size of the teleported creature or object:

- Fine: 30
- Diminutive: 25
- Tiny: 20
- Small: 15
- Medium: 10
- Large: 5
- Huge: 0
- Gargantuan: -5
- Colossal: -10

Carrying Objects

When a creature is teleported, it can bring along equipment and held objects as long as two conditions are met. First, the combined weight of the objects cannot exceed the creature’s maximum carrying capacity (see Weight Limits, page 374). If a creature is teleported while carrying more than its maximum carrying capacity, all excess objects are left behind, starting with the heaviest object and proceeding in order of weight.

Second, no object can extend more than two feet away from the creature's body. Any objects that extend beyond that distance are left behind. For example, a creature wearing handcuffs will arrive at its teleportation destination still wearing the handcuffs. However, a creature that is tied to a post by a long rope will arrive at its teleportation destination without the rope.

Horizontal Teleportation

Some planes have a curved primary surface. On those planes, "horizontal" teleportation isn't objectively horizontal. Instead, it is horizontal relative to the surface of the plane.

Resolving Ambiguity

When the rules are ambiguous about how they apply to you and no other creature, you decide how to resolve that ambiguity. For example, if an ability causes you to remove one of your vital wounds, and you have more than one vital wound, you choose which vital wound is removed. When the rules are ambiguous in any other situation, the GM decides how to resolve that ambiguity. This includes situations where multiple creatures are relevant and situations where no particular creature is relevant.

Character Advancement

As you accomplish challenges and defeats foes, you gain experience. If you have enough experience, you gain a level. You gain some abilities at specific levels, as described in Table 2.8: Character Advancement.

A character that increases in level gains additional benefits.

- At 2nd level, and every 3 levels thereafter, you gain an additional attunement point (see Attunement Points, page 20).
- At 3rd level, and every 6 levels thereafter, you gain a legacy item upgrade (see Legacy Items, page 372).
- At 4th level, and every 3 levels thereafter, your maximum archetype rank increases (see Archetype Ranks, page 37).

- Some of your attributes increase (see Table 2.3: Increasing Attributes With Level (page 19)).
- Some of your skill modifiers increase 1 (see Skill Training, page 21).

Chapter 4

Classes

Your character’s class represents the things your character has chosen to train in. This choice determines a great deal about your character’s abilities.

How Classes Work

When you first create a character, you choose a class. Each class grants some basic class features to all members of that class. In addition, each class has a number of archetypes that grant more powerful and specific abilities.

Archetypes

Each class has a number of archetypes. An archetype is a collection of thematically related abilities. For examples, barbarians have the Battlerager archetype, which grants abilities related to being angry and flying into a rage in combat. You have an archetype rank associated with each archetype you have.

Archetype Ranks

Each ability from an archetype has a minimum rank required to gain the ability. When you gain a rank in an archetype, you gain all abilities associated with that rank. In addition, some of your existing abilities may increase their power based on your rank in that archetype.

At 1st level, you choose three of the archetypes associated with your class. You are Rank 1 in one of those archetypes, and rank 0 in your other two archetypes. You have no ranks at all in any other archetypes, and can never gain abilities from archetypes other than your chosen three.

Every level after 1st level, you increase your rank in one archetype of your choice. This gives you the abilities associated with that rank. Each archetype rank has a minimum level, as shown on Table 4.1: Archetype Ranks by Level. This minimum level is included in each class table as a reminder.

Duplicate Archetypes

Some archetypes can be gained by multiple classes. For example, both clerics and paladins have the Divine Magic archetype. You cannot gain two archetypes with the same name, even if you can choose archetypes from multiple classes.

Table 4.1: Archetype Ranks by Level

Archetype Rank	Minimum Level

Multiclass Characters

You can spend two insight points to become a multiclass character (see Insight Points, page 21). If you do, choose a class other than your original class. You gain the following benefits relating to that class.

- You gain the class skills of that class in addition to your existing class skills.
- You can choose which of your classes you are considered for the purpose of determining which basic class abilities, such as defense bonuses and weapon proficiencies, you start with. You must choose a single starting class for this purpose, so you cannot gain the defense bonuses from one class and the weapon proficiencies from another.
- If that class has any special class abilities which are not part of an archetype, such as a warlock’s soul pact ability, you gain those abilities.
- You may gain one archetype from your that class in place of one archetype from your base class.

You may gain access to multiple classes in this way, spending two insight points for each class.

Class Introductions

There are nine classes in Rise.

- Barbarians are mighty warriors who draw power from their physical prowess.
- Clerics are divine spellcasters who draw power from their veneration of a deity.
- Druids are nature spellcasters who draw power from their veneration of the natural world.

- Fighters are highly disciplined warriors who excel in physical combat of any variety.
- Monks are agile masters of “ki” who hone their personal abilities to strike down foes and perform supernatural feats.
- Paladins are divinely empowered warriors embody a particular alignment.
- Rangers are skilled hunters who bridge the divide between nature and civilization.
- Rogues are exceptionally skillful characters known for their ability to strike at their foe’s weak points in combat.
- Sorcerers are arcane spellcasters who draw power from their inherently magical nature.
- Warlocks are pact spellcasters who draw their power from a dark pact made with infernal creatures.
- Wizards are arcane spellcasters who study magic to unlock its powerful secrets.

Class Description Format

Each class is described from the perspective of a member of that class, using “you” in the description.

Class Table: The class’s table describes the special abilities a member of that class gains at each level, assuming they have all of that class’s archetypes.

Alignment: Some classes require specific alignments (see Alignment, page 308). Most classes allow characters of any alignment.

Skills: Each class has specific skills that members of that class are typically good at (see Skills, page 116). These skills are called class skills. It is easier to become mastered in class skills than in other skills. For details, see Skill Training, page 21.

Defenses: Each class grants bonuses to specific defenses.

Weapon Proficiencies: This indicates the types of weapons that members of this class are proficient with.

Armor Proficiencies: This indicates the types of armor that members of this class are proficient with.

Other Special Abilities: Some classes have abilities shared by all members of the class that are not part of an archetype, such as a druid’s druidic language ability.

Archetypes: The abilities associated with each of the three archetypes the class has.

Barbarian

Alignment: Any.

Archetypes: Barbarians have the Battleforged Resilience, Battlerager, Outland Savage, Primal Warrior, and Totemist archetypes.

Basic Class Abilities

If you are a barbarian, you gain the following abilities.

Defenses

You gain the following bonuses to your defenses: +1 Armor, +7 Fortitude, +5 Reflex, +3 Mental.

Resources

You have the following resources:

- One insight point, which you can spend to gain additional abilities or proficiencies (see Insight Points, page 21).
- Nine skill points, which you can spend to learn skills (see Skills, page 116).
- One attunement point, which you can use to attune to items and abilities that affect you (see Attunement Points, page 20).
- A +4 bonus to your fatigue tolerance, which makes it easier for you to use powerful abilities that fatigue you (see Fatigue, page 20).

Weapon Proficiencies

You are proficient with simple weapons and any two other weapon groups.

Armor Proficiencies

You are proficient with light and medium armor.

Class Skills

You have the following class skills:

- Strength: Climb, Jump, Swim.
- Dexterity: Balance, Flexibility, Ride.
- Constitution: Endurance.
- Intelligence: Craft, Medicine.
- Perception: Awareness, Creature Handling, Survival.
- Other: Deception, Intimidate, Persuasion, Profession.

Rank 0 – Resilient Recovery

You regain a quarter of your maximum damage resistance when you use the recover ability (see Recover, page 28).

Rank 1 – Battle-Scarred

You gain a bonus equal to twice your rank in this archetype to your damage resistance (see Damage Resistance, page 22).

Rank 2 – Vital Tolerance

You gain a +1 bonus to vital rolls and fatigue tolerance.

Rank 3 – Greater Resilient Recovery

The damage resistance you regain with your resilient recovery ability increases to half your maximum damage resistance.

Rank 4 – Limitless Recovery

You can use the recover action an additional time before you take a short rest.

Rank 5 – Greater Battle-Scarred

The bonus from your battle-scarred ability increases to three times your rank in this archetype.

Rank 6 – Greater Vital Tolerance

The bonuses from your vital tolerance ability increase to +2.

Rank 7 – Instant Recovery

Once per short rest, you can use the recover ability as a minor action instead of as a standard action.

Typical Character

If you want to quickly create a character based on the eagle totem from this archetype, make the following choices:

Species: Dwarf.

Attributes: 2 Str, 0 Dex, 4 Con, 0 Int, 2 Per, 1 Wil (after species modifiers).

Weapon Groups: Axes, thrown weapons.

Languages: Common, Dwarven, Giant.

Equipment: Battleaxe, standard shield, scale mail. As you gain levels, use the best heavy armor you can afford.

Legacy Item: Shield. At level 3, choose protective shield. At level 9, choose greater protective shield and covering shield. At level 15, choose supreme protective shield, greater shield of arrow catching, and shield of arrow deflection.

Combat Styles: Ebb and Flow, Herald of War, Unbreakable Defense.

Suggested Maneuvers:

- Rank 1: fearsome roar, reckless strike
- Rank 2: defensive strike, directed shout
- Rank 3: challenging strike, punish inattention
- Rank 4: cleansing strike, frightening roar

- Rank 6: greater directed shout, greater reckless assault
- Rank 7: fear-inspiring strike, revitalizing battlecry

Suggested Feats: Shieldbearer, Regenerator, Toughness.

Combat Tactics: You are extremely difficult to kill. Take advantage of that by wading into the front lines of combat and drawing attention away from your more vulnerable allies. If you find yourself in danger, use defensive maneuvers like bracing strike and defensive strike to keep yourself safe. On the other hand, if your foes try to ignore you after realizing how durable you are, use aggressive maneuvers like reckless strike to make the most of their inattention, or force them to engage with you using maneuvers like challenging strike.

Battlerager

This archetype grants you a devastating rage, improving your combat prowess.

Rank 0 – Insensible Anger

You reduce your maximum hit points by an amount equal to your rank in this archetype. In exchange, you gain a bonus to your damage resistance equal to twice your rank in this archetype (minimum 1).

Rank 1 – Rage

You can use the rage ability as a free action. For most barbarians, this represents entering a furious rage. Some barbarians instead enter a joyous battle trance or undergo a partial physical transformation into a more fearsome form.

Rage
Emotion, Swift

Sustain (free)

For the duration of this ability, you gain the following benefits and drawbacks:

- You gain a +2 bonus to your mundane power.
- You gain a +2 bonus to vital rolls.
- You take a -2 penalty to Armor and Reflex defenses.
- You are unable to take standard actions that do not cause you to make mundane attacks.
- You are unable to use Focus abilities of any kind.
- At the end of each round, if you did not make a mundane attack that round, this ability ends.
- When this ability ends for any reason, you briefly cannot use it again.

Rank 3: The power bonus increases to +4.

Rank 5: The power bonus increases to +8.

Rank 7: The power bonus increases to +16.

Rank 2 – Enraged Strike

As a standard action, you can use the enraged strike ability.

Enraged Strike

Instant

Make a melee strike. If the target of the strike dealt damage to you during the previous round, you gain a +2 bonus to accuracy with the strike and a +2d damage bonus.

Rank 4: The damage bonus increases to +3d.

Rank 6: The damage bonus increases to +4d.

Rank 3 – Greater Insensible Anger

The damage resistance bonus from your insensible anger ability increases to three times your rank in this archetype.

Rank 4 – Instinctive Rage

You cannot be unaware or partially unaware during your rage ability.

Rank 5 – Immutable Anger

Rank 6 – Supreme Insensible Anger

The damage resistance bonus from your insensible anger ability increases to four times your rank in this archetype.

Rank 7 – Titanic Rage

When you use your rage ability, you can grow by one size category.

Rank 7 – Greater Enraged Strike

You can use your enraged strike ability against any creature that attacked you since you last took a short rest, regardless of whether they dealt damage to you during the previous round.

Typical Character

If you want to quickly create a character based on the eagle totem from this archetype, make the following choices:

Species: Half-orc.

Attributes: 4 Str, 2 Dex, 2 Con, -1 Int, 2 Per, 0 Wil (after species modifiers).

Class: Barbarian.

Archetypes: Battlerager first, Primal Warrior second, Totemist (lion totem) third.

Insight Points: 1 point for extra maneuver.

Skills: Awareness (M), Climb (M), Endurance (M), Jump (M), Swim (M).

Weapon Groups: Club-like weapons, crossbows.

Equipment: Greatmace, scale mail. As you gain levels, buy a heavy crossbow and use the best medium armor you can afford.

Legacy Item: Weapon. At level 3, choose surestrike. At level 9, choose greater surestrike and blessed. At level 15, choose supreme surestrike, greater shocking, and blessed.

Combat Styles: Ebb and Flow, Flurry of Blows, Unbreakable Defense.

Suggested Maneuvers:

- Rank 1: power strike, reckless strike, twinstrike
- Rank 2: followup strike, whirlwind
- Rank 3: deathseeking flurry, reckless assault
- Rank 4: counter sweep, tenderizing smash
- Rank 5: bracing strike, greater hunting strike
- Rank 6: followup flurry, greater reckless assault
- Rank 7: greater desperate flurry, whirlwind flurry

Suggested Feats: Greatweapon Warrior, Rapid Reaction, Swift.

Combat Tactics: You are a furious frenzy of devastating damage and lethal critical hits. When you roll a 10 on an attack roll, whatever you attacked will probably die. Staying close to your allies is generally a good plan, since you don't have the durability to run into the middle of a horde of enemies safely. Your maneuvers help you deal with high-Armor enemies and enemy swarms, and give you the ability to sacrifice most of your statistics other than damage in exchange for more damage.

Outland Savage

This archetype improves your mobility and combat prowess with direct, brutal abilities.

Rank 0 – Savage Rush

When you use the sprint ability, you can move through spaces occupied by enemies during that movement. You treat those spaces as difficult terrain, which causes you to move at half speed.

Rank 1 – Fast Movement

You gain a +5 foot bonus to your speed with all of your movement modes.

Rank 2 – Savage Precision

You can use your Strength in place of your Perception to determine your accuracy with the dirty trick, disarm, grapple, overrun, and trip abilities, as well as with grapple actions (see Special Combat Abilities, page 27, and Grapple Actions, page 29). In addition, you gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with those abilities and with the shove ability.

Rank 3 – Savage Force

You gain a +1d bonus to your damage with all weapons.

Rank 4 – Greater Fast Movement

The speed bonus from your fast movement ability increases to +10 feet.

Rank 4 – Greater Savage Rush

Your savage rush ability no longer causes you to treat spaces occupied by enemies as difficult terrain.

Rank 5 – Greater Savage Precision

The accuracy bonus from your savage precision ability increases to +2. In addition, choose one of the following weapon tags (see Weapon Tags, page 315): Disarming, Forceful, Grappling, or Tripping. You may treat all weapons you wield as if they had the chosen weapon tag.

Rank 6 – Greater Savage Force

The bonus from your savage force ability increases to +2d.

Typical Character

If you want to quickly create a character based on the eagle totem from this archetype, make the following choices:

Species: Half-orc.

Attributes: 5 Str, 2 Dex, 1 Con, -1 Int, 0 Per, 1 Wil (after species modifiers).

Class: Barbarian.

Archetypes: Outland Savage first, Primal Warrior second, Totemist (wolf totem) third.

Insight Points: 1 point for proficiency with exotic armor weapons.

Skills: Awareness (M), Climb (M), Endurance (M), Jump (M), Swim (M).

Weapon Groups: Armor weapons, flexible weapons.

Languages: Common, Orc.

Equipment: Flail, scale mail. As you gain levels, use the best medium armor you can afford, and get spikes and a spiked knee crafted onto it.

Legacy Item: Weapon. At level 3, choose potency. At level 9, choose greater potency and blessed. At level 15, choose supreme potency, greater freezing, and blessed.

Combat Styles: Dirty Fighting, Mobile Assault, Unbreakable Defense.

Suggested Maneuvers:

- Rank 1: anklesprainer, wanderer's strike
- Rank 2: knockback shove, strangle
- Rank 3: battering ram, revitalizing strike
- Rank 4: greater anklesprainer, steal weapon
- Rank 5: eye-averting strike, spellbreaker strike
- Rank 6: greater reaping harvest, greater revitalizing strike
- Rank 7: greater steal weapon, instant pin

Suggested Feats: Savage, Brawler, Swift.

Combat Tactics: You can move around the battlefield very quickly, and you are incredibly accurate with special combat actions like shoving and grappling enemies. Make the most of that by repositioning enemies, tripping them, or holding them in grapples so your allies can hit them. While you aren't in a grapple, use your flail in two hands to maximize your damage. When you enter a grapple, use your spiked knee to attack, since your flail is much less effective while grappling. If you don't have any allies who like being on the front lines, you won't be as effective at helping them deal damage to enemies, but you're still very skilled at preventing enemies from reaching your allies. In that case, consider choosing bear totem or shark totem instead of wolf totem.

Primal Warrior

This archetype grants you abilities to use in combat and improves your physical skills.

Rank 0 – Primal Might

You gain a +1 bonus to Strength-based checks and Constitution-based checks.

Rank 1 – Combat Styles

You can channel your primal energy into ferocious attacks. You gain access to one of the following combat styles: dirty fighting, herald of war, or unbreakable defense. In addition, you gain access to any two combat styles of your choice (see Combat Styles, page 145). You may spend insight points to gain access to one additional combat style per insight point.

You learn two rank 1 maneuvers from combat styles you have access to. You may spend insight points to learn to one additional maneuver per insight point. Unless otherwise noted in an ability's description, using a maneuver requires a standard action.

When you gain access to a new rank in this archetype, you can exchange any number of maneuvers you know for other maneuvers, including maneuvers of the higher rank.

Rank 2 – Combat Style Rank (2)

You become a rank 2 combat style user. This gives you access to maneuvers that require a minimum rank of 2.

Rank 2 – Primal Force

You gain a +1d bonus to your damage with all weapons.

Rank 3 – Combat Style Rank (3)

You become a rank 3 combat style user. This gives you access to maneuvers that require a minimum rank of 3.

Rank 3 – Glancing Strikes

Whenever you miss by 2 or less with a strike, the target takes half damage from the strike. This is called a glancing blow.

Rank 4 – Combat Style Rank (4)

You become a rank 4 combat style user. This gives you access to maneuvers that require a minimum rank of 4.

Rank 4 – Primal Maneuver

You learn an additional maneuver from a combat style you have access to (see Combat Styles, page 145).

Rank 5 – Combat Style Rank (5)

You become a rank 5 combat style user. This gives you access to maneuvers that require a minimum rank of 5.

Rank 5 – Greater Primal Force

The bonus from your primal force ability increases to +2d.

Rank 6 – Combat Style Rank (6)

You become a rank 6 combat style user. This gives you access to maneuvers that require a minimum rank of 6.

Rank 6 – Greater Primal Might

The bonuses from your primal might ability increase to +2.

Rank 7 – Combat Style Rank (7)

You become a rank 7 combat style user. This gives you access to maneuvers that require a minimum rank of 7.

Rank 7 – Primal Maneuver

You learn an additional maneuver from a combat style you have access to (see Combat Styles, page 145).

Typical Character

If you want to quickly create a character based on the eagle totem from this archetype, make the following choices:

Species: Human.

Attributes: 2 Str, 2 Dex, 2 Con, 2 Int, 2 Per, 0 Wil.

Class: Barbarian.

Archetypes: Primal Warrior first, Battleforged Resilience second, Outland Savage third.

Insight Points: 4 points for additional maneuvers.

Skills: Awareness (M), Balance (M), Climb (M), Endurance (M), Medicine (T), Jump (M), Swim (M), Survival (M).

Weapon Groups: Axes, crossbows.

Languages: Common, Dwarven, Orc.

Equipment: Greataxe, scale mail. As you gain levels, buy a heavy crossbow and use the best medium armor you can afford.

Legacy Item: Weapon. At level 3, choose surestrike. At level 9, choose greater surestrike and blessed. At level 15, choose supreme surestrike, greater shocking, and blessed.

Combat Styles: Dirty Fighting, Herald of War, Unbreakable Defense.

Suggested Maneuvers: You can learn most of the maneuvers available at each rank from your combat styles, so it's not meaningful to list specific maneuvers here. Choose whatever is most interesting to you.

Suggested Feats: Greatweapon Warrior, Weapon Focus, Swift.

Combat Tactics: You have a great breadth of options available to you thanks to the number of maneuvers you know. You have the survivability to stand in close combat, especially if you use maneuvers from Unbreakable Defense, but you can also shout at mobile enemies from range with maneuvers from Herald of War. Both Dirty Fighting and Herald of War give you maneuvers that work well against enemies with a high Armor defense, so you can adapt to whatever battle you find yourself in. You can make the most of your versatility by learning maneuvers like disarm weapon that are sometimes useless, but which can be devastatingly effective in the right context.

Totemist

This archetype allows you to embody the spirits of apex predators to improve your combat ability.

Rank 0 – Animal Instincts

You gain a +2 bonus to Reflex defense and initiative checks.

Bear: You gain a bonus equal to three times your rank in this archetype to your maximum hit points. In addition, you gain a +1 bonus to Fortitude defense.

Crocodile: Once per round, when you damage a creature with a melee strike, you can use this ability to push it into any space adjacent to you.

Eagle: You gain low-light vision, allowing you to treat sources of light as if they had double their normal illumination range. If you already have low-light vision, you double its benefit, allowing you to treat sources of light as if they had four times their normal illumination range. In addition, you reduce your longshot penalty by 1 (see Weapon Range Limits, page 314).

Lion: You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy as long as you have an ally adjacent to you.

Shark: You gain a +2 bonus to accuracy against creatures that are below their maximum hit points.

Wolf: At the start of each round, you may choose one of your allies. That creature gains a +1 bonus to accuracy during that round as long as it is adjacent to you.

Rank 2 – Feral Explosion

Whenever you explode with an attack roll, you gain a +2 accuracy bonus with the attack. This bonus stacks with itself if you explode multiple times with the same attack roll.

Rank 3 – Totemic Force

You gain a +1d bonus to your damage with all weapons.

Rank 4 – Greater Totem Animal

The benefit from your totem animal ability improves.

Bear: The hit point bonus increases to five times your rank in this archetype. In addition, the Fortitude bonus increases to +2.

Crocodile: Once per round, when you make a creature lose hit points with a melee strike, you can choose to either grapple it or knock it prone.

Eagle: You gain a +3 bonus to the Awareness skill. In addition, you are immune to being dazzled and blinded.

Lion: You gain a +5 foot bonus to your speed with all of your movement modes.

Shark: The accuracy bonus increases to +4.

Wolf: You gain a +5 foot bonus to your speed with all of your movement modes.

Rank 5 – Greater Feral Explosion

Rank 6 – Greater Totemic Force

The bonus from your totemic force ability increases to +2d.

Rank 7 – Supreme Totem Animal

The benefit from your totem animal ability improves further.

Bear: The hit point bonus increases to seven times your rank in this archetype. In addition, the Fortitude bonus increases to +3.

Crocodile: The benefit of your greater totem animal ability applies whenever you deal damage with a melee strike instead of whenever you make a creature lose hit points with a melee strike.

Eagle: The longshot penalty reduction increases to 2. In addition, the Awareness bonus increases to +6.

Lion: The accuracy bonus increases to +2.

Shark: The accuracy bonus increases to +6.

Wolf: The accuracy bonus increases to +2.

Typical Character

Characters from this archetype can be very different based on their chosen totem. A bear totem character might resemble the typical character for the Battleforged Resilience archetype. A lion totem or shark totem character might resemble the typical character for the Battlerager archetype. A wolf totem character might resemble the typical character for the Outland Savage archetype.

If you want to quickly create a character based on the eagle totem from this archetype, make the following choices:

Species: Human.

- Rank 3: heartpiercing strike, penetrating shot

- Rank 4: barrage, groundspike

- Rank 5: greater deathblow, volley fire

- Rank 6: greater eye gouge, greater retreating strike

- Rank 7: greater desperate flurry, greater groundspike

Suggested Feats: Sniper, Weapon Focus, Swift.

Combat Tactics: You have incredible accuracy from very long range. Your defenses are low, but as long as you stay far enough away from your foes, they can't take advantage of that weakness. You have the ability to prioritize any target on the battlefield, so make the most of your maneuvers that impose conditions or deal additional damage on weakened foes.

- Rank 2: cure wound, divine conduit, word of faith
- Rank 3: boon of cleansing, lifesteal, mantle of faith
- Rank 4: greater divine judgment, greater inflict wound, greater word of faith

Suggested Feats: Leadership, Celestial Heritage, Sphere Focus: Channel Divinity

Combat Tactics: You can protect and heal your allies and invoke divine wrath on your foes. You have a mixture of attacks against both Fortitude and Mental defense, so use the best spells for the situation. If you are facing a foe that not particularly vulnerable to either, you can focus on keeping your allies healed and using "boon" spells to make their actions more effective.

Rank 0 – Mystic Sphere

You gain access to an additional divine mystic sphere, including all cantrips from that sphere.

In addition, you automatically learn one free divine ritual of each rank you have access to, including new ranks as you gain access to them. You cannot choose this ability multiple times.

Signature Spell: Choose a divine spell you know. The spell loses the Focus tag, allowing you to cast it without lowering your guard in combat. In addition, you gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with that spell. You can choose this ability multiple times, choosing a different spell each time.

Spell Knowledge: You learn an additional spell. You can choose this ability multiple times, learning an additional spell each time.

Spell Power: Choose a divine spell you know. You gain a bonus equal to your rank in this archetype to your power with that spell. You can choose this ability multiple times, choosing a different spell each time.

If you want to quickly create a more martial character based on the Strength and War domains from this archetype, make the following choices:

Species: Dwarf.

Attributes: 3 Str, 0 Dex, 3 Con, 0 Int, 2 Per, 1 Wil (after species modifiers).

Class: Cleric.

Archetypes: Domain Influence first, Divine Magic second, Preacher third.

Suggested Feats: Weapon Focus, Sphere Focus: Channel Divinity, Shieldbearer

you durable in combat, though you lack mobility. When you need to distract foes or face down hordes, you can use your abilities from the Preacher archetype, which do not have the Focus tag. If you can't take the Weapon Focus feat, consider taking the Destruction domain instead of the Strength domain, since that gives you a standard action ability to help you deal damage with your weapon.

Healer

This archetype grants you healing abilities. All abilities from this archetype are magical.

Rank 0 – Desperate Healing

When you use the desperate exertion ability to affect a Medicine check, you gain a +3 bonus to the check. This stacks with the normal +2 bonus from the desperate exertion ability. In addition, using the desperate exertion ability to affect a roll using the Medicine skill only causes you to increase your fatigue level by one instead of two.

Rank 1 – Restoration

You can use the restoration ability as a standard action.

Restoration Healing, Magical

Instant

Choose yourself or one living ally within your reach. The subject regains 2d6 hit points. If the subject is a creature other than yourself, they also regain hit points equal to your power. After you use this ability, you briefly cannot use it or any other Healing ability.

Divine Healing Magical

Instant

When you use this ability, you increase your fatigue level by two (see Fatigue, page 20).

Choose yourself or one living ally within your reach. The subject removes one of its vital wounds.

Rank 5: If the subject's level is at least two levels lower than your level, you do not increase your fatigue level when you use this ability.

Rank 7: The subject can remove an additional vital wound.

Rank 4 – Called to the Needy

At the end of each phase, if a living ally within Distant (240 ft.) range of you gained a vital wound during that phase, you can teleport into the unoccupied square closest to that creature.

Rank 5 – Greater Healer's Grace

The bonus from your healer's grace ability increases to +2.

Rank 6 – Revivify

You can use the revivify ability as a standard action.

Revivify

Instant

When you use this ability, you increase your fatigue level by three (see Fatigue, page 20).

Choose one intact corpse within your reach. If it belongs to a creature that has been dead for no more than 1 minute, that creature is restored to life, as the resurrection ritual. After using this ability, you cannot use it again until you take a long rest.

Rank 7 – Greater Called to the Needy

You can use your called to the needy ability to teleport to allies that lost hit points in addition to allies that gained vital wounds. In addition, the range limit increases to Extreme (480 ft.) range, and it no longer requires line of sight or line of effect.

Typical Character

If you want to quickly create a character based on this archetype, make the following choices:

Species: Gnome.

Attributes: -1 Str, 2 Dex, 3 Con, 0 Int, 0 Per, 4 Wil (after species modifiers).

Class: Cleric.

Archetypes: Healer first, Divine Magic second, Domain Influence third.

Insight Points: 3 points for additional spells known.

Skills: Awareness (T), Climb (T), Knowledge (religion) (M), Jump (T), Medicine (M), Persuasion (M), Spell sense (T), Swim (T)

Weapon Group: Club-like weapons.

Languages: Common, Draconic, Halfling.

Equipment: Morning star, standard shield, scale mail. As you gain levels, use the best medium armor you can afford.

Legacy Item: 1-handed implement. At level 3, choose staff of potency. At level 9, choose reaching staff and staff of potency. At level 15, choose greater staff of the archmagi, reaching staff, and staff of focus.

Domains: Life, Protection

Mystic Spheres: Vivimancy

Suggested Spells:

- Rank 1: drain life, draining grasp, lifegift, retributive lifebond
- Rank 2: cure wound, sickening miasma, wellspring of life
- Rank 3: circle of death, lifesteal, vital persistence
- Rank 4: greater inflict wound, greater retributive lifebond
- Rank 5: circle of death, nauseating miasma, steal vitality
- Rank 7: avascular, supreme retributive lifebond

Suggested Feats: Sphere Focus: Vivimancy, Boongiver, Iron Will

Combat Tactics: You have an unmatched mastery of healing and protection. You have high defenses, so you can take to the front lines as necessary to make the most of restoration and divine protection, but it's generally better to let your allies take hits instead of you. Since restoration is much less effective at healing yourself, you can use spells like cure wounds or lifesteal to heal yourself if you lose hit points. Although your healer's grace ability is powerful, you shouldn't feel bad about attacking enemies. That's especially important early in a fight when your allies don't need healing yet and your enemies haven't realized that it's pointless to attack your allies while you are still standing.

Preacher

This archetype grants you the ability to inspire your allies and denounce or even convert your foes.

Rank 0 – Practiced Persuasion

You gain a +2 bonus to the Persuasion skill. In addition, using the desperate exertion ability to affect a roll using the Persuasion skill only causes you to increase your fatigue level by one instead of two.

You can use the denounce the heathens ability as a standard action.

Rank 3: The area increases to a Large (60 ft.) radius.
Rank 5: The area increases to a Huge (120 ft.) radius.
Rank 7: The area increases to a Gargantuan (240 ft.) radius.

Rank 2 – Inspiring Oration

Your allies who can hear you in a fight gain a +2 bonus to Mental defense. You must generally say inspiring words every few rounds to grant your allies this effect, though they can be brief, so this does not take an action.

Rank 3 – Bless the Worthy

You can use the bless the worthy ability as a standard action.

Bless the Worthy	Duration
You and all allies within a Huge (120 ft.) radius from you can remove a brief effect condition . This ability cannot remove an effect applied during the current round. In addition, one of your allies briefly gains a +2 bonus to accuracy .

Rank 7: The accuracy bonus increases to +4.

The bonus from your practiced persuasion ability increases to +4. In addition, you can use the desperate exertion ability any number of times to affect the same Persuasion check.

Rank 5 – Condemn the Fearful

You can use the condemn the fearful ability as a standard action.

Condemn the Fearful	Duration
Make an attack vs. Mental against all enemies within a Medium (30 ft.) radius from you. Your accuracy is equal to your Persuasion skill.
Hit: Each subject is briefly frightened (-4 accuracy and Mental within 60 ft.) by you.
Rank 7: The area increases to a Large (60 ft.) radius.

Rank 6 – Greater Inspiring Oration

The bonus from your inspiring oration ability increases to +4.

Rank 7 – Convert the Irresolute

You can use the convert the irresolute ability as a standard action.

Convert the Irresolute	Duration
Make an attack vs. Mental against one creature within Medium (60 ft.) range. Your accuracy is equal to your Persuasion skill.
Hit: The subject is stunned until it finishes a long rest . At the end of that time, if its Willpower is 0 or lower, it changes its mind and begins worshipping your deity permanently if it is capable of doing so.

Typical Character

If you want to quickly create a character based on this archetype, make the following choices:

Species: Half-elf.

Attributes: 1 Str, 0 Dex, 2 Con, 3 Int, 2 Per, 1 Wil.

Class: Cleric.

Archetypes: Preacher first, Divine Magic second, Domain Mastery third.

Insight Points: 1 point for heavy armor, 2 points for additional skill points, 3 points for additional spells known.

Skills: Awareness (M), Deduction (T), Intimidate (M), Knowledge (arcana, local, religion, planes) (M), Linguistics (M), Medicine (M), Persuasion (M), Social Insight (M), Spell sense (M)

Weapon Group: Headed weapons

Languages: Common, Draconic, Elven, Gnome.

Equipment: Warhammer, standard shield, scale mail. As you gain levels, use the best heavy armor you can afford.

Legacy Item: Apparel. At level 3, choose amulet of honeyed words. At level 9, choose greater amulet of honeyed words and ring of blessed protection. At level 15, choose supreme amulet of honeyed words, phasestep boots, and ring of blessed protection.

Domains: Good, Travel

Mystic Sphere: Revelation

Suggested Spells:

- Rank 1: precognitive defense, precognitive offense, reveal weakness, true strike

- Rank 2: blindsight, myriad visions
- Rank 3: discern lies, true cast
- Rank 4: boon of knowledge, greater reveal weakness
- Rank 5: clairvoyance
- Rank 6: mass true strike, stunning truth
- Rank 7: blinding visions

Suggested Feats: Persuasion Specialization, Sphere Focus: Revelation, Social Insight Specialization

Combat Tactics: You can distract and demoralize your enemies with unmatched accuracy. Your social skills should be incredibly high, which you can use to your advantage both in and out of combat. For a more cynical take on this character, consider mastering the Deception skill instead of Knowledge (religion). Your domains and spells help you stay mobile in combat and protect your allies. Your Preacher abilities work best if you are near the middle of the fight, but your spells are dangerous to use if you are being attacked because of your high Focus penalty, so your positioning can be tricky.

Cleric Domain Abilities

These domain abilities can be granted by the domain influence cleric archetype. All cleric domain abilities are magical unless otherwise specified.

It regains a semblance of life, allowing you to speak with it as if it were the creature the corpse belonged to. The creature is able to refuse to speak with you, though you can attempt to persuade it to speak normally, and some creatures may be more willing to talk if they know they are already dead. The corpse must have an intact mouth to be able to speak. This ability ends if 24 hours have passed since the creature died.

Mastery: The bonus from this domain’s aspect increases to +5.

Rank 6: The area increases to a Large (60 ft.) radius.

Mastery: The bonus from this domain's gift increases to +5, and the number of hit points you gain from its aspect increases to 16.

Evil

Gift: At the start of each phase, you may choose an adjacent ally. If you do, the first time you would lose a hit point that phase, the target loses that hit point instead. If the target is unable to lose hit points, such as if it has no hit points remaining, you suffer the hit point loss normally.

Aspect: You can use this domain's domain gift to target any ally within Medium (60 ft.) range.

Essence: You can use the compel evil ability as a standard action.

Compel Evil

Duration

Compulsion

Make an attack vs. Mental against a creature within Medium (60 ft.) range. Creatures who have strict codes prohibiting them from taking evil actions, such as paladins devoted to Good, are immune to this ability.

Hit: The target takes an evil action as soon as it can. Once it takes the evil action, this effect ends. You have no control over the act the creature takes, but circumstances can make the target more likely to take an action you desire. After this effect ends, the subject becomes immune to this effect until it takes a short rest.

Glancing blow: As above, except that the effect ends at the end of the next round.

You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with the attack for each rank beyond 4.

Mastery: You can use your domain gift to redirect your hit point loss to an adjacent unwilling creature. You cannot target the same unwilling creature more than once with this ability between short rests.

Fire

If you choose this domain, you add the pyromancy mystic sphere to your list of divine mystic spheres (see Mystic Spheres, page 170).

Essence: You can use the speaking with fire ability as a standard action.

Speak with FireAttune (self)

If you command the fire to perform a task, it will do so do the best of its ability until this effect ends. You cannot compel the fire to move farther than 30 feet in a single round. Fire that ends the round on non-combustable materials usually goes out, depending on the circumstances.

After you use this ability on a particular area of fire, you cannot use it again on that same area for 24 hours.

Rank 6: The area increases to a Gargantuan (240 ft.) radius.

Mastery: Whenever you deal fire damage, you also treat that damage as being pure energy damage. This can help you deal damage to enemies that are highly resistant to fire damage. In addition, you become immune to fire damage.

Good

Gift: Whenever an adjacent ally suffers a vital wound, you may gain a vital wound instead. You gain a +2 bonus to the vital roll of each vital wound you gain this way. The original target suffers any other effects of the attack normally.

You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with the attack for each rank beyond 4.

You cannot alter the knowledge you share with this check in any way, such as by adding or withholding information.

When you use this ability, you also gain the condition. If this condition is removed from you, it is also removed from all other affected creatures. In areas under ambiguous or nonexistent government, this ability may have unexpected effects, or it may have no effect at all.

Glancing blow: As above, except that the effect ends at the end of the next round.

You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with the attack for each rank beyond 4.

Mastery: When you roll less than a 6 on an attack roll, it is treated as if you had rolled a 6.

A creature that sees an attack against an ally protected in this way can observe that you are the cause of the protection with a difficulty rating 5 Awareness check. While this ability is active, you cannot gain a defense bonus from this ability, even if another creature with this ability uses it on you.

Essence: The bonus from this domain's gift increases to twice your rank in this archetype.

Instant

You teleport up to 1 mile in any direction. You do not need line of sight or line of effect to your destination, but you must be able to clearly visualize it.

Rank 6: The maximum distance increases to 5 miles.

Mastery: When you would move using one of your movement speeds, you can teleport the same distance instead. This does not change the total distance you can move, but you can teleport in any direction, including vertically. Being grappled or otherwise physically constrained does not prevent you from teleporting in this way.

You can even attempt to move to locations outside of line of sight and line of effect, up to the limit of your remaining movement speed. If your intended destination is invalid, the distance you tried to teleport is taken from your remaining movement, but you suffer no other ill effects.

Trickery

If you choose this domain, you add the Deception, Disguise, and Stealth skills to your cleric class skill list.

Gift: You gain two skill points.

Aspect: You gain a +2 bonus to the Deception, Disguise, and Stealth skills.

Essence: You can use the compel belief ability as a standard action.

Compel Belief

Sustain (minor)

Compulsion

Make an attack vs. Mental against a creature within Medium (60 ft.) range. You must also choose a belief that the target has. The belief may be a lie that you told it, or even a simple misunderstanding (such as believing a hidden creature is not present in a room). If the creature does not already hold the chosen belief, this ability automatically fails.

Hit: The subject continues to maintain the chosen belief, regardless of any evidence to the contrary. It will interpret any evidence that the falsehood is incorrect to be somehow wrong – an illusion, a conspiracy to deceive it, or any other reason it can think of to continue believing the falsehood. At the end of the effect, the creature can decide whether it believes the falsehood or not, as normal. After this effect ends, the subject becomes immune to this effect until it takes a short rest.

Glancing blow: As above, except that the effect ends at the end of the next round.

You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with the attack for each rank beyond 4.

Mastery: You are undetectable to all magical abilities. They cannot detect your presence, sounds you make, or any actions you take. For example, a scrying sensor created by a Scrying effect would be unable to detect your presence, and a creature with magical darkvision would not be able to see you without light.

War

Gift: You gain proficiency with heavy armor and an additional weapon group of your choice.

Aspect: You gain a +2 bonus to your power with all abilities.

Essence: Whenever you miss by 2 or less with a strike, the target takes half damage from the strike. This is called a glancing blow.

Mastery: The bonus from this domain's aspect increases to +6.

Water

If you choose this domain, you add the aquamancy mystic sphere to your list of divine mystic spheres (see Mystic Spheres, page 170). In addition, you add the Flexibility and Swim skills to your cleric class skill list.

Gift: You gain a +2 bonus to the Flexibility and Swim skills.

Aspect: You can breathe water as easily as a human breathes air, preventing you from drowning or suffocating underwater.

Essence: You can use the Speak with water ability as a standard action.

Speak with Water

Attune (self)

You can speak with and command water within a Huge (120 ft.) zone from your location. You can ask the water simple questions and understand its responses. If you command the water to perform a task, it will do so to the best of its ability until this effect ends. You cannot compel the water to move faster than 30 feet per round.

After you use this ability on a particular area of water, you cannot use it again on that same area for 24 hours.

Rank 6: The area increases to a Gargantuan (240 ft.) radius.

Mastery: Your body becomes partially aquatic, allowing you to manipulate it more easily. The bonuses from this domain's gift increase to +10. In addition, you gain a +1 bonus to Armor and Reflex defenses.

Wild

If you choose this domain, you add the verdnamancy mystic sphere to your list of divine mystic spheres (see Mystic Spheres, page 170). In addition, you add the Creature Handling, Knowledge (nature), and Survival skills to your cleric class skill list.

Gift: You gain two skill points.

Aspect: This ability functions like the wild aspect druid ability from the Shifter archetype (see Shifter, page ??), except that you cannot spend insight points to learn additional wild aspects.

Essence: You learn an additional wild aspect.

Mastery: You can maintain both of your wild aspects simultaneously.

Ex-Clerics

If you grossly violate the code of conduct required by your deity, you lose all spells and magical cleric class abilities. You cannot regain those abilities until you atone for your transgressions to your deity.

Elementalist

This archetype grants you influence over four elements that define the natural world: air, earth, fire, and water. All abilities from this archetype are magical.

Rank 0 – Elemental Balance

You gain a small benefit from each of the four elements.

- Air: You gain a +2 bonus to the Jump skill.
- Earth: You gain a +1 bonus to Fortitude defense.

Table 4.5: Druid Progression

Elemental InfluenceSustain (standard)

You can speak with air, earth, fire, and water within a Huge (120 ft.) zone from your location. You can ask the elements simple questions and understand their responses. Each element has different limitations on its memory and awareness, as described below.

- Air: Air can remember events up to an hour ago on a very calm day or only a few minutes ago on a windy day. Moving air is aware of events near where it blew through, not necessarily in your current location.
- Earth: Earth can remember events up to a year ago, but its awareness is extremely limited. It can only remember very large events, such as giant creatures tearing up the terrain, earthquakes, or major construction. Earth can tell you whether there exist underground tunnels within the area, but any sort of detailed mapping is beyond its ability to communicate.
- Fire: Fire can remember everything it touched and consumed since it started burning. Individual pieces of a very large fire, such as a particular burning tree in a forest fire, are not aware of the behavior of the entirety of the fire. However, the fire on burning tree could tell you how it got to the tree and everything it burned along the way, including the event that started the forest fire.
- Water: Water can remember events up to a day ago in a very calm pool or only a few minutes ago in a turbulent river. Moving water is aware of events near where it moved through, not necessarily in your current location.

Air, earth, and water are only able to give information about what they touch. This includes the general shapes, sizes, and locations of creatures and objects they interacted with, but not any details about color or subjective appearance. Fire is also able to give information about anything illuminated by its light, allowing it to report more detailed information like color. It is still unable to make meaningful subjective judgments like a creature would.

Rank 3 – Greater Elemental Balance

The bonuses from your elemental balance ability improve.

- Air: You gain a glide speed equal to half the base speed for your size.
- Earth: The bonus to Fortitude defense increases to +2.
- Fire: The defense bonus increases to +4.
- Water: You gain a swim speed equal to half the base speed for your size.

Rank 4 – Elemental Versatility

You learn an additional spell with your elemental versatility ability.

Rank 5 – Elemental Control

When you use your elemental influence ability, you can also command the elements to move as you desire. Each element has different limitations on its ability to move, as described below.

- Air: You can change the wind speed of air by up to 50 miles per hour. If you reduce the air's speed to 0 and then increase it again, you can change the direction the air blows.
- Earth: You can reshape earth or unworked stone at a rate of up to one foot per round.
- Fire: You can make fire leap up to 30 feet between combustible materials, suppress fire so it smolders without being extinguished, or snuff out fire entirely.
- Water: You can change the speed of water by up to 30 feet per round. If you reduce the water's speed to 0 and then increase it again, you can change the direction the water flows.

Rank 6 – Elemental Power

You gain a +3 bonus to your magical power.

Rank 7 – Supreme Elemental Balance

The bonuses from your elemental balance ability improve.

- Air: You gain a fly speed equal to half the base speed for your size with a maximum height of 15 feet (see Flying, page 14). At the start of each phase, you can increase your fatigue level by one to ignore this height limit until the end of the round.
- Earth: The bonus to Fortitude defense increases to +4.
- Fire: The defense bonus increases to +6.
- Water: You suffer no penalties for fighting underwater, and your swim speed increases to be equal to the base speed for your size.

You automatically learn all cantrips from any mystic sphere you have access to. You do not yet gain access to any other spells from those mystic spheres.

Nature Spell Mastery

This archetype improves the nature spells you cast. You must have the Nature Magic archetype from the cleric class to gain the abilities from this archetype. All abilities from this archetype are magical.

Rank 0 – Combat Caster

You reduce your focus penalties by 2.

Rank 1 – Mystic Insight

You gain your choice of one of the following abilities. Whenever you increase your rank in this archetype, you may change your choice. This can allow you to apply the benefits of insights like signature spell to higher rank spells.

Distant Spell: Choose a nature spell you know with a standard range: Short, Medium, Long, Distant, or Extreme. You double your range with that spell. You can choose this ability multiple times, choosing a different spell each time.

Focused Caster: You reduce your focus penalty by 1. You cannot choose this ability multiple times.

Rituals: You gain the ability to perform nature rituals to create unique magical effects (see Rituals, page 31). The maximum rank of nature ritual you can learn or perform is equal to the maximum rank of nature spell that you can cast. In addition, you automatically learn one free nature ritual of each rank you have access to, including new ranks as you gain access to them. You cannot choose this ability multiple times.

Signature Spell: Choose a nature spell you know. The spell loses the Focus tag, allowing you to cast it without lowering your guard in combat. In addition, you gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with that spell. You can choose this ability multiple times, choosing a different spell each time.

Spell Knowledge: You learn an additional spell. You can choose this ability multiple times, learning an additional spell each time.

Spell Power: Choose a nature spell you know. You gain a bonus equal to your rank in this archetype to your power with that spell. You can choose this ability multiple times, choosing a different spell each time.

Rank 2 – Plant Channeling

Whenever you cast a spell, you may treat all effects of the spell as if you were located at any Tiny or larger living plant within Medium (60 ft.) range instead of in your current location. This allows you to measure the spell's range from the plant's location, cone-shaped areas originate from the plant's location instead of your own, and so on.

Rank 3 – Wellspring of Power

You gain a +2 bonus to your magical power.

Rank 4 – Mystic Insight

You gain an additional mystic insight ability.

Use the typical character for the Nature Magic druid archetype. Even if you focus on spells through this archetype, you should generally still rank up your spells before improving your rank in this archetype.

Shifter

This archetype grants you the ability to embody aspects of the natural world in your own form. All abilities from this archetype are magical.

Rank 0 – Shifting Defense

You gain a +2 bonus to Fortitude, Reflex, or Mental defense. You can change the defense this bonus applies to as a standard action.

Rank 1 – Wild Aspects

You gain the ability to embody an aspect of an animal or of nature itself. Choose two wild aspects from the list below. You can also spend insight points to learn one additional wild aspect per insight point.

As a standard action, you can gain the effects of one wild aspect that you know. You cannot change your wild aspect more than once per round. That effect lasts until you activate a different wild aspect you know or until you dismiss it as a free action.

The abilities in the list below describe the effects of the aspect. Your appearance also changes to match the aspect’s effects, but the nature of this change is not described. Different druids change in different ways. For example, one druid might grow brown fur when using the Form of the Bear, while another might instead change their face to become broader and more bear-shaped when embodying the same aspect. You choose how your appearance changes when you gain a wild aspect. This change cannot be used to gain an additional substantive benefit beyond the effects given in the description of the aspect.

You gain a +2 bonus to accuracy with the grapple ability and all grapple actions (see Grapple, page 28). Rank 3: The accuracy bonus increases to +3.

Rank 5: You can contort your body, allowing it to act as a free hand for the purpose of using the grapple ability and grapple actions even if you do not have a free hand.

Rank 7: When you grapple a creature with the grapple ability, you are not considered to be grappled (see Asymmetric Grappling, page 30).

You gain a swim speed equal to the base speed for your size. In addition, you gain a bite natural weapon (see Table 9.3: Natural Weapons (page 322)).

Rank 3: When a creature takes damage from your bite natural weapon, it is poisoned. At the end of each round, you make an attack vs. Fortitude against the target. If you hit, the target is sickened (-2 all defenses) until it removes the poison. The poison is removed if you miss the target on this attack three times.

Rank 5: You gain a +1d bonus to your damage with natural weapons.

Rank 7: The poison makes the target nauseated (-4 all defenses) instead of sickened (-2 all defenses).

Rank 5: The speed bonus increases to +10 feet.

Rank 7: When you take a short rest while you are in natural sunlight, you remove a vital wound.

Plantspeaker Duration

Your speed is not reduced when moving in light or heavy undergrowth. In addition, you can ignore cover and concealment (but not total cover) from plants whenever doing so would be beneficial to you, as the plants move out of the way to help you. This prevents you from suffering penalties on your attacks, and also prevents creatures from using cover or concealment from plants to hide from you.

Rank 3: You gain a +1 bonus to Armor and Reflex defenses while standing in undergrowth.

Typical Character

If you want to quickly create a character based on this archetype, make the following choices:

Species: Half-orc.

Attributes: 3 Str, 3 Dex, 2 Con, 0 Int, 0 Per, 1 Wil.

Class: Druid.

Archetypes: Shifter first, Nature Magic second, Nature Spell Mastery third.

Insight Points: 2 points for wild aspects, 2 points for spells

Skills: Awareness (M), Balance (M), Climb (M), Jump (M), Ride (T), Stealth (M), Survival (M), Swim (M)

Weapon Group: Bows

Languages: Common, Sylvan

Equipment: Natural weapon, standard shield, chain shirt. As you gain levels, use the best light armor you can afford. Use your natural weapons instead of manufactured weapons unless you need to fight at long range.

Legacy Item: Apparel. At level 3, choose amulet of mighty fists. At level 9, choose greater amulet of mighty fists and ring of blessed protection. At level 15, choose supreme amulet of mighty fists, enlarging belt, and ring of blessed protection.

Mystic Sphere: Polymorph

Suggested Wild Aspects: Your choice of wild aspect has a significant effect on your capabilities, and they are less complicated to evaluate than spell, so choose wild aspects that match your goals. The Bear, Viper, and Wolf forms excel at dealing damage in combat. The Bull and Constrictor forms improve your ability to take unusual combat actions. Other forms can be useful in specific circumstances and out of combat.

Suggested Spells:

- Rank 1: camouflage, mighty claw, organ failure, stoneskin, twisting claw
- Rank 2: brief regeneration, bleed, distant claw, shrink
- Rank 3: enlarge, scent, spikeform
- Rank 4: draconic senses, eyebite, malleable body
- Rank 5: baleful polymorph, greater bleed, vital regeneration
- Rank 6: extruding spikes
- Rank 7: cripple, sludgeform

Suggested Feats: Sphere Focus: Polymorph, Regenerator, Brawler, Savage

Combat Tactics: You are a lethal blend of claws and teeth. You can shift your form to gain the perfect abilities for your current circumstances, and your high physical attributes make you hard to kill and hard to ignore. Your flexibility between natural weapons, spells, and high physical skills give you a lot of options in and out of combat.

Wildspeaker

This archetype deepens your connection to animals and plants, and allows you to call animals to aid you in combat. All abilities from this archetype are magical.

Rank 0 – Animal Speech

You can use the animal speech ability as a standard action.

Animal Speech

Sustain (minor)

Choose an animal within Long (120 ft.) range. You can speak to and understand the speech of the target animal, and any other animals of the same species.

This ability does not make the target any more friendly or cooperative than normal. Wary and cunning animals are likely to be terse and evasive, while stupid ones tend to make inane comments and are unlikely to say or understand anything of use.

Rank 1 – Natural Servant

You can use the natural servant ability. This ability requires spending 1 hour performing rituals in a natural area.

Natural Servant

Attune (self)

An animal native to the local environment appears to help you. It follows your directions to the best of its ability as long as you remain in its natural environment. If you leave the animal's natural habitat, it remains behind and this effect ends. If the animal gains a vital wound or has no hit points remaining at the end of the round, this effect ends.

Your magical connection to the animal improves its resilience and strength in combat. The animal's statistics use the values below, except that each animal also gains a special ability based on the environment you are in.

- Its size category is Medium, and its base speed is the normal base speed for its size (see Table 2.5: Size in Combat (page 24)).
- Its fatigue tolerance is 0, and it cannot use abilities that would cause it to increase its fatigue level.
- Its hit points are equal to the base value for your level (see Table 2.8: Character Advancement (page 34)).
- Its damage resistance is equal to the base value for your level (see Character Advancement, page 34).
- Each of its defenses is equal to 5 + your level.
- Its accuracy is equal to your level + half your base Perception.
- Its power with its attacks is 0.
- It has no attunement points.
- The damage dealt by its natural weapons increases by +1d for each rank in this archetype beyond 1.
- It automatically shares the benefits of all of your magic bonuses to hit points, damage resistance, defenses, accuracy, and power.

Animals are unable to understand complex concepts, so their ability to obey convoluted instructions is limited.

The special ability of the animal that appears depends on your environment, as described below. You may choose a different animal native to that environment that is similar in size and type, but that does not change the animal's statistics. For example, your natural servant in an aquatic environment may be a fish or seal instead of a shark. Unusual environments may have different animals than the standard animals listed below.

- Aquatic: A shark appears that has a 30 foot swim speed and no land speed. It has a bite natural weapon.
- Arctic: An arctic fox appears that has no penalties for being in cold environments. It has a bite natural weapon.
- Desert: A hyena appears that has no penalties for being in hot environments. It has a bite natural weapon.
- Mountain: A goat appears that can move up or down steep slopes without slowing its movement. It has a ram natural weapon.
- Forest: A wolverine appears that has two additional hit points. It has a bite natural weapon.
- Plains: A wolf appears that has the scout ability. It has a bite natural weapon.

- Swamp: A crocodile appears that has a 15 foot land speed and a 25 foot swim speed. It has a bite natural weapon.
- Underground: A dire rat appears that has low-light vision. It has a bite natural weapon.

Rank 2 – Nature’s Ally

Animals will not willingly attack you or your allies within a Large (60 ft.) radius emanation from you. They can be compelled to attack despite this protection with a Creature Handling check against a difficulty rating equal to 10 + your level. If any subject attacks a creature that this ability protects you from, this ability is suppressed until you take a short rest.

Rank 3 – Nature’s Might

You and your natural servant gain a +1d damage bonus with natural weapons.

Rank 3 – Plant Speech

When you use your animal speech ability, you can choose a plant instead of an animal. When you do, you can speak to and understand the speech of the target plant, and any other plants of the same species.

Rank 4 – Greater Natural Servant

Your natural servant gains an attunement point. This attunement point is shared among any creatures you summon with your natural servant ability, and is only recovered when you take a long rest. In addition, you can cast Attune (self) spells on your natural servant if it is within Short (30 ft.) range of you. When you do, the natural servant attunes to the spell instead of you, as if the spell was an Attune (target) spell.

Rank 5 – Greater Nature’s Ally

Your nature’s ally ability also protects you and your allies from plant-based animates and elemental-based animates. In addition, all creatures that you are protected from with this ability automatically attempt to aid you and your allies if they observe you fighting. Finally, the effect can no longer be bypassed with a Creature Handling check or any other form of control that does not first suppress this effect. Even creatures summoned by enemies to fight you will immediately turn on their summoners or otherwise avoid attacking you.

Rank 6 – Universal Speech

When you use your animal speech ability, you can choose any living creature that knows at least one language. When you do, you can speak in and understand that creature’s native language.

Rank 6 – Nature’s Might

The damage bonus from your nature’s might ability increases to +2d.

Rank 7 – Supreme Natural Servant

Your natural servant gains two additional attunement points. In addition, you may choose to have a Large natural servant appear instead of a Medium natural servant.

Your battle tactics affect yourself and your allies within a Huge (120 ft.) radius emanation from you who can either see or hear your chosen communication style.

All battle tactics have the Sustain (free) tag, so they last as long as you sustain them (see Sustained Abilities, page 17). You cannot sustain multiple battle tactics simultaneously, and any existing battle tactics end as soon as you activate another battle tactic.

Rank 2 – Evasion

You take half damage from abilities that affect an area and attack your Armor or Reflex defense. This does not protect you from any non-damaging effects of those abilities, or from abilities that affect multiple specific targets without affecting an area. If you have the evasion rogue ability with the same effect as this ability, you reduce the total damage you take to one quarter of the normal value instead.

Rank 3 – Airdance (Magical)

When you move with a Jump check, you can land in midair as if it was solid ground. Your landing location must be no more than 30 feet above an object at least two size categories larger than you that is free-standing and capable of supporting your weight. You cannot walk in the air, but you can continue jumping or remain in place. The air holds you until the end of the current round, at which point you fall normally. After you land on air in this way, you briefly cannot do so again.

Ki

This archetype grants you unusual abilities based on tapping into your inner ki. If you have any encumbrance, you lose the benefit of all abilities from this archetype. All abilities from this archetype are magical.

Rank 0 – Ki Barrier

While you are not wearing other body armor, you gain a ki barrier around your body. This functions like body armor that provides a +2 bonus to Armor defense and has no encumbrance. It also provides a bonus to damage resistance equal to twice your rank in this archetype. The armor has no encumbrance.

You can also use a free hand to wield the barrier as a shield. This functions like a buckler, granting you a +1 bonus to Armor defense, except that you do not need to be proficient with light armor. Since this bonus comes from a shield, it does not stack with the benefits of using any other shield.

Rank 0 – Ki Energy

Whenever you make a strike, you can choose to treat that as a magical ability. This allows you to use your power with magical abilities to determine your damage. In addition, that strike does not deal physical damage or any physical damage subtypes. If the strike would normally deal one or more subtype of energy damage, the damage is of those types. Otherwise, all damage dealt by the strike is energy damage.

You can channel your ki to temporarily enhance your abilities. Choose two ki manifestations from the list below. You can also spend insight points to learn one additional ki manifestation per insight point. Flash Step

You can use this ability as part of movement with your land speed. You teleport horizontally instead of moving normally. If your line of effect to your destination is blocked, or if this teleportation would somehow place you inside a solid object, your teleportation is cancelled and you remain where you are.

Teleporting a given distance costs movement equal to twice that distance. For example, if you have a 30 foot movement speed, you can move 10 feet, teleport 5 feet, and move an additional 10 feet before your movement ends.

Rank 3: The movement cost to teleport is reduced to be equal to the distance you teleport.

Rank 5: You can use this ability to move even if you are immobilized (–4 Ref, cannot use movement speeds) or grappled.

Rank 7: You can attempt to teleport to locations outside of line of sight and line of effect. If your intended destination is invalid, the distance you spent teleporting is wasted, but you suffer no other ill effects.

Rank 7 – Greater Forceful Zeal

Rank 7 – Pass Judgment (Magical)

You can use the pass judgment ability as a minor action.

Pass Judgment Magical	Duration
Target: One creature within Long (120 ft.) range
The target is treated as if it had the alignment opposed to your devoted alignment for the purpose of all abilities. This only affects its alignment along the alignment axis your devoted alignment is on. For example, if your devoted alignment was evil, a chaotic neutral target would be treated as chaotic good. This ability lasts until you dismiss it as a free action .
You can use this ability to do battle against foes who share your alignment, but you should exercise caution in doing so. Persecution of those who share your ideals can lead you to fall and become an ex-paladin.

Sneak Attack

Instant

Make a strike with a light weapon or a projectile weapon against a creature within Short (30 ft.) range. If the target is unaware (–5 Armor and Ref) or partially unaware (–2 Armor and Ref) of your attack, or if the target is adjacent to one of your allies, you gain a +2d damage bonus with the strike. You do not gain this damage bonus against creatures who that you are unable to score a critical hit against, such as excessively large creatures or oozes.

Rank 3: The damage bonus increases to +3d.

Rank 5: The damage bonus increases to +4d.

Rank 7: The damage bonus increases to +5d.

Rank 2 – Evasion

Table 4.10: Rogue Progression

Rank	Min Level	Assassin	Bardic Music	Combat Trickster	Jack Of All Trades	Suave Scoundrel
0	—	Stealthy instincts	Bardic lore	Tricky finesse	Dabbler	Smooth liar
1	1	Sneak attack	Bardic performances	Combat styles	Skill exemplar	Confound
2	4	Evasion	Combat inspiration	Combat style rank (2), tricky force	Greater dabbler	Trick magic device
3	7	Darkstalker	Bardic performance, loremaster	Combat style rank (3), glancing strikes	Versatile power	Exploit distraction
4	10	Hide in plain sight	Virtuoso	Combat style rank (4), trick maneuver	Greater skill exemplar	What's that over there
5	13	Greater evasion	Greater combat inspiration	Combat style rank (5), greater tricky force	Supreme dabbler	Greater trick magic device
6	16	Assassination	Bardic performance, greater loremaster	Combat style rank (6), greater tricky finesse	Greater versatile power	Greater exploit distraction
7	19	Greater darkstalker	Greater virtuoso	Combat style rank (7), trick maneuver	Supreme skill exemplar	Nothing is real

Rank 4 – Hide in Plain Sight

You can use the hide ability without moving in a way that causes observers to lose sight of you. This does not remove the bonus that observers receive if you have no cover or concealment at all. After you hide in this way, you briefly cannot do so again.

Rank 5 – Greater Evasion

Your evasion ability also protects you from area attacks against your Fortitude and Mental defenses.

Rank 6 – Assassination

You can use the assassination ability as a minor action.

Assassination	Duration
Swift

You study a creature within Medium (60 ft.) range, finding weak points you can take advantage of. The subject briefly takes maximum damage from your melee strikes that it is unaware (-5 Armor and Ref) of.

Rank 7 – Greater Darkstalker (Magical)

When you use your darkstalker ability, you become undetectable by any number of the possible sense groups, not just one.

Bardic Music

This archetype grants you the ability to inspire your allies and impair your foes with musical performances.

Rank 0 – Bardic Lore

You gain two additional skill points. In addition, you gain all Knowledge skills as class skills.

Rank 1 – Bardic Performances (Magical)

You learn two bardic performances from the list below. You can also spend insight points to learn one additional bardic performance per insight point. You can use any bardic performance you know as a standard action unless it specifies that it requires a different type of action to activate.

All bardic performances have the Auditory tag. When you use a bardic performance ability, you begin a performance using one of your Perform skills. You must use either an instrumental performance or a vocal performance, and not a visual performance. If you use a vocal performance, the bardic performance gains the Speech tag, preventing it from affecting creatures that do not speak the language you perform in. You must be trained with a Perform skill capable of making an auditory performance to use a bardic performance ability. If you are mastered with an appropriate Perform skill, you gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with the ability.

The names of bardic performances do not have to precisely match your actual performance. For example, you can use the palliative poem ability with a gentle song using Perform (wind instruments) or a distracting joke using Perform (comedy) instead of a poem.

Many bardic performances require you to sustain the performance as a minor action. If the targets stop being able to see or hear you, depending on the nature of your performance, the effect ends for them as if you had stopped sustaining the performance. However, targets do not stop being affected by your performance simply by travelling beyond the initial range of the bardic performance ability. Using a bardic performance ability with an immediate effect does not interfere with your ability to sustain other bardic performance abilities.

Weapon Proficiencies

You are proficient with simple weapons.

Armor Proficiencies

You are not proficient with any type of armor. Encumbrance from armor interferes with the gestures you make to cast spells, which can cause your spells with somatic components to fail (see Somatic Component Failure, page 31).

Class Skills

You have the following class skills:

- Intelligence: Craft, Deduction, Knowledge (arcana, planes), Linguistics.
- Perception: Awareness, Spellsense.
- Other: Deception, Intimidate, Persuasion, Profession.

Arcane Magic

This archetype grants you the ability to cast arcane spells. All abilities from this archetype are magical.

Rank 0 – Cantrips

You have the ability to use arcane magic. You gain access to one arcane mystic sphere (see Arcane Mystic Spheres, page 170). You may spend insight points to gain access to one additional arcane mystic sphere per two insight points. You automatically learn all cantrips from any mystic sphere you have access to. You do not yet gain access to any other spells from those mystic spheres.

Arcane spells require both verbal components and somatic components to cast (see Casting Components, page 30). For details about mystic spheres and casting spells, see Spell and Ritual Mechanics, page 30.

Rank 0 – Mage Armor

You can use the mage armor ability as a standard action.

Mage Armor	Duration
You create a translucent suit of magical armor on your body and over your hands. This functions like body armor that provides a +2 bonus to Armor defense and has no encumbrance. It also provides a bonus to damage resistance equal to your rank in this archetype. You can also use a free hand to wield the barrier as a shield. This functions like a buckler, granting you a +1 bonus to Armor defense, except that you do not need to be proficient with light armor. Since this bonus comes from a shield, it does not stack with the benefits of using any other shield. This ability lasts until you use it again or until you dismiss it as a free action. In addition, it is automatically dismissed if you wear other body armor of any kind.

Rank 1 – Spellcasting

You become a rank 1 arcane spellcaster. You learn two rank 1 spells from arcane mystic spheres you have access to. You can also spend insight points to learn one additional rank 1 spell per insight point. Unless otherwise noted in a spell's description, casting a spell requires a standard action.

When you gain access to a new mystic sphere or spell rank, you can forget any number of spells you know to learn that many new spells in exchange, including spells of the higher rank. All of those spells must be from arcane mystic spheres you have access to.

Rank 2 – Spell Rank

You become a rank 2 arcane spellcaster. This gives you access to spells that require a minimum rank of 2.

Rank 0 – Combat Caster

You reduce your focus penalties by 2.

Rank 1 – Mystic Insight

You gain your choice of one of the following abilities. Whenever you increase your rank in this archetype, you may change your choice. This can allow you to apply the benefits of insights like signature spell to higher rank spells.

Distant Spell: Choose an arcane spell you know with a standard range: Short, Medium, Long, Distant, or Extreme. You double your range with that spell. You can choose this ability multiple times, choosing a different spell each time.

Focused Caster: You reduce your focus penalty by 1. You cannot choose this ability multiple times.

Signature Spell: Choose an arcane spell you know. The spell loses the Focus tag, allowing you to cast it without lowering your guard in combat. Rank 2 – Desperate Improvization

Whenever you use the desperate exertion ability to affect a spell you just cast, you can change which spell you cast before rerolling. If you do, you must take the result of the second roll, even if it is worse. The new spell takes its full effect as if you had cast it originally, and the original spell has no effect of any kind. This is a Swift ability.

Rank 3 – Wellspring of Power

You gain a +2 bonus to your magical power.

Rank 4 – Mystic Insight

You gain an additional mystic insight ability.

Rank 5 – Attunement Point

You gain an additional attunement point.

The bonus from your wellspring of power ability increases to +6.

Rank 7 – Mystic Insights

You gain two additional mystic insight abilities.

Draconic Magic

Not all sorcerers know the reason for their innate connection to magic. Some discover that they have draconic blood in their veins, and some of those sorcerers learn how to tap into their heritage. This archetype deepens your magical connection to your draconic ancestor and enhances your spellcasting. You must have the Arcane Magic archetype from the sorcerer class to gain the abilities from this archetype. All abilities from this archetype are magical.

Rank 0 – Draconic Bloodline

Choose a type of dragon from among the dragons on Table 4.12: Draconic Bloodline Types. You have the blood of that type of dragon in your veins. You are impervious to damage of the type dealt by that dragon's breath weapon.

Table 4.12: Draconic Bloodline Types

Dragon	Damage Type	Mystic Sphere
Black	Acid	Vivimancy
Blue	Electricity	Electromancy
Brass	Fire	Enchantment
Bronze	Electricity	Revelation
Copper	Acid	Terramancy
Gold	Fire	Photomancy
Green	Acid	Compulsion
Red	Fire	Pyromancy
Silver	Cold	Telekinesis
White	Cold	Cryomancy

The bonus from your draconic hide ability increases to three times your rank in this archetype.

Rank 7 – Greater Draconic Precision

The bonus from your draconic precision ability increases to +2.

Innate Arcanist

This archetype deepens your innate connection to arcane magic and improves your ability to defeat other spellcasters. You must have the Arcane Magic archetype from the sorcerer class to gain the abilities from this archetype. All abilities from this archetype are magical.

Rank 0 – Innate Magic

None of your arcane spells have somatic components or verbal components.

Rank 1 – Mystic Tolerance

You gain a bonus equal to twice your rank in this archetype to your damage resistance.

Rank 2 – Personal Enhancement

You gain a magic bonus equal to half your rank in this archetype to accuracy and defenses. Because this is a magic bonus, it does not stack with other magic bonuses (see Stacking Rules, page 32).

Rank 3 – Spell Absorption

Whenever another creature uses a spell to attack you, if that spell does not have the Attune tag, you can choose to absorb its energy. This does not reduce the spell's effect on you, but it grants you the ability to cast the spell. When you cast the spell, you use your own accuracy, power, and abilities to determine the effects of the spell.

Whenever you are attacked by a new spell, if you already have the ability to cast a spell with this ability, you choose which spell you gain the ability to cast. When you take a long rest, you lose the ability to cast any spells you have stored with this ability.

Rank 4 – Implement Freedom

You can gain the benefits of one magical implement, such as a staff or wand, without having to hold it in your hands. You must still have it on your person, such as in a pocket or strapped to your back, and you must still be attuned to it to gain its benefits. This ability only affects one implement at a time.

Rank 5 – Greater Mystic Tolerance

The bonus from your mystic tolerance ability increases to three times your rank in this archetype.

Rank 6 – Greater Spell Absorption

You can retain up to two spells with your spell absorption ability.

Rank 7 – Greater Implement Freedom

You can use your implement freedom ability to affect an additional magical implement. In addition, you gain an additional attunement point. You can only use this attunement point to attune to magic implements.

Wild Magic

This archetype makes the magic you cast more chaotic, generally increasing its power at the cost of your control over your magic. You must have the Arcane Magic archetype from the sorcerer class to gain the abilities from this archetype. All abilities from this archetype are magical.

Rank 0 – Chaotic Exertion

You gain a +2 bonus to the roll when you use the desperate exertion ability. This bonus stacks with the normal +2 bonus provided by that ability.

Rank 1 – Wildspell

Whenever you cast a spell that does not have the Attune or Sustain tags, you may use this ability after making all other decisions for the spell (such as targets, intended area, and so on). When you do, you reduce your focus penalties for casting the spell by 2, and you gain a bonus equal to your rank in this archetype to power with the spell. In addition, roll 1d10 and apply the corresponding wild magic effect from Table 4.13: Wild Magic Effects. Some wild magic effects cannot be meaningfully applied to all spells. For example, changing the damage dealt by a spell does not affect spells that do not deal damage. Any wildspell effects that do not make sense for a particular spell should be ignored.

Table 4.13: Wild Magic Effects

Roll	Effect
1	The spell fails with no effect
2	When you attack with the spell this round, you roll twice and take the lower result
3	When you attack with the spell this round, you are a target of the attack in addition to any other targets
4	The spell's area is halved this round
5	The spell's area is doubled this round
6	Each target that resists damage from the spell this round is also briefly dazed (-2 defenses)
7	Each target that loses hit points from the spell this round is also briefly sickened (-2 all defenses)
8	When you deal damage with the spell this round, you roll twice for the spell and take the higher result
9	When you attack with the spell this round, you roll twice and take the higher result
10	During the action phase of the next round, the spell takes effect again with the same choices for all decisions, such as targets

Rank 2 – Chaotic Insight

You learn a spell that does not have the Attune or Sustain tags from any mystic sphere, even if you do not have access to that mystic sphere. The spell does not have to be from a mystic sphere on the arcane mystic sphere list. As normal, you can change which spell you learn with this ability as you gain access to new spell ranks.

Rank 3 – Greater Chaotic Exertion

Once per long rest, you can use the desperate exertion ability without increasing your fatigue level.

Rank 4 – Greater Wildspell

The bonus to power from your wildspell ability increases to twice your rank in this archetype.

Rank 5 – Greater Chaotic Insight

You learn an additional spell with your chaotic insight ability.

Rank 6 – Supreme Chaotic Exertion

You can use your chaotic exertion ability once per short rest instead of once per long rest.

Rank 7 – Supreme Wildspell

You replace your normal wild magic effects from your wildspell ability with the effects from the table below.

Table 4.14: Epic Wild Magic Effects

Roll	Effect
1	The spell has its normal effect
2	All damage dealt by the spell is considered to be all damage types
3	When you attack with the spell this round, you roll twice and take the higher result
4	When you deal damage with the spell this round, you roll twice for the spell and take the higher result
5	Any conditions inflicted by the spell this round become a Curse instead of a condition, and are removed when the target takes a short rest
6	When the spell would cause a creature to lose hit points this round, that creature loses twice as many hit points
7	The spell's area is tripled this round
8	Each target that loses hit points from the spell this round is also briefly stunned (-4 all defenses)
9	You gain a +4 bonus to accuracy with the spell this round, but you take the minimum possible result when the spell would deal damage
10	During both the action phase and delayed action phase of the next round, the spell takes effect again with the same choices for all decisions, such as targets

Special Class Abilities

Soul Pact

To become a warlock, you must make a pact with a creature capable of sharing its power with you. Generally, such a creature must be at least 20th level, and must be a planeformed from a plane other than your own. You must make a sacrifice, the details of which are subject to negotiation, and offer a part of your immortal soul. In exchange, you gain the powers of a warlock. The creature you make the pact with is called your soulkeeper. Most warlocks make pacts with demons or devils, though other soulkeepers are possible.

Offering your soul to an entity in this way grants it the ability to communicate with you in limited ways. This communication typically manifests as unnatural emotional urges or whispered voices audible only to you.

Your pact specifies how much of your soul is granted to your soulkeeper, and the circumstances of the transfer. The most common arrangement is for a soulkeeper to gain possession of your soul immediately after you die. It will keep the soul for one decade per year of your life that you spend as a warlock. During that time, it will not prevent you from being resurrected. At the end of that time, if your soul remains intact, your soul will pass on to its intended afterlife. However, other arrangements are possible, and each warlock's pact can be unique.

The longer you spend in an afterlife that is not your own, the more likely you are to lose your sense of self and become subsumed by the plane you are on. Only a soul of extraordinary strength can maintain its integrity after decades or centuries in any plane. Many warlocks seek power zealously while mortal to gain the mental fortitude necessary to keep their soul intact after death.

Whispers of the Lost (Magical)

You hear the voices of souls that inhabit your soulkeeper's plane, linked to you through your soulkeeper. Choose one of the following types of whispers that you hear.

Mentoring Whispers: You hear the voice of a dead warlock whose soul is bound to the same soulkeeper as yours.

Spiteful Whispers: You hear the voices of cruel souls who berate you for your flaws and mistakes.

Sycophantic Whispers: You hear the voices of adoring souls who praise your talents and everything you do.

Warning Whispers: You hear the voices of paranoid and fearful souls warning you of danger, both real and imagined.

Whispers of the Mighty: Your soulkeeper forges the connection to your soul into a boon granted to any soul in the Abyss strong enough to claim it in battle. You hear the voice of whatever soul currently possesses the boon, which may change suddenly and unexpectedly.

Weapon Proficiencies

You are proficient with simple weapons.

Class Skills

You have the following class skills:

- Intelligence: Craft, Deduction, Knowledge (all kinds, taken individually), Linguistics.
- Perception: Awareness, Spellsense.

Rank 0 – Cantrips

You have the ability to use arcane magic. You gain access to one arcane mystic sphere (see Arcane Mystic Spheres, page 170). You may spend insight points to gain access to one additional arcane mystic sphere per two insight points. You automatically learn all cantrips from any mystic sphere you have access to. You do not yet gain access to any other spells from those mystic spheres.

Arcane spells require both verbal components and somatic components to cast (see Casting Components, page 30). For details about mystic spheres and casting spells, see Spell and Ritual Mechanics, page 30.

Rank 0 – Mage Armor

You can use the mage armor ability as a standard action.

Mage Armor	Duration
You create a translucent suit of magical armor on your body and over your hands. This functions like body armor that provides a +2 bonus to Armor defense and has no encumbrance. It also provides a bonus to damage resistance equal to your rank in this archetype. You can also use a free hand to wield the barrier as a shield. This functions like a buckler, granting you a +1 bonus to Armor defense, except that you do not need to be proficient with light armor. Since this bonus comes from a shield, it does not stack with the benefits of using any other shield. This ability lasts until you use it again or until you dismiss it as a free action. In addition, it is automatically dismissed if you wear body armor.

Rank 1 – Spellcasting

You become a rank 1 arcane spellcaster. You learn two rank 1 spells from arcane mystic spheres you have access to. You can also spend insight points to learn one additional rank 1 spell per insight point. Unless otherwise noted in a spell's description, casting a spell requires a standard action.

When you gain access to a new mystic sphere or spell rank, you can forget any number of spells you know to learn that many new spells in exchange, including spells of the higher rank. All of those spells must be from arcane mystic spheres you have access to.

Rank 2 – Spell Rank

You become a rank 2 arcane spellcaster. This gives you access to spells that require a minimum rank of 2.

Rank 7 – Spell Knowledge

You learn an additional arcane spell from a mystic sphere you have access to.

Arcane Spell Mastery

This archetype improves the arcane spells you cast. You must have the Arcane Magic archetype from the wizard class to gain the abilities from this archetype. All abilities from this archetype are magical.

Rank 0 – Mystic Sphere

You gain access to an additional arcane mystic sphere, including all cantrips from that sphere.

Rank 1 – Mystic Insight

You gain your choice of one of the following abilities. Whenever you increase your rank in this archetype, you may change your choice. This can allow you to apply the benefits of insights like signature spell to higher rank spells.

Distant Spell: Choose an arcane spell you know with a standard range: Short, Medium, Long, Distant, or Extreme. You double your range with that spell. You can choose this ability multiple times, choosing a different spell each time.

Focused Caster: You reduce your focus penalty by 1. You cannot choose this ability multiple times.

Rituals: You gain the ability to perform arcane rituals to create unique magical effects (see Rituals, page 31). The maximum rank of arcane ritual you can learn or perform is equal to the maximum rank of arcane spell that you can cast. In addition, you automatically learn one free arcane ritual of each rank you have access to, including new ranks as you gain access to them. You cannot choose this ability multiple times.

Signature Spell: Choose an arcane spell you know. The spell loses the Focus tag, allowing you to cast it without lowering your guard in combat. In addition, you gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with that spell. You can choose this ability multiple times, choosing a different spell each time.

Spell Knowledge: You learn an additional spell. You can choose this ability multiple times, learning an additional spell each time.

Spell Power: Choose an arcane spell you know. You gain a bonus equal to your rank in this archetype to your power with that spell. You can choose this ability multiple times, choosing a different spell each time.

Rank 2 – Intricate Spell

Whenever you cast a spell with the Focus tag, you may increase your focus penalty by 2. If you do, you gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with that spell. This is a Swift ability.

Rank 3 – Wellspring of Power

You gain a +2 bonus to your magical power.

Rank 4 – Mystic Insight

You gain an additional mystic insight ability.

Rank 5 – Attunement Point

You gain an additional attunement point.

Rank 6 – Greater Wellspring of Power

The bonus from your wellspring of power ability increases to +6.

Rank 7 – Mystic Insights

You gain two additional mystic insight abilities.

Alchemist

This archetype improves your ability to use alchemy to create unusual concoctions to aid your allies and harm your foes.

Rank 0 – Alchemical Infusion (Magical)

Whenever you create or use an alchemical item, you may use your magical power in place of the item's normal power to determine its effects. In addition, you may add half your magical power to the damage dealt by any alchemical items you use.

Rank 1 – Portable Workshop (Magical)

You carry materials necessary to refine low-grade alchemical items wherever you are. Where you lack material components, you fill in with some of your own magic, allowing you to create items more easily. The items are just as effective when used as items created normally. However, they are less durable, since they are partially sustained by your magic. Items created with this ability deteriorate and become useless after 24 hours or after you finish a long rest, whichever comes first.

You can use this ability to create alchemical items with a item level up to your level (see Item Levels, page 392). Creating an item in this way functions in the same way as crafting alchemical items normally, with the following changes. First, you do not require any raw materials. Second, the maximum duration of any item created with this ability is five minutes. Third, you can only maintain the existence of three items with this ability at once. If you try to create a fourth item, you must stop maintaining the existence of another item created. You can do this as a free action regardless of distance. This removes any lingering effects from the removed item, such as the protective qualities of an antitoxin elixir.

Rank 2 – Alchemical Discovery (Magical)

You learn how to create alchemical items more effectively. You gain your choice of one of the following benefits. Each benefit can only be chosen once.

Aerodynamic Construction: The range of thrown alchemical items you create increases by 30 feet. This does not affect alchemical items that are not designed to be thrown.

Complex Construction: You can use your portable workshop ability to create items with an item level up to two levels higher than your level.

Efficient Crafting: It takes you half the normal time and material components to craft alchemical items without using your portable workshop ability.

Enduring Construction: The duration of any alchemical item you create is doubled.

Explosive Construction: The area affected by any alchemical item you create is doubled.

Potent Construction: The damage dealt by any alchemical item you create gains a bonus equal to your rank in this archetype.

Repetitive Construction: Whenever you use your portable workshop ability, you can create two copies of the same alchemical item. This only counts as one item for the purpose of determining the number of items you can maintain with that ability.

Rank 3 – Experienced Quaffing

You can drink up to two doses of potions, elixirs, and other drinkable alchemical items as part of the same standard action.

Rank 4 – Alchemical Discovery (Magical)

You gain an additional alchemical discovery ability.

Rank 5 – Greater Portable Workshop (Magical)

The number of items you can maintain with your portable workshop ability increases to 5.

Rank 6 – Alchemical Discovery (Magical)

You gain an additional alchemical discovery ability.

Rank 7 – Greater Experienced Quaffing (Magical)

You can drink a single dose of a potion, elixir, or other drinkable alchemical item as a minor action.

Arcane Scholar

This archetype deepens your study of arcane magic. You have the Arcane Magic archetype from the wizard class to gain the abilities from this archetype. All abilities from this archetype are magical.

Rank 0 – Deep Knowledge

You gain a +2 bonus to all Knowledge skills. In addition, using the desperate exertion ability to affect a roll using a Knowledge skill only causes you to increase your fatigue level by one instead of two.

Rank 1 – Ritualist

You gain the ability to perform arcane rituals to create unique magical effects (see Rituals, page 31). The maximum rank of arcane ritual you can learn or perform is equal to the maximum rank of arcane spell that you can cast. In addition, you automatically learn one free arcane ritual of each rank you have access to, including new ranks as you gain access to them.

Rank 1 – Trained Mind

You reduce your focus penalty by 1.

Rank 2 – Scholastic Insight

You gain one of the following insights. Some insights can be chosen multiple times, as indicated in their descriptions.

Esoteric Spell Knowledge: You learn a single spell from any arcane mystic sphere. You do not need to have access to that mystic sphere. This does not grant you access to that mystic sphere for any other purposes. Whenever you gain access to a new mystic sphere or spell rank, you may choose a different spell with this ability.

You can choose this insight multiple times, learning an additional spell each time.

Expanded Sphere Access: You gain access to a new mystic sphere.

You cannot choose this insight multiple times.

Memorized Sphere: Choose a mystic sphere you have access to. You can perform rituals from that mystic sphere without having them written in your ritual book.

You can choose this insight multiple times, choosing a different mystic sphere each time.

Sphere Specialization: Choose a mystic sphere you have access to. You gain a power bonus equal to your rank in this archetype and a +1 accuracy bonus with abilities from that mystic sphere. In exchange, you must lose access to another mystic sphere you have. You must exchange all spells you know from that mystic sphere with spells from other mystic spheres you have access to.

You cannot choose this insight multiple times.

Rank 3 – Contingency

You gain the ability to prepare a spell so it takes effect automatically if specific circumstances arise. Preparing a spell with this ability takes 5 minutes. When the preparation is complete, the spell has no immediate effect. Instead, it automatically takes effect when some specific circumstances arise. During the time required to cast the spell, you specify what circumstances cause the spell to take effect.

The spell can be set to trigger in response to any circumstances that a typical human observing you and your situation could detect. For example, you could specify “when I fall at least 50 feet” or “when I take a vital wound”, but not “when there is an invisible creature within 50 feet of me” or “when I have only one hit point remaining.” The more specific the required circumstances, the better – vague requirements, such as “when I am in danger”, may cause the spell to trigger unexpectedly or fail to trigger at all. If you attempt to specify multiple separate triggering conditions, such as “when I take damage or when an enemy is adjacent to me”, the spell will randomly ignore all but one of the conditions.

If the spell needs to be targeted, the trigger condition can specify a simple rule for identifying how to target the spell, such as “the closest enemy”. If the rule is poorly worded or imprecise, the spell may target incorrectly or fail to activate at all. Any spells which require decisions, such as the dimension door spell, must have those decisions made at the time it is cast. You cannot alter those decisions when the contingency takes effect.

You can have only one spell with this ability active at a time. If you use this ability again with a different spell, the old contingency is removed.

Rank 4 – Scholastic Insight

You learn an additional scholastic insight.

Rank 5 – Greater Ritualist

Whenever you lead a ritual, it requires half the normal number of fatigue levels and half the normal time to complete, to a minimum of zero fatigue levels.

Rank 6 – Scholastic Insight

You learn an additional scholastic insight.

Rank 7 – Multiple Contingency

You may have two separate contingency abilities active at the same time. Each contingency can have separate triggering conditions. Only one contingency can trigger each round. If multiple contingencies would activate simultaneously, choose one to activate randomly.

School Specialist

This archetype improves your ability to cast spells from a particular school of magic while sacrificing some versatility. You have the Arcane Magic archetype from the wizard class to gain the abilities from this archetype. All abilities from this archetype are magical.

Rank 0 – School Specialization

The arcane mystic spheres can be divided into six traditional schools of magic. Choose one of the following schools of magic. You are a specialist in your chosen school. You cannot gain access to any arcane mystic spheres outside of your specialist school, and you cannot learn spells or rituals from those spheres by any means. In exchange, you gain an additional insight point.

Rank 2 – Spell Knowledge

You learn an additional arcane spell.

You gain an additional attunement point. You can only use this attunement point to attune to a spell from your chosen school.

Your understanding of your chosen school improves.

Conjunction: The range improvement increases to triple your range.

Evocation: The power bonus increases to +4.

Illusion: You gain low-light vision, allowing you to treat sources of light as if they had double their normal illumination range. If you already have low-light vision, you double its benefit, allowing you to treat sources of light as if they had four times their normal illumination range. In addition, you gain darkvision with a 60 foot range, allowing you to see in complete darkness clearly. If you already have that ability, you increase its range by 60 feet.

Chapter 5

Skills

Skills represent the myriad of talents that people can have, such as cooking or swimming. This chapter describes each skill, including common uses for those skills.

Skill Overview

This section describes how you use skills.

Skill Training

You can become trained in skills by having a high base attribute or by spending skill points. For details, see Skill Points, page 21.

Skill Modifier

Your bonus with a skill is calculated as follows:

Training bonus (see Skill Training, page 21) + base value of key attribute + other bonuses and penalties

Bonuses and Penalties: Species abilities, class abilities, penalties from encumbrance, and other effects can increase or decrease your bonus with a skill.

Key Attributes With Skills

Most skills have a single key attribute they are associated with. You gain a bonus or penalty to attacks and checks with each skill equal to your base value with that skill's key attribute. In addition, if your base value for an attribute is at least 3, you are automatically trained in your class skills associated with that attribute.

Class Skills

Each class has a set of skills that members of that class are typically skilled at. Your bonus with skills that are not class skills for you can be just as high as your bonus with class skills, but it requires more investment. You are automatically trained in all class skills associated with each of your attributes that has a base value of 2 or higher. In addition, mastering class skills is cheaper than mastering other skills. It costs two skill points to master a non-class skill if you are already trained in that skill, but only one skill point to master a class skill.

The class skills for each class are summarized on Table 5.1: Class Skills.

Trying Again

In general, you can try a skill check again if you fail, and you can keep trying indefinitely. Some skills, however, have consequences of failure that must be taken into account. A few skills are virtually useless once a check has failed on an attempt to accomplish a particular task. For most skills, when a character has succeeded once at a given task, additional successes are meaningless.

Skills that require a free action to use can never be used more than once for the same purpose within a round. For example, if you fail to notice a creature sneaking up on you, you can't keep making Awareness checks as a free action until you notice. You could try again in the next round, however.

Special Skill Checks

Opposed Checks

An opposed check is a check whose success or failure is determined by comparing the check result to another character's check result. In an opposed check, the higher result succeeds, while the lower result fails. In case of a tie, the higher check modifier wins. If these scores are the same, roll again to break the tie. Typical opposed checks are described in Table 5.2: Example Opposed Checks

Group Skill Checks

When multiple characters are trying to use the same skill simultaneously, they may be able to work together. Most skills can be done as a group skill check, where the more skilled characters assist the less skilled characters and work together to find the best result. There are two kinds of group skill checks.

Collaborative Checks: When making a collaborative skill check, each member of the group gets their own result. Collaborative checks might include a group of scouts sneaking up on an enemy camp, a group of adventurers climbing a cliff, or a group of spies lying about their true allegiances.

When making a collaborative check, the group must choose a leader before making the check. Each member of the group can make the check using the higher of their skill modifier and half the leader's skill modifier. Other modifiers apply normally.

The group leader must remain in a position to help the other members of the group for the group members to gain this benefit. For example, if a group is making a collaborative check to leap across a chasm, the leader must jump last. If the group is making a collaborative Stealth check, the leader must remain adjacent to the other members of the group to prevent their mistakes quietly. The exact circumstances depend on the situation.

Collective Checks: The group works together to get a single result. Collective checks might include a group of diplomats persuading a noble to go to war, a group of medics tending to a dying warrior, or a group of scouts keeping watch for enemy attacks.

When making a collective check, the group simply uses the highest result from any character making the check.

Making Group Skill Checks: A group skill check is not always possible. If the whole group is leaping over a chasm at once to escape a dragon, there is not enough time to designate a leader and have them aid the others to make a collaborative check. In general, a group skill check is only possible if the group has at least five rounds to work together, though this time may vary widely depending on the situation and the skill being used.

Tasks

Each skill contains a brief description of how the skill is usually used. This description is followed by a series of tasks, which are particular ways to use skills. These tasks are simply examples, and do not list everything the skill can be used for. You should be creative with your skills, rather than only using the tasks explicitly listed.

Hidden Tasks

Some tasks are called hidden tasks, and are marked with a [Hidden] tag in the task name. These tasks rely on hidden information that you should not have access to. For example, you can make a Social Insight check to identify whether a creature is lying. If you are told to make a Social Insight check when a creature talks, you can deduce that it is probably lying regardless of the success or failure of the check. To solve this issue, any checks for hidden tasks should be made secretly by the GM. Usually, you should not even know that you made a check unless you learn a result from it.

Table 5.2: Example Opposed Checks

Task	Skill (Key Ability)	Opposing Skill (Key Ability)
Create a forged artwork	Craft (Int)	Craft (Int) or Awareness (Per)
Create a false map	Craft (Int)	Craft (Int) or Knowledge (geography)
Lie	Deception (—)	Social Insight (Per)
Make a bully back down	Intimidate (none)	Special ¹
Make someone look like someone else	Disguise (Int)	Awareness (Per)
Sneak up on someone	Stealth (Dex)	Awareness (Per)
Steal a coin pouch	Sleight of Hand (Dex)	Awareness (Per)
Tie a prisoner securely	Devices (Int) ²	Flexibility (Dex)

² You can also tie up a creature while grappling with them (see Grapple Actions, page 29).

If you are suspicious of a situation, you can ask the GM to make a relevant check for you. This usually should not grant a bonus to the check, but it can ensure that the GM did not forget to make the check!

Awareness (Per)

The Awareness skill represents your ability to observe things which you might otherwise fail to notice. It can be used to spot concealed things, to correctly identify sounds, or to smell the distinctive rotting flesh smell that accompanies undead.

Each creature has a variety of senses. The Awareness skill governs the use of every sense. It is most commonly used with sight, hearing, and smell, though other uses are possible. Often, bonuses or penalties will apply only to certain senses. For example, it is extremely difficult to see when there is no light, but that has no effect on how difficult it is for you to hear sounds. In such cases, you only roll one Awareness check, and you apply the modifiers separately for each sense.

While sleeping, you take a -10 penalty to the Awareness skill.

Discern Illusion [Hidden]

When you observe the effect of a Sensation ability, you can make an Awareness check to notice its unreal nature. The difficulty rating is specified in the description of the ability creating the illusion, but is usually equal to a check result made when using the ability. Success means you recognize the effect as an illusion, and can see through it as if it was almost entirely transparent. Failure means you don't notice anything amiss.

If the illusion is completely missing a sense that should logically be present, such as a silent illusion of people marching in heavy armor, the difficulty rating to interact with the illusion with that sense is lowered by 5.

You cannot retry this check until you gain meaningful new information that would help you identify the illusion.

Identify Disguise [Hidden]

When you observe a disguised creature or object, you can make an Awareness check to identify the disguise. The difficulty rating is equal to the Disguise check result used to create the disguise (see Disguise, page 128). Success means you know that the creature or object is disguised. Critical success means you can also discern its true appearance beneath the disguise. Failure means you don't notice anything unusual.

You cannot retry this check until you gain meaningful new information that would help you identify the disguise.

Identify Forgery

As a standard action, you can make an Awareness check to identify forgeries. The difficulty rating to identify a forgery is equal to the Craft check result used to make the item (see Craft, page 123). Success means you correctly identify whether the item is a forgery or not. Failure means you don't notice anything indicating the item is a forgery.

You cannot retry this check until you gain meaningful new information that would help you identify the forgery.

Notice Creatures and Events

As a free action, you can notice creatures and events around you. The difficulty rating depends on the sense used and the obviousness of the event, as described on tables below. Success means you notice something, but you don't know any details – only its general direction. For every 5 points by which you beat the difficulty rating, you learn an additional piece of information, such as what caused the event or the location of the creature. Failure means you don't notice anything.

This can be used to determine the precise location of a creature or object, even if you can't see it. The difficulty rating to identify the location is equal to the difficulty rating to notice the creature or object using the appropriate sense + 5 (since you need to learn an additional piece of information).

You gain a +20 bonus to this check to notice creatures and events that directly touch you, such as a creature shoving you or making a strike against you.

Read Lips

When you see a creature speaking, you can make an sight-based Awareness check to read its lips. The difficulty rating is 10 for ordinary conversation, or up to 20 if the speaking creature makes an effort to avoid moving its lips. You must be able to understand the language spoken. Success means you can understand the general content of the message, but not the exact words. Critical success means you understand the exact words. Failure means you don't understand the message.

Search

As a standard action, you can use the search ability to closely investigate a small area.

Search

Make an Awareness check to notice things in a single 5-ft. square within 10 feet of you. You gain a +5 bonus to this check.

Senses

Sight: The difficulty rating to see something depends on the obviousness of the sight, as shown on Table 5.3: Sight-based Difficulty Ratings, and other modifiers given at Table 5.6: Awareness Difficulty Modifiers.

Sound: The difficulty rating to hear a sound depends on the intensity of the sound, as shown on Table 5.4: Sound-based Difficulty Ratings, and other modifiers given at Table 5.6: Awareness Difficulty Modifiers.

Scent: The difficulty rating to smell something depends on the intensity of the scent, as shown on Table 5.5: Scent-based Difficulty Ratings, and other modifiers given at Table 5.6: Awareness Difficulty Modifiers.

The difficulty ratings given are for a creature with an ordinary sense of smell, like a human.

Table 5.3: Sight-based Difficulty Ratings

Situation	Base Difficulty Rating ¹
Creature or object	0
Creature trying to hide	Stealth check result ²
Hidden trap, secret door, or mechanism	Craft or Devices check result
Magic trap	15 + double level of spell used to create trap

2 Don't add size-based difficulty modifiers since they are redundant with the modifiers applied to the creature's Stealth check result.

Table 5.4: Sound-based Difficulty Ratings

Situation	Base Difficulty Rating ¹
Creature shouting	-5 ¹
Creature talking normally or fighting	0
Creature whispering	5
Creature standing still	10
Creature trying to be quiet	Stealth check result ²

2 Don't add size-based difficulty modifiers since they are redundant with the modifiers applied to the creature's Stealth check result.

Smell intensity can vary widely depending on the circumstances. In general, an unusually strong smell, such as a creature wearing perfume, has a difficulty rating which is 5 lower. An unusually weak smell, such as a creature who has just taken an unscented bath, has a difficulty rating which is 5 higher.

Smells dissipate quickly with distance. Double the normal distance modifiers for scent-based perception checks.

Scent Ability: Some creatures have an unusually good sense of smell. Creatures with the scent ability gain a +5 bonus to scent-based Awareness checks.

Table 5.5: Scent-based Difficulty Ratings

Situation	Base Difficulty Rating ¹
Strong scent (rotting flesh, pungent spices)	0
Moderate scent (fresh food)	5
Living creature	10

1 Always add any appropriate modifiers from Table 5.6: Awareness Difficulty Modifiers (page 120)

Other Senses: Other senses can exist, and creatures can make Awareness checks to use those other senses appropriately.

Modifiers

All Awareness checks share the same set of modifiers, in addition to certain modifiers which depend on the sense. These are noted on Table 5.6: Awareness Difficulty Modifiers.

This table should not generally be consulted during a game. It is provided to make it easier to estimate a task's difficulty.

Table 5.6: Awareness Difficulty Modifiers

Distance	Difficulty Modifier ¹
Up to 10 feet away	+0
11–30 feet away	+2
31–120 feet away	+5
121–480 feet away	+10
481–2000 feet away	+15
2000+feet away	+20 or more
Number	Difficulty Modifier
1–4 creatures or objects	+0
5–20 creatures or objects	–2
21–100 creatures or objects	–5
101–500 creatures or objects	–10
501–2500 creatures or objects	–15
2500+creature or objects	–20 or less
Background	Difficulty Modifier
Nothing similar	0
Many similar sensations	+5
Many more intense sensations	+10

¹ Doubled for scent-based Awareness checks.

Balance (Dex)

The Balance skill represents your ability to balance, tumble, and perform similar feats of agility and poise.

Agile Charge

You can make a difficulty rating 15 Balance check while charging to change directions while charging. Success means you can make a single turn of up to 90 degrees during the movement. Failure means you can't change direction, though you can continue your movement or stop. Critical failure means you stop where you tried to change direction and fall prone (quarter speed, –2 accuracy, Armor, and Ref).

Balance

When you are on a slippery or narrow surface, you must make an Balance check to move. Success means you move along the surface at half speed. Critical success means you move along the surface at full speed. Failure means your action is wasted, and you do not move. Critical failure means you fall prone. If you do not have enough room to fall prone, you may fall off of the edge you are balancing on.

The difficulty rating of Balance checks to balance varies with the surface, as described in Table 5.7: Balancing Difficulty Ratings. In addition, if you are forcibly moved while on a slippery or narrow surface, you must make an Balance check against the same difficulty rating. Success means you stay standing. Failure means you fall prone.

Table 5.7: Balancing Difficulty Ratings

Narrow Surface	Difficulty Rating
At least one foot wide	0
At least six inches wide	5
At least two inches wide	10
At least one inch wide	15
Less than than one inch wide	20
Surface Condition	Difficulty Modifier
Water covered	+2
Slightly mobile (rope bridge)	+2
Ice or oil covered	+5
Very mobile (slack rope)	+5

Rapid Stand

You can use the rapid stand ability as a minor action.

Rapid Stand Swift
 You make a difficulty rating 15 Balance check to stand up from a prone position quickly. Success means you stand up. Since this is a Swift ability, standing up in this way means you do not suffer the penalties for being prone during the current phase. Failure means you fail to stand up.

Deception (—)

The Deception skill represents your ability to lie or otherwise mislead people without being caught. Using a Deception check is part of conversation or other actions, so it requires no special action to perform.

Blend In

You can make a Deception check to blend in with a crowd. Your Deception check is opposed by the Awareness checks of anyone looking for you. Success means you remain unobserved. Failure means the person looking for you finds you.

If you act differently from the crowd you are trying to blend in with, anyone observing you gets a +5 bonus to find you. You may need to make Awareness or Social Insight checks to figure out how to act, depending on the situation. If you are extremely dissimilar from the crowd, such as a naked person in a temple or a human among halflings, anyone observing you may gain a +10 or greater bonus to find you.

Distract

As a standard action, you can make a Deception check to distract a creature you are interacting with. Your Deception check is opposed by your target's Social Insight check. Success means they briefly take a –5 penalty to the Awareness and Social Insight skills against targets other than you. Failure means they take no penalty, and realize you were trying to distract them. You can continue distracting the target by using this ability against them each round. The difficulty rating increases by 2 for each consecutive round that you have distracted the same creature.

Normally, distracting a creature requires both visible motion and sound. If you take a –5 penalty to the Deception check, you can distract a creature without moving, or without making sound, but not without both. In addition, you can take a –5 penalty to your Deception check to distract everyone who can see or hear you.

If you successfully distract a creature, you can attempt to hide from that creature as if you were not being observed (see Stealth, page 141, for details).

Impersonate

When you are pretending to be another creature, you can assume the mannerisms and speech patterns of the creature you are impersonating. To do so, you must make a Deception check. Anyone observing you can oppose your check with a Social Insight check to identify the impersonation (see the identify disguise ability, page 118). If you succeed, the observer thinks your impersonation is accurate. If you critically succeed, they also take a –5 penalty to any other check to see through your impersonation, such as to notice a flawed disguise. If they succeed, they notice inconsistencies or mistakes in your impersonation, and may realize you are not what you seem.

If you do not know how you are supposed to act, or are physically unable to perform necessary actions, impersonation is more difficult. You take a –2 penalty if you cannot replicate minor details of an impersonation, such as a deep voice beyond your vocal range. You take a –5 penalty if you cannot replicate significant details of an impersonation, such as the singing voice of a famous bard or the noble manners of a crown prince. You take a –10 or greater penalty if you cannot replicate fundamental aspects of the impersonation, such as the actions required to lead a complex ritual as an archmage. Observers who do not know your impersonation is inaccurate can take similar penalties; see the identify disguise ability for details.

A creature may not believe your impersonation even if you make a successful Deception check. For example, a halfling can impersonate an orc's voice perfectly with a Deception check, but without a disguise anyone who sees the halfling will immediately realize it is not an orc (see Disguise, page 128).

Lie

As a free action, when you say something which you know is untrue, you can make a Deception check to avoid revealing your deception. Anyone observing you lie can oppose your check with a Social Insight check. If you succeed, the observer does not notice any indication that you are lying. If they succeed, they realize that you are lying.

A creature that fails its Social Insight check may choose not to believe you for other reasons. This check only prevents a creature from recognizing the lie based on your body language and behavior. To convince creatures to believe or take actions based on lies, you need the Persuasion skill (see Compel Belief, page 135).

Secret Message

As part of normal speech, you can make a Deception check to attempt to convey a hidden message to another character without others understanding it using codes, metaphors, and similar misdirection tools. The difficulty rating is 10 for simple messages and 15 for complex messages. If the message contains completely new information, the difficulty rating increases by 5. You can freely increase the difficulty rating to make the message more difficult to intercept, but doing so also makes it more difficult for the intended recipient to interpret.

Anyone witnessing the exchange may make a Social Insight check against the same difficulty rating to identify the hidden message. Creatures who know your system for conveying hidden messages – normally, the intended recipient – receive a +10 bonus. Creatures who know in advance that a message will be conveyed also receive a +5 bonus on this check.

Climb (Str)

The Climb skill represents your ability to climb obstacles.

Climb

You can make a Climb check as a free action while you are touching a slope, a wall, or some other steep incline (or even a ceiling with handholds). The difficulty rating of the check depends on the difficulty of the task and the conditions of the climbing surface, as shown on Table 5.9: Climb Difficulty Ratings and Table 5.10: Climb Difficulty Modifiers.

Success means you gain a climb speed equal to the size of your space during the current phase, as described on Table 5.8: Climb Speeds. Critical success means the climb speed you gain is doubled. Failure means your action is wasted and you do not move. Critical failure means you fall.

Table 5.8: Climb Speeds

Size	Speed
Fine	1/2 ft.
Diminutive	1 ft.
Tiny	2-1/2 ft.
Small	5 ft.
Medium	5 ft.
Large	10 ft.
Huge	15 ft.
Gargantuan	20 ft.
Colossal	25+ ft.

Climbing Distractions: If you take damage while climbing, suddenly acquire significantly more weight (such as by catching a falling character), or otherwise are significantly distracted, you must make another Climb check against the wall's difficulty rating to avoid falling.

Grab Edge

If you are next to the edge of a wall or cliff, you can grab it. Grabbing an edge is done as part of other movement, and does not take an action in itself. The difficulty rating of the check depends on the nature of the edge, but a typical stone or similarly solid edge has a difficulty rating of 5. You can pull yourself up from a grabbed edge as a move action that requires a Climb check against the edge's difficulty rating.

Your ability to grab an edge depends on your reach. The maximum vertical reach (height the creature can reach without jumping) for an average creature of a given size is shown on the table below. (As a Medium creature, a typical human can reach 8 feet without jumping.) The maximum vertical reach for an individual creature is usually given by the 1 and 1/2 times the creature's height. Quadrupedal creatures don't have the same vertical reach as a bipedal creature; treat them as being one size category smaller.

If you can't reach an edge, you can jump to grab it (see Leap, page 131).

Table 5.9: Climb Difficulty Ratings

Difficulty Rating	Surface or Activity	Example
0	Steep slope	A hill too steep to walk up
5	Surface with large hand and foot holds	Knotted rope, Very rough rocks, ship's rigging
10	Surface with some hand and foot holds	Surface with pitons or carved holes, rough wall
10	Surface with only large hand holds	Pulling yourself up by your hands while dangling
15	Uneven surface with narrow hand and foot holds	Unknotted rope, unweathered natural rock, typical ruin wall, brick wall
15	Overhang or ceiling with large handholds	Tree limbs, butcher's ceiling with meat hooks
20	Rough surface with no holds	Weathered natural rock, well-made stone wall
30	Bracing between two opposite smooth surfaces	Parallel glass windows
35	Smooth surface	Glass window
40	Smooth ceiling	Glass ceiling

Table 5.10: Climb Difficulty Modifiers

Difficulty Modifier ¹	Description
-5	Climbing a chimney (artificial or natural) or other location where you can brace against two opposite walls
-2	Climbing a corner where you can brace against perpendicular walls
-2	Inclined surface (between 45 and 60 degrees)
-2	Climbing a free-hanging object, such as a rope, where you can brace against a nearby wall
+2	Surface is slightly slippery, such as damp stone
+5	Surface is very slippery, such as ice or oil-covered stone

¹ These modifiers are cumulative with modifiers of different kinds. Use any that apply (but not if one modifier is just a more extreme version of another).

Stop Fall

It is possible, but difficult, to make a Climb check to stop yourself from falling when near a wall. To catch yourself while falling, make a Climb check against a difficulty rating equal to the wall's difficulty rating + 10.

Creature Size	Vertical Reach
Fine	1/2 ft.
Diminutive	1 ft.
Tiny	2 ft.
Small	4 ft.
Medium	8 ft.
Large	16 ft.
Huge	32 ft.
Gargantuan	64 ft.
Colossal	128 ft.

Wallrun

As part of movement, you can make a Climb check to run along a wall rather than climbing it. The difficulty rating is 5 higher than normal for the wall, but this does not require free hands. Success means you move up to your land speed horizontally, or up to a half of your land speed vertically. Failure means you fall. Critical failure means you are prone when you land. For every round you spend running on a wall, the difficulty rating increases by 10.

Wallrunning on a ceiling is impossible.

Creature Climb

As a standard action, you can make an attack vs. Reflex against a creature adjacent to you. Your accuracy is equal to your Climb skill. The creature must be two or more size categories larger than you. Success means you can climb the creature as if it were a solid object with a Climb difficulty rating equal to its Reflex defense. This can allow you to get critical hits against very large creatures if you can reach a vulnerable point. The creature takes a -4 penalty to accuracy with strikes against you, but is not otherwise encumbered by your presence unless it cannot support your weight. It can attempt to remove you by dealing damage to you or with an ability that moves you away from it, such as the shove ability (see Shove, page 28).

Climb Speed

Some creatures have a listed climb speed. A creature with a passive climb speed must still make a Climb check to climb on surfaces. However, the distance it can move if it succeeds on the Climb check is equal to its listed climb speed, regardless of its size or whether it gets a critical success.

Craft (Int)

Like Knowledge, Perform, and Profession, Craft is actually a number of separate skills. You could have several Craft skills, each with a separate degree of training. Common Craft skills are listed below, with additional description for some skills.

- Alchemy (Alchemist's fire, tanglefoot bags, potions)
- Bone
- Ceramics (Glass, pottery)
- Jewelry (gemcutting, amulets, rings)
- Leather
- Manuscripts (Books, official documents, scrolls)
- Metal
- Poison
- Stone
- Textiles (Cloth, fabric)
- Traps
- Wood

A Craft skill is specifically focused on physical objects. If nothing can be created by an endeavor, it probably falls under the heading of a Profession skill. Complex structures, such as buildings or siege engines, may require Knowledge (engineering) in addition to an appropriate Craft skill.

Create Item

You can use the Craft skill to create an item by expending time and material components. Creating an item often requires multiple consecutive Craft checks. Success on a check means you make progress on completing the item. If you make enough progress, you complete the item. Failure means you failed to make progress, but can try again without penalty. Critical failure means you botched the item, and negating all progress and ruining half of the material components. You can start again from scratch with your remaining components.

Each item takes a certain amount of working time to craft, as shown on Table 5.11: Crafting Time (page 124), and the expenditure of one quarter of the item's price in raw materials. In order to craft an item, you must make a Craft check against the item's Craft difficulty rating, as shown on Table 5.12: Craft Difficulty Ratings. If you succeed, you make progress on the item based on how long you spend crafting. For every 5 points by which you beat the Craft check, you accomplish twice as much work in the same amount of time. Once your total effective working time exceeds the time required to craft the item, you have finished the item.

All item creation requires artisan's tools to give the best chance of success. If improvised tools are used, the check may be made with a penalty of -5 or greater, or it may be impossible, depending on the tools available and the item to be crafted. For example, crafting a bow with improvised woodworking tools would impose a -5 penalty, but cutting a diamond without specialized tools is impossible. Note that raw materials for some items, particularly alchemical items, may be hard to come by in some areas. A typical day's work consists of 8 hours of work.

To determine the time required to craft an item, consult the table below.

Table 5.11: Crafting Time

Item Price	Crafting Time
1gp or less	One hour
10gp or less	Eight hours
100gp or less	One week ¹
500gp or less	One month ¹
1000gp or less	Two months ¹

¹ Assuming 8 hours of work each day.

Table 5.12: Craft Difficulty Ratings

Item	Craft Skill	Difficulty Rating
Alchemical item	Alchemy	5 + item level
Armor or shield	Metal or wood	5 + AD bonus
Longbow or shortbow	Wood	10
Crossbow	Wood	10
Simple melee or thrown weapon	Metal or wood	5
Martial or exotic melee or thrown weapon	Metal or wood	10
Mechanical trap	Traps	Varies ¹
Very simple item (wooden spoon)	Varies	2
Typical item (iron pot)	Varies	5
High-quality item (bell, average lock)	Varies	10
Complex or superior item (fine china, document with official seal)	Varies	15+

¹ Traps have their own rules for construction.

Appraise Item

You can make a Craft check to estimate the value of an item with 1 minute of careful study. The Craft skill used must be related to the item.

The difficulty rating depends on the rarity of the item. Common items, such as nonmagical equipment and utensils, are difficulty rating 5. Rare items, such as valuable gems and magic items worth less than 100,000 gp, are difficulty rating 10. Extraordinarily rare items, such as unique gems and magic items worth at least 100,000 gp, are difficulty rating 20.

Success means you know the value of the item. Failure means you think the item is worth $(d10 + 5)/10$ x the item's actual value. (The d10 roll is made secretly, so you don't know how close you are.) Critical failure means you can't estimate the item's value at all.

After you appraise an item, you can't appraise it again with any skill until you gain a level.

Create Forgery

You can use the Craft skill to create false or defective versions of objects. This requires artisan's tools. For example, you may wish to forge official-looking documents with Craft (manuscripts), or you may need to make items in a rush to satisfy an employer. This functions like crafting the item from scratch, except that the Craft difficulty rating is 5 lower than normal, and you use one-half the item's price to determine the price of raw materials and the crafting time.

Forgeries which have a function, such as a weapon, are always defective in some way which makes them unsuitable for use. A forgery can be detected with the Identify Forgery uses of the Craft and Awareness skills.

Identify Forgery

As a standard action, you can make a Craft check to evaluate whether an item is a forgery. The difficulty rating to identify a forgery is equal to the Craft check used to make the item. Success means you correctly identify whether the item is a forgery or not. Failure means you are unsure. Critical failure means you randomly identify the item as genuine or forged. The check is made secretly, so you can't be sure how good the result is.

Repair Item

You can make a Craft check to repair a broken item. This functions like crafting the item from scratch, except that you use one-tenth of the item's price to determine the price of raw materials and the crafting time.

Other Tasks

You can use the Craft skill for various tasks related to the object of your craft. For example, you could use Craft (wood) to sabotage a wagon so it will break at a later time, or Craft (alchemy) to purify spoiled food or ingredients. The difficulty ratings of such tasks, and what can be accomplished, can vary widely. In general, the more difficult the task, and the more loosely it is related to the skill, the higher the difficulty rating.

Creature Handling (Per)

The Creature Handling skill represents your ability to handle creatures without being able to speak with them. With it, you can convince them to do what you want or train them to follow commands. This skill can only be used with creatures with an Intelligence of -6 or lower.

Animals are easier to handle than other kinds of creatures. The difficulty ratings listed are for animals; the difficulty ratings to handle other kinds of creatures are 5 higher.

Handling Creatures

You can use Creature Handling to control a creature's actions using these abilities. Critical failure with these abilities may make the target hostile, depending on the circumstances.

As a standard action, you can use the command ability to control the actions of a creature.

Command Auditory, Compulsion, Sustain (standard)
Make an attack vs. Mental against a creature within Medium (60 ft.) range. Your accuracy is equal to your Creature Handling skill. In addition, choose and state an action that the creature could take.

Hit: The target is unable to take any actions except to use the recover ability (see Recover, page 28).

Critical hit: The target performs the chosen action if it is physically capable of performing it. This can include convincing creatures to perform forced marches and similar activities (see Overland Exertion, page 129).

The target's defense is increased if it is not an animal, as normal for Creature Handling attacks and checks. You take a -10 accuracy penalty against an actively hostile target. If the target is damaged or feels that it is in danger, this effect is automatically ended.

As a free action, you can use the perform trained action ability to convince a creature to perform an action it knows.

Perform Trained Action
Make a difficulty rating 5 Creature Handling check on an ally within Long (120 ft.) range and choose an action that creature could take. If you succeed, the target performs the chosen action if it is trained to perform it. Generally, wild animals are not trained in any actions, so this is not effective on them.

Training Creatures

You can use Creature Handling to train a creature. Success means the creature learns a trick or becomes domesticated. Failure means your time is wasted, and you must try again. Exceptional failure may indicate that the animal becomes unable to learn the trick, becomes hostile, or other consequences depending on the situation. Training a creature takes a week or more; this requires spending at least four hours each day with the creature.

It is not generally possible to accelerate the process by spending more time each day; the creature must take time to learn the new behavior. If the training is interrupted for a week or more, the attempt automatically fails.

Teach a Trick: You can teach a creature a specific trick with one week of work and a successful Creature Handling check against the indicated difficulty rating. A creature can learn two tricks per point of Intelligence it has above -10 . Thus, a creature with an Intelligence of -9 can learn two tricks, while a creature with an Intelligence of -5 can learn ten tricks. Possible tricks (and their associated difficulty ratings) include, but are not necessarily limited to, the following.

Attack (difficulty rating 10): The creature attacks apparent enemies. You may point to a particular creature that you wish the creature to attack, and it will comply if able. Normally, a creature will attack only humanoids, monstrous humanoids, giants, or other creatures. Teaching a creature to attack all creatures (including such unnatural creatures as undead and aberrations) counts as two tricks.

Come (difficulty rating 5): The creature comes to you, even if it normally would not do so.

Defend (difficulty rating 10): The creature defends you (or is ready to defend you if no threat is present), even without any command being given. Alternatively, you can command the creature to defend a specific other character.

Down (difficulty rating 5): The creature breaks off from combat or otherwise backs down. A creature that doesn't know this trick continues to fight until it must flee (due to injury, a fear effect, or the like) or its opponent is defeated.

Fetch (difficulty rating 5): The creature goes and gets something. If you do not point out a specific item, the creature fetches some random object.

Guard (difficulty rating 10): The creature stays in place and prevents others from approaching.

Heel (difficulty rating 5): The creature follows you closely, even to places where it normally wouldn't go.

Messenger (difficulty rating 15): The creature carries a small item to a destination. Once it arrives, it waits for up to 24 hours for someone to take the item from it. The destination must be known to the creature.

When you instruct the creature to deliver the item, you must communicate the destination to the creature. This normally requires a difficulty rating 20 Creature Handling check as a standard action. The difficulty rating of this check is lowered to 15 for locations the creature is extremely familiar with, such as its home. If you have other means of communicating the destination to the creature, such as the animal speech druid ability (see Animal Speech, page 67), that check is unnecessary.

Perform (difficulty rating 10): The creature performs a variety of simple tricks, such as sitting up, rolling over, roaring or barking, and so on.

Seek (difficulty rating 5): The creature moves into an area and looks around for anything that is obviously alive or animate.

Stay (difficulty rating 5): The creature stays in place, waiting for you to return. It does not challenge other creatures that come by, though it still defends itself if it needs to.

Track (difficulty rating 10): The creature tracks the scent presented to it. (This requires the creature to have the scent ability)

Work (difficulty rating 5): The creature pulls or pushes a medium or heavy load.

Rear a Wild Creature: To rear a creature means to raise a wild creature from infancy so that it becomes domesticated. The time required depends on the creature in question. The difficulty rating for this check is equal to 5 + the number of levels the creature has. You can rear as many as three creatures of the same kind at once without penalty. You can rear additional creatures, but you take a cumulative -2 penalty to checks you make to rear all of the animals. A successfully domesticated creature can be taught tricks at the same time it's being raised, or it can be taught as a domesticated creature later.

Bonus Tricks: Some trainers can teach creatures bonus tricks in addition to their normal maximum number of tricks known. Once a creature has learned a bonus trick, that trick may not be retrained into a different trick by any trainer without the same ability to grant bonus tricks. However, any trainer may untrain the trick.

Deduction (Int)

You can use the Deduction skill to make logical deductions based on evidence. It includes both determining which facts and observations are relevant to use as evidence, and reaching conclusions based on that evidence. However, this skill cannot protect you from coming to inaccurate conclusions if you rely on inaccurate or incomplete facts and observations.

Analyze Evidence

As a standard action, you can make use the analyze evidence ability.

Analyze Evidence

Make a Deduction check to analyze evidence available to you and try to reach an accurate conclusion. This includes both determining which evidence is relevant and deciding what that evidence proves. Most deductions have two components: observations you make, and knowledge you have. When you use this ability, you can decide to trust your own observations, your own knowledge, or both.

If you trust your own observations, and the deduction requires making observations, your Deduction modifier on the check is limited to be no greater than your modifier with the skill used to make observations. This skill is typically Awareness or Social Insight. If you trust your own knowledge, and the deduction requires knowledge, your Deduction modifier on the check is limited to be no greater than twice your Knowledge modifier with any relevant knowledge. If you trust both your observations and your knowledge, both limits apply.

Alternately, you can explicitly specify either the observations or knowledge your deduction is relying on. For example, you could make a deduction based on information given to you by another creature. If you do, your Deduction check is not limited, but your conclusions may be inaccurate if your assumptions are inaccurate.

The base difficulty rating for this check is 10. This difficulty rating is modified depending on the difficulty of the deduction and the quality of the evidence available to you, as shown on Table 5.13: Deduction Difficulty Modifiers.

Table 5.13: Deduction Difficulty Modifiers

Evidence Quality	Example	Difficulty Modifier
No irrelevant or misleading evidence	Determining a historical truth by reading the relevant passage in a history book	-5
Some evidence is irrelevant or misleading	Determining a historical truth by reading contemporary accounts	+0
About half of the evidence is irrelevant or misleading	Determining a historical truth by reading eyewitness accounts	+5
Almost all evidence is irrelevant or misleading	Determining a historical truth by reading military propaganda	+10 or more ¹
All evidence is irrelevant or misleading	Determining a historical truth by reading a cookbook	— ²
Complexity	Example	Difficulty Modifier
Exceptionally simple logic using no more than one piece of evidence	The sun is out; therefore, it is daytime	-5
Simple logic using one or two pieces of evidence	It is raining, and the cleric's clothes and boots are dry; therefore, they were not out in the rain	+0
Moderately complex logic using at least three pieces of evidence	It is raining, the mage's clothes are wet but their boots are dry, they were observed stepping into the bar, and there are no tracks leading up to the door; therefore, they can probably fly	+5
Exceptionally complex logic	A difficult logic puzzle	+10 or more

1. If there is an exceptionally large amount of irrelevant or misleading evidence relative to the amount of useful evidence, this penalty may be even larger. 2. It is impossible to make a correct deduction if there is no relevant and accurate evidence.

Devices (Int)

You can use the Devices skill to manipulate mechanical devices such as locks, traps, and other contraptions. With enough skill, you can even manipulate magical devices.

The difficulty rating of a Devices check depends on the device being manipulated. In addition, some actions are easier than others, and modify the difficulty rating accordingly. Standard difficulty ratings are listed on Table 5.14: Devices Difficulty Ratings.

Table 5.14: Devices Difficulty Ratings

Device Type	Devices Difficulty Rating
Simple device (wagon wheel, typical knot)	5
Average device (door hinge, complex knot)	10
Challenging device (typical lock or trap)	15
Difficult device (good lock, complex trap)	20
Magic trap	15 + double spell level
Extraordinary device (extraordinary lock)	25

Special Circumstances: You can attempt to leave no trace of your tampering while making a Devices check to activate or subvert a device. This increases the Devices difficulty rating by 5, but increases the Awareness difficulty rating to notice the tampering by 10.

Activate Device

As a standard action, you can make a Devices check to make a device perform a function it was designed to do, even if you lack the normal requirements. This requires thieves' tools, though you may be able to improvise from your surroundings with a -5 or greater penalty. For example, you could tie or untie a knot, apply a poison, lock or unlock a lock without its key, or activate a trap without using its normal triggering mechanism (hopefully without being in its line of fire).

Analyze Device

As a standard action, you can evaluate a device to understand how it functions. The difficulty rating is 10 lower than normal. Success grants you an insight into the device's mechanisms. For every 5 points by which you succeed, you glean additional information about the device, which can also help you estimate the device's true difficulty. Failure means you learn nothing about the device.

Break Device

As a standard action, you can make a Devices check to break a device. This requires thieves' tools, though you may be able to improvise from your surroundings with a -5 or greater penalty. The difficulty rating is 5 lower than normal. This is generally not subtle, such as jamming a lock or breaking a trap while triggering it in the process. It cannot change the state of a device, but you can prevent it from being used normally; a locked door will remain locked, but you can prevent it from being unlocked with its key. Failure means the device continues to function.

Critical failure may cause you to think that you successfully broke the device, while in fact it functions normally.

Create Bindings

As a standard action, you can make a Devices check to tie a knot or create a binding, including binding a helpless foe. The difficulty rating to escape the binding is equal to your check result.

Improvise

You can construct ad-hoc devices from available materials. It takes five minutes to make a device of up to Tiny size. You can make a Small device in the time required to make four Tiny devices, a Medium device in the time required to make four Small devices, and so on. You make a Devices check against the difficulty rating required to craft the item normally. Success means you create a device that lasts long enough for a single use before breaking. For every 5 points by which you succeed, the device lasts for an additional use.

Normally, you must have materials at hand which are designed for the construction of the device. You can jury-rig devices together from inappropriate materials by increasing the difficulty rating by 10. The materials do not have to be well-suited to the device’s construction, but they must be physically capable of performing any necessary actions. For example, you could construct a simple arrow-throwing trap from bent sticks or creatively strung rope, but not from sand. Especially appropriate or inappropriate materials may decrease or further increase the difficulty rating.

Subvert Device

As a standard action, you can make a Devices check to subvert the normal functionality of a device. This requires thieves’ tools, though you may be able to improvise from your surroundings with a -5 or greater penalty. The difficulty rating is 5 higher than normal. This could allow you to sabotage a hinge or lock so it breaks once it is used, disable a trap without triggering it, or disable a lock so it is perpetually closed or open. Failure means you were unsuccessful, and your action was wasted. Critical failure means you break the device immediately, think you sabotaged the device when you did not, or activate the trap, depending on the circumstances.

Once you have disabled a device, you can attempt to recover it for later use if you can carry it. This requires a separate Devices check to subvert the device. The difficulty rating is 5 higher than normal, as usual for a check to subvert a device.

Disguise (Int)

The Disguise skill represents your ability to create disguises to conceal the appearance of creatures or objects. This skill does not help you act appropriately while disguised; see Perform (acting) and Deception.

Conceal Object

As a standard action, you can make a Disguise check to conceal a creature or object on your person. The target must be at least one size category smaller than you are. If it is only one size category smaller than you, you take a -10 penalty to the check. A creature must be an ally, and an object must be unattended.

Your Disguise check is opposed by the Awareness check of anyone observing you. Success means they fail to notice the item. A creature directly interacting you to search for the object, such as by frisking you, gains a +5 bonus to its Awareness check.

Disguise Creature

You can make a Disguise check to change the appearance of a creature using makeup, costumes, and so forth. This requires a disguise kit, though you may be able to improvise from your surroundings with a -5 or greater penalty. An observer can perceive the presence of a disguise with a Disguise or Awareness check to identify a disguise that is higher than your Disguise check. The effectiveness of a disguise depends in part on how much you’re attempting to change the creature’s appearance, as shown on the table below. The modifiers are cumulative; use any that apply.

The Disguise check is made secretly, so that you can’t be sure how good the result is. However, you can attempt to judge its effectiveness with an identify disguise check using either Disguise or Awareness.

Creation Time: Creating a disguise takes 30 minutes. You can take a -5 penalty to reduce the time to 5 minutes, a -10 penalty to reduce the time to 5 rounds, or a -15 penalty to reduce the time to a standard action.

Characteristic	Difficulty Modifier
Different gender	+2
Different species or subtype	+2
Different age category	+2 ¹
Different creature type	+5
Additional limb	+5 ²
Different size category	— ³

1 Per step of difference between your actual age category and your disguised age category. The steps are: young, adulthood, middle age, old, and venerable.
2 Per limb. You must have suitable disguise materials available.
3 You cannot disguise yourself as a different size category.

Emulate Creature

You can make a Disguise check to make a creature look like another creature you have previously observed. This functions like the disguise creature ability, but the result of your Disguise check can't exceed the result of an Awareness check you have made to observe the creature. People viewing the disguise who know what that person looks like get a +5 bonus on their checks to identify the disguise.

Identify Disguise [Hidden]

When you observe a disguised creature or object, you can make an Disguise check to identify the disguise. The difficulty rating is equal to the Disguise check result used to create the disguise. Success means you know that the creature or object is disguised. Critical success means you can also discern its true appearance beneath the disguise. Failure means you don't notice anything unusual.

You cannot retry this check until you gain meaningful new information that would help you identify the disguise.

Endurance (Con)

The Endurance skill represents your ability to persevere through physical trials.

Hold Breath

You can hold your breath for up to 5 rounds without making an Endurance check. After that time, you must make an Endurance check at the end of each round. The difficulty rating starts at 5, and increases by 1 in each subsequent round. If you succeed, you continue holding your breath. If you fail, you stop holding your breath and try to breathe in air. If there is no air to breathe, you gain a vital wound and must continue making this check in subsequent rounds.

Overland Exertion

You can exert yourself while travelling overland to cover more ground (see Overland Movement, page 375). You can hustle, which allows you to travel twice the normal distance in the same time. You can also make a forced march, which allows you to travel for a longer period of time during the day. Exerting yourself for an hour in between long rests requires a difficulty rating 5 Endurance check. The difficulty rating increases by 2 for every hour you spend exerting yourself. Success means you suffer no penalty for the exertion. Failure means you take a vital wound from subdual damage.

If you combine both forms of exertion, you increase the difficulty rating of the check by 4 for that hour instead of by 2.

Stay Awake

A typical creature needs a minimum of 6 hours of sleep for every 18 hours spent awake, and a minimum of 50 hours of sleep every week. If you try to stay awake beyond those limits, you must make an Endurance check. The difficulty rating starts at 5, and increases by 5 for each subsequent check. If you succeed, you stay awake without suffering any penalties. If you fail, you gain a vital wound from subdual damage. You must make another check every 8 hours as long as you are still beyond your normal sleep limits.

Delay Vital Wound

Whenever you receive a vital wound, you can make difficulty rating 15 Endurance check. Success means that you briefly delay the special effect of the vital wound on you. At the end of the next round, you must make this check again. The difficulty rating increases by 10 for each consecutive round that you delay the same vital wound.

While a vital wound is delayed in this way, you still consider it when calculating your penalties to future vital rolls, but you do not suffer any effects from its specific vital wound effect. The vital wound can still be removed or changed by effects that remove or change vital wounds. Failure means that the vital wound has its normal effect on you.

You can only delay one of your vital wounds in this way. If you gain a new vital wound, you can choose to either delay the new vital wound or continue delaying the old vital wound. You can make this choice after learning the vital roll for the new vital wound.

Flexibility (Dex)

The Flexibility skill represents your ability to escape bindings and move through small areas by contorting your body.

Escape Bindings

As a standard action, you can make an Flexibility check to escape bindings and restraints. The difficulty ratings of various restraints are given on the table below. You can also use Flexibility to escape grapples using the escape grapple ability (see Grapple Actions, page 29).

Table 5.15: Flexibility Difficulty Ratings

Restraint	Difficulty Rating
Ropes	Binder's Devices check
Net	10
Manacles	20
Masterwork manacles	30
Entangle and similar spells	Spellcaster's attack result

Tight Squeeze

As a standard action, you can use the tight squeeze ability to squeeze into spaces too small to normally fit you.

Tight Squeeze

Make an Flexibility check to move one foot forward into a tight space. A difficulty rating 15 check allows you to move in a space that can fit your head and shoulders, but which is too tight to allow normal crawling. A difficulty rating 20 check allows you to move in a space that can fit your head, but not your shoulders. Success means you make progress through the space, while failure means your action is wasted.

This functions like squeezing (-2 accuracy, Armor, and Ref), except that the penalties are increased to -8. If you are squeezing in a space that cannot fit your shoulders, you are also treated as helpless (-10 or more Armor and Ref).

Intimidate (Varies)

The Intimidate skill represents your ability to intimidate and coerce people into doing what you want.

Check Modifiers: You gain a bonus of up to +10 on Intimidate checks if the target thinks you or your group is stronger than it is, or that it is otherwise in some real danger from you. Likewise, you take a penalty of up to -10 if the target thinks you or your group is weaker than it is, or that there is otherwise no chance that you could cause it harm.

Choosing an Attribute: No attribute is a key attribute for Intimidate. However, depending on how you are trying to intimidate creatures, you can add any attribute's base value to your Intimidate check. For example, if you intimidate a creature by smashing a table and threatening to smash its head in, you can add your base Strength to the Intimidate check. On the other hand, if you intimidate a creature by staring it down in a cold fury, you can add your base Willpower to the Intimidate check.

Coerce

You can make an Intimidate check to convince a creature to do what you want. This functions like a Persuasion check to form an agreement with a group, except that you do not apply a relationship modifier. In addition, the difficulty rating is up to 10 lower if the group thinks your group is significantly stronger than them, or up to 10 higher if the group thinks your group is significantly weaker.

Demoralize

As a standard action, you can use the demoralize ability to intimidate creatures in combat.

Demoralize

Make an attack vs. Mental against a creature within Medium (60 ft.) range. Your accuracy is equal to your Intimidate skill.

Hit: The target is briefly shaken (-2 accuracy and Mental within 60 ft.) by you.

Jump (Str)

The Jump skill represents your ability to jump. All Jump checks are made as part of movement, so they take no special action to perform. Distance moved with Jump checks is counted against your normal maximum movement in a phase.

Several modifiers apply to all Jump checks, which are described below.

Running Start: If you move at least twenty feet before jumping, you have a running start. Jumping without a running start is difficult. If you make a Jump attack or check without a running start, you roll twice and take the lower result.

Hop Up

You can make a difficulty rating 5 Jump check while moving to jump up onto an object as tall as your waist, such as a table or small boulder. Doing so counts as 5 feet of movement. Success means you land on top of the object and can continue your movement. Failure indicates you stop your movement where you are. You do not need to get a running start to hop up.

Mitigate Fall

As you hit the ground after a fall, you can make an Jump check to reduce falling damage. A difficulty rating 5 check allows you to treat a fall as if it were 10 feet shorter. For every 10 points by which you beat that difficulty rating, you can reduce the falling damage by 10 additional feet. You do not need a running start to use this ability.

Leap

As part of movement, you can make a Jump check to jump. You move forward any number of feet, up to a maximum equal to one quarter of your land speed + your Jump check result. Your maximum height must be no greater than half of your Jump check result, and at least equal to a quarter of your forward distance travelled. For example, if you have a land speed of 30 feet and you get a Jump check result of 20, you can move forward a maximum of 25 feet. If you instead jump forward twenty feet, your maximum height must be between 5 and 10 feet.

You always reach your maximum height at the midpoint of the jump. However, you can interrupt your leap before travelling the full horizontal distance. For example, if you need to travel five feet forward and five feet vertically to reach a rope, you can start a leap which would take you ten feet forward and reach a maximum height of five feet. Making such a leap would require a Jump check result of 10. When you reach the rope, you can stop your movement there, ignoring the forward motion which would make you travel the full ten feet.

When leaping, your movement may not be stopped by hitting the ground after travelling the normal distance, such as if you jump off of a ledge. In that case, you move one quarter of your jump distance farther forward as you fall before your fall becomes entirely downward. If an insufficiently long jump would cause you to fall into a gap, you can attempt to stop your fall (see Stop Fall, page 122) if you can reach the wall.

Rebounding Leap

While in midair, if you make contact with a solid object or ally that can support your weight, you can jump off of it, as the leap ability. You are not considered to have a running start. In addition, you take a –5 penalty to the check (in addition to the penalty for not having a running start), because rebounding off of an object in midair is difficult. You must travel at least 5 feet in the air between each rebounding jump.

Share Impact

As a standard action, you can make a precise leap to land on an enemy, forcing them to share your falling damage. This functions like the leap ability, except that you also make an attack vs. Reflex against one creature in a space at the end of your motion, including both your initial jump and your fall afterwards (if any). Your accuracy is equal to your Jump skill. On a hit, the target takes half of the falling damage that you would normally take based on the height of the jump, ignoring any of your abilities that reduce that damage. This does not reduce the falling damage you take, and you cannot combine this ability with the mitigate fall ability to reduce your falling damage.

Knowledge (Int)

Like the Craft, Profession, and Perform skills, Knowledge actually encompasses a number of separate skills. Knowledge represents a study of some body of lore, possibly an academic or even scientific discipline. Below are listed typical fields of study.

- Arcana (ancient mysteries, magic traditions, arcane symbols, cryptic phrases, constructs, dragons, magical beasts)
- Engineering (architecture, buildings, bridges, fortifications, siege weapons)
- Dungeoneering (aberrations, caverns, oozes, spelunking, subterranean monsters)
- Geography (lands, terrain, climate, people, outdoor monsters)
- Local (humanoids, legends, inhabitants, laws, customs, history, nobility, royalty)
- Nature (animals, fey, giants, monstrous humanoids, plants, seasons and cycles, weather, vermin)
- Planes (the Primal Planes, the Aligned Planes, the Astral Plane, planeforged, magic related to the planes, extraplanar monsters)
- Religion (gods and goddesses, mythic history, ecclesiastic tradition, holy symbols, undead)

You cannot retry Knowledge checks until you are presented with significant new information about the subject that could jog your memory.

Identify Monster

You can make a Knowledge check reactively to identify a monster and recall its special powers or vulnerabilities. In general, the difficulty rating is equal to 5 + the monster's level.

Success allows you to remember the monster's name and its most well-known features, as indicated in the monster's description. In addition, you remember one piece of useful information. For every 5 points by which you succeed, you remember an additional piece of useful information, in addition to any context about the monster from its description. You can choose each piece of useful information from the following standard pieces of information:

- Alignment
- All languages the creature typically knows, if any
- Approximate level, to the nearest increment of 3 (0, 3, 6, 9, and so on)
- Approximate speed, to the nearest increment of 10 feet
- Approximate value for any one of its attributes, to the nearest increment of 5
- Challenge rating (see Challenge Rating, page 445)
- Highest defense
- Lowest defense

Failure indicates you don't remember anything important about the monster. Critical failure may mean you remember incorrect information.

Some particularly famous monsters have legends about them that are much easier to recall than specific combat details about them. For example, even the most rural commoner has heard of dragons.

Answer Question/Recall Information

You can make a Knowledge check reactively to remember information related to your field of study. The difficulty rating varies depending on the difficulty of the question. Answering a simple or trivial question that most students would be familiar with is difficulty rating 5. Answering a challenging question which would be beyond the reach of most initiates is R 15. Answering a deeply complex or obscure question which might require information known only by the most learned masters in the field would be difficulty rating 20 or higher.

Appraise Item

You can make a Knowledge check to estimate the value of an item with 1 minute of careful study. The Knowledge skill used must be related to the item.

The difficulty rating depends on the rarity of the item. Common items, such as nonmagical equipment and utensils, are difficulty rating 5. Rare items, such as valuable gems and magic items worth less than 100,000 gp, are difficulty rating 10. Extraordinarily rare items, such as unique gems and magic items worth at least 100,000 gp, are difficulty rating 20.

Success means you know the value of the item. Failure means you think the item is worth $(d10 + 5)/10 \times$ the item's actual value. (The d10 roll is made secretly, so you don't know how close you are.) Critical failure means you can't estimate the item's value at all.

After you appraise an item, you can't appraise it again with any skill until you gain a level.

Linguistics (Int)

The Linguistics skill represents your mastery of spoken and written languages (see Languages, page 376). Normally, you don't make Linguistics checks to speak or understand languages. You either know a language or you don't. However, training in Linguistics causes you to learn additional languages, and you can use Linguistics to attempt to decipher unfamiliar languages.

Automatic Languages: If you are trained in Linguistics, you learn an additional common language (see Language Rarity, page 376). If you have mastered Linguistics, you instead learn two common languages or one rare language.

Decipher Script

You can make a Linguistics check to decipher writing in an unfamiliar language or a message written in an incomplete or archaic form. The base difficulty rating is 10 for the simplest messages, 15 for standard texts, and 20 or higher for intricate, exotic, or very old writing. In addition, the difficulty rating increases by 5 if you do not know any languages that use the same alphabet as the writing being deciphered. Deciphering the equivalent of a single page of script takes 1 minute.

Success means you understand the general content of a piece of writing about one page long (or the equivalent). Failure means you fail to understand the writing. Critical failure means you to draw a false conclusion about the text. The check to decipher the writing is made secretly, so that you can't tell whether the conclusion you draw is true or false.

Identify Language

You make a difficulty rating 10 Linguistics check to identify the language used in speech or writing, even if you can't understand the language. For details about languages, see Languages, page 376.

Medicine (Int)

The Medicine skill allows you to tend to the injuries and afflictions of others. In order to use this skill to aid a creature, you must be able to see and touch it.

Accelerate Recovery

You can make a difficulty rating 15 Medicine check to accelerate the recovery of up to four willing creatures, potentially including yourself, during a long rest. Success means that each creature removes an additional vital wound (see Removing Vital Wounds, page 12). For every 10 points by which you succeed, each creature removes an additional vital wound.

To accelerate a creature's recovery, you need a few items and supplies (bandages, salves, and so on) that are easy to come by in civilized areas. You can accelerate the recovery of additional creatures during the same rest by taking a cumulative -2 penalty per additional creature.

First Aid

As a standard action, you can make a Medicine check to prevent yourself or an ally from dying from a vital wound with a negative vital roll. The difficulty rating is equal to 0 + 10 for each point by which the vital roll is below 1. Success means that the target treats the vital roll as a 1 instead of its original value. This changes the effect of the vital wound, generally preventing the target from dying. For details, see Vital Wounds, page 12.

You can use this ability to treat multiple creatures within your reach. You take a -5 penalty to the check for each additional target beyond the first.

Treat Condition

As a standard action, you can make a Medicine check to treat some specific conditions. Success usually means the condition is gone, as indicated by the effect's description. A condition cannot be removed by this ability unless says this ability can remove it.

Treat Poison or Disease

You can make a Medicine check to treat poison or disease in a character. To resist the next attack by the poison or disease, it can use your Medicine check or its Fortitude defense, whichever is higher. Treating a poison takes a standard action. Treating a disease takes five minutes of work.

Perform (Varies)

Like Craft, Knowledge, and Profession, Perform is actually a number of separate skills. You could have several Perform skills, each with a separate degree of training. Each of the nine categories of the Perform skill includes a variety of methods, instruments, or techniques, a small list of which is provided for each category below.

- Acting (drama, impersonation, mime)
- Comedy (buffoonery, limericks, joke-telling)
- Dance (ballet, waltz, jig)
- Keyboard instruments (harpsichord, piano, pipe organ)
- Oratory (epic, ode, storytelling)
- Percussion instruments (bells, chimes, drums, gong)
- Singing (ballad, chant, melody)
- String instruments (fiddle, harp, lute, mandolin)
- Wind instruments (flute, pan pipes, recorder, shawm, trumpet)

Choosing an Attribute: No attribute is a key attribute for Perform. However, depending on how you are trying to perform creatures, you can add any attribute's base value to your Perform check. For example, if you create a complex and challenging tune on a harp, you can add your base Dexterity to the Perform check. On the other hand, if you issue a bombastic series of trumpet blasts, you can add your base Constitution to the Perform check.

Performance Types: In general, there are three types of performances: instrumental performances, visual performances, and vocal performances.

Instrumental Performances: These performances require an instrument of some sort to create sound, which always requires at least one hand to manipulate the instrument. They affect all creatures who can hear the performance.

Visual Performances: These performances require some sort of motion, such as juggling. They affect all creatures who can see the performance.

Vocal Performances: These performances use your voice to create sound. These are simpler to create than instrumental performances, since they don't require an instrument. However, vocal performances are always in a particular language. They affect all creatures who can hear the performance and understand the language the performance is in.

Limitations while Performing: While you are performing, your actions are slightly limited. It takes a minor action to initiate and sustain a performance.

While you are performing, you cannot use Focus abilities. In addition, you take a -10 penalty to the Perform skill for any other performances. This penalty stacks, and applies separately for each simultaneous performance. For example, if you were playing a lyre, singing, and juggling balls with your feet, you would take a -20 penalty to all three performances. These limitations are in addition to any restrictions imposed by your method of performing, such as your hands being occupied playing an instrument.

You can otherwise act normally while performing, including attacking in combat, if doing so is physically possible.

Performance Time: In general, you can maintain a performance for a number of minutes equal to 5 + your Constitution. After that time, you must rest for 5 minutes before performing again.

Entertain

You can make a Perform check to provide entertainment or to show off your skills.

Earn Income

You can make a Perform check to practice your trade and make a decent living, earning about half your Perform check result in gold pieces per week of dedicated performance.

Persuasion (—)

You can use the Persuasion skill to convince people to do or think what you want. Depending on how it is used, it represents a combination of verbal acuity, tact, argumentative ability, grace, etiquette, and personal magnetism. Using a Persuasion check usually takes at least a minute of sustained conversation.

Persuasion checks are usually made against a group. For the purposes of a Persuasion check, a “group” consists of creatures who consider themselves to be allies and who share similar information or backgrounds. For example, in a king’s court, you cannot simply influence the king alone; his trusted advisors are also part of the same group. It is possible to influence one group without influencing another. For example, the king and his advisors may be unpersuaded, but the prince may find your arguments compelling. Groups can also consist of a single creature. The game master decides what the groups are.

The base difficulty rating for a Persuasion check against a group is equal to 5 + the highest level of any character in the group or the highest Social Insight of any character in the group, whichever is higher.

Not all social interactions require Persuasion checks. Much of the time, being extraordinarily persuasive is unnecessary, and creatures can be convinced with normal, inartful conversation and good reasoning. Persuasion checks should only be used when your personal persuasiveness matters.

Compel Belief

As part of conversation, you can make a Persuasion check to cause creatures to believe something you say. If you are lying, you must also make a Deception check to lie. Success means the group believes what you are saying is true. What they choose to do with that information is up to them, however. Failure means they do not believe you, but they do not react poorly; perhaps they simply want more verification. You may be able to try again, depending on their patience. Critical failure means the group reacts poorly, and you may have permanently damaged your credibility with them.

Your check is modified by how believable your argument is, as well as whether the group has strong feelings about the truth of your story.

Form Agreement

You can make a Persuasion check to convince a group to accept a deal you offer. This can be used to persuade the chamberlain to let you see the king, to negotiate peace between feuding barbarian tribes, or to convince the ogre mages that have captured you that they should ransom you back to your friends instead of twisting your limbs off one by one.

Success means the group will fulfill their end of the deal. Of course, if you don’t fulfill your part, they are likely to react poorly. Failure means they did not accept the deal, but they may propose an alternate arrangement, or you can propose another

Table 5.16: Believability Modifiers

Description	Difficulty Modifier
Expected to be true (“Nothing interesting happened while I was on patrol”)	–5
Plausible (“The mayor is too busy to see you now.”)	+0
Unlikely (“The north gate is under attack!”)	+5
Extremely unlikely (“The mayor is secretly a werewolf.”)	+10
Virtually impossible (“Your husband is secretly a werewolf.”)	+15 or more
Demonstrably untrue (“You are secretly a werewolf.”)	— ¹

¹ You cannot convince someone of something that is proven to be false.

Table 5.17: Motivation Modifiers

Target wants to believe (“That dress looks lovely on you.”)	–5
Target does not have strong feelings (“I’m busy.”)	+0
Target doesn’t want the story to be true (“Your brother is a murderer.”)	+5 deal without penalty. Critical failure means that there is virtually no chance to reach an agreement, and the group may become hostile or take other steps to end the conversation. They may have been insulted by how unfair the deal was, or you may have made a critical verbal misstep.

Your check is modified by your relationship with the group and how favorable the deal is.

Gather Information

An evening’s time, a few gold pieces for buying drinks and making friends, and a difficulty rating 5 Persuasion check get you a general idea of a city’s major news items, assuming there are no obvious reasons why the information would be withheld. The higher your check result, the better the information.

If you want to find out about a specific rumor, or a specific item, or obtain a map, or do something else along those lines, the difficulty rating for the check is generally at least 5. The difficulty depends on how widely known and shared the information you seek is.

Table 5.18: Relationship Modifiers

Relationship	Difficulty Modifier
Intimate: Someone who with whom you have an implicit trust. Example: A lover or spouse.	–15
Friend: Someone with whom you have a regularly positive personal relationship. Example: A long-time buddy or a sibling.	–10
Ally: Someone on the same team, but with whom you have no personal relationship. Example: A cleric of the same religion or a knight serving the same king.	–5
Acquaintance (Positive): Someone you have met several times with no particularly negative experiences. Example: The blacksmith that buys your looted equipment regularly.	–2
Just Met: No relationship whatsoever. Example: A guard at a castle or a traveler on a road.	+0
Acquaintance (Negative): Someone you have met several times with no particularly positive experiences. Example: A town guard that has arrested you for drunkenness once or twice.	+2
Enemy: Someone on an opposed team, with whom you have no personal relationship. Example: A cleric of a philosophically-opposed religion or an orc bandit who is robbing you.	+5
Personal Foe: Someone with whom you have a regularly antagonistic personal relationship. Example: An evil warlord whom you are attempting to thwart, or a bounty hunter who is tracking you down for your crimes.	+10
Nemesis: Someone who has sworn to do you, personally, harm. Example: The brother of a man you murdered in cold blood.	+15

Profession (Varies)

Like Craft, Knowledge, and Perform, Profession is actually a number of separate skills. You could have several Profession skills, each with a separate degree of training. While a Craft skill represents ability in creating or making an item, a Profession skill represents an aptitude in a vocation requiring a broader range of less specific knowledge. Most commoners have some training in a Profession skill.

Choosing an Attribute: No attribute is a key attribute for Profession. However, depending on how you are using your Profession, you can add any attribute’s base value to your Profession check. For example, if you use your experience as a farmer to harrow a field, you can add your base Strength to the Profession check. On the other hand, if you use your experience as a sailor

Risk vs. Reward Judgement (Persuasion)	Difficulty Modifier
Fantastic: The reward for accepting the deal is very worthwhile; the risk is either acceptable or extremely unlikely. The best-case scenario is a virtual guarantee. Example: An offer to pay 10gp for directions to the well-known local tavern.	-15 or more
Good: The reward is good and the risk is minimal. The subject is very likely to profit from the deal. Example: An offer to pay someone twice their normal daily wage to spend their evening in a seedy tavern and later report on everyone they saw there.	-10
Favorable: The reward is appealing, but there's risk involved. If all goes according to plan, though, the deal will end up benefiting the subject. Example: A request for a mercenary to aid the party in battle against a weak goblin tribe in return for a cut of the money and first pick of the magic items.	-5
Even: The reward and risk more or less even out; or the deal involves neither reward nor risk. Example: A request for directions to a place that isn't a secret.	+0
Unfavorable: The reward is not enough compared to the risk involved. Even if all goes according to plan, chances are it will end badly for the subject. Example: A request to free a prisoner the target is guarding for a small amount of money.	+5
Bad: The reward is poor and the risk is high. The subject is very likely to get the raw end of the deal. Example: A request for a mercenary to aid the party in battle against an fearsome dragon for a small cut of any non-magical treasure.	+10
Horrible: There is no conceivable way that the proposed plan could end up with the subject ahead or the worst-case scenario is guaranteed to occur. Example: An offer to trade a broken sword hilt for a shiny new longsword.	+15 or more to determine the right angle for sails in the current wind, you can add your base Perception to the Profession check.

and plants in place of Knowledge (nature). The difficulty rating when using Profession may be higher than it would be to use the normal skill for the task.

Appraise Item

You can make a Profession check to estimate the value of an item with 1 minute of careful study. The Profession skill used must be related to the item. This check is always Intelligence-based, regardless of your profession.

The difficulty rating depends on the rarity of the item. Common items, such as nonmagical equipment and utensils, are difficulty rating 5. Rare items, such as valuable gems and magic items worth less than 100,000 gp, are difficulty rating 10. Extraordinarily rare items, such as unique gems and magic items worth at least 100,000 gp, are difficulty rating 20.

Success means you know the value of the item. Failure means you think the item is worth $(d10 + 5)/10$ x the item's actual value. (The d10 roll is made secretly, so you don't know how close you are.) Critical failure means you can't estimate the item's value at all.

After you appraise an item, you can't appraise it again with any skill until you gain a level.

Earn Income

You can make a Profession check to practice your trade and make a decent living, earning about half your Profession check result in gold pieces per week of dedicated work. You know how to use the tools of your trade, how to perform the profession's daily tasks, how to supervise helpers, and how to handle common problems.

Perform Task

You can make a Profession check to perform some tasks related to your profession. This allows you to use Profession in place of other skills when it is appropriate. For example, a sailor could use Profession to tie common knots in place of Devices or Survival, or a farmer could use Profession to identify common animals

Ride (Dex)

The Ride skill allows you to ride horses and other mounts. Typical riding actions don't require checks. You can saddle, mount, ride, and dismount from a mount without a problem. However, some special actions require Ride checks. Some modifiers apply to all Ride checks, as described at Ride Modifiers, page 138.

Unless an ability says otherwise, you can only use this skill to ride creatures exactly one size category larger than you.

Control Mount

When riding a non-sentient ally in combat that is not trained for battle, you must make a difficulty rating 10 Ride check as a move action to control it. Success means it obeys your commands that round. Failure means it remains still and refuses to obey your commands until you make a successful check to control it. Critical failure means the mount acts of its own volition.

Magically augmented animals such as a druid's natural servant and a ranger's animal companion are considered trained for battle, making this ability unnecessary.

Fall

If you fall off your mount, or if your mount is downed in battle, you take damage from the fall. Falling off of a typical Large creature, such as a horse, deals 1d6 bludgeoning damage, while falling from larger creatures deals damage appropriate to the distance fallen.

Guide Mount

While riding an ally, you must make a difficulty rating 0 Ride check at the start of your turn to guide it with your knees. Success means it obeys your commands, and you can have both hands free to take other actions. Failure means you must use a hand to control the mount that round. Critical failure means the mount acts of its own volition. If you cannot use a hand to control the mount, you fall off the mount if it moves during your turn.

Leap

You can make a difficulty rating 5 Ride check to stay on your mount as it jumps. This check is made as part of your mount's movement. Success means that you stay on the mount. Failure means you fall off your mount as it starts to jump.

Spur Mount

You can make a difficulty rating 5 Ride check as a move action to get your mount to move faster. Success means it takes the sprint action to move faster (see Sprint, page 28). Failure means your action was wasted.

Stay in Saddle

If you take damage or your mount rears or bolts unexpectedly, you must make a difficulty rating 5 Ride check to stay in your saddle. This does not take an action. Success means you stay in your saddle. Failure means you fall off your mount.

Take Cover

You can make a difficulty rating 10 Ride check as a move action to drop low and take cover behind your mount. This requires the use of both your hands. Failure means you can't get low enough and gain no benefit from the action. Critical failure means you fall off your mount. You can leave this cover and resume your normal position as a move action that does not require a Ride check.

Ride Modifiers

If a mount is not trained as a mount, the difficulty rating to ride it increases by 10. If it lacks a saddle and other riding gear, the difficulty rating to ride it increases by 5. If it takes a standard action other than movement, such as attacking, the difficulty rating to ride it that round increases by 5.

Sleight of Hand (Dex)

The Sleight of Hand skill represents your ability to pick pockets, palm objects, and perform other feats of legerdemain.

All Sleight of Hand checks apply a special modifier based on the size of the action taken or object affected, as shown on Table 5.19: Sleight of Hand Difficulty Modifiers.

Table 5.19: Sleight of Hand Difficulty Modifiers

Size	Difficulty Modifier
Fine	−8
Diminutive	−4
Tiny	+0
Small	+4
Medium	+8
Large	+12
Huge	+16
Gargantuan	+20
Colossal	+24

Your Sleight of Hand check is opposed by the Awareness check of anyone observing you. Success means they fail to notice the item. A creature directly interacting you to search for the object, such as by frisking you, gains a +5 bonus to its Awareness check.

Pickpocket

You can make a Sleight of Hand check as a standard action to steal an object from another creature. The object must be loose and accessible, such as in a pocket. The difficulty rating depends on whether the creature notices your attempt using Awareness. If the creature's Awareness check exceeds your Sleight of Hand check, the creature notices your attempt and the difficulty rating is equal to the creature's Reflex defense. Otherwise, the creature does not notice your attempt, and the difficulty rating is 10. Success means you successfully steal the object. Failure means you do not steal the object.

Conceal Action

You can make a Sleight of Hand check to conceal an action you take, preventing observers from noticing that you took the action. You can conceal any physical action that only requires the use of your hands and arms. Your check is opposed by the Awareness check of any observers. Success means your action is unnoticed. Failure means they are able to notice your action normally.

The space required to perform the action is the size of the action, and applies a bonus or penalty as noted above. For example, winking only requires moving your eye, so you gain a +8 bonus to conceal the action. Firing a longbow requires manipulating an object as large as you are, so you take a −8 penalty to conceal the action.

Observers that you touch as part of the action gain a +10 bonus to their Awareness check. If you strike them hard, as with an attack, the bonus increases to a +20 bonus.

If you successfully conceal an attack, the attack is treated as if it were an attack from an invisible creature. The target may be unaware (−5 Armor and Ref) of the attack. If the target is hit, it can tell the direction the attack came from, but not that you made the attack.

Nonhumanoid creatures without hands and arms may conceal actions using different parts of their body. Large movements can never be concealed with this ability; see the Stealth skill.

Conceal Object

As a standard action, you can make a Sleight of Hand check to conceal a creature or object on your person. The target must be at least one size category smaller than you are. If it is only one size category smaller than you, you take a −10 penalty to the check. This penalty is separate from the normal modifier based on the object's size. A creature must be an ally, and an object must be unattended.

Social Insight (Per)

The Social Insight skill represents your ability to read body language and emotion. Most Social Insight tasks are hidden tasks.

Discern Enchantment [Hidden]

When you interact with a creature, you can try to notice whether it is affected by mind-affecting abilities with a Social Insight check. If the creature is not affected by any such abilities, the check automatically fails. If the creature is affected by Compulsion or Emotion effects that are not currently altering its behavior, the check also automatically fails. If the creature's behavior is currently being altered by a Compulsion effect, the difficulty rating is 10, and success means you identify the presence of a Compulsion effect. If the creature's behavior is currently being altered by an Emotion effect, the difficulty rating is 20, and success means you identify the presence of an Emotion effect. Failure means you do not notice any such effects on the creature.

You can also make this check to identify Subtle effects on yourself, using the same difficulty ratings.

Discern Lies [Hidden]

When you observe a creature speak, you can make a Social Insight check. The difficulty rating is equal to the speaking creature's Deception check result. Success means you identify whether the creature was lying. Failure means you do not notice any indication that the creature is lying.

Discern Secret Message

When you observe a hidden message being conveyed, you can make a Social Insight check. The difficulty rating is equal to the difficulty rating of the secret message (see Deception, page 121). Success means you recognize that a hidden message is present, but not its contents. Critical success means you can understand the message. Failure means you don't notice the hidden message.

Social Assessment

You can make a difficulty rating 5 Social Insight check to get a general assessment of a social situation. This does not take an action by itself, but you must observe the group for at least a minute. Success means you learn a piece of useful information about the situation, such as a general understanding of expected behaviors or a rough understanding of the social hierarchy. For every 5 points by which you beat the difficulty rating, you gain an additional insight into the situation.

You can make a social assessment after only a single round of observation, but you take a -10 penalty on the check. If you don't understand the language the group is using, you take a -10 penalty on the check. The information gained at a given difficulty rating may vary in usefulness depending on how obvious or subtle the situation is.

Spellsense (Per)

The Spellsense skill represents your ability to notice and understand spells and magical effects.

While sleeping, you take a -10 penalty to the Spellsense skill.

Notice Magical Effect

As a free action, you can notice magical effects around you. This ability has the Detection tag, so you can detect magical effects through solid objects (see Detection, page 391). The difficulty rating for an unattended magical item or active magical effect is equal to 15 - the power of the effect. Extremely powerful effects are very easy to notice, but more difficult to identify. However, attended magical items cannot be detected with this ability.

Success means that you notice the existence of the magical effect. Critical success means that you know the location of the magical effect. Failure means you do not notice the existence of the effect.

Identify Magical Effect

When you notice a magical effect, you can make a Spellsense check to identify its nature. Generally, you use the same Spellsense roll to both notice and identify a magical effect. The difficulty rating is equal to 5 + the power of the effect. Success means you know in general terms what the effect does. Critical success means you know exactly what the effect does, and if it is a common effect, what ability caused it. Failure means you do not recognize the effect.

If the effect has obvious visual or other cues to its true nature, such as a wall of fire, the difficulty rating is lowered by 5. If the effect has obvious cues that are misleading, such as a wall of fire that heals creatures that pass through it, the difficulty rating is increased by 5.

You cannot retry this check until you gain meaningful new information that would help you identify the effect.

Identify Spellcasting

You can identify spells being cast near you. The difficulty rating is equal to 5 + the spell level of the spell. Success means you know what spell is being cast. Failure means you do not.

Identify Potion

You can make a difficulty rating Spellsense check to identify a potion. This takes a minute of careful evaluation. For most potions, the difficulty rating is 15, and success means you identify what spell the potion contains. Failure means you do not learn anything about the potion's nature.

Potions can be crafted to conceal their true nature. The difficulty rating to identify such potions is usually 25. Success means you know what spell the potion contains. Failure means you identify the potion as whatever spell the potion is intended to resemble. Critical failure means you do not learn anything about the potion's nature.

Identify Magical Writing

You can make a Spell sense check as a standard action to identify a ritual or similar piece of magical writing. The difficulty rating depends on the complexity of the writing. If the writing describes a spell or ritual, the difficulty rating equal to 10 + three times the level of the spell or ritual. Success means you understand the magical writing. Once you decipher a particular magical writing, you do not need to decipher it again.

Teleport Trace

As a standard action, you can make a Spell sense check to learn information about a teleportation within Medium (60 ft.) range of you. The difficulty rating is equal to 10 + 1 per round since the teleportation occurred. Success means you identify the direction of the teleportation. Critical success means you also identify the distance. Failure means you learn no information about the teleportation.

Modifiers

All Spell sense checks share the same set of modifiers. These are noted on Table 5.20: Spell sense Difficulty Modifiers.

This table should not generally be consulted during a game. It is provided to make it easier to estimate a task's difficulty.

Table 5.20: Spell sense Difficulty Modifiers

Distance	Difficulty Modifier ¹
Up to 10 feet away	+0
11–50 feet away	+2
51–250 feet away	+5
251–1000 feet away	+10
1001–5000 feet away	+15
Number	Difficulty Modifier
1–4 magical sources	+0
5–20 magical sources	–5
21–100 magical sources	–10
101–500 magical sources	–15
Background	Difficulty Modifier
Nothing similar	0
Many similar sensations	+5
Many more intense sensations	+10

Stealth (Dex)

The Stealth skill represents your ability to escape detection while moving or hiding. All Stealth checks are made as part of movement or other actions, so they require no special action to perform. If you have been noticed by a creature, you automatically fail all Stealth checks against that creature until you can escape its notice, such as by disappearing out of sight.

Size and Stealth: A creature larger or smaller than Medium gains an bonus or penalty to the Stealth skill equal to +4 per size larger than Medium, or –4 for per size smaller than Medium:

- Fine: +20
- Diminutive: +15
- Tiny: +10
- Small: +5
- Medium: +0
- Large: –5
- Huge: –10
- Gargantuan: –15
- Colossal: –20

Avoid Notice

As part of any movement or standard action, or as a move action if you hide in place, you can make a Stealth check to prevent creatures from becoming aware of you as a result of that action. Your Stealth check is opposed by the Awareness checks of any creatures who are capable of observing you and who are not already aware of you. Success means that the observer's awareness of you does not change. If it was originally unaware (–5 Armor and Ref) of you, it stays unaware of you, and if it was originally partially unaware (–2 Armor and Ref) of you, it stays partially unaware of you. This effect lasts you take an action or your circumstances otherwise meaningfully change in a way that would make you easier to observe. Failure means that the observer can observe you using any senses they detected you with. Generally, success with sight-based senses causes creatures to become aware of you, while success with other senses causes creatures to be partially unaware (–2 Armor and Ref) of you.

If you do not have cover or concealment from a creature (see Cover, page 23 and Concealment, page 24), that creature gains a +20 bonus to Awareness checks to observe you. For this purpose, do not consider any cover that would be hidden as a result of a successful check, such as an object you hold in front of you. If a creature can see you regardless of cover or concealment with an ability like lifesight or tremorsight, you are not considered to have cover or concealment from it, so it gains that +20 bonus.

If a creature would automatically know your location with an ability like lifesense or tremorsense, it gains a +10 bonus to Awareness checks to observe you. This does not stack with the Awareness bonus for not having cover or concealment.

Larger, more obvious actions are more difficult to hide. If you use a movement speed to move, you take a penalty to your Stealth check to conceal that movement. This is a –10 penalty if you move at no more than half your speed. If you use the sprint ability or move faster than half your speed, this penalty increases to -20.

Making a strike, using somatic components, and taking other similar large-scale actions imposes a -10 penalty to the Stealth check. If you make a strike with a medium or heavy weapon, this penalty increases to -20. This is separate from and stacks with the +20 bonus that a creature gets to notice you if you hit it with a strike (see Notice Creatures and Events, page 119).

Blend In

You can make a Stealth check to blend in with a crowd. Your Stealth check is opposed by the Awareness checks of anyone looking for you specifically. Success means you remain indistinguishable from any other random member of the crowd. Failure means the person looking for you identified you.

If you act differently from the crowd you are trying to blend in with, anyone observing you gets a +5 bonus to find you. You may need to make Awareness or Social Insight checks to figure out how to act, depending on the situation. If you are extremely dissimilar from the crowd, such as a naked person in church or a human among halflings, anyone observing you may gain a +10 or greater bonus to find you.

Hide [Hidden]

As part of any movement or teleportation, you can make a Stealth check to make creatures that are aware of you lose track of your position. Your Stealth check is opposed by the Awareness checks of any creatures who were aware of you before your movement. In order to use this ability, you must move in a way that makes observers lose sight of you for at least ten feet of your motion. This can be achieved by moving through total darkness, moving behind total cover, teleporting at least ten feet, or similar activities. Note that most teleportation effects make noise, which means that creatures can detect you by hearing that noise instead of beating your Stealth check. In addition, you must have cover or concealment for the entire duration of your movement. Success means that the observer becomes partially unaware (-2 Armor and Ref) of you instead of fully aware of you.

If you do not have cover or concealment from a creature (see Cover, page 23 and Concealment, page 24), that creature gains gain a +20 bonus to sight-based Awareness checks to observe you. For this purpose, do not consider any cover that would be hidden as a result of a successful check, such as an object you hold in front of you.

Survival (Per)

The Survival skill represents your ability to take care of yourself and others in the wilderness, as well as your mastery of various survival-related tasks.

Navigate Wilderness

You can make a Survival check while moving overland to avoid natural hazards and getting lost. The difficulty rating depends on the terrain, as shown on Table 5.21: Terrain Difficulty Ratings. Success means that you and any group you lead can move without any trouble. Failure means you may encounter a natural hazard, depending on the terrain. Critical failure means you become lost.

You can notice that you are lost the next time that you succeed on a check to navigate in the wilderness. Rediscovering your location requires backtracking for 1d6 hours and another Survival check against the same difficulty rating.

This check is made once every 8 hours you spend travelling overland. If you move at half speed, you gain a +5 bonus on the check.

Sustenance

You can make a Survival check to move overland at half speed while hunting and foraging. The difficulty rating depends on the terrain, as shown on Table 5.21: Terrain Difficulty Ratings. Success means that you can feed yourself, and require no additional food or water. For every 2 points by which you succeed, you can provide food and water to an additional person.

This check is made once every 8 hours you spend travelling overland. If you move at one-quarter speed, you gain a +5 bonus on the check.

Table 5.21: Terrain Difficulty Ratings

Terrain	Navigation Rating	Difficulty	Sustenance Rating	Difficulty
Desert	15		20
Forest	10		15
Jungle	10		10
Mountains	10		15
Hills	5		10
Plains	5		10
Swamp	15		15

Predict Weather

You can make a difficulty rating 10 Survival check to predict the weather. This requires a minute of observation. Success means you know what the weather will be like up to 24 hours in advance. For every 5 points by which you succeed, you can predict the weather one additional day in advance.

Track

As a standard action, you can make a Survival check to follow tracks. The difficulty rating of the check depends on how easy the tracks are to notice, as shown on Table 5.22: Track Difficulty Ratings and Table 5.23: Track Difficulty Modifiers. You must use this ability each round to continue following the trail, though you do not have to make an additional Survival check each round. You must make another Survival check if you change your movement speed, if you follow the trail for 1 mile, or if it becomes especially difficult to follow for any reason.

If you move at up to half your normal speed as the same round that you use this ability, you take no penalty on the check. If you move at your full speed, you take a –5 penalty to the check.

The difficulty rating depends on the surface and the prevailing conditions, as given on the table below: The base difficulty rating to follow tracks is 5 if you use scent to track, regardless of the condition of the ground.

A creature can use the Awareness skill to notice signs of passage, but the Survival skill is necessary to follow tracks for any distance.

Table 5.22: Track Difficulty Ratings

Surface	Description	Difficulty Rating
Very soft ground	Any surface (fresh snow, thick dust, wet mud) that holds deep, clear impressions of footprints.	0
Soft ground	Any surface soft enough to yield to pressure, but firmer than wet mud or fresh snow, in which a creature leaves frequent but shallow footprints	5
Firm ground	Most normal outdoor surfaces (such as lawns, fields, woods, and the like) or exceptionally soft or dirty indoor surfaces (thick rugs and very dirty or dusty floors)	10
Hard ground	Any surface that doesn't hold footprints at all, such as bare rock or a streambed	15

If you fail a Survival check to track, you can retry after 5 minutes of searching.

Use Rope

You can make a Survival check as a standard action to tie knots. Success means you tie the knot successfully. Failure means your action is wasted, but you can try again. Tying a typical knot is difficulty rating 10. Tying a special knot, such as one that slips, slides slowly, or loosens with a tug is difficulty rating 15. Knots can also be tied with the Devices skill.

You can also make a Survival check in place of a ranged attack to set a grappling hook. You take a –2 penalty per 10 feet.

Swim (Str)

The Swim skill represents your ability to swim.

Swimming

You can make a Swim check as a free action while you are in water or some other thick liquid that allows swimming. This is a Swift ability, so you can use any swim speed you gain during the same phase that you use this ability. The difficulty rating depends on the turbulence of the water, as shown on Table 5.24: Swim Difficulty Ratings.

Success means you gain a swim speed equal to one quarter of the base speed for your size until the end of the phase. Critical success means the swim speed you gain is equal to half the base speed for your size. Failure means your action is wasted and you do not move.

Table 5.24: Swim Difficulty Ratings

Water	Difficulty Rating
Calm water	5
Rough water	10
Stormy water	15

Swimming Underwater

You can swim underwater just like you can above water. If you are underwater, either because you failed a Swim check or because you are swimming underwater intentionally, you must hold your breath. You can hold your breath for a number of rounds equal to 5 + your Constitution. After that period of time, you must make a difficulty rating 10 Constitution check every round to continue holding your breath. Each round, the difficulty rating for the check increases by 5. If you fail, you begin to drown.

Swim Speed

Some creatures have a listed swim speed. A creature with a passive swim speed must still make a Swim check to swim through liquid. However, the distance it can move if it succeeds on the Swim check is equal to its listed swim speed, regardless of its size or whether it gets a critical success on the check.

Control Weather

Attune (self)

Focus

Rank 4

When you cast this spell, you choose a new weather pattern. You can only choose weather which would be reasonably probable in the climate and season of the area you are in. For example, you can normally create a thunderstorm, but not if you are in a desert.

When you complete the spell, the weather begins to take effect in a two mile radius cylinder-shaped zone from your location. After five minutes, your chosen weather pattern fully takes effect. You cannot change the intensity of the weather beyond what would be possible without magic during this time frame. For example, you can change a clear sky into a light thunderstorm, but you cannot create a hurricane or tornado from untroubled air.

You can control the general tendencies of the weather, such as the direction and intensity of the wind. You cannot control specific applications of the weather, such as the location of lightning strikes. Contradictory weather conditions are not possible simultaneously.

After the spell's effect ends, the weather continues on its natural course, which may cause your chosen weather pattern to end. If another ability would magically manipulate the weather in the same area, the most recently used ability takes precedence.

Rank 6: You can shape the weather for up to fifteen minutes before it takes effect, increasing the intensity of the changes you can make.

Sustain (minor)

You change the speed of water within a Medium (30 ft.) radius emanation from you by up to 5 miles per hour. In addition to allowing you to change the direction of currents within large bodies of water, you can also use this to propel water across surfaces. Generally, moving water uphill costs at least 5 miles per hour of speed for every foot of elevation that you are trying to climb, which can limit your ability to move water up large distances.

Using this on a very large body of water is difficult, since the waste material can easily mix with the water unaffected by a single casting of this spell.

Sight through the wall is possible, though distorted. The wall provides both cover and concealment to targets on the opposite side of the wall, for a total of a +4 bonus to Armor defense. Creatures can pass through the wall unharmed, though it costs five extra feet of movement to move through the wall.

Each five-foot square of wall has hit points equal to three times your power and all of its defenses are 0.

Rank 5: The area of the wall increases to a Large (60 ft. long) line.

Rank 7: The area of the wall increases to a Huge (120 ft. long) line.

Aqueous Form	Attune (self)
Focus	Rank 4

You transform your body and equipment into water, allowing you to compress your body or contort yourself into odd shapes. This has the following effects:

- You gain a swim speed equal to the base speed for your size.
- You gain a +8 magic bonus to the Flexibility skill. In addition, the minimum size you can squeeze down to is reduced to one inch, which can dramatically improve your ability to squeeze through tight spaces.
- You are immune to critical hits from strikes.
- Your damage resistance is halved.

Rank 6: The bonus to Flexibility increases to +12.

Greater Forceful Aquajet	Instant

The damage increases by +1d for each rank beyond 4.

Mass Underwater Freedom

This spell functions like the underwater freedom spell, except that it affects up to five creatures of your choice from among yourself and your allies within Medium (60 ft.) range.

Rank 6: Each subject also gains a swim speed equal to half the base speed for its size.

Misty Shroud

Focus

Attune (self)

Rank 6: The area increases to a Medium (30 ft.) radius emanation.

Octopus Tentacles

Focus

Attune (self)
Rank 4

This spell functions like the aqueous tentacle spell, except that you create eight tentacles that extend from your body. Whenever you make a strike with the tentacles, you can attack with all of the tentacles at once, with each tentacle attacking a different target. This functions as if your attacks had the Sweeping (7) tag, with no limit on how far each secondary target must be from the primary target (see Sweeping, page 315).

Rank 6: You gain a +5 bonus to reach with attacks using the tentacles.

Fluid Motion

Focus

Attune (self)
Rank 5

When you move using one of your movement speeds, you can transform yourself into a rushing flow of water with a volume roughly equal to your normal volume until your movement is complete. You can only transform into water in this way once during your movement, and you regain your normal form at the end of the movement. In this form, you may move wherever water could go, you cannot take other actions, such as jumping, attacking, or casting spells. You may move through squares occupied by enemies without penalty. Being grappled or otherwise physically constrained does not prevent you from transforming into water in this way.

Your speed is halved when moving uphill and doubled when moving downhill. Unusually steep inclines may cause greater movement differences while in this form.

If the water is split, you may reform from anywhere the water has reached, to as little as a single ounce of water. If not even an ounce of water exists contiguously, your body reforms from all of the largest available sections of water, cut into pieces of appropriate size. This usually causes you to die.

Rank 7: You can transform to and from water any number of times during a single movement. You must still regain your normal form at the end of the movement.

Greater Desiccation

Focus

The damage increases by +1d for each rank beyond 5.

Greater Wave of Desiccation Duration Focus Rank 5

Make an attack vs. Fortitude against all living creatures in a Large (60 ft. long), 15 ft. wide line from you.

The attack's accuracy increases by +1 for each rank beyond 5.

Sphere of Constraint Duration Focus, Manifestation Rank 5

Make an attack vs. Reflex against all creatures completely within a Small (15 ft.) radius within Medium (60 ft.) range. This attack automatically fails against creatures whose entire space is not within the area.

Hit: The majority of each subject's body is briefly surrounded by a layer of water. This does not impede its ability to breathe, but it takes penalties as if it was fighting underwater (see Underwater Combat, page 26).

Critical hit: The effect becomes a condition.

The attack's accuracy increases by +1 for each rank beyond 5.

A sphere of water appears in midair that adheres to your foes.

Supreme Aquajet Propulsion Instant Focus, Manifestation Rank 5

Constraining Bubble Duration Focus, Manifestation Rank 6

Make an attack vs. Reflex against a Huge or smaller creature within Medium (60 ft.) range.

Glancing blow: The effect lasts briefly.

Critical hit: The water also covers the subject's face. This does not meaningfully impede its sight, but it cannot breathe anything other than the water.

The attack's accuracy increases by +1 for each rank beyond 6.

Greater Geyser Instant Focus, Manifestation Rank 6

Make an attack vs. Reflex against everything in a Large (60 ft. long), 5 ft. wide vertical line within Distant (240 ft.) range. If this spell has its area increased, only the length of the line increases.

Glancing blow: Half damage.

The damage increases by +1d for each rank beyond 6.

Ring of Mist Sustain (minor) Focus Rank 6

You can exclude an inner radius of any size from the area, allowing you to create fog that surrounds your location without blocking sight to things near to you.

Supreme Fountain Instant Focus, Manifestation Rank 6

Astral Refuge Duration Rank 2

Casting time: One minor action

Choose yourself or one Medium or smaller ally or unattended object within Medium (60 ft.) range. You send that creature into a random safe location in the Astral Plane, causing it to temporarily disappear. When you cast this spell, you choose how many rounds the subject spends in the Astral Plane, up to a maximum of five rounds. At the end of the last round, it reappears in the same location where it disappeared, or in the closest unoccupied space if that location is occupied.

Rank 4: The maximum size of the subject increases to Large.

Rank 6: The maximum size of the subject increases to Huge.

Dimensional Jaunt – Plane of Air

Instant
Focus Rank 2

Make an attack vs. Fortitude against anything within Long (120 ft.) range.

Hit: The subject takes 1d8 bludgeoning damage. If it loses hit points from this damage, you knockback it up to 30 feet in any direction (see Knockback Effects, page 15). Moving the subject upwards costs twice the normal movement cost.

Your foe disappears for a second into the Plane of Air, where it is knocked flying by powerful winds.

The kobold ambush exploited a weak point in your marching formation, and now everything is out of place. With a rapid succession of pops, you find yourself safely at a distance while the kobolds face the barbarian's whirling greataxe.

Flicker

Attune (self)
Focus Rank 2

You randomly flicker between your current plane and the Astral Plane. All strikes against you have a 20% failure chance as you happen to be in the Astral Plane when the attack would hit. However, all of your abilities that affect creatures or objects other than yourself also have the same failure chance. This does not affect abilities you use that only affect yourself.

Rank 4: When you cast this spell, you can choose to increase the failure chance to 30%.

Rank 6: When you cast this spell, you can choose to increase the failure chance to 40%.

It's sometimes annoying to be caught in the Astral Plane while you're trying to banish your foes there. However, watching swords pass through your body as you blink out of existence is worth the risk.

Astral Instability

Attune (self)
Focus Rank 3

At the start of each phase, you may teleport into a random unoccupied location in the Astral Plane. At the end of the round, you reappear in the location where you disappeared. If that space is occupied, you reappear in the closest available space. After you teleport in this way, you briefly cannot teleport with this ability again.

Rank 5: When you disappear, you can choose where you reappear. You can choose any unoccupied location within Short (30 ft.) range from the location where you disappeared.

Rank 7: The distance you can reappear at increases to Medium (60 ft.) range.

Armor and shields can offer some protection, but true defensive mastery comes from not being hit at all. Few people send themselves to another plane just to avoid danger, but it's a virtually unbeatable defense.

Banishment

Duration
Focus Rank 3

Make an attack vs. Mental against one creature within Medium (60 ft.) range.

Hit: The subject takes 2d6 + half power energy damage. If it loses hit points from this damage, it immediately teleports into a random unoccupied location in the Astral Plane. At the end of the next round, it teleports back to its original location, or into the closest open space if that location is occupied. After it returns, it becomes immune to being teleported in this way until it takes a short rest.

Glancing blow: Half damage.

The damage increases by +1d for each rank beyond 3.

The dire wolf about to eat your allies disappears with an audible pop. If they run quickly, they can escape before it returns.

Phasestep Attune (self)
Focus Rank 3
 Casting time: One minor action

When you move using one of your movement speeds, you can move through creatures freely. This does not allow you to move through inanimate objects. If you end your movement in spaces occupied by other creatures, both of you are still squeezing (-2 accuracy, Armor, and Ref). If you are not able to move normally, such as if you are grappled, this spell does not help you.

Rank 5: You also ignore all sources of difficult terrain.
 Rank 7: You can also move through inanimate objects that are no more than six inches thick.

You augment your body with the ability to travel short distances through the Astral Plane to reach your destination.

Phasing Blade Attune (self)
Focus Rank 3
 Casting time: One minor action

Whenever you make a strike, your weapon or projectile can pass through a single physical obstacle up to one foot thick on its way to the strike's target. This can allow your attacks to ignore cover, or even attack through solid walls. It does not allow you to ignore armor, shields, or or similar items carried or worn by the targets of your attacks.

Rank 5: Your strikes can pass through any number of physical obstacles with a combined thickness of two feet or less.
 Rank 7: Your strikes can pass through any number of physical obstacles with a combined thickness of five feet or less.

You augment your weapons with the ability to travel short distances through the Astral Plane to reach their targets.

Silent Translocation Instant
Focus Rank 3

This spell functions like the translocation spell, except that this spell does not have verbal components. In addition, the subject's departure and arrival with this spell are silent.

Rank 5: The range increases to Medium (60 ft.).
 Rank 7: The range increases to Long (120 ft.).

One by one, you teleport your allies into hidden vantage points overlooking your enemies. It took some effort to convince the dwarven paladin to try a surprise attack, but the results will be worth it.

Transposition Instant
Focus Rank 3

Make an attack vs. Mental against two Large or smaller creatures within Long (120 ft.) range. If either creature is not standing on solid ground, this spell fails.

Hit: If you hit both subjects, they each teleport into each other's locations.

The attack's accuracy increases by +1 for each rank beyond 3.

The cultists were confident that they were safe behind their defensive wall of zombies. When one of their number was unexpectedly replaced by a raging barbarian, they briefly discovered how wrong they were.

Banishing Grasp Instant
 Rank 4

This spell does not have the Focus tag. You must have a free hand to cast this spell.

Make a melee attack vs. Reflex against anything within your reach.

Hit: The subject takes 2d8 + half power energy damage. If it loses hit points from this damage, it immediately disappears. At the end of the next round, it teleports back to its original location, or into the closest open space if that location is occupied. After this effect ends, it becomes immune to this effect until it takes a short rest.

Glancing blow: Half damage.

The damage increases by +1d for each rank beyond 4.

Your touch banishes the dire wolf that was about to eat you. It should be gone long enough for you to escape to a more comfortable vantage point.

Controlled Flicker Attune (self)
Focus Rank 4

This spell functions like the flicker spell, except that you can choose at the start of each round to stop flickering for that round. If you do, your abilities do not have a failure chance, and attacks against you also do not have a failure chance.

Rank 6: When you cast this spell, you can choose to increase the failure chance to 30%.

Some astromancers have researched the mystic arts for decades to avoid accidentally travelling to other planes in combat. Of course, most people take that ability for granted.

Dimension Door

Focus

Instant

Rank 4

You teleport to an unoccupied destination on a stable surface within Distant (240 ft.) range of you. You must clearly visualize the destination's appearance and have an approximate knowledge of its direction and distance from you. However, you do not need line of sight or line of effect to your destination.

Rank 6: The range increases to Extreme (480 ft.) range.

You were invited into this throne room once, while the old king still lived. Now, you can return whenever you want, no matter how many guards and locks the usurper tries to deploy against you.

Dimension Walk

Focus

Attune (self)

Rank 4

Once per round, you can teleport horizontally instead of moving normally. Teleporting a given distance costs movement equal to that distance. If your line of effect to your destination is blocked, or if this teleportation would somehow place you inside a solid object, your teleportation is cancelled and you remain where you are that phase. You must be able to use your movement speeds to teleport in this way, so effects like being immobilized (–4 Ref, cannot use movement speeds) or grappled prevent this movement.

Rank 6: You can teleport in this way any number of times each round, allowing you to break up your teleportation between movements.

Why would you walk when you can teleport?

Dimensional Jaunt – Plane of Earth

Focus

Duration

Rank 4

Make an attack vs. Mental against anything within Short (30 ft.) range.

Hit: The subject takes 2d6 bludgeoning damage. If it loses hit points from this damage, it is immobilized (–4 Ref, cannot use movement speeds) as a condition.

Glancing blow: Half damage.

The attack's accuracy increases by +1 for each rank beyond 4.

Your foe disappears for a second into the Plane of Earth, where it is crushed by the weight of stone.

Phasing Spells

Focus

Attune (self)

Rank 4

Casting time: One minor action

When determining whether you have line of effect to a particular location with spells, you can ignore a single physical obstacle up to one foot thick. This can allow you to cast spells through solid walls, though it does not grant you the ability to see through the wall.

Rank 6: Your spells can pass through any number of physical obstacles with a combined thickness of two feet or less.

You augment your spells with the ability to travel short distances through the Astral Plane to reach their targets.

Dimensional Jaunt – Myriad

Focus

Instant

Rank 5

Hit: The subject takes 4d10 + power damage of all types.

Your foe briefly teleports through a number of planes in a rapid sequence. No matter what its weaknesses are, one of those planes probably held the key.

Dimensional Jitter

Focus

Attune (self)

At the end of each phase, you may choose to teleport 10 feet horizontally in a random direction. If your line of effect to your destination is blocked, or if this teleportation would somehow place you inside a solid object, your teleportation is cancelled and you remain where you are.

Rank 7: You can choose the direction of the teleportation.

The squad of furious orcs rush up to you again, ready to strike, but you teleport away from them just before their greataxes reach you. Will they ever learn?

Glancing blow: Half damage.

Critical hit: Double damage, and the burning effect becomes a condition.

The damage of both the initial hit and the subsequent condition increases by +1d for each rank beyond 6.

Your foe disappears for a second into the Plane of fire, where it is - unsurprisingly - set on fire.

Jittering Curse

Curse, Focus

Duration

Rank 6

Make an attack vs. Mental against one creature within Medium (60 ft.) range.

Hit: The subject jitters randomly until it takes a short rest. At the end of each movement phase, if it has no remaining damage resistance, it teleports horizontally 10 feet in a random direction. This teleportation only works if it moves the subject into an unoccupied location on a stable surface that can support its weight. If the destination is invalid, the teleportation fails with no effect.

Glancing blow: The effect lasts briefly.

Critical hit: The effect lasts until the curse is removed.

The furious troll rushes up to you again, ready to strike, only to be teleported away from you just before its claws reach you. Will it ever learn?

Dimensional Anchor Duration Rank 7

Make an attack vs. Mental against one creature within Short (30 ft.) range.

Hit: The subject is stuck in place as a condition. At the end of each round, the subject teleports back to the location it was in when this spell was cast.

Glancing blow: The effect lasts briefly.

Critical hit: The condition must be removed twice before the effect ends.

There is no escape. Nothing prevents your foe from moving, yet it is trapped more perfectly than any net could achieve.

Dimensional Jaunt – Deep Astral Plane Duration Rank 7

Make an attack vs. Mental against anything within Medium (60 ft.) range.

Hit: The subject takes 4d6 energy damage. If it lost hit points from this damage, it is confused (–4 defenses, acts randomly) as a condition. Otherwise, it is stunned (–4 all defenses) instead of confused.

Glancing blow: Half damage.

Your foe briefly teleports into the Deep Astral Plane. The distance of the journey, combined with the bizarre destination, is deeply unsettling.

Plane Shift Instant Rank 4

Casting time: 1 hour

Choose a planar rift within Medium (60 ft.) range and up to five Large or smaller ritual participants. Each creature teleports to the unoccupied spaces closest to the other side of the planar rift. For details about planar rifts, see Planar Rifts, page 310.

The Astral Plane connects to every plane, but transit from other planes is usually more limited. From the Material Plane, you can only reach the Astral Plane.

This ritual requires one fatigue level from its participants.

Astral Projection Duration Rank 5

Casting time: 24 hours

Choose up to five Large or smaller ritual participants. Each creature teleports to a single random location within the Inner Astral Plane (see The Astral Plane, page 312).

In addition, a localized planar rift appears at the destination area on the Astral Plane which leads back to the location where this ritual was performed. The rift can only be passed through by the targets of this effect. It lasts for one week before disappearing permanently, potentially stranding the targets in the Astral Plane if they have not yet returned.

This ritual requires 50 fatigue levels from its participants.

Rituals

Retrieve Legacy Instant Rank 2

Casting time: 24 hours

Choose one ritual participant. If its legacy item is on the same plane and unattended, it is teleported into the creature's hand.

This ritual requires 8 fatigue levels from its participants.

Homeward Shift Instant Rank 4

Casting time: 24 hours

This ritual can only be performed on the Astral Plane.

Choose up to five Large or smaller ritual participants. Each creature teleports to the last spaces they occupied on their home planes.

This ritual requires 32 fatigue levels from its participants.

Overland Teleportation Instant Rank 5

Casting time: 24 hours

Choose a destination up to 100 miles away from you on your current plane. Up to five Medium or smaller ritual participants are teleported to the chosen destination.

You must specify the destination with a precise mental image of its appearance. The image does not have to be perfect, but it must unambiguously identify the destination. If you specify its appearance incorrectly, or if the area has changed its appearance, the destination may be a different area than you intended. The new destination will be one that more closely resembles your mental image. If no such area exists, the ritual simply fails.

This ritual requires 50 fatigue levels from its participants.

Distant Overland Teleportation

Instant

Rank 7

Focus

Casting time: 24 hours

This ritual functions like the overland teleportation ritual, except that there is no distance limitation. The destination must simply be on the same plane as you.

This ritual requires 98 fatigue levels from its participants.

Gate

Sustain (standard)

Rank 7

Focus

Casting time: One week

Choose a plane that connects to your current plane, and a location within that plane. This ritual creates an interdimensional connection between your current plane and the location you choose, allowing travel between those two planes in either direction. The gate takes the form of a Tiny (5 ft.) radius circular disk, oriented a direction you choose (typically vertical). It is a two-dimensional window looking into the plane you specified when casting the spell, and anyone or anything that moves through it is shunted instantly to the other location. The gate cannot be sustained for more than 5 rounds, and is automatically dismissed at the end of that time.

You must specify the gate’s destination with a precise mental image of its appearance. The image does not have to be perfect, but it must unambiguously identify the location. Incomplete or incorrect mental images may result in the ritual leading to an unintended destination within the same plane, or simply failing entirely.

The Astral Plane connects to every plane, but transit from other planes is usually more limited. From the Material Plane, you can only reach the Astral Plane.

This ritual requires 98 fatigue levels from its participants.

Attune (self)

Rank 1

Focus

Casting time: One minor action

You gain a +1 magic bonus to Armor defense and Reflex defense.

Rank 3: The bonus increases to +2.

Rank 5: The bonus increases to +3.

Rank 7: The bonus increases to +4.

Mystic Barrier Sustain (minor) Rank 1

Focus, Manifestation

You create a wall of magical energy within Medium (60 ft.) range. You can choose the dimensions of the wall, up to a maximum of a 15 ft. high, Small (15 ft.) length line. If you create the wall within a space too small to hold it, it fills as much of the space as possible, starting from the middle of the chosen space. This can allow you to completely block off small tunnels. The wall is visible as a shimmering magical membrane that does not block sight. Nothing can pass through the wall until it is destroyed. Each 5-ft. square of wall has 8 hit points, and all of its defenses are 0.

When you cast this spell, you can attune to it. If you do, it gains the Attune (self) tag and loses the Sustain (minor) tag.

Rank 3: The maximum area increases to a Medium (30 ft. long) line, and the hit points of each square increase to 16.
Rank 5: The maximum area increases to a Large (60 ft. long) line, and the hit points of each square increase to 32.
Rank 7: The maximum area increases to a Huge (120 ft. long) line, and the hit points of each square increase to 64.

Protective Sphere Sustain (minor) Rank 1

Focus, Manifestation

Choose yourself or one Large or smaller ally within Medium (60 ft.) range. You create a sphere of magical energy around the subject in its space. The sphere is visible as a shimmering magical membrane that does not block sight. Nothing can pass through the field until it is destroyed. This prevents the subject from having line of effect to anything outside of the area. Each 5-ft. square of the field has 8 hit points.

If another creature is in the subject's space when this spell is cast, this spell fails without effect.

Rank 3: The hit points of each 5-ft. square increase to 16.
Rank 5: The hit points of each 5-ft. square increase to 32.
Rank 7: The hit points of each 5-ft. square increase to 64.

Resilient Shield Attune (self) Rank 1

Casting time: One minor action

You gain a +4 magic bonus to your damage resistance.

Rank 3: The bonus increases to +8.
Rank 5: The bonus increases to +16.
Rank 7: The bonus increases to +32.

Ablative Energy Shield Attune (self) Rank 2

Focus
Casting time: One minor action

You surround yourself with two layers of shielding that ablate the power of energy attacks against you. You are impervious to energy damage. Whenever an attack that deals energy damage hits you or misses you by 5 or less, one layer of shielding is removed. When the last layer of shielding is destroyed, this ability provides no further benefit.

Rank 4: The spell creates three shield layers.
Rank 6: The spell creates four shield layers.

Audible Barrier Sustain (minor) Rank 2

Focus, Manifestation

This spell functions like the mystic barrier spell, except that you can choose how much the barrier blocks sound. There are three possibilities: fully sound-permeable, fully sound-blocking like a normal mystic barrier, and sound-dampening. You can change how much the barrier blocks sound as part of the action you use to sustain this spell, or as a minor action if you attune to this spell.

A sound-dampening barrier increases the difficulty rating of sound-based Awareness checks by 20. Sound-permeable and sound-dampening barriers do not block line of effect for effects that deal sonic damage, but a sound-dampening barrier makes everything impervious to sonic damage that originates from the other side of the barrier.

Rank 4: The maximum area increases to a Medium (30 ft. long) line, and the hit points of each square increase to 16.
Rank 6: The maximum area increases to a Large (60 ft. long) line, and the hit points of each square increase to 32.

Mystic Bridge Sustain (minor) Rank 2

Focus, Manifestation

This spell functions like the mystic barrier spell, except that the wall is aligned horizontally instead of vertically.

Rank 4: The maximum area increases to a Medium (30 ft. long) line, and the hit points of each square increase to 16.
Rank 6: The maximum area increases to a Large (60 ft. long) line, and the hit points of each square increase to 32.

Quickseal Sustain (minor)
Focus, Manifestation Rank 2

Choose one unattended openable object within Medium (60 ft.) range. You create a curved field of magical energy that blocks access to the subject's opening mechanism. The opening mechanism must be Medium or smaller in size. Nothing can pass through the field until it is destroyed. The field has 16 hit points.

Rank 4: The hit points of the field increase to 32.

Rank 6: The hit points of the field increase to 64.

Visual Barrier Sustain (minor)
Focus, Manifestation Rank 2

This spell functions like the mystic barrier spell, except that you can choose the visibility of the barrier. There are three possibilities: fully invisible, barely visible like a normal mystic barrier, and visible as a deep black that completely blocks sight. You can change the opacity of the barrier as part of the action you use to sustain this spell, or as a minor action if you attune to this spell.

Rank 4: The maximum area increases to a Medium (30 ft. long) line, and the hit points of each square increase to 16.

Rank 6: The maximum area increases to a Large (60 ft. long) line, and the hit points of each square increase to 32.

Forceful Barrier Sustain (minor)
Focus, Manifestation Rank 3

This spell functions like the mystic barrier spell, except that it breaks objects in its area that obstruct its path. Each object in the path of the wall takes energy damage equal to 2d6 plus your power. Any object destroyed in this way does not block the barrier's area of effect. This does no damage to creatures, who block the path of the barrier like normal. In addition, the hit points of each 5-ft. square increase to 16.

Rank 5: The maximum area increases to a Medium (30 ft. long) line, and the hit points of each square increase to 32. In addition, the damage increases to 2d8 plus your power.

Rank 7: The maximum area increases to a Large (60 ft. long) line, and the hit points of each square increase to 64. In addition, the damage increases to 2d10 plus your power.

Rank 7: The bonus increases to +3.

Mass Resilient Shield Attune (target)
Focus Rank 3

Casting time: One minor action

This spell functions like the resilient shield spell, except that it affects up to five creatures of your choice from among yourself and your allies within Medium (60 ft.) range.

Rank 5: The bonus increases to +8.

Rank 7: The bonus increases to +16.

Wall of Energy Impedance Sustain (minor)
Focus, Manifestation Rank 3

You create a wall of magical energy in a 15 ft. high, Small (15 ft. long) line within Medium (60 ft.) range. The wall is visible as a shimmering magical membrane that does not block sight. It does not impede passage for objects or creatures, but any ability that deals energy damage treats the wall as an impassable barrier. Each 5-ft. square of wall has 16 hit points.

Rank 5: The hit points of each 5-ft. square increase to 32.

Rank 7: The hit points of each 5-ft. square increase to 64.

Mirror Barrier Sustain (minor)
Focus, Manifestation Rank 4

This spell functions like the mystic barrier spell, except that it reflects mundane attacks against it. The barrier's defenses become equal to 5 + your level. Whenever a creature misses the barrier with a mundane attack, it makes the same attack against itself, rolling a new attack roll against its own defenses. In addition, the hit points of each 5-ft. square increase to 16.

Rank 6: The maximum area increases to a Medium (30 ft. long) line, and the hit points of each square increase to 32.

Repulsion Field Sustain (minor) Rank 4

When you cast this spell, you create a repulsive field in a Small (15 ft.) radius zone from your location. Whenever an enemy makes physical contact with the spell's area, you make an attack vs. Mental against it. Creatures in the area at the time that the spell is cast are unaffected by the spell.

Hit: Each subject is unable to enter the spell's area with any part of its body for the duration of the spell. The rest of its movement in the current phase is cancelled.

Glancing blow: The effect on the creature lasts briefly, allowing the creature to freely enter the zone after that time.

Critical hit: You also knockback each subject 20 feet in the direction that it tried to enter the area from.

The attack's accuracy increases by +1 for each rank beyond 4.

Wall of Magic Impedance Sustain (minor) Rank 4

This spell functions like the mystic barrier spell, except that the wall only blocks magical abilities. Objects, creatures, and mundane abilities can pass through the wall freely, but any magical ability treats the wall as an impassable barrier. In addition, each 5-ft. square of wall has 16 hit points.

Rank 6: The maximum area increases to a Medium (30 ft. long) line, and the hit points of each square increase to 32.

Energy Immunity Attune (self) Rank 5

Choose a subtype of energy damage: acid, cold, electricity, fire, or sonic. You become immune to damage of the chosen type. Attacks that deal damage of multiple types still inflict damage normally unless you are immune to all types of damage dealt.

Rank 7: You may attune to this spell any number of times, choosing a different subtype of energy damage each time. If you are immune to all subtypes of energy damage, you also become immune to energy damage without a subtype.

Invulnerable Barrier Sustain (minor) Rank 5

This spell functions like the mystic barrier spell, except that the wall's defenses are each equal to 5 + your level, and it is impervious to physical damage. In addition, each 5-ft. square of wall has 32 hit points.

Rank 7: The maximum area increases to a Medium (30 ft. long) line, and the hit points of each square increase to 64.

Personal Sphere Sustain (minor) Rank 5

You create a sphere of magical energy around yourself. The sphere is visible as a shimmering magical membrane that does not block sight. Nothing can pass through the field until it is destroyed. This prevents you from having line of effect to anything outside of the area. When you move using one of your movement speeds, the sphere moves with you, though you cannot force it against another creature or object. Each 5-ft. square of the field has 16 hit points.

Rank 7: The hit points of each 5-ft. square increase to 32.

Retributive Shield Attune (self) Rank 5

You can cast this spell as a minor action.

You gain a +16 magic bonus to damage resistance. In addition, whenever you resist damage, the attacker takes energy damage equal to half the damage resisted this way. If the attacker is beyond Short (30 ft.) range of you, this reflection fails. Any effect which increases this spell's range increases the range of this effect by the same amount.

Rank 7: The bonus increases to +32.

Antilife Shell Sustain (minor) Rank 6

This spell functions like the repulsion field spell, except that you gain a +10 bonus to accuracy against living creatures.

The attack's accuracy increases by +1 for each rank beyond 6.

Instant Barrier Duration
Focus Rank 6
 Casting time: One minor action

This spell functions like the mystic barrier spell, except that you only create a single 5-ft. square of wall, and the barrier automatically disappears at the end of the next round. After you cast this spell, you briefly cannot cast it again.

Entrapping Sphere Sustain (standard)
Focus, Manifestation Rank 7

Make an attack vs. Reflex against anything Large or smaller within Medium (60 ft.) range.

Hit: A sphere of magical energy appears around the subject in its space. The sphere is visible as a shimmering magical membrane that does not block sight. Nothing can pass through the sphere until it is destroyed. This prevents the subject from having line of effect to anything outside of the area. Each 5-ft. square of the field has 32 hit points.

If another creature is in the subject's space when this spell is cast, this spell fails without effect.

Glancing blow: The effect lasts briefly.

Critical hit: The sphere's hit points increase to 64.

Greater Mirror Barrier Sustain (minor)
Focus, Manifestation Rank 7

This spell functions like the mystic barrier spell, except that it reflects mundane attacks against it. The barrier's defenses become equal to 8 + your level. Whenever a creature misses the barrier with a mundane attack, it makes the same attack against itself, rolling a new attack roll against its own defenses. In addition, the hit points of each 5-ft. square increase to 32.

One-Way Barrier Sustain (standard)
Focus, Manifestation Rank 7

This spell functions like the mystic barrier spell, except that you choose one side of the barrier when you cast the spell. Whenever an object, creature, or ability passes through the barrier from the chosen side, the barrier parts to allow it through. If it stops halfway, it can return to its side, but once it passes through fully it treats the barrier as impassable from the other side. In addition, each 5-ft. square of wall has 32 hit points.

Endure Elements Attune (ritual)
Focus Rank 1
 Casting time: One minute

Choose either yourself or an ally or unattended object within Medium (60 ft.) range. The subject suffers no harm from being in a hot or cold environment. It can exist comfortably in conditions between -50 and 140 degrees Fahrenheit. Its equipment, if any, is also protected. This does not protect the subject from fire or cold damage.

This ritual requires one fatigue level from its participants.

You can freely open an object sealed by this effect as if it were not locked.

Focus Rank 4
 Casting time: One hour

Choose one Medium or smaller unattended object with writing on it within Short (30 ft.) range. The writing on the object is altered by the runes in subtle ways, making it more difficult to read. It becomes a trap. To read the writing, a creature must concentrate on reading it, which requires a standard action. If a creature reads the object, the object explodes. You make an attack vs. Reflex against everything within a Small (15 ft.) radius from the object. Each struck subject takes 2d8 + half power energy damage.

After the object explodes in this way, the ritual is dismissed. If the object is destroyed or rendered illegible, the ritual is dismissed without exploding.

This ritual requires one fatigue level from its participants.

Commune

Focus

Casting time: 24 hours

Instant

Rank 5

You ask your source of divine power a single yes or no question. You receive a correct answer to that question to the limit of that source’s knowledge, which is usually quite extensive. The answer is typically given as “yes” or “no”, but it may answer “unclear” if the source does not know the answer. In cases where a one-word answer would be misleading or contrary to the source’s interests, a short phrase may be given as an answer instead.

This ritual only yields accurate results once for any given situation. If you perform the ritual again in a situation that has not meaningfully changed, you receive no answer regardless of your question. For example, if you are presented with seven doorways, with one doorway leading to a magnificent treasure and all other doorways leading to certain death, you cannot simply perform this ritual six times to determine the correct doorway.

This ritual requires 50 fatigue levels from its participants.

If you specify its appearance incorrectly, or if the area has changed its appearance, the destination may be a different area than you intended. The new destination will be one that more closely resembles your mental image. If no such area exists, the ritual simply fails.

This ritual requires 50 fatigue levels from its participants.

Sustain (minor)

Rank 4

Choose yourself or an ally within Medium (60 ft.) range. You lock the state of the subject's body in time. Note the subject's hit points, vital wounds (including vital roll results), and conditions. If the subject dies, this effect ends immediately.

As a standard action, you can reach through time to restore the subject's state. If you do, the subject's hit points and conditions become identical to what they were when you cast this spell. This effect cannot restore vital wounds. This does not affect any other properties of the subject, such as any resources expended. After you restore the subject's state in this way, the spell ends.

Rank 6: The restoration effect can also remove vital wounds gained since the subject was locked.

Curse of Temporal Dislocation

Curse, Focus

Duration

Rank 5

Make an attack vs. Mental against one creature within Medium (60 ft.) range.

Hit: At the end of each round, if the subject lost hit points that round, it has a 50% chance to be sent forward in time by one round. At the end of the next round, it returns to its original location, or the closest open space if that location is occupied. This effect lasts until the subject takes a short rest.

Glancing blow: The effect lasts briefly.

Critical hit: The effect lasts until the curse is removed.

The attack's accuracy increases by +1 for each rank beyond 5.

Decelerate Duration Focus Rank 5

Make an attack vs. Mental against one creature within Medium (60 ft.) range.

Hit: The subject is decelerated (–4 Ref, quarter speed) as a condition.

Glancing blow: The effect lasts briefly.

Critical hit: The condition must be removed twice before the effect ends.

Decelerated Timestream Duration Focus Rank 5

Make an attack vs. Mental against all creatures within a Small (15 ft.) radius zone from your location. In addition, whenever a creature enters the area, you make the same attack against it. A creature that leaves the area and re-enters it uses the original attack result against it.

Hit: Each subject acts at half speed within the area. It skips every other round, starting with the round after it becomes affected by this affect.

Glancing blow: The effect on the creature lasts briefly, allowing the creature to act normally in the zone after that time.

The attack's accuracy increases by +1 for each rank beyond 5.

Mass Decelerate Duration Focus Rank 5

Make an attack vs. Mental against all creatures in a Small (15 ft.) radius within Medium (60 ft.) range.

Hit: Each target is briefly decelerated (–4 Ref, quarter speed).

Critical hit: The effect becomes a condition on each subject.

The attack's accuracy increases by +1 for each rank beyond 5.

Temporal Duplicate Duration Focus Rank 5

Casting time: One minor action

Choose yourself or one ally within Medium (60 ft.) range. You reach into a possible future and create a duplicate of the subject. The duplicate is identical in all ways to the subject when the spell resolves.

The subject and its duplicate can act during the next round. At the end of that round, the subject and its duplicate cease to exist. During that round, time does not pass for the subject. At the end of the following round, the subject reappears in the place where it ceased to exist. If that space is occupied, it appears in the closest unoccupied space. When the subject reappears, its condition is unchanged from when it left. Its hit points, conditions, and all other statistics are unaffected, regardless of any damage or other negative effects suffered by the duplicate.

The duplicate is fragile, and its actions are limited. It cannot use actions that would cause it to increase its fatigue level, lose hit points, or otherwise suffer negative consequences as a cost of the action. If it loses any hit points, it ceases to exist.

Rank 7: If you cast this spell as a standard action, you can choose to have the duplicate persist for two rounds instead of one. If you do, the subject disappears for two rounds at the same time as the duplicate.

Certain Timeseal Duration Focus Rank 6

This spell functions like the timeseal spell, except that you gain a +3 accuracy bonus with the attack, and the damage increases to 4d6 + half power.

The damage increases by +1d for each rank beyond 6.

Disjointed Deceleration Duration Focus Rank 6

Make an attack vs. Mental against one creature within Short (30 ft.) range.

Hit: The subject takes 4d6 + half power energy damage. If it loses hit points from this damage, it is decelerated (–4 Ref, quarter speed) as a condition.

Glancing blow: Half damage.

The damage increases by +1d for each rank beyond 6.

This spell resulted from extensive research by the creator of the disjointed slow spell. It functions similarly by creating inconsistent pockets of drastically slowed time within a foe's body.

Minor Acceleration

Attune (self)

Focus

Rank 6

You can take two minor actions each round instead of one. You cannot take the same minor action twice in the same round.

Accelerate Aging

Duration

Focus

Rank 7

Make an attack vs. Mental against one creature within Short (30 ft.) range.

Hit: As a condition, the subject's body temporarily ages to become extremely old. It is decelerated and dazzled. If it was already suffering age-related penalties, it is also nauseated.

Glancing blow: The effect lasts briefly.

Critical hit: The condition must be removed twice before the effect ends.

The attack's accuracy increases by +1 for each rank beyond 7.

Greater Evasion

Attune (self)

Focus

Rank 7

You can use your Reflex defense in place of any other defense against abilities that affect an area. This does not protect you from abilities that affect multiple specific targets without affecting an area.

Stutterstop

Duration

Focus

Rank 7

Make an attack vs. Mental against one creature within Medium (60 ft.) range.

Hit: As a condition, the subject is slowed (half speed, -2 Ref) and randomly immobilized. At the start of each round, it has a 50% chance to be immobilized (-4 Ref, cannot use movement speeds) during that round.

Glancing blow: The effect lasts briefly.

Critical hit: The subject is immobilized every round.

The attack's accuracy increases by +1 for each rank beyond 7.

Time Stop

Duration

Focus

Rank 7

You can take two full rounds of actions immediately. During this time, all other creatures and objects are fixed in time, and cannot be targeted, moved, damaged, or otherwise affected by outside forces in any way. You can still affect yourself and create areas or new effects. When this effect ends, you are stunned (-4 all defenses) as a condition.

You are still vulnerable to danger, such as from heat or dangerous gases. However, you cannot be detected by any means while you travel.

After you cast this spell, you cannot cast it again until you take a short rest.

Rituals

Gentle Repose

Attune (ritual)

Focus

Rank 3

Casting time: One minute

Choose one unattended, nonmagical object within Short (30 ft.) range. Time does not pass for the subject, preventing it from decaying or spoiling. This can extend the time a poison or similar item lasts before becoming inert. If used on a corpse, this effectively extends the time limit for effects that require a fresh or intact body. Additionally, this can make transporting a fallen comrade more pleasant.

This ritual requires one fatigue level from its participants.

Cryomancy

Drain heat to injure and freeze foes.

Cantrips

Chill Instant

The temperature of the air within a Medium (30 ft.) radius emanation from you is reduced by an amount of your choice, to a maximum reduction of 20 degrees Fahrenheit. You cannot reduce the temperature below 0 degrees in this way. This typically imposes no direct penalties on other creatures, but it may make them more or less comfortable depending on their preferred temperature.

This ability lasts until you use it again or until you dismiss it as a free action.

Rank 2: The area increases to a Large (60 ft.) radius emanation, and the maximum temperature reduction increases to 30 degrees.

Rank 4: The area increases to a Huge (120 ft.) radius emanation, and the maximum temperature reduction increases to 40 degrees.

Rank 6: The area increases to a Gargantuan (240 ft.) radius emanation, and the maximum temperature reduction increases to 50 degrees.

Attune (self)
Rank 1

Choose one pool of unattended, nonmagical water within Short (30 ft.) range. This spell creates up to three weapons, suits of body armor, or shields from the subject pool of water. You can create any weapon, shield, or body armor that you are proficient with, and which would normally be made entirely from metal, except for heavy armor. The pool of water targeted must be at least as large as the largest item you create.

An item created with this spell functions like a normal item of its type, with three exceptions. First, any strikes that you make with a weapon created with this ability are magical abilities, so you use your magical power to determine their damage instead of your mundane power. except that it reacts differently to fire damage. Second, while wearing body armor from this spell, you are impervious to fire damage. Third, whenever you lose hit points from fire damage, all armor and weapons you made with this ability disappear. They reappear at the end of the round.

Rank 3: You can also create heavy armor. In addition, the items are magically enhanced. A weapon grants a +1 magic bonus to accuracy with strikes using the weapon, and both shields and body armor grant a +1 magic bonus to Armor defense.

Whenever you move using one of your movement speeds, you can leave a trail of ice behind you. The ice lasts until the end of the round before disappearing.

While you are leaving a trail of ice behind you, you can move into thin air by walking on your own ice trail, just as if it was solid ground. If you are still standing on your own ice trail when it disappears at the end of the round, you fall.

Creatures following closely behind you while you move may also be able to use your ice trail. However, most Large or larger creatures will break the ice trail if they step onto it, which may cause both of you to fall.

Make an attack vs. Mental against one creature within Medium (60 ft.) range. Hit: During the next action phase, the subject is compelled to make a strike against itself instead of taking any other actions. It cannot target any other creatures with the strike, even if it has a Sweeping weapon or similar abilities. If it has any weapons in hand or natural weapons at that time, it must use one of them. Otherwise, it uses its unarmed attack. You must also visualize what a valid recipient for the message looks like. You can leave this description vague, such as "any humanoid creature", or be more specific, like "a hawk-nosed human wearing a red cloak".

The animal will attempt to travel to that destination to the best of its ability, following the directions you have given it. It will not willingly part with its message until it reaches its destination. Once it reaches its destination, it will wait until it observes a valid recipient, leaving the destination only briefly as necessary to sustain itself. A scrying sensor appears floating in the air in any unoccupied square within Medium (60 ft.) range. You do not need line of sight or line of effect to target a location. You must specify a distance and direction to target a location you cannot see. This can allow you to cast the spell beyond walls and similar obstacles.

At the start of each round, you choose whether you see and hear from this sensor or from your body. While viewing through the sensor, your observation ability is the same as your normal body, except that it does not share the benefits of any magical effects that improve your vision. You otherwise act normally, though you may have difficulty moving or taking actions if the sensor cannot see your body or your intended targets, effectively making you blinded (50% miss chance).

If undisturbed, the sensor floats in the air in its position.

Rank 7: You constantly receive sensory input from both your body and the sensor.

Choose a fact that you know and make an attack vs. Mental against one creature within Short (30 ft.) range. If the subject does not already know that fact to be true or false, and the subject has sufficient cognitive ability to understand the fact, you gain a +1 bonus to accuracy. Otherwise, you take a -1 accuracy penalty. The fact does not have to be true to gain this bonus.

Hit: The subject's mind is overwhelmed by a total awareness of your chosen fact. It is stunned (-4 all defenses) as a condition.

Glancing blow: The effect lasts briefly.

Rituals

Alarm
Focus, Scrying
Casting time: One minute

Attune (self)
Rank 1

A scrying sensor appears floating in the air in the subject location. The sensor passively observes its surroundings. As with other Scrying effects, its visual acuity is the same as yours. You can choose the minimum size category that the alarm will notify you for when you cast this spell. If it sees a creature or object of that size or larger moving within 50 feet of it, it will trigger an alarm. When you perform this ritual, you choose whether the alarm causes the sound of a ringing bell or a mental “ping” that only you can notice. You must be within 1 mile of the sensor to receive this mental alarm. This mental sensation is strong enough to wake you from normal sleep, but does not otherwise disturb concentration.

This ritual requires one fatigue level from its participants.

Read Magic
Focus
Casting time: One minute

Attune (ritual)
Rank 1

You gain the ability to decipher magical inscriptions that would otherwise be unintelligible. This can allow you to read ritual books and similar objects created by other creatures. After you have read an inscription in this way, you are able to read that particular writing without the use of this ritual.

This ritual requires one fatigue level from its participants.

Augury
Focus
Casting time: One hour

Instant
Rank 2

You receive a limited glimpse into your immediate future. When you perform this ritual, you specify a course of action that you could hypothetically take during the next hour. You can be as broad or as detailed as you want in your description of your plan, though more specific and plausible plans generally yield more accurate results. The GM specifies one of four possible outcomes for the augury based on what is most likely to occur if you follow your plan. This is not a guarantee of success or failure, especially for plans that have some intrinsic randomness or chance of failure (such as planning to defeat a monster in combat).

- Weal: The plan is likely to yield good outcomes for you.
- Woe: The plan is likely to yield bad outcomes for you.
- Weal and Woe: The plan is likely to yield a mixture of good and bad outcomes for you.
- None: Either plan is unlikely to have any significant outcomes, or the outcomes of the plan are too vague to accurately predict.

This ritual only yields accurate results once for any given situation. If you perform the ritual again in a situation that has not meaningfully changed, the augury always has no outcome regardless of the plan you specify. For example, if you are presented with seven doorways, with one doorway leading to a magnificent treasure and all other doorways leading to certain death, you cannot simply perform this ritual six times to determine the correct doorway.

This ritual requires one fatigue level from its participants.

Discern Location

Focus

Casting time: 24 hours

Instant

Rank 2

When you perform this ritual, choose a creature or object. You must have seen the chosen creature or object in person and either be able to clearly visualize its appearance or know its proper name to find it with this ritual. A creature or object without a proper name cannot be identified by name in this way. If you specify the chosen creature or object’s appearance incorrectly, or if it has significantly changed its appearance, you may accidentally affect a different creature, or the ritual may simply fail.

If the chosen creature or object is within 100 miles of you, you learn the location (place, name, business name, or the like), community, country, and continent where the subject was at when you started performing this ritual. If there is no corresponding information about an aspect of the subject’s location, such as if the subject is in a location which is not part of a recognized country, you learn only that that that aspect of the information is missing.

This ritual requires 8 fatigue levels from its participants.

Sustain (standard)

Rank 3

You do not need line of sight or line of effect to the subject. However, must specify your target with a precise mental image of its appearance. The image does not have to be perfect, but it must unambiguously identify the subject. If you specify its appearance incorrectly, or if the subject has changed its appearance, you may accidentally target a different creature, or the ritual may simply fail.

You send the subject a short verbal message. The message must be twenty-five words or less, and speaking the message must not take longer than five rounds.

After the the subject receives the message, it may reply with a message of the same length as long as the ritual’s effect continues. Once it speaks twenty-five words, or you stop sustaining the effect, the ritual is dismissed.

Each subject can communicate mentally through telepathy with each other target. This communication is instantaneous, though it cannot reach more than 100 miles or across planes.

Each subject must attune to this ritual independently. If a target breaks its attunement, it stops being able to send and receive mental messages with other targets. However, the effect continues as long as at least one target attunes to it. If you dismiss the ritual, the effect ends for all targets.

Spells

Ramming Summon
Focus, Manifestation

Rank 1

Make an attack vs. Armor against anything on solid ground within Medium (60 ft.) range. You summon a creature with a large horn or horns, such a moose, that rams into the subject with great force before disappearing.

Summon Monster

Focus, Manifestation

Attune (self)
Rank 1

You summon a creature in an unoccupied square on stable ground within Medium (60 ft.) range. It visually appears to be a common Small or Medium animal of your choice, though in reality it is a manifestation of magical energy. Regardless of the appearance and size chosen, the creature's statistics use the values below. If a summoned creature gains a vital wound or has no hit points remaining at the end of a phase, it disappears.

- Its fatigue tolerance is 0, and it cannot choose to take actions that would give it fatigue levels.
- Its hit points are equal to the base value for your level (see Table 2.8: Character Advancement (page 34)).
- It has no damage resistance.
- Each of its defenses is equal to 4 + your level.
- Its accuracy is equal to your level + half your base Perception + your magic bonuses to accuracy - 2.
- Its land speed is 30 feet.
- It has no attunement points.

Each round, you can choose the creature's actions by mentally commanding it as a minor action. There are only two actions it can take. As a move action, it can move as you direct. As a standard action, it can make a melee strike against a creature within its reach. If it hits, it deals 1d6 physical damage. The subtypes of damage dealt by this attack depend on the creature's appearance, but are limited to bludgeoning, piercing, and slashing damage. Most animals bite or claw their foes, which deals bludgeoning and slashing damage.

If you do not command the creature's actions, it will continue to obey its last instructions if possible or do nothing otherwise. Summoned creatures have no mind or independent agency, and will not act on their own even if attacked.

Summon Mount

Attune (target)

The summoned creature appears to be either a Large horse or a Medium pony. It comes with a bit and bridle and a riding saddle, and will only accept the subject as a rider. The damage increases by +1d for each rank beyond 2.

Summon Weapon
Focus, Manifestation

Sustain (minor)
Rank 2

This spell functions like the summon monster spell, except that it has the following differences. It has the Sustain (minor) tag instead of the Attune (self) tag. The summoned creature takes the form of a melee weapon of your choice that you are proficient with. It is sized appropriately to be wielded by a creature of your size. It floats three feet off the ground, and has a 30 foot fly speed instead of a land speed, with good maneuverability and a maximum height of 15 feet (see Flying, page 14). The creature’s accuracy and damage are based on your chosen weapon, and it gains the effect of the weapon’s normal tags (see Weapon Tags, page 315). Its power is 0. The weapon is considered to be held in two hands if possible, which can increase the damage dealt by Versatile Grip weapons (see Weapon Tags, page 315).

You cannot control the summoned weapon’s actions. Each round, the weapon automatically moves towards the creature closest to it during the movement phase, following that creature to the best of its abilities. During the action phase, it makes a melee strike against a creature within its reach. The weapon prefers to avoid accuracy and damage penalties that would be imposed by cover or special weapon grips. It chooses randomly if all possible targets are equally easy to attack.

Make an attack vs. Mental against anything Large or smaller within Medium (60 ft.) range.

Hit: The subject takes 1d6 bludgeoning damage. If it loses hit points from this damage, you knockback it up to 30 feet in any direction (see Knockback Effects, page 15). Moving the subject upwards costs twice the normal movement cost.

The attack's accuracy increases by +1 for each rank beyond 1.

Wall of Force

Focus, Manifestation

Sustain (minor)
Rank 1

You create a wall of magical energy within Medium (60 ft.) range. You can choose the dimensions of the wall, up to a maximum of a 15 ft. high, Small (15 ft.) length line. If you create the wall within a space too small to hold it, it fills as much of the space as possible, starting from the middle of the chosen space. This can allow you to completely block off small tunnels. The wall is visible as a shimmering magical field that does not block sight. Nothing can pass through the wall until it is destroyed. Each 5-ft. square of wall has hit points equal to twice your power.

Rank 3: The hit points of each 5-ft. square increases to be equal to three times your power.

As part of movement, it can make a Strength check with a difficulty rating of 5. If it succeeds, it can move towards you at half speed.

The attack's accuracy increases by +1 for each rank beyond 2.

The attack's accuracy increases by +1 for each rank beyond 2.

If the subject impacts a solid object before the maximum distance, it stops moving and both it and the object take bludgeoning damage equal to 2d6 + half power instead of the normal knockback damage. Any individual object or creature can only take damage once in this way, even if it is hit by multiple targets that are knocked flying.

Before that time, there is no visible indication of where the cage will appear, but its location can be observed with a difficulty rating 25 Spellsense check (see Spellsense, page 140). Any physical obstacles in the way of the cage at the time that it forms prevent it from appearing. You can create the cube around a sufficiently small creature to trap it inside. You create up to three weapons, suits of body armor, or shields from a body of earth or stone within 5 feet of you. You can create any weapon, shield, or body armor that you are proficient with, and which could normally be made entirely from metal, except for heavy armor. The body targeted must be at least as large as the largest item you create.

An item created with this spell functions like a normal item of its type, except that any strikes that you make with a weapon created with this ability are magical abilities, so you use your magical power to determine their damage instead of your mundane power.

Rank 3: You can also create heavy armor. In addition, the items is magically enhanced. A weapon grants a +1 magic bonus to accuracy with strikes using the weapon, and both shields and body armor grant a +1 magic bonus to Armor defense.

Make an attack vs. Fortitude against one creature within Medium (60 ft.) range that is no more than 120 feet above a stable surface that could support its weight. This attack gains a +2 accuracy bonus if that surface is a Medium or larger body of stone.

Hit: As a condition, the subject is pulled towards the ground with great force, approximately doubling the gravity it experiences. It is slowed (half speed, -2 Ref) and unable to use any fly speed or glide speed.

Critical hit: The condition must be removed twice before the effect ends.

The attack's accuracy increases by +1 for each rank beyond 2.

Earthen Anchor
Focus

Attune (self)
Rank 2

Rank 4: You are also immune to teleport effects from attacks that are not critical hits.

Rank 6: You are immune to knockback, push, and teleport effects from all attacks, including critical hits.

Rocky Shell
Focus, Manifestation

Attune (self)
Rank 2

You cover your body with two overlapping layers of rock that crumple when they take damage. The rock does not cover your joints, allowing you to move, though the shell increases your encumbrance by 2. You are impervious to all damage. Whenever an attack hits you or misses you by 5 or less, one layer of rock is destroyed. When the last layer of rock is destroyed, this ability provides no further benefit.

If you take simultaneous damage from more sources than you have remaining layers, the remaining layers apply to the largest damage sources, and you take full damage from any lower damage values.

Rank 4: The spell creates three layers of rock.

Rank 6: The spell creates four layers of rock.

Volcano
Focus, Manifestation

Instant
Rank 2

Make an attack vs. Reflex against everything in a Small (15 ft.) radius from a point on a stable surface within Short (30 ft.) range. This attack gains a +2 accuracy bonus if that point is on a Medium or larger body of stone.

The damage increases by +1d for each rank beyond 2.

You create a small volcano that bursts forth, showering nearby creatures in burning shrapnel.

Meld into Stone
Focus

Attune (self)
Rank 3

You and up to 100 pounds of nonliving equipment meld into one stone object you touch that is at least as large as your body. If you try to bring excess equipment into the stone, the spell fails without effect.

As long as the spell lasts, you can move within the stone as if it was thick water. However, at least part of you must remain within one foot of the place you originally melded with the stone. You gain no special ability to breathe or see while embedded the stone, and you cannot speak if your mouth is within the stone. The stone muffles sound, but very loud noises may reach your ears within it. If you fully exit the stone, this spell ends.

If this spell ends before you exit the stone, or if the stone stops being a valid target for the spell (such as if it is broken into pieces), you are forcibly expelled from the stone. When you are forcibly expelled from the stone, you take 4d10 bludgeoning damage and become nauseated (-4 all defenses) as a condition.

Rank 5: Exiting the stone does not cause this spell to end. You can repeatedly exit and re-enter the stone as long as you maintain attunement to the spell.

Rank 7: You can leave tiny tunnels carrying air through the stone as you move through it, allowing you to effectively breathe within the stone. These trails disappear when this spell ends.

Earthen Fortification
Focus, Manifestation

Attune (self)
Rank 4

You construct a fortification made of packed earth within Medium (60 ft.) range. This takes the form of up to ten contiguous 5-foot squares, each of which is four inches thick. The squares can be placed at any angle and used to form any structure as long as that structure is stable. Since the fortifications are made of packed earth, their maximum weight is limited, and structures taller than ten feet high are usually impossible.

The fortifications form slowly, rather than instantly. The structure becomes complete at the end of the action phase in the next round after this spell is cast. This makes it difficult to trap creatures within structures formed.

Rank 6: You can also construct fortifications from stone. This makes them more resistant to attack and allows the construction of more complex structures.

Reflect Magic Duration Rank 3

Swift

This spell does not have the Focus tag. You immediately take the total defense action. In addition, whenever a creature within Medium (60 ft.) range of you misses you with a magical attack this round, that creature treats itself as a target of that strike in addition to any other targets. It cannot choose to reduce its accuracy or damage against itself.

This is a Swift ability, so it affects any abilities targeting you in the phase you cast this spell.

Rank 5: You gain an additional +1 bonus to all defenses.

Rank 7: The defense bonus increases to +2.

Teleportation Ward Attune (self) Rank 3

Focus

Teleportation into and out of a Medium (30 ft.) radius emanation from you is impossible. Any abilities which would cause creatures to teleport within the area have no effect.

Rank 5: The area increases to a Large (60 ft.) radius emanation.

Rank 7: The area increases to a Huge (120 ft.) radius emanation.

Delay Teleportation
Focus
Casting time: One minor action

Attune (self)
Rank 4

Whenever a creature or object would teleport into a Large (60 ft.) radius emanation from you from outside of that area, that teleportation is delayed by a round. The teleporting creature or object remains stuck in the Astral Plane and can take no actions during that time. Creatures delayed in this way do not experience a delay, though they may be able to deduce that they were delayed based on observable evidence.

Whenever something is delayed in this way, you learn its approximate size and location within the area, allowing you to know which space or spaces it will occupy when it arrives. Creatures and objects delayed by this effect remain delayed even if you move such that their destination is no longer within the area of this effect. This does not affect teleportation away from the area unless that teleportation's destination lies within the area.

Rank 6: The delay increases to two rounds.

Dispel Magic
Focus

Instant
Rank 4

This spell functions like the suppress magic spell, except that on a hit, the effect ends completely instead of being suppressed. If the effect required attunement, that attunement is broken.

Critical hit: The effect becomes a condition on the struck creature.

The attack's accuracy increases by +1 for each rank beyond 4.

Second Mind
Focus

Attune (self)
Rank 4

Choose a magical ability you are currently sustaining that requires either a free action or a minor action to sustain. That ability is automatically sustained as long as this effect lasts. This can allow you to sustain that ability for longer than 5 minutes. This does not allow you to make any choices as part of sustaining the chosen ability, such as telling summoned creatures how to act. Instead, you always make the same choice you made the last time you manually sustained the effect.

Rank 6: Whenever you sustain an ability with this effect, you can also make any relevant choices as part of sustaining the ability.

Dimensional Lock
Focus

Attune (self)
Rank 5

This spell creates a dimensional lock in a Large (60 ft.) radius zone from your location. Extraplanar travel into or out of the area is impossible. This prevents all Manifestation effects and effects teleport targets or move them between planes.

In addition, any targeted magical abilities that would target you until the end of the round are redirected to target the creature using that ability instead of you. It cannot choose to reduce its accuracy or damage against itself. Any other targets of the ability are affected normally.

This is a Swift ability, so it affects any abilities targeting you in the phase you cast this spell.

Rank 7: You gain an additional +1 bonus to all defenses.

Rank 5

Choose a zone within Long (120 ft.) range. You can choose this spell's radius, up to a maximum of a Large (60 ft.) radius. Whenever a creature casts a spell in the area, that spell has a 50% chance to fail with no effect.

Rank 7: The maximum area increases to a Huge (120 ft.) radius.

You break an area's connection to magic.

Steal Attunement
Focus

Duration
Rank 5

This spell functions like the deattunement spell, except that you may choose to gain the ability to attune to any effects that you remove from the subject. Attuning to an effect that you stole with this spell takes a minor action, and requires an attunement point as normal. When you finish your next long rest, or if you steal a different attunement with this spell, you lose the ability to attune to the old effect and automatically break any attunements you have active from this ability.

The attack's accuracy increases by +1 for each rank beyond 5.

Absorb Magic
Focus

Attune (self)

Antimagic Field
Focus

Sustain (standard)
Rank 7

You radiate an antimagic field within a Small (15 ft.) radius emanation from you. All magical effects within the area that are dismissable or have a duration are suppressed. This includes attuned spells and magic items, magical conditions, and sustained magical effects. However, it does not include passive magical abilities on creatures, such as the ability to cast spells. It also does not include Curse effects, which are more difficult to remove.

Unlike most emanation spells, you cannot exclude yourself from this emanation. However, this spell does not suppress itself.

Malign Confluence
Focus

Instant
Rank 7

Shadowform Attune (self)
Focus Rank 4

You collapse to the ground, taking the appearance and shape of a shadow. This has a number of effects, as described below.

- You are nearly flat, allowing you to pass under doors and through other narrow passages. Your horizontal dimensions are unchanged, and you cannot enter spaces that are more narrow than you can normally fit through.
- You can freely move through space occupied by other creatures, and other creatures can freely move through your space.
- You gain a climb speed equal to the base speed for your size, and you can climb without using any hands.
- You are always treated as being prone (quarter speed, -2 accuracy, Armor, and Ref).
- You gain a +4 magic bonus to the Stealth skill.

While you are in bright illumination, this effect is suppressed, and you return to your normal size and shape. If doing so is impossible, such as if you are in a space too small to contain your body, you gain a vital wound and this effect persists for the rest of the round. This form offers you no special immunity to damage, as creatures can simply attack the shadow.

As a minor action, you can voluntarily disable this ability and return to your normal form. If you do, you can resume the effect of this ability as a minor action.

Rank 6: You can maintain the form in bright illumination for a full round before it is suppressed.

In addition to the normal requirements, this ritual requires and consumes diamond dust worth a total of 2,000 gp.

Choose one Diminutive or larger piece of a humanoid corpse. It must have been part of the original creature's body at the time of death. The creature the corpse belongs to returns to life in a new body. It must not have died due to old age.

This ritual creates an entirely new body for the creature's soul to inhabit from the natural elements at hand. During the ritual, the body ages to match the age of the original creature at the time it died. The creature has 0 hit points when it returns to life.

A reincarnated creature is identical to the original creature in all respects, except for its species. The creature's species is replaced with a random species from Table 7.1: Humanoid Reincarnations (page 306). Its appearance changes as necessary to match its new species, though it retains the general shape and distinguishing features of its original appearance. The creature loses all attribute modifiers and abilities from its old species, and gains those of its new species. However, its languages are unchanged.

Coming back from the dead is an ordeal. All of the creature's attunement points and daily abilities are expended when it returns to life. In addition, its maximum attunement points are reduced by 1. This penalty lasts for thirty days, or until the creature gains a level. If this would reduce a creature's maximum attunement points below 0, the creature cannot be resurrected.

This ritual can only be learned through the nature magic source.

Chapter 8

Description

Alignment

A creature's general moral and personal attitudes are represented by its alignment: lawful good, neutral good, chaotic good, lawful neutral, neutral, chaotic neutral, lawful evil, neutral evil, or chaotic evil.

Alignment is a tool for developing your identity. It is not a straitjacket for restricting your actions. Each alignment represents a broad range of personality types or personal philosophies, so two characters of the same alignment can still be quite different from each other. In addition, few people are completely consistent.

Good vs. Evil

The ancient battle between good and evil takes many forms, and distinguishing good from evil is a deeply complex task. For the purposes of Rise, good and evil are strictly defined according to selfishness vs altruism. The actions of good characters may at times be morally reprehensible, and the actions of evil characters may seem to be virtuous. However, this narrow definition of good and evil avoids the complexities of defining a more robust moral system while preserving the fundamental conflict between good and evil.

Good: Good characters are altruistic. They take other creatures into account when making decisions, and actively try to help or improve others around them. Good characters may have significant disagreements about what actions are best, but they consistently prioritize the good of others or the “greater good” over their own desires. Different good characters may also have different perspectives on who they should take into account when making decisions. For example, some good characters actively work to protect animals and plants, while others only care about sentient beings.

Evil: Evil characters are selfish. They consistently prioritize their own desires and needs over the desires of others, even their allies or friends. Evil characters may perform good deeds, but their ultimate motivation is to help themselves or make themselves feel better, not to help others.

Neutral: Characters that are neutral between good and evil are neither consistently altruistic nor consistently selfish. Most neutral characters behave altruistically in some ways and selfishly in other ways – either at different times, or about different aspects of life. They often have strong bonds to particular individuals who they care about selflessly, but are not altruistic in a general sense. Non-sentient beings such as animals are neutral rather than good or evil.

Law vs. Chaos

Law: Lawful characters value consistency. They obey rules that guide their actions. Some lawful characters draw their rules from external forces, such as serving a particular master or following the legal laws of the land. Other lawful characters follow rules they make for themselves.

Chaos: Chaotic characters value flexibility and freedom. They make decisions based on what they think or feel at the time, even if it is inconsistent with their previous statements or action.

Neutral: Characters that are neutral between law and chaos are neither exceptionally consistent nor exceptionally inconsistent. They tend to be generally consistent but may change their minds under the right circumstances. Non-sentient beings such as animals are neutral rather than lawful or chaotic.

Vital Statistics

Age

You can choose or randomly generate your age. If you choose it, it must be at least the minimum age for your species and class (see Table 8.1: Random Starting Ages). Your minimum starting age is the adulthood age of your species plus the number of dice indicated in the entry corresponding to the character's species and class on Table 8.1: Random Starting Ages.

Alternatively, refer to Table 8.1: Random Starting Ages and roll dice to determine how old you are.

With age, your checks based on physical attributes decrease and your checks based on mental attributes increase (see Table 8.2: Aging Effects).

When you reach venerable age, the GM secretly rolls your maximum age, which is the number from the Venerable column on Table 8.2: Aging Effects plus the result of the dice roll indicated on the Maximum Age column on that table. They record

Table 8.1: Random Starting Ages

Species	Adulthood	Barbarian Rogue	Fighter Mage Paladin Ranger	Cleric Druid Monk

the result. If you reach your maximum age, you die of old age at some time during the following year.

The maximum ages are for player characters. Most people in the world at large die from pestilence, accidents, infections, or violence before getting to venerable age.

universe, and different planes can obey different fundamental laws. For example, the Material Plane has gravity that exerts a consistent acceleration in a single absolute direction. However, the Astral Plane has subjective gravity, where each creature on the plane chooses the direction that gravity pulls it in, if any.

General Cosmology

The planes of Rise are divided up into groups.

Primal Planes: The primal planes are manifestations of the basic building blocks of the universe. Each plane in this group is predominantly composed of a single element or type of energy. There are four primal planes: Air, Earth, Fire, and Water.

Aligned Planes: The aligned planes are manifestations of the nine alignments that define the morality of the universe. Each plane in this group is strongly associated with a particular alignment. The souls of creatures with the corresponding alignment often spend their afterlife in the Aligned Planes. There are nine aligned planes, one for each alignment combination (see Alignment, page 308).

Nexus Planes: The nexus planes are composite planes with a number of distinct environments and filled with creatures of myriad alignments. Nexus planes comprise the majority of civilization across all planes. They do not have their own unique planar essence, and no planar creatures are native to nexus planes. There are two nexus planes: the Material Plane and the Astral Plane.

Demiplanes: These planes are small, fragmentary realms that are greatly limited in their scope. There is no specific list of demiplanes, and they share few common properties. Most demiplanes were created for particular purposes by beings of great power, though some simply came into existence through unknown means.

Planar Rifts

Height and Weight

The dice roll given in the Height Modifier column determines the character's extra height beyond the base height. That same number multiplied by the dice roll or quantity given in the Weight Modifier column determines the character's extra weight beyond the base weight.

Planes

The universe of Rise is divided into planes. A plane is a distinct realm of existence. Except for the connections between planes through planar rifts, each plane is effectively an isolated Normally, there are boundaries between different planes that prevent direct passage between them. However, planar rifts are places where these boundaries have weakened, making interplanar travel easier. A planar rift joins a specific location on one plane to a specific location on a different plane. Most planar rifts lead to and from the Astral Plane, which is the space between the other planes (see The Astral Plane, page 312).

Most planar rifts still require the use of magic, such as the plane shift ritual, to actually cross between planes. Some especially large rifts enable physical travel between planes without the use of any magic.

Planar Traits

Gravity Direction

The direction of gravity on a plane can take one of the following forms:

- Fixed Gravity: Gravity points in a fixed direction and with a fixed strength at all locations on the plane. Almost all planes with a fixed gravity have a perfectly flat surface.
- Absolute Directional Gravity: Gravity points in a consistent direction according to a rule that applies equally to everything on the plane, but which is not in a fixed direction. For example, a plane filled with floating spheres where gravity always points towards the closest sphere has absolute directional gravity.
- Subjective Gravity: Each creature on the plane chooses the direction of gravity for that creature. The plane has no gravity for unattended objects and nonsentient creatures. A creature on the plane can make use the control gravity ability as a minor action.

Control Gravity

Make a Willpower check with a difficulty rating of 10. Success means that you choose the direction of gravity that applies to you on the current plane. Alternately, you can choose for gravity to not apply to you.

Failure means you gain a +2 bonus to the next control gravity ability you use on this plane. This bonus stacks with itself and lasts until you succeed at a control gravity ability on this plane.

Gravity Strength

The strength of gravity on a plane can take one of the following forms:

- Normal Gravity: Gravity is about the strength of Earth.
- No Gravity: There is no gravity on the plane. The range limits of ranged weapons are quadrupled.
- Light Gravity: Gravity is about half the strength of Earth. The weight of all items is halved. The range limits of ranged weapons are doubled.
- Heavy Gravity: Gravity is about twice the strength of Earth. Creatures take a -2 penalty to Strength and Dexterity-based checks. The weight of all items is doubled. The range limits of ranged weapons are halved, to a minimum of 5 feet.

- Extreme Gravity: Gravity is about four times the strength of Earth. Creatures take a -4 penalty to Strength and Dexterity-based checks. The weight of all items is quadrupled. The range limits of ranged weapons are reduced to one quarter of the normal value, to a minimum of 5 feet.

Light

Various planes are illuminated in different ways.

- Fixed Source: There is a single constant source of light on the plane.
- Mobile Source: There is a single source of light on the plane that moves around it, illuminating different parts of the plane at different times.
- None: There is no natural source of light on the plane. Other sources of light, such as torches, function normal.

Limits

The behavior of a plane at its limits can vary widely. Some planes have different behaviors at different limits depending on their shape.

- Astral Gate: If you reach the limits of the plane, you find a planar gate to the Astral Plane.
- Barrier: If you reach the limits of the plane, you find an impassable barrier. The barrier takes the form of a substance relevant to the plane's nature. It may be possible to dig tunnels into the barrier to some depth, but there is nothing behind the barrier. As you progress past the limit, the barrier becomes increasingly difficult to break through, and eventually it becomes completely impenetrable.
- Looped: If you go beyond the limits of the plane, you wrap around to the opposite side of the plane. There is no obvious transition point or perception of transportation when this occurs - the shape of the plane simply connects to itself. On very small planes, this can allow you to see your own back, though looped planes of that size are rare.
- Infinite: The plane has no limits. This is extremely rare.

Planar Connectivity

Different planes have different degrees of connection to other planes.

- Isolated: The plane is difficult to reach or leave. It has no permanent planar rifts, and temporary rifts are rare or nonexistent.
- Stable Connected: The plane has multiple permanent planar rifts. However, temporary rifts are rare.
- Unstable Connected: The plane has no permanent planar rifts, but temporary rifts are common.
- Conduit: The plane has a large number of permanent planar rifts, and temporary rifts are common.

Shape

The shape of a plane defines the shape of its core surface, and what happens if you travel beyond that surface.

- Flat Surface: The plane consists of a flat surface generally made of earth or similar material. Most activity and civilization on the plane happens on this surface. It is usually possible to construct tunnels into a flat surface plane to some depth, depending on the size of the plane.
- Hollow Sphere: The plane consists of a hollow sphere with an outer boundary generally made of earth or similar material. Most activity and civilization on the plane happens on the inner surface of the sphere. Some hollow sphere planes have an outer surface that can also be accessed, but most have a limit before any outer surface can be reached.
- Solid Sphere: The plane consists of a solid sphere generally made of earth or similar material. Most activity and civilization on the plane happens on the surface of the sphere. It is possible to construct tunnels into a solid sphere plane, but it may become increasingly difficult to traverse the plane as you approach the center of the sphere. In general, the limit of a solid sphere plane is located at ten times the radius of the plane's primary sphere.
- Uniform: The plane has no well-defined surface or ground layer. Some uniform planes have no ground or solid obstacles, while others are composed almost entirely of ground and firmament. Uniform planes almost always still have limits of some kind.

Plane Descriptions

Primal Planes

The Plane of Air: The Plane of Air is a a soaring landscape unencumbered by gravity or ground. The vast expanses of empty air are littered with clouds and unpredictable winds. Any inhabitants of the plane must adapt to a highly mobile lifestyle. A number of towns and structures have been built in the plane using raw materials brought from other planes. They sail through the air at the whims of the wind, and are occasionally battered by intersections with other wind streams.

The Plane of Air has the following planar traits:

- Gravity strength: No Gravity
- Light: Fixed Source, from a sun outside the limits of the plane
- Limits: Looped
- Planar connectivity: Unstable Connected
- Shape: Uniform, in a sphere with a radius of about 2,000 miles.

The Plane of Earth: The Plane of Earth is a titanicallly large body of earth and stone. A labyrinthine series of mostly airless tunnels weave their way through the plane, connecting the few cities. The plane is a major source of valuable gems, diamonds, and rare metals like mithral, but the dense rock and airless environment make successful mining difficult. In addition, earthquakes periodically reshape the environment by collapsing old tunnel systems and constructing new ones. Some cities have been carved out in vast underground rooms reinforced to survive the earthquakes.

The Plane of Earth has the following planar traits:

- Gravity direction: Fixed
- Gravity strength: Normal
- Light: None
- Limits: Barrier, formed from increasingly dense rock that eventually becomes so hard that no known material or magic can damage it.
- Planar connectivity: Stable Connected
- Shape: Uniform, in a sphere with a radius of about 500 miles.

The Plane of Fire: The Plane of Fire is an endless searing inferno. The plane's essence is highly combustible, allowing fires to burn indefinitely without any obvious fuel. However, the intensity of flames on the plane are highly uneven, as the plane generates fuel in various locations that shift over time. Some pockets on the surface are devoid of natural fuel, allowing the allow the construction of trading hubs where the few inhabitants of the plane who are not naturally immune to fire can survive. A variety of large tunnels and magma flows run through the sphere, and the intensity of the heat generally increases as you approach the center.

The Plane of Fire has the following planar traits:

- Gravity direction: Absolute Directional, pointing to the center of the sphere
- Gravity strength: Normal
- Light: None, though the constant fires provide sufficient illumination in most locations on the plane
- Limits: Looped
- Planar connectivity: Unstable Connected
- Shape: Solid Sphere, with a radius of about 1,000 miles.

The Plane of Water: The Plane of Water is an impossibly vast ocean. Powerful currents sweep through the ocean, but much of it is calm, and many forms of aquatic life abound in the water. The Plane of Water is the most densely populated Primal Plane, both by sentient creatures and monsters. Magnificent underwater cities are carved from huge rocks that float peacefully suspended in the water. Though there is no sun, simple creatures akin to plankton form the base of the food chain by feeding directly on the plane's essence.

The Plane of Earth has the following planar traits:

- Gravity strength: No Gravity
- Light: None, though bioluminescent creatures like plankton are extremely common, making many parts of the plane well-lit
- Limits: Looped
- Planar connectivity: Stable Connected
- Shape: Uniform, in a sphere with a radius of about 1,000 miles.

Nexus Planes

The Material Plane: The Material Plane is the plane that most Rise adventures begin on. The surface of the plane is a massive sphere with a radius of about 4,000 miles. It is the most familiar to most humanoid creatures.

The Material Plane has the following planar traits:

- Gravity direction: Absolute Directional, pointing to the center of the sphere
- Gravity strength: Normal
- Light: Mobile Source, from a sun and moon outside of the plane's limits
- Limits: Looped
- Planar connectivity: Isolated
- Shape: Solid Sphere, with a radius of about 4,000 miles.

The Astral Plane: The Astral Plane is the space between the other planes. It is a necessary intermediate destination for virtually all planar journeys, as all planar rifts lead to and from the Astral Plane. Most activity on the Astral Plane occurs in a space called the Inner Astral Plane, a massive but finite region where all planar rifts on the Astral Plane appear. However, unlike all other planes, the Astral Plane has no known limits to its extent, and may in fact be infinite. The area outside the Inner Astral Plane is known as the Deep Astral Plane, and few venture into those sparsely populated realms. The Deep Astral Plane has magical turbulence that interferes with long-range communication and transportation magic, making exploration difficult.

The Astral Plane has the following planar traits:

- Directional gravity: Subjective
- Gravity strength: Normal
- Light: Fixed Source, from the infinite reaches of the Deep Astral Plane
- Limits: Infinite
- Planar connectivity: Conduit
- Shape: Uniform

Creatures and Objects

In the world of Rise, creatures and objects are meaningfully different. Many abilities affect only creatures or only objects. The difference between a creature and an object is defined as being agency. Creatures have agency, and objects do not. This is not the same as sentience or life, which either creatures or objects may have.

For example, zombies are nonsentient, nonliving creatures. Conversely, trees are a nonsentient, living objects. Some rare magic items can be made intelligent by magic, making them sentient, nonliving objects. Some unintelligent animals and magical beasts like ants and giant spiders are nonsentient, living creatures.

Animates

One type of entity in the world is both an object and a creature. Animates are a type of creature that are made of nonsentient matter given a semblance of life and sentience by some form of magic. Fire elementals, clay golems, and plant creatures like treants are all animates. Animates are considered to be both creatures and objects, and are affected fully by abilities that affect both.

Chapter 9

Equipment

Weapons

Weapons are grouped into several interlocking sets of categories. These categories pertain to what weapon group the weapon belongs to (axes, bows, and so on), the weapon's usefulness either in close combat (melee) or at a distance (ranged, which includes both thrown and projectile weapons), and its relative usage class (light, medium, or heavy).

Weapon Mechanics

Weapon Groups

Weapons are organized into thematically related categories called weapon groups. They are described in Table 9.1: Weapon Groups. For example, all axes belong to the “axes” weapon group. Some weapons can be found in multiple weapon groups. For example, a dagger is a simple weapon, a blade, and a thrown weapon.

Exotic Weapons: Some weapons are rare and have unusual fighting styles. These weapons are called exotic weapons. Proficiency with a weapon group does not grant you with exotic weapons from that group. Some class abilities grant proficiency with exotic weapons.

Weapon Proficiency

Each character is proficient with different weapon groups. These indicate the weapons that you can use effectively. You take a –2 accuracy penalty with weapons you are not proficient with.

Weapon Usage Classes

A weapon's usage class is a measure of how much effort it takes to wield a weapon in combat. It indicates whether a melee weapon, when wielded by a creature the weapon is sized for, is considered a light weapon, a medium weapon, or a heavy weapon.

Light Weapons: Light weapons are easier to use while making attacking with two weapons at once (see Offhand Strike, page 28) or while grappling. They cannot be held in two hands. Light weapons tend to have higher accuracy than heavier weapons, but do less damage.

Medium Weapon: A medium weapon can normally be used in one hand. Most medium weapons can also be held in two hands if that is physically plausible. This provides no special benefit unless the weapon has the Versatile Grip tag (see Weapon Tags, page 315). Changing grips to hold it in one hand or two hands can be done as a free action that requires both hands.

Heavy Weapon: Two hands are normally required to wield a heavy weapon. Heavy weapons tend to have higher damage than lighter weapons. If you have a Strength of 5 or higher, you can wield a heavy weapon in one hand, but you take a –1 penalty to accuracy and a –1d damage penalty with the weapon while doing so. Changing grips to hold it in one hand or two hands can be done as a free action that requires both hands.

Physical Size: Like all objects and creatures, weapons have a size category that represents how physically large they are. In general, light and medium weapons are one size category smaller than the wielder, while heavy weapons are the same size category as the wielder. All weapons are lightweight unless otherwise noted.

Inappropriately Sized Weapons: A weapon's usage class is altered by one step for each size category of difference between the wielder's size and the size of the creature for which the weapon was designed. For example, a light weapon sized for a Large creature can be used by a Medium creature as if it had a medium usage class. The weapon's damage die gains a +1d bonus per size category if the weapon is unusually large, or takes a –1d penalty per size category if the weapon is unusually small. In addition, the wielder takes a –2 accuracy penalty with the weapon per size category of difference. If a weapon's usage class would be changed to something other than light, medium, or heavy by this alteration, the creature can't wield the weapon at all.

Melee Weapons

Melee weapons are used for making melee attacks against foes within your reach (see Reach, page 23). Most weapons are melee weapons.

Ranged Weapons

Ranged weapons are used to make attacks against distant foes within the range of your weapon. There are two kinds of ranged weapons: projectile weapons and thrown weapons. Ranged weapons always have two defined range limits for close range and long range (see Weapon Range Limits, page 314).

Table 9.1: Weapon Groups

Group	Weapons	Exotic Weapons
Armor weapons	Armor spikes, Standard shield (and spiked)	Armblade, spiked knee

Blades	Broadsword, dagger, estoc, greatsword, rapier, scimitar, smallsword	Boot dagger, falchion, katana, kukri
Bows	Longbow, shortbow	Flatbow, heartseeker arrows, takedown bow
Club-like weapons	Club, greatclub, greatmace, mace, morning star, sap	Gnomish trick mace, knobkerrie
Crossbows	Hand crossbow, heavy crossbow	Arbalest, repeating crossbow
Flexible Weapons	Flail, heavy flail, nunchaku, slapjack, whip	Chain whip, meteor hammer, three-section staff
Headed weapons	Light hammer, longhammer, pick, sickle, sledgehammer, warhammer	Dwarven longhammer, Heavy pick
Improvised weapons	—	—
Monk weapons	Jitte, kama, kunai, nunchaku, quarterstaff, sai, shuriken	Three-section staff
Polearms	Bardiche, glaive, halberd, longhammer, pollaxe, quarterstaff, scythe, swordstaff	Fauchard, war scythe
Simple weapons	Club, dagger, heavy crossbow, quarterstaff, unarmed strike
Spears	Greetspear, javelin, lance, longspear, ranseur, partisan, spear	Pike
Thrown weapons	Dagger, dart, handaxe, javelin, light hammer, shuriken, sling, throwing axe	Bolas, dwarven throwing axe, dwarven waraxe, net
Unarmed weapons	Claw sheath, gauntlet, spiked gauntlet, unarmed strike

Projectile Weapons

Projectile weapons fire ammunition at a target to deal damage. The ammunition generally breaks when used.

Thrown Weapons

Thrown weapons are thrown at a target to deal damage. They generally do not break when thrown.

Throwing Other Weapons: It is possible to throw a weapon that is not designed to be thrown. The range limits are 10 feet for close range and 30 feet for long range. You are treated as being nonproficient with the weapon, so you take a -2 accuracy penalty (see Weapon Proficiency, page 313). If the attack hits, the weapon deals its normal damage.

Heavy Weapons: Heavy thrown weapons require a standard action to throw, rather being thrown as part of any strike like normal. They are not always physically thrown with two hands, but they require the use of your entire body to propel the weapon, so you are not considered to have any free hands while throwing a heavy thrown weapon.

Ranged Weapons in Melee

You take a -4 accuracy penalty with medium and large ranged weapons against creatures adjacent to you.

Weapon Range Limits

Attack with ranged weapons become less accurate if the target is far away. Ranged weapons have two range limits listed, with a slash between them, such as 120/480. The first number indicates the maximum range for a weapon's close range. The second number indicates the maximum range for a weapon's long range.

You cannot attack a target that is beyond a weapon's long range limit.

Attacks at close range have no penalty. Attacks at long range have a -4 accuracy penalty. This is called a longshot penalty, and some abilities can reduce this penalty.

Improvised Weapons

Sometimes objects not crafted to be weapons nonetheless see use in combat. You can choose to be proficient with the improvised weapons weapon group, which has no specific weapons associated with it but which allows you to pick up and use non-manufactured weapons without taking a nonproficiency penalty (see Weapon Proficiency, page 313).

To determine the appropriate statistics for an improvised weapon, compare its shape and composition to the weapon list to find a reasonable match. An improvised weapon will generally have a -1 accuracy penalty, a -1d damage penalty, or be missing at least one weapon tag relative to a similarly structured manufactured weapon.

Natural Weapons

Natural weapons are weapons that are part of a creature's body instead of being manufactured and wielded. Every creature has a single unarmed strike natural weapon, though most creatures are not proficient with that weapon (see Unarmed Combat, page 25). In addition, many monsters have one or more specific natural weapons like claws. Creatures are automatically proficient with all natural weapons they have other than an unarmed strike. Natural weapons can be used to make offhand attacks just like manufactured weapons (see Offhand Strike, page 28).

Drawing and Sheathing Weapons

Drawing and sheathing weapons always requires the hand or hands used to hold the weapon. The time it takes to draw and sheathe a weapon depends on how encumbering the weapon is. You can draw or sheathe a light weapon as a free action. You can draw or sheathe a medium weapon, heavy weapon, or a concealed weapon as a standard action.

Weapon Tags

Some weapons found on Table 9.2: Weapons have tags that indicate that they have special abilities. The list of abilities that weapons can have is given below.

Ammunition: This weapon is designed to be thrown or fired by a projectile weapon in large quantities. It is cheaper to buy and craft, but ammunition is usually broken after being fired.

Compact: This weapon is unusually small. It is one size category smaller than normal for a light weapon (that is, two size categories smaller than the creature it is intended for), though it is not lightweight for that size. This makes it easier to conceal (see Sleight of Hand, page 139). In addition, you can draw or sheathe this weapon so quickly that you can also take another action in the same phase with that hand. For example, you can draw this weapon and attack with it in the same phase.

Disarming: When you use the disarm ability with this weapon, you can knock loose objects that are held in a single hand, but not objects that are held in two hands or well secured (see Disarm, page 27).

Forceful: Whenever you deal damage to a target no more than one size category larger than you with a strike using this weapon, you can knockback the target up to 10 feet. On a critical hit, this knockback distance is doubled.

Grappling: You gain a +2 bonus to accuracy on melee attacks with this weapon against creatures who are grappled by you.

Impact: When you get a critical hit with this weapon, you deal triple damage instead of double damage.

Keen: You gain a +2 bonus to accuracy with strikes using this weapon for the purpose of determining whether you get a critical hit.

Long: This weapon can be used to attack at double your natural reach (so 10 feet for a typical Medium creature). However, it cannot attack a creature within your natural reach.

Long weapons can be held using a different grip to strike nearby foes. This is called “short hafting”. While short hafting a Long weapon, you ignore the weapon’s Long property. You can change your grip as a free action that requires the hand or hands used to hold the weapon. As normal, you cannot combine that action with other actions using the same hands, so you cannot change your grip and attack with the weapon in the same phase. However, you can change your grip during the movement phase and then attack with your new grip during the action phase.

Mounted: If you are mounted, and mount moves in the same phase that you make a strike with a Mounted weapon, you gain a +2 accuracy bonus with the strike.

Parrying: If a creature attacks you with a strike while you wield this weapon, you briefly gain a +2 bonus to accuracy with strikes using this weapon against that creature.

Projectile: This weapon fires projectiles at range. Projectile weapons have two range limits listed in their description (see Weapon Range Limits, page 314). Projectile weapons must be reloaded. The time required to reload a projectile weapon is given in the weapon description.

Stealthy: A stealthy weapon is smaller, quieter, or otherwise less noticeable than most weapons. You only take a –5 penalty to Stealth when trying to conceal strikes with a stealthy weapon instead of the normal –10 or –20 penalty for concealing a strike (see Stealth, page 141).

Sweeping: When you make a melee strike with this weapon, you may also target one or more secondary creatures or objects within your reach with that weapon. Each secondary target must be within 5 feet of a primary target, and must not already be a target of the strike. The strike affects each secondary target in the same way as the primary targets. Sweeping weapons have a number that indicates the number of secondary targets you can affect.

Subdual: This weapon deals subdual damage (see Subdual Damage, page 12).

Thrown: This weapon is designed to be thrown (see Thrown Weapons, page 314). Thrown weapons have two range limits listed in their description (see Weapon Range Limits, page 314). Unless otherwise noted in a weapon’s description, a throwing weapon can be used to attack in melee without penalty.

Tripping: When you use the trip ability, you can attack with this weapon instead of with a free hand (see Trip, page 29). When you successfully trip a creature with this weapon, the target takes damage as if you hit it with a strike using the weapon with a –3d damage penalty.

Unarmed: This weapon does not prevent you from using the hand it’s equipped on as a free hand.

Versatile Grip: This weapon is designed to be held in either one hand or two hands. While holding this weapon in two hands, you gain a +1d damage bonus with the weapon.

Weapon Table

Here is the format for weapon entries (given as column headings on Table 9.2: Weapons, below).

Usage Class: Describes whether the weapon’s usage class is light, medium, or heavy (see Weapon Usage Classes, page 313).

Damage: The Damage column gives the damage dealt by the weapon on a successful hit. These values are accurate for creatures using weapons sized appropriately for them. For details about using weapons of other sizes, see Inappropriately Sized Weapons, page 313.

Range Limits: The range limits of the weapon (see Weapon Range Limits, page 314).

Type: Weapons are classified according to the type of damage they deal: bludgeoning, piercing, or slashing. Some monsters may be impervious or immune to attacks from certain damage types.

Some weapons deal damage of multiple types. If a weapon is of two types, the damage it deals is not half one type and half another; all of it is both types. Therefore, a creature would have to be immune to both types of damage to ignore any of the damage from such a weapon. For details, see Multiple Damage Types, page 12.

In other cases, a weapon can deal either of two types of damage. In a situation when the damage type is significant, the wielder can choose which type of damage to deal with such a weapon.

Item Level (Cost): The first value indicates the item level of the item (see Item Levels, page 392). The second value in parentheses indicates the average cost to buy the item. Items crafted for unusually large or small creatures are more expensive. For each size category larger or smaller than Medium, the item's item level increases by one, which increases its price.

Weapon Tags: Some weapons have special properties. See Weapon Tags, page 315 for details.

Individual Weapon Descriptions

Some weapons in Table 9.2: Weapons have additional abilities which are described below.

Arbalest: You draw an arbalest back by turning a small winch. Loading an arbalest requires two standard actions. Each standard action requires one free hand while holding the arbalest in another hand.

You can fire a crossbow while prone (quarter speed, -2 accuracy, Armor, and Ref) without penalty.

Armblade: This weapon is not held in a hand. Instead, it is affixed to the arm of body armor with a medium or heavy usage class. When you attack with an armblade, you cannot use the arm it is attached to for any other combat purpose in the same phase. You can still hold items in that hand, but they have no combat effect. If you are not proficient with this weapon, you increase your encumbrance by 2 when wearing armor with an armblade.

Armor spikes: Any body armor can be spiked. You cannot normally attack with armor spikes. However, if your armor is spiked and you are proficient with it, you deal damage with it when you make a successful grapple or shove attack. Your power is halved for the purpose of this damage, and this damage is not doubled if you get a critical hit with the grapple or shove attack. If you would already deal damage with that ability from another source, such as with the wall slam ability from the Savage feat, you instead gain a +1d bonus to that damage, and that damage becomes piercing damage in addition to its other types. Magical abilities on a suit of armor does not improve the spikes' effectiveness, but the spikes can be made into magic weapons in their own right.

Boot Dagger: A boot dagger is a modified boot or boot sole which contains a hidden dagger. The dagger is normally concealed, and requires an Awareness check with a difficulty rating of 15 to find. Attacking with a boot dagger does not require a free hand, but you must make an Balance check with a difficulty rating of 10 during each phase that you attack with it. If you fail this check, you fall prone (quarter speed, -2 accuracy, Armor, and Ref) after the attack.

After you attack with a boot dagger, the dagger remains plainly visible. Concealing the dagger again requires a standard action.

Claw Sheath: A claw sheath is not a weapon in itself, but a covering over a single claw that a creature can use to make claw attacks. Claw sheaths do not grant a creature without claws a claw attack. Normally, a sheath does not improve the claw attack, but magical claw sheaths can be made which grant bonuses to attacks made with the claw. It may be possible to find or craft unusual sheaths for natural weapons other than claws.

Constrict: This natural weapon can only be used against a foe you are grappling with (see Grappling, page 29).

Crossbow, Hand: You can draw a hand crossbow back by hand. Loading a hand crossbow is a free action that requires one free hand while holding the crossbow in another hand.

You can fire a crossbow while prone (quarter speed, -2 accu- racy, Armor, and Ref) without penalty.

Crossbow, Heavy: You draw a heavy crossbow back by turning a small winch. Loading a heavy crossbow is a standard action that requires one free hand while holding the crossbow in another hand.

You can fire a crossbow while prone (quarter speed, -2 accuracy, Armor, and Ref) without penalty.

Crossbow, Repeating: The repeating crossbow holds 5 crossbow bolts. As long as it holds bolts, you can reload it as a free action by pulling the reloading lever with one free hand. Loading a new case of 5 bolts is a standard action that requires one free hand while holding the crossbow in another hand.

You can fire a crossbow while prone (quarter speed, -2 accuracy, Armor, and Ref) without penalty.

Flatbow: You need both hands to fire a bow, regardless of its size. One hand is free when not firing the bow. Loading a bow is a free action that requires one free hand while holding the flatbow in another hand. A flatbow is too unwieldy to use while you are mounted. Unlike a longbow, a flatbow is flat when not under tension and has approximately rectangular limbs. This spreads stress more evenly over the bow's structure, allowing more precise shots, though the firing technique is different and less commonly known.

Fire Arrows: These arrows are treated with alchemist's fire so they can be ignited before being shot. The process requires thickening the arrow shaft, reducing the precision of the arrow. It takes a move action to ignite a fire arrow assuming you have access to an active flame the size of a torch or larger.

Hammer, Gnome Hooked: This weapon has a hammer head which deals 1d8 damage, and a hook which deals -1d damage. The hook is a tripping weapon.

Longbow: You need both hands to fire a bow, regardless of its size. One hand is free when not firing the bow. Loading a bow is a free action that requires one free hand while holding the bow in the other hand. A longbow is too unwieldy to use while you are mounted.

Net: A net is used to entangle enemies. When you throw a net, you make an attack vs. Reflex against your target. If you hit, the target is slowed (half speed, -2 Ref). If you control the trailing rope by succeeding on an opposed Strength check while holding it, the netted creature can move only within the limits that the rope allows.

A netted creature can escape with a difficulty rating 10 Flexibility check (normally a standard action). The net has (2/10) and can be burst with a difficulty rating 10 Strength check as a standard action.

A net is useful only against creatures within one size category of you.

A net must be folded to be thrown effectively. The first time you throw your net in a fight, you make a normal ranged touch attack roll. After the net is unfolded, you take a -4 accuracy penalty with it. It takes 2 standard actions for a proficient user to fold a net and twice that many for a nonproficient one to do so.

³ This weapon has special rules.

Pike: A pike’s reach starts 5 feet away from your body, even when it is short hafted. This allows it to reach foes 15 feet away from you while you are not short hafting it, but makes it impossible to attack an adjacent foe regardless of your grip.

¹ When two types are given, the weapon is both types if the entry specifies “and,” or either type (attacker’s choice) if the entry specifies “or”.

² This natural weapon must normally be used with a free hand.

³ This weapon has special rules.

Shield, Standard: You can bash with a shield in addition to defending with it. See Armor for details.

Shortbow: You need both hands to fire a bow, regardless of its size. One hand is free when not firing the bow. Loading a bow is a free action that requires one free hand while holding the shortbow in another hand.

Sling: You can fire, but not load, a sling with one hand. Loading a sling is a free action that requires both hands.

You can hurl ordinary stones with a sling, but stones are not as dense or as round as bullets. You take a –1d damage penalty with ordinary stones.

Spear: You cannot throw a spear while holding it in two hands.

Spiked Knee: This weapon is not held in a hand. Instead, it is affixed to the leg of body armor with a medium or heavy usage class. If you are not proficient with this weapon, you increase your encumbrance by 2 when wearing armor with a spiked knee.

Spiked Shield, Standard: You can bash with a spiked shield in addition to defending with it. See Armor for details.

Takedown Bow: A takedown bow is a bow assembled from multiple independent components that can be reconfigured into two different combinations. In its longbow configuration, it functions like a longbow, and in its shortbow configuration, it functions like a shortbow. In addition, when it is fully disassembled, it takes up space equivalent to a light usage class weapon, making it easier to transport and conceal.

Unarmed Strike: Anyone can use an unarmed strike to attack. However, unless you are proficient with the Unarmed Weapons weapon group, you suffer the normal penalties for attacking with a weapon you are not proficient with (see Weapon Proficiency, page 313).

Whip: A whip is a light melee weapon with 15 foot reach. You can use a whip against foes anywhere within your reach, including adjacent foes.

Armor

Most characters use armor to protect themselves. There are two kinds of armor: body armor, such as full plate armor, and shields. Body armor is worn on your body. You can only benefit from one body armor at a time. If you somehow wear multiple layers of body armor, the penalties stack and the benefits do not stack. A shield requires a free hand instead of being worn on the body.

Armor Mechanics

Armor Usage Classes

An armor’s usage class is a measure of how the armor is used, and how much effort is required to use it. It indicates whether armor, when used by a creature the armor is sized for, is considered light armor, medium armor, or heavy armor.

Armor Proficiency

Proficiency with armor is defined by the armor’s usage class. If you wear or use armor you are not proficient with, it provides half its normal defense bonus. In addition, you apply that armor’s encumbrance as a penalty to your accuracy. Since standard shields have no encumbrance, you can use them without penalizing your attacks.

Getting Into And Out Of Armor

The time required to don armor depends on its type; see Table 9.4: Donning Armor. Donning and removing body armor and shields takes both hands.

Don: This column tells how long it takes a character to put the armor on. (One minute is 10 rounds.) Readyng (strapping on) a shield is a free action.

Remove: This column tells how long it takes to get the armor off.

Armor Table

Table 9.4: Donning Armor

Armor Type	Don	Remove
Light shield	1 free action	1 free action
Medium shield	1 standard action	1 standard action
Tower shield	1 standard action	1 standard action
Light body armor	1 minute	1 minute ¹
Medium body armor	4 minutes ¹	1 minute ¹
Heavy body armor	4 minutes ²	1d4+1 minutes ¹

1 If the character has some help, cut this time in half. A single character doing nothing else can help one or two adjacent characters. Two characters can't help each other don armor at the same time.

2 The wearer must have help to don this armor.

Here is the format for armor entries (given as column headings on Table 9.5: Armor and Shields, below).

Defense: This value indicates how much the armor increases your Armor defense.

Damage Resistance: This value indicates how much the armor increases your damage resistance (see Damage Resistance, page 22).

Encumbrance: This value indicates how much the armor increases your encumbrance. You apply your encumbrance as a penalty to all Strength and Dexterity-based checks and skills. For details, see Encumbrance, page 22.

Speed: Some armor decreases your speed with all of your movement modes by the given value while it is used.

Dex Bonus: This multiplier affects the contribution of your base Dexterity to your Armor defense.

Item Level (Cost): The first value indicates the item level of the item (see Item Levels, page 392). The second value in parentheses indicates the average cost to buy the item. Items crafted for unusually large or small creatures are more expensive. For each size category larger or smaller than Medium, the item's item level increases by one, which increases its price.

Armor/Shield Bonus: Both body armor and shields improve your Armor defense. Wearing multiple suits of armor or wielding multiple shields does not improve your defenses any further.

Weight and Size: The size category of body armor is the same as the size category of the creature it is sized for. Bucklers and standard shields are one size category smaller than the creature they are sized for, while tower shields are the same size category as the creature they are sized for. All armor and shields except for heavy body armor are lightweight objects.

Individual Armor Descriptions

Any special benefits or accessories to the types of armor found on Table 9.5: Armor and Shields are described below.

Armor Spikes: You can add armor spikes to any body armor. Armor spikes are a weapon that you can deal damage with (see Armor Weapons, page 317). Magical abilities on a suit of armor does not improve the spikes' effectiveness, but the spikes can be made into magic weapons in their own right.

Breastplate: It comes with a helmet and greaves.

Buckler: This small metal shield is worn strapped to your forearm. You can treat the hand using a buckler as a free hand. However, if you wield weapons or otherwise take actions using the arm bearing the buckler, you do not gain the buckler's defensive bonus during that phase.

You can't bash someone with a buckler.

Chain Shirt: A chain shirt comes with a steel cap.

Full Plate: The suit includes gauntlets, heavy leather boots, a visored helmet, and a thick layer of padding that is worn underneath the armor. Each suit of full plate must be individually fitted to its owner by a master armorsmith, although a captured suit can be resized to fit a new owner with a day of work and a difficulty rating 10 Craft (metalworking) check. The new owner must still be of the same size category as the size category that the suit was designed for.

Gauntlet, Locked: This armored gauntlet has small chains and braces that allow the wearer to attach a weapon to the gauntlet so that it cannot be dropped easily. As a standard action, you can lock or unlock the gauntlet with a different free hand. While the gauntlet is locked, any item held in that hand is extraordinarily well secured. This can prevent you from dropping the item if you are affected by the disarm ability or similar effects (see Disarm, page 27). However, you are unable to use that hand for any purpose other than holding the item until you unlock the gauntlet.

The price given is for a single locked gauntlet. If you are wearing armor that normally has gauntlets, you can replace one or both of those gauntlets with a locked gauntlet with no significant weight increase. Unless otherwise specified, all medium and heavy body armor comes with gauntlets. Like a normal gauntlet, a locked gauntlet lets you deal normal damage rather than subdual damage with unarmed attacks (see Unarmed Combat, page 25).

Shield, Standard, Wooden or Steel: You strap a shield to your forearm and grip it with your hand. A standard shield is so cumbersome that you can't use your shield hand for anything else.

Shield Bash Attacks: You can bash an opponent with a standard shield, using it as a medium bludgeoning weapon. See Table 9.2: Weapons for the damage dealt by a shield bash. Magical abilities on a shield do not affect shield bash attacks made with it, but the shield can be made into a magic weapon in its own right.

Shield, Tower: This massive shield is nearly as tall as an average human. When you take the total defense action with a tower shield, you gain a +3 bonus to Armor defense in addition to the normal bonuses from taking that action (see Total Defense, page 29). You cannot attack with a tower shield, and you cannot use your shield hand for anything else.

While wielding a tower shield, you take a -1 penalty to accuracy because of the shield's unwieldy nature.

Shield Spikes: When added to your shield, these spikes turn it into a piercing weapon that increases the damage dealt by a shield bash by +1d. You can't put spikes on a buckler or a tower shield. Otherwise, attacking with a spiked shield is like making a shield bash attack (see above).

Studded Leather: Only the studs on studded leather are made of metal. Studded leather armor made with studs from special materials does not grant the wearer the properties of the special material.

Special Materials

Body armor can be made from special materials that can alter the properties of the item. These special materials are described in Table 9.6: Armor Special Materials. The benefits here only apply to body armor that is fully made from the given special material. If you combine multiple special materials in any way, such as by wearing deepforged gauntlets with a mithral breastplate, you do not gain any benefits for having special materials.

Adamantine: Adamantine armor increases the encumbrance of the armor by 2, but it multiplies the damage resistance provided by the armor by 4. The armor's item level is increased by 9, which increases the typical cost to buy the item (see Item Levels, page 392).

Adamantine, Pure: Pure adamantine armor increases the encumbrance of the armor by 2, but it multiplies the damage resistance provided by the armor by 8. The armor's item level is increased by 15, which increases the typical cost to buy the item (see Item Levels, page 392).

Cold Iron: Cold iron armor provides half the normal damage resistance. In exchange, it grants a +1 bonus to defenses against magical abilities. The armor's item level is increased by 6, which increases the typical cost to buy the item (see Item Levels, page 392).

Cold Iron, Pure: Pure cold iron armor provides half the normal damage resistance. In exchange, it grants a +2 bonus to defenses against magical abilities. The armor's item level is increased by 12, which increases the typical cost to buy the item (see Item Levels, page 392).

Deepforged: Deepforged body armor multiplies the damage resistance provided by the armor by 2. The armor's item level is increased by 9, which increases the typical cost to buy the item (see Item Levels, page 392).

Diamondsteel: Diamondsteel body armor grants you a +4 bonus to defenses when determining whether a strike gets a critical hit against you instead of a normal hit. The armor's item level is increased by 6, which increases the typical cost to buy the item (see Item Levels, page 392).

Diamondsteel, Pure: Pure diamondsteel body armor grants you a +4 bonus to defenses when determining whether any attack gets a critical hit against you instead of a normal hit. In addition, it multiplies the damage resistance provided by the armor by 2. The armor's item level is increased by 12, which increases the typical cost to buy the item (see Item Levels, page 392).

Dragonhide: Dragonhide body armor multiplies the damage resistance provided by the armor by 3. In addition, each dragonhide body armor is made from the hide of a particular type of dragon. It provides a +4 bonus to defenses against attacks that deal damage of the type dealt by that dragon's breath weapon. The armor's item level is increased by 9, which increases the typical cost to buy the item (see Item Levels, page 392).

Dragonhide, Ancient: Ancient dragonhide body armor multiplies the damage resistance provided by the armor by 6. In addition, each ancient dragonhide body armor is made from the hide of a particular type of dragon. It provides a +6 bonus to defenses against attacks that deal damage of the type dealt by that dragon's breath weapon. The armor's item level is increased by 15, which increases the typical cost to buy the item (see Item Levels, page 392).

Dragonscale: Dragonscale body armor multiplies the damage resistance provided by the armor by 3. It is not considered to be metal, which may affect abilities like the heat metal spell. In addition, each dragonscale body armor is made from the scales of a particular type of dragon. It provides a +4 bonus to defenses against attacks that deal damage of the type dealt by that dragon's breath weapon. The armor's item level is increased by 9, which increases the typical cost to buy the item (see Item Levels, page 392).

Dragonscale, Ancient: Ancient dragonscale body armor multiplies the damage resistance provided by the armor by 6. It is not considered to be metal, which may affect abilities like the heat metal spell. In addition, each ancient dragonscale body armor is made from the scales of a particular type of dragon. It provides a +6 bonus to defenses against attacks that deal damage of the type dealt by that dragon's breath weapon. The armor's item level is increased by 15, which increases the typical cost to buy the item (see Item Levels, page 392).

Elvenweave: Elvenweave body armor multiplies the damage resistance provided by the armor by 2. The armor's item level is increased by 6, which increases the typical cost to buy the item (see Item Levels, page 392).

Ironwood: The most common special material is ironwood, which is made from wood magically treated using the ironwood ritual to be as strong as steel. Ironwood armor functions exactly like armor of the same type, except that it is made of wood. The armor's item level is increased by 3, which increases the typical cost to buy the item (see Item Levels, page 392).

Mithral: Mithral body armor reduces the encumbrance of the armor by 2. The armor's item level is increased by 6, which increases the typical cost to buy the item (see Item Levels, page 392).

Mithral, Pure: Pure mithral body armor multiplies the damage resistance provided by the armor by 2. In addition, it reduces the encumbrance of the armor by 3, and it causes the armor to be considered one usage class lighter, to a minimum of a light usage class (see Armor Usage Classes, page 322). The armor's item level is increased by 12, which increases the typical cost to buy the item (see Item Levels, page 392).

Starmetal: Starmetal body armor multiplies the damage resistance provided by the armor by 2. In addition, it increases the encumbrance of the armor by 2. When you use the recover ability while wearing starmetal body armor, you also regain an amount of damage resistance equal half to the damage resistance provided by the armor, ignoring magical enhancements. The armor's item level is increased by 6, which increases the typical cost to buy the item (see Item Levels, page 392).

Starmetal, Pure: Pure starmetal body armor multiplies the damage resistance provided by the armor by 4. In addition, it increases the encumbrance of the armor by 2. When you use the recover ability while wearing starmetal body armor, you also regain an amount of damage resistance equal to half the damage resistance provided by the armor, ignoring magical enhancements. The armor's item level is increased by 12, which increases the typical cost to buy the item (see Item Levels, page 392).

Goods And Services

Standard Adventuring Kit

A standard adventuring kit costs 15 gp, weighs 50 pounds, and contains the following items:

- Backpack
- Bedroll
- Flint and steel
- Rations, trail (8 days)
- Rope, hempen (60 ft.)
- Sack (empty)
- Tent
- Torch
- Waterskin

Adventuring Gear

A few of the pieces of adventuring gear found on Table 9.7: Goods and Services are described below, along with any special benefits they confer on the user ("you").

Caltrops: A caltrop is a four-pronged iron spike crafted so that one prong faces up no matter how the caltrop comes to rest. You scatter caltrops on the ground in the hope that your enemies step on them or are at least forced to slow down to avoid them. One 2- pound bag of caltrops covers an area 5 feet square.

Whenever a creature moves into the area, unless the creature moves at one quarter speed to avoid the danger, the caltrops make an attack vs. the creature's Armor defense. Unlike most attacks, this attack can happen during the movement phase. The accuracy of the caltrops is +0. On a hit, the caltrops deal 1d6 piercing damage.

Caltrops may not be effective against creatures with an unusual anatomy. Multiple applications of caltrops in the same area have no additional effect.

Candle: A candle dimly illuminates a 5 foot radius and burns for 1 hour.

Crowbar: A crowbar it grants a +2 bonus on Strength checks made for such purposes. If used in combat, treat a crowbar as an improvised weapon equivalent to a club.

Flint and Steel: Lighting a torch with flint and steel is a standard action. Lighting any other fire may take additional standard actions, depending on the size of the fire.

Grappling Hook: Throwing a grappling hook successfully requires a ranged attack (difficulty rating 10, +2 per 10 feet of distance thrown).

Hammer: If a hammer is used in combat, treat it as a medium improvised weapon that deals bludgeoning damage equal to that of a spiked gauntlet of its size.

Ink: This is black ink. You can buy ink in other colors, but it costs twice as much.

Jug, Clay: This basic ceramic jug is fitted with a stopper and holds 1 gallon of liquid.

Lamp, Common: A lamp provides bright illumination in a 15 foot radius, provides shadowy illumination out to a 30 foot radius, and burns for 6 hours on a pint of oil. You can carry a lamp in one hand.

Lantern, Bullseye: A bullseye lantern provides bright illumination in a 30 foot cone and shadowy illumination in a 60 foot cone. It burns for 6 hours on a pint of oil. You can carry a bullseye lantern in one hand.

Lantern, Hooded: A hooded lantern clearly illuminates a 15 foot radius and provides shadowy illumination in a 30 foot radius. It burns for 6 hours on a pint of oil. You can carry a hooded lantern in one hand.

Lock: The difficulty rating to open a lock with the Open Lock skill depends on the lock's quality: simple (difficulty rating 20), average (difficulty rating 25), good (difficulty rating 30), or superior (difficulty rating 40).

Manacles and Manacles, Masterwork: Manacles can bind a Medium creature. A manacled creature can use the Flexibility skill to slip free (difficulty rating 20, or difficulty rating 30 for masterwork manacles). Breaking the manacles requires a Strength check against the same difficulty rating.

Most manacles have locks; add the cost of the lock you want to the cost of the manacles.

For the same cost, you can buy manacles for a Small creature.

For a Large creature, manacles cost ten times the indicated amount, and for a Huge creature, one hundred times this amount. Creatures of any other size can be held only by specially made manacles.

Oil: A pint of oil burns for 6 hours in a lantern. You can use a flask of oil as a splash weapon. Use the rules for alchemist's fire, except that it takes a standard action to prepare a flask with a fuse. Once it is thrown, there is a 50% chance of the flask igniting successfully.

You can pour a pint of oil on the ground to cover an area 5 feet square, provided that the surface is smooth. If lit, the oil burns for 2 rounds and deals 1d3 points of fire damage to each creature in the area.

Ram, Portable: This iron-shod wooden beam gives you a +2 bonus on Strength checks made to break open a door and it allows a second person to help you without having to roll, increasing your bonus by 2.

Rope, Hempen: This rope has 4 hit points and can be burst with a difficulty rating 13 Strength check.

Rope, Silk: This rope has 5 hit points and can be burst with a difficulty rating 14 Strength check.

Spyglass: Objects viewed through a spyglass are magnified to twice their size.

Torch: A torch burns for 1 hour, clearly illuminating a 15 foot radius and providing shadowy illumination out to a 30 foot radius. If a torch is used in combat, treat it as a light improvised weapon that deals bludgeoning damage equal to that of a gauntlet of its size, plus 1 point of fire damage. Wielding a torch gives a +2 bonus to dirty trick attempts made to dazzle an opponent.

Vial: A vial holds 1 ounce of liquid. The stoppered container usually is no more than 1 inch wide and 3 inches high.

Tools and Skill Kits

Alchemist's Lab: An alchemist's lab always has the perfect tool for making alchemical items, so it provides a +2 bonus on Craft (alchemy) checks. It has no bearing on the costs related to the Craft (alchemy) skill. Without this lab, a character with the Craft (alchemy) skill is assumed to have enough tools to use the skill but not enough to get the +2 bonus that the lab provides.

Artisan's Tools: These tools allow the creation of items with a particular Craft skill (see Craft, page 123). Many types of artisan's tools exist, each for different Craft skills.

Disguise Kit: This kit allows the use of the Disguise skill to disguise creatures (see Disguise, page 128).

Holy Symbol, Silver or Wooden: Each religion has its own holy symbol. A small number of creatures respond in particular ways to holy symbols.

Magnifying Glass: This simple lens allows a closer look at small objects. It is also useful as a substitute for flint and steel when starting fires in sunlight. Lighting a fire with a magnifying glass requires light as bright as sunlight to focus, tinder to ignite, and at least a standard action.

Pitons: You can make your own handholds and footholds by pounding pitons into a wall. Doing so takes 1 minute per piton, and one piton is needed per 3 feet of distance. As with any surface that offers handholds and footholds, a wall with pitons in it has a difficulty rating of 15.

Thieves' Tools: These tools allow the use of the Devices skill

2 Relative to normal armor of the same type to manipulate devices (see Devices, page 127).

Water Clock: This large, bulky contrivance gives the time accurate to within half an hour per day since it was last set. It requires a source of water, and it must be kept still because it marks time by the regulated flow of droplets of water.

Clothing

Artisan's Outfit: This outfit includes a shirt with buttons, a skirt or pants with a drawstring, shoes, and perhaps a cap or hat. It may also include a belt or a leather or cloth apron for carrying tools.

Cleric's Vestments: These ecclesiastical clothes are for performing priestly functions, not for adventuring.

Cold Weather Outfit: A cold weather outfit includes a wool coat, linen shirt, wool cap, heavy cloak, thick pants or skirt, and boots. This outfit grants a +2 bonus to Fortitude defense against exposure to cold weather.

Courtier's Outfit: This outfit includes fancy, tailored clothes in whatever fashion happens to be the current style in the courts of the nobles. If you wear this outfit without jewelry (costing an additional 50 gp), you look like an out-of-place commoner.

Entertainer's Outfit: This set of flashy, perhaps even gaudy, clothes is for entertaining. While the outfit looks whimsical, its practical design lets you tumble, dance, walk a tightrope, or just run (if the audience turns ugly).

Explorer's Outfit: This is a full set of clothes for someone who never knows what to expect. It includes sturdy boots, leather breeches or a skirt, a belt, a shirt (perhaps with a vest or jacket), gloves, and a cloak. Rather than a leather skirt, a leather overtunic may be worn over a cloth skirt. The clothes have plenty of pockets (especially the cloak). The outfit also includes any extra items you might need, such as a scarf or a wide-brimmed hat.

Monk's Outfit: This simple outfit includes sandals, loose breeches, and a loose shirt, and is all bound together with sashes. The outfit is designed to give you maximum mobility, and it's made of high-quality fabric. You can hide small weapons in pockets hidden in the folds, and the sashes are strong enough to serve as short ropes.

Noble's Outfit: This set of clothes is designed specifically to be expensive and to show it. Precious metals and gems are worked into the clothing. To fit into the noble crowd, every would-be noble also needs a signet ring (see Adventuring Gear, above) and jewelry (worth at least 100 gp).

Peasant's Outfit: This set of clothes consists of a loose shirt and baggy breeches, or a loose shirt and skirt or overdress. Cloth wrappings are used for shoes.

Royal Outfit: This is just the clothing, not the royal scepter, crown, ring, and other accoutrements. Royal clothes are ostentatious, with gems, gold, silk, and fur in abundance.

Scholar's Outfit: Perfect for a scholar, this outfit includes a robe, a belt, a cap, soft shoes, and possibly a cloak.

Traveler's Outfit: This set of clothes consists of boots, a wool skirt or breeches, a sturdy belt, a shirt (perhaps with a vest or jacket), and an ample cloak with a hood.

Food, Drink, and Lodging

Inn: Poor accommodations at an inn amount to a place on the floor near the hearth. Common accommodations consist of a place on a raised, heated floor, the use of a blanket and a pillow. Good accommodations consist of a small, private room with one bed, some amenities, and a covered chamber pot in the corner.

Meals: Poor meals might be composed of bread, baked turnips, onions, and water. Common meals might consist of bread, chicken stew, carrots, and watered-down ale or wine. Good meals might be composed of bread and pastries, beef, peas, and ale or wine.

Mounts and Related Gear

Barding, Medium Creature and Large Creature: Barding is a type of armor that covers the head, neck, chest, body, and possibly legs of a horse or other mount. Barding made of medium or heavy armor provides better protection than light barding, but at the expense of speed. Barding can be made of any of the armor types found on Table 9.5: Armor and Shields (page 324).

Armor for a horse (a Large nonhumanoid creature) costs four times as much as armor for a human (a Medium humanoid creature) and also weighs twice as much as the armor found on Table 9.5: Armor and Shields (page 324). If the barding is for a pony or other Medium mount, the cost is only double, and the weight is the same as for Medium armor worn by a humanoid. Medium or heavy barding slows a mount that wears it, as shown on the table below.

Flying creatures can't fly in barding that gives them any encumbrance (see Flying Mechanics, page 14).

Removing and fitting barding takes five times as long as the figures given on Table 9.4: Donning Armor (page 323). A barded animal cannot be used to carry any load other than the rider and normal saddlebags.

Dog, Riding: This Medium dog is specially trained to carry short-statured humanoid riders like halflings and gnomes. It is brave in combat like a warhorse. You take no damage when you fall from a riding dog.

Donkey or Mule: Donkeys and mules are stolid in the face of danger, hardy, surefooted, and capable of carrying heavy loads over vast distances. Unlike a horse, a donkey or a mule is willing (though not eager) to enter dungeons and other strange or threatening places.

Feed: Horses, donkeys, mules, and ponies can graze to sustain themselves, but providing feed for them is much better. If you have a riding dog, you have to feed it at least some meat.

Horse: A horse (other than a pony) is suitable as a mount for a human, dwarf, elf, half-elf, or half-orc. A pony is smaller than a horse and is a suitable mount for a gnome or halfling.

Warhorses and warponies can be ridden easily into combat. Light horses, ponies, and heavy horses are hard to control in combat.

Saddle, Exotic: An exotic saddle is like a normal saddle of the same sort except that it is designed for an unusual mount. Exotic saddles come in military, pack, and riding styles.

Saddle, Military: A military saddle braces the rider, providing a +2 bonus on Ride checks related to staying in the saddle. If you're knocked unconscious while in a military saddle, you stay in the saddle instead of falling to the ground.

Saddle, Pack: A pack saddle holds gear and supplies, but not a rider. It holds as much gear as the mount can carry.

Saddle, Riding: The standard riding saddle supports a rider.

Transport

Carriage: This four-wheeled vehicle can transport as many as four people within an enclosed cab, plus two drivers. In general, two horses (or other beasts of burden) draw it. A carriage comes with the harness needed to pull it.

Cart: This two-wheeled vehicle can be drawn by a single horse (or other beast of burden). It comes with a harness.

Galley: This three-masted ship has seventy oars on either side and requires a total crew of 200. A galley is 130 feet long and 20 feet wide, and it can carry 150 tons of cargo or 250 soldiers. For 8,000 gp more, it can be fitted with a ram and castles with firing platforms fore, aft, and amidships. This ship cannot make sea voyages and sticks to the coast. It moves about 4 miles per hour when being rowed or under sail.

Keelboat: This 50- to 75 foot long ship is 15 to 20 feet wide and has a few oars to supplement its single mast with a square sail. It has a crew of eight to fifteen and can carry 40 to 50 tons of cargo or 100 soldiers. It can make sea voyages, as well as sail down rivers (thanks to its flat bottom). It moves about 1 mile per hour.

Longship: This 75 foot long ship with forty oars requires a total crew of 50. It has a single mast and a square sail, and it can carry 50 tons of cargo or 120 soldiers. A longship can make sea voyages. It moves about 3 miles per hour when being rowed or under sail.

Rowboat: This 8- to 12 foot long boat holds two or three Medium passengers. It moves about one and a half miles per hour.

Sailing Ship: This larger, seaworthy ship is 75 to 90 feet long and 20 feet wide and has a crew of 20. It can carry 150 tons of cargo. It has square sails on its two masts and can make sea voyages. It moves about 2 miles per hour.

Sled: This is a wagon on runners for moving through snow and over ice. In general, two horses (or other beasts of burden) draw it. A sled comes with the harness needed to pull it.

Wagon: This is a four-wheeled, open vehicle for transporting heavy loads. In general, two horses (or other beasts of burden) draw it. A wagon comes with the harness needed to pull it.

Warship: This 100 foot long ship has a single mast, although oars can also propel it. It has a crew of 60 to 80 rowers. This ship can carry 160 soldiers, but not for long distances, since there isn't room for supplies to support that many people. The warship cannot make sea voyages and sticks to the coast. It is not used for cargo. It moves about 2-1/2 miles per hour when being rowed or under sail.

Consumable Items

Many substances exist that can aid adventurers.

Poisons

For details about how poisons work, see Poison, page 377.

Chapter 10

Magic Items

Magic items are objects that have been imbued with magical energy. They can take almost any form, and their potential uses are only as limited as the magic that created them.

Magic Item Types

Magic items are divided into four broad categories:

- Weapons are used to make physical attacks. They provide access to their abilities when wielded. A flaming longsword and a vampiric scythe are weapons.
- Implements are used to cast spells. They provide access to their abilities when wielded. A staff of fire and a staff of time are implements.
- Apparel items are usually not used individually. They provide access to their abilities when worn. A shield of arrow deflection and a ring of protection are apparel items.
- Tools provide access to their abilities when used in some way. A bag of shrinking is a tool.

Using Magic Items

Item Activation

Some magic items have to be explicitly activated to have unusual effects. For example, the seven league boots can be activated to teleport you across great distances. Other magic items constantly have magical effects. For example, a ring of protection passively grants you a defense bonus.

The description of a magic item effect will specify what mechanical actions must be taken, if any, to activate the effects of the item. For example, a belt of healing requires taking a standard action. However, the item description will not specify the exact nature of the action. Different items, even if they have the same effect, can have different physical actions that are required to activate the item. These activation actions can come in one of the following forms:

- Command word: You must speak a specific word that the item will hear and react to. For example, you may need to say the word “healing” in Elven to activate an item that heals you.
- Mental command: You must mentally direct the item to activate, such as by visualizing the item or thinking a particular word. For example, you may need to imagine a warm blanket around you to activate an item that protects you from cold damage or environmental effects.

- Physical motion: You must perform a specific physical motion, usually involving the item in some way. For example, you may need to rapidly stomp one foot on the ground to activate an item that allows you to move faster.

Item Limitations

There are three restrictions on your ability to use magic items. First, you cannot equip two apparel items that take up the same physical location on your body. For example, you cannot equip two different gauntlet sets and gain the effects of both, but you could equip several amulets or up to ten rings.

Second, all magic items require you to attune to them to gain their effect unless they indicate otherwise in their description. You can attune to a magic item with the item attunement ability, below.

Third, you cannot attune to two items with the same name, or if one is simply a Greater or Lesser version of the other.

Item Attunement

As a standard action, you can use the item attunement ability to attune to items.

Item Attunement

Attune (self)

Choose a magic item you are touching. Any abilities the target has that require attunement become active, allowing you to use its full potential.

Shared Item Attunement: Multiple creatures can attune to the same item simultaneously. Since most items only function while worn or wielded, this does not usually allow multiple creatures to gain the benefits of the item. However, the creatures can swap the item between them without having to reattune to it each time.

Item Power

The power of an item depends on its level. If the item is not being attuned to by a creature, its power is equal to its level. If a creature is attuning to the item, its power is equal to its level or the level of the attuning creature, whichever is higher.

An item's power also affects its defenses. Its Fortitude and Mental defenses are equal to 5 + its power. Its Armor defense and Reflex defense are not affected by its power, and are solely determined by its size and shape.

Removing Magic Items

Unless otherwise noted, magic items that have effects on the creature using the item must continue to be worn or held as long as the effect lasts. If a magic item has an ability with a duration, removing the item also ends the ability. Items which are consumed when used or which do not affect their user are unaffected by this rule.

Item Description Format

TODO

Magic Apparel

Apparel items must be worn to gain their effects.

Body Slots

The main limiting factor on how many items you can have equipped is your attunement points, not the physical location of your items on your body. However, there are limits to how many items you can wear of the same type, as described below. For item types not listed here, use reasonable judgment about what would be plausible.

- Circlet: Up to 1
- Cloak: Up to 3

This weapon continuously emits a low-pitched rumbling noise and vibrates in the hand. All damage dealt with it is sonic damage in addition to its normal damage types (see Multiple Damage Types, page 12). Whenever you make a creature lose hit points with a strike, it becomes briefly deafened. After this effect ends, that creature becomes immune to this effect until it takes a short rest.

Type: WeaponMaterials: As weaponConcussive, Supreme*17th (125,000 gp)

This weapon functions like a greater concussive weapon, except that the deafening effect becomes a condition.

Type: WeaponMaterials: As weaponFixating*12th (16,000 gp)

Once per phase, when you make a strike with this weapon, you gain a +1 accuracy bonus against one target of the strike with future strikes using this weapon. If the strike had multiple targets, you choose which target you gain the bonus against. This effect lasts until you make a strike with this weapon that does not include that creature as a target. It stacks with itself, up to a maximum of a +4 bonus.

This weapon functions like the fixating weapon, except that the bonus increases by +2 with each strike.

Type: WeaponMaterials: As weaponFlaming*5th (800 gp)

This weapon smolders visibly and sheds light as a torch. As a standard action, you can make a strike with this weapon that is imbued with fiery energy. Damage dealt by that strike is fire damage in addition to its normal damage types (see Multiple Damage Types, page 12). In addition, each creature that loses hit points from the strike takes additional fire damage at the end of the next round equal to half the hit points it lost from the strike.

Type: WeaponMaterials: As weaponFlaming, Greater 11th (10,000 gp)

This weapon is on fire. It sheds light as a torch, and all damage dealt with it is fire damage in addition to its normal damage types (see Multiple Damage Types, page 12). Whenever you make a creature lose hit points with a strike, it takes additional fire damage at the end of the next round equal to half the damage it took from the strike. If it would take this damage from multiple strikes at once, only the highest damage value is used. After a creature takes damage from this effect, that creature becomes immune to this effect until it takes a short rest.

Type: WeaponMaterials: As weaponFlaming, Supreme 17th (125,000 gp)

Type: WeaponMaterials: As weaponFreezing, Greater 11th (10,000 gp)

This weapon functions like a greater freezing weapon, except that the slowing effect becomes a condition.

Type: WeaponMaterials: As weaponHefty 7th (1,800 gp)

This weapon feels heavy in the hand. It gains the Forceful weapon tag (see Weapon Tags, page 315). If it already has that weapon tag, the distance that you can knockback the target increases by 10 feet.

As a standard action, you can cut yourself with this weapon to activate it. This deals no damage to you. When you do, each creature hit with the weapon loses hit points equal to the total delayed damage built up by the weapon for that target. Creatures farther than one mile away from the weapon are unaffected by this damage. Magic Implements

Implements can take many forms: staves, wands, holy symbols, and more. Like magic weapons, magic implements must be wielded to gain their effects. However, while weapons are used to deal damage to enemies, implements are used to cast spells.

Somatic Components: While wielding an implement, you may gesture with it and channel magic through it. These qualify as somatic components for the purpose of casting spells. This does not remove the possibility of somatic component failure.

Implement Types

Holy Symbols

Physical Description: A typical holy symbol is no larger than 4 inches in each dimension and can be easily held in the palm of a hand. Most holy symbols are metal, but they can be made from wood, bone, or even more exotic materials, depending on the deity they symbolize.

Special Rules: All holy symbols are implements for divine spells. Most holy symbols are designed to be worn as an amulet in addition to being held in the hand. A magical holy symbol grants its magical abilities if it is either worn as an amulet or held in the hand.

Staffs

Physical Description: A typical staff is 3 feet to 7 feet long and 2 inches to 3 inches thick, weighing about 5 pounds. Most staffs are wood, but a rare few are bone, metal, or even glass. Staffs often have a gem or some device at their tip or are shod in metal at one or both ends.

Staffs are often decorated with carvings or runes. Long staffs are quarterstaffs. They must be held in two hands, and can be used to attack like any other quarterstaff. Short staffs resemble thin clubs. They can be held in one hand, but are not suitable for combat and are treated as improvised weapons if used to attack. A typical staff has 20 hit points and a sunder difficulty rating of 10.

Wands

Physical Description: A typical wand is 6 inches to 12 inches long and about 1/4 inch thick, and usually weighs no more than 1 ounce. Most wands are wood, but some are bone. A rare few are metal, glass, or even ceramic, but these are quite exotic. Occasionally, a wand has a gem or some device at its tip, and most are decorated with carvings or runes. A typical wand has 5 hit points and a sunder difficulty rating of 5.

An observer can make a Spell sense check with a difficulty rating of 15 + your magical power to identify the spell's true nature, with a minimum difficulty rating of 23. Whenever a creature removes a condition that you inflicted on it, it takes 4d10 + half power energy damage .		This wand grants you knowledge of a single rank 1 spell that does not have the Attune tag. Each wand is associated with a specific spell, and a single magic source that can grant access to that spell. You must have the ability to cast spells of the given rank from the same magic source as the wand. However, you do not need to have access to the mystic sphere that the spell belongs to. Spells you know because of a spell wand gain any rank upgrades appropriate to your rank with that form of spellcasting. If you stop attuning to this item or its effect otherwise ends, the effects of any active spells that you know because of the wand also end, regardless of their normal duration.

Whenever you use a magical ability that does not have the Sustain or Attune tags, you may choose a location within Short (30 ft.) range. The ability takes effect as if you were in the chosen location. This affects your line of effect for the ability, but not your line of sight (since you still see from your normal location). Since an ability's range is measured from your location, this item can allow you to affect targets outside your normal range. For example, a cone that normally bursts out from you would instead originate from your chosen location, potentially avoiding an obstacle between you and your target. Legacy Items

Over time, items associated with places and people of great power gain magical properties. This process takes place for you as you gain levels in addition to in the world as a whole.

At 3rd level, you choose a nonmagical weapon, piece of armor, apparel item, or implement you own. That item becomes a legacy item, and gains a magic item ability you choose. You do not have to attune to your legacy item to gain its benefits. The ability's level must be no greater than 5th level, and it must be appropriate for the category of item you chose: weapon, armor, apparel, or implement. You do not have to precisely match the location of an apparel item. For example, you can choose an amulet as your legacy item and give it the effect of the boots of translocation.

At 9th, 15th, and 21st level, your legacy item increases in power again. You choose an ability of the appropriate type with a level no greater than two levels higher than your level when you choose the ability. You can choose a modified version of an existing ability on the item, such as the greater armor of invulnerability ability if your legacy item already has the armor of invulnerability ability. However, if you do so, you must change the lower level ability to be a different magic item ability. The new ability must meet the same maximum level requirement that it had when you first chose it.

If you lose your legacy item, you must retrieve it to regain its power. There are rituals to facilitate this retrieval such as seek legacy and retrieve legacy. If your legacy item is destroyed, you can designate a new item of the same type to be your legacy item, causing it to gain all of your legacy item abilities. Designating a new item in this way requires taking a long rest while holding or wearing the replacement item.

Unique Legacy Items: Legacy items are fundamentally a reflection of the character who wields them. Their effects can be more unusual and complex than abilities on normal magic items, and they can have a larger effect on the way that character interacts with the world. As a player, you can work with your GM to create custom magical effects of an appropriate power that are a better reflection of your character's personality and powers than the magic item abilities that exist.

Weight Limits

Weight Categories

Weight is generally measured in weight categories rather than pounds or kilograms. Weight categories use the same terms as size categories, as shown in Table 11.1: Weight Categories (page 374). In general, a creature's weight category is the same as its size category.

Objects and creatures can also be either lightweight or heavyweight. Lightweight objects and creatures have a weight category that is one category lighter than their size category. Heavyweight objects and creatures have a weight category that is one category heavier than their size category.

Objects that occupy only a small percentage of the space appropriate for their size category, such as swords, are usually lightweight. Objects that fully occupy the space appropriate for their size category, like boulders, are usually heavyweight.

Table 11.1: Weight Categories

Weight Category	Average Weight
Fine	1 oz.
Diminutive	1/2 lb.
Tiny	2 lb.
Small	15 lb.
Medium	125 lb.
Large	1,000 lb.
Huge	8,000 lb.
Gargantuan	64,000 lb.
Colossal	512,000 lb.

Your Strength determines how much you can carry or push, as shown in Table 11.2: Weight Limits by Strength. Your weight limits are measured in terms of how many objects or creatures of a given weight category that you can carry or push at once. Instead of carrying one object of a given weight category, you can carry eight objects that are one weight category lighter. In general, it is not meaningful to consider the weight of any objects two weight categories lighter than your maximum weight category.

You can carry objects or creatures up to your maximum carrying capacity without any penalty. This is called your carrying capacity. Beyond that, you can push or drag objects or creatures up your pushing and dragging limit as a standard action. When you do, you move the weight 5 feet.

Multi-Legged Creatures: The figures on Table 11.2: Weight Limits by Strength are for bipedal creatures. A creature with four or more legs can carry, push, or drag twice as many objects as a bipedal creature of the same Strength.

Movement

There are three movement scales in the game, as follows.

- Tactical, for combat, measured in feet (or squares) per round.
- Local, for exploring an area, measured in feet per minute.
- Overland, for getting from place to place, measured in miles per hour or miles per day.

Tactical Movement

Use tactical movement for combat.

Table 11.3: Movement and Distance

	Speed
	15 feet	20 feet	30 feet	40 feet
One Round (Tactical)
Walk	15 ft.	20 ft.	30 ft.	40 ft.
Hustle	30 ft.	40 ft.	60 ft.	80 ft.
One Minute (Local)
Walk	150 ft.	200 ft.	300 ft.	400 ft.
Hustle	300 ft.	400 ft.	600 ft.	800 ft.
One Hour (Overland)
Walk	3/4 mile	1 mile	1-1/2 miles	2 miles
Hustle	1-1/2 miles	2 miles	3 miles	4 miles
One Day (Overland)
Walk	7-1/2 miles	10 miles	15 miles	20 miles
Hustle	—	—	—	—

Table 11.4: Hampered Movement

Condition	Example	Extra Movement Cost
Difficult terrain	Rubble, undergrowth, steep slope, ice, cracked and pitted surface, uneven floor	x2
Obstacle ¹	Low wall, deadfall, broken pillar	x2
Poor visibility	Darkness or fog	x2
Impassable	Floor-to-ceiling wall, closed door, blocked passage	—

Minimum Movement: In some situations, your movement may be so hampered that you don't have sufficient speed even to move 5 feet (1 square). In such a case, you may use a standard action to move 5 feet (1 square) in any direction, even diagonally. (You can't take advantage of this rule to move through impassable terrain or to move when all movement is prohibited to you, such as while paralyzed.)

Local Movement

Characters exploring an area use local movement, measured in feet per minute.

Walk: A character can walk without a problem on the local scale.

Hustle: A character can hustle without a problem on the local scale. See Table 11.5: Terrain and Overland Movement, below, for movement measured in miles per hour.

Overland Movement

Characters covering long distances cross-country use overland movement. Overland movement is measured in miles per hour or miles per day. A day represents 10 hours of actual travel time. For rowed watercraft, a day represents 10 hours of rowing. For a sailing ship, it represents 24 hours.

Table 11.5: Terrain and Overland Movement

Terrain	Highway	Road or Trail	Trackless

Pony	3 miles	30 miles
Warpony	3 miles	30 miles
Donkey or mule	3 miles	30 miles
Donkey	2 miles	20 miles
Mule	2 miles	20 miles
Dog, riding	4 miles	40 miles
Dog, riding	3 miles	30 miles
Cart or wagon	2 miles	20 miles

Raft or barge (poled or towed) ¹	1/2 mile	5 miles
Keelboat (rowed) ¹	1 mile	10 miles
Rowboat (rowed) ¹	1-1/2 miles	15 miles
Sailing ship (sailed)	2 miles	48 miles
Warship (sailed and rowed)	2-1/2 miles	60 miles
Longship (sailed and rowed)	3 miles	72 miles
Galley (rowed and sailed)	4 miles	96 miles

¹ Rafts, barges, keelboats, and rowboats are used on lakes and rivers. If going downstream, add the speed of the current (typically 3 miles per hour) to the speed of the vehicle. In addition to 10 hours of being rowed, the vehicle can also float an additional 14 hours, if someone can guide it, so add an additional 42 miles to the daily distance traveled. These vehicles can't be rowed against any significant current, but they can be pulled upstream by draft animals on the shores.

Walk: A character can walk 10 hours in a day of travel without a problem. Walking for longer than that, or hustling faster than that, requires an Endurance check (see Overland Exertion, page 129).

Terrain: The terrain through which a character travels affects how much distance they can cover in an hour or a day (see Table 11.5: Terrain and Overland Movement). A highway is a straight, major, paved road. A road is typically a dirt track. A trail is like a road, except that it allows only single-file travel and does not benefit a party traveling with vehicles. Trackless terrain is a wild area with no significant paths.

Mounted Movement: A mount bearing a rider can move at a hustle. The damage it takes when doing so, however, is not subdual damage. The creature can also be ridden in a forced march, but its Constitution checks automatically fail, and, again, the damage it takes is lethal damage.

See Table 11.6: Mounts and Vehicles for mounted speeds and speeds for vehicles pulled by draft animals.

Waterborne Movement: See Table 11.6: Mounts and Vehicles for speeds for water vehicles.

Vision and Light

Some creatures have darkvision, but most creatures need light to see by. In an area of bright illumination, all characters can see clearly. A creature can't hide in an area with bright illumination unless it is invisible or has cover.

In an area with shadowy illumination, creatures can see dimly. Creatures within this area have concealment, which can allow them to make Stealth checks to hide (see Stealth, page 141).

In an area with brilliant illumination, creatures can see clearly just like an area with bright illumination. In addition, no shadows exist within an area of brilliant illumination. This makes many effects from the umbramancy mystic sphere difficult or impossible to use.

In areas of darkness, creatures without darkvision or some other form of supernatural vision are blinded (50% miss chance).

Characters with low-light vision (elves, gnomes, and half-elves) treat sources of light as if they had double their normal illumination range.

Darkvision

Characters with darkvision can see lit areas normally as well as dark areas within a radius defined by the ability – usually, 60 feet. A creature can't hide within that range of a character using darkvision unless it is invisible or has cover. Darkvision does not function if the character is in bright illumination, and does not resume functioning until the end of the next round after the character leaves the area of bright illumination.

Attacking Unseen Foes

You can make attacks against creatures and objects you cannot see. To do so, you choose a 5-foot square and make the attack against that square. You have a 50% chance to hit nothing at all with the attack and a 50% chance to hit a random valid target in that square with your attack.

Communication and Languages

Literacy: All characters with an Intelligence of +2 or higher are presumed to be literate, allowing them to read and write any language they speak. Each language has an alphabet, though sometimes several spoken languages share a single alphabet.

Language Rarity: Some languages are widely spoken in the world, while others are only encountered in unusual circumstances. Common languages are summarized on Table 11.7: Common Languages, below. Rare languages are summarized on Table 11.8: Rare Languages, below. Rare languages are more difficult to learn, and are usually only spoken by unusual creatures.

Learning Languages: You can spend one insight point to learn two common languages or one rare language. In addition, you can learn two common languages or one rare language by mastering the Linguistics skill (see Linguistics, page 133).

Table 11.7: Common Languages

Language	Typical Speakers	Alphabet
Common	Civilized creatures	Common
Draconic	Dragons, kobolds	Draconic
Dwarven	Dwarves	Dwarven
Elven	Elves	Elven
Giant	Ogres, giants	Dwarven

Telepathy

Some creatures have the ability to telepathically communicate with other creatures. All telepathy abilities have a defined range. Unless otherwise specified, a telepathic creature can only communicate with one creature at a time.

As a free action, a telepathic creature can open a telepathic communication channel with one creature it sees within the range of its telepathy ability. The target does not have to be willing to receive telepathic communication in this way. While this channel is open, the telepathic creature can cause the target to "hear" the telepathic creature's voice inside the target's head. If the target attempts to mentally reply while the channel is open, the telepathic creature can similarly "hear" the reply in its head as if the target was speaking. This does not generally grant the ability to detect any other thoughts, though exceptionally stupid targets may accidentally broadcast their private thoughts.

Telepathic communication uses words, so it still requires a shared language to be intelligible, even though the words are only imagined. A telepathic creature may attempt to telepathically communicate with creatures without a language, though this is generally unproductive. A skilled telepath can customize the mental "voice" it projects in the same way that a creature can attempt to disguise or alter its voice when speaking.

Breaking Objects

There are two main ways of breaking objects. You can deal damage to objects with attacks, similarly to how you can deal damage to creatures. Alternately, you can attempt to sunder the object with sheer strength.

Damaging Objects

Objects have hit points and damage resistance like creatures. However, they treat all damage they take as environmental damage (see Environmental Damage, page 13). That means that all damage they take is reduced by their damage resistance without subtracting from the remaining value of their damage resistance.

An object becomes broken if its hit points are reduced to 0 (see Broken and Destroyed Objects, page 377). Objects cannot gain vital wounds. Objects are also not normally subject to critical hits.

Object Statistics

An object’s size primarily influences the number of hit points it has. The primary material it is constructed from determines its damage resistance, and can modify the number of hit points it has. Details are given in Table 11.9: Object Statistics By Size (page 377) and Table 11.10: Object Statistics By Material (page 377).

Table 11.9: Object Statistics By Size

Size	Hit Points	Sunder Difficulty Rating
Fine	1	1 ¹
Diminutive	2	2
Tiny	5	5
Small	10	10
Medium	20	15
Large	50	20
Huge	100	25
Gargantuan	200	30
Colossal	500	35

1. Extremely small objects may be difficult to grip effectively, which can significantly increase the difficulty to sunder them.

Table 11.10: Object Statistics By Material

Material	DR ¹	Hit Points Multiplier ²	Sunder Difficulty Rating Modifier
Adamantine	30	x3	+20
Glass	5	x1/2	—
Ice	1	x1/2	–5
Iron or steel	12	x2	+10
Leather or hide	3	—	—
Mithral	15	x2	+10
Paper or cloth	1	x1/2	–5
Rope	2	—	—
Stone	8	x2	+5
Wood	5	—	—

1. See Damage Resistance, page 22.
2. Any value here modifies the number of hit points the object would normally have based on its size.

Sundering Objects

As a standard action, you can attempt to sunder an object you can touch. This requires two hands. An object’s size and primary material determines the difficulty rating of the check. The difficulty rating of this check decreases by 2 if the object is below its maximum hit points. Success means that the object breaks. Failure by 5 or less means the object loses a hit point, but it does not break. Failure by 6 or more means nothing happens.

Broken and Destroyed Objects

An object that is reduced to 0 hit points becomes broken. You can destroy an object by causing it to lose additional hit points equal to ten times its maximum hit points, or by succeeding at a check to sunder the object by 20.

Broken Objects: Broken objects cannot be used for their intended purpose, but still retain enough of their original form to be repaired without too much work. For example, a broken wall lies in pieces on the ground and no longer blocks passage, but can be repaired with far less effort than would be required to create a wall from scratch. Magic items that are broken retain their magical properties once fixed. Broken (but not destroyed) objects can be repaired with the Craft skill for a cost equal to 10% of their value (see Craft, page 123).

Destroyed Objects: Destroyed objects have been damaged beyond hope of any sort of repair short of crafting the object again from raw materials. For example, a destroyed wall is reduced to dust or small, useless chunks of rubble. Magic items that are destroyed irrevocably lose their magical properties. The remains of a destroyed object generally occupy a space one size category smaller than the original object.

Relative Damage Resistance

When an object would take damage from a strike, if the damage resistance of the attacking object or creature is lower than the damage resistance of the defender, the attacking object or creature takes the damage instead. For example, if you try to break a stone wall with a wooden club, the club will break instead of the wall.

Poison

Poisons can deal damage, weaken creatures, or even kill them. Some effects which are not literally poisonous, such as animal venom or fungal spores, are considered poisons. Unless otherwise noted, poisons are not conditions, and cannot be removed by abilities that remove conditions (see Conditions, page 17). Common poisons are listed in Poisons, page 330.

Poison Transmission

There are three ways that poisons can be contracted.
Contact: A contact poison affects any creature that touches it with bare skin.

Ingestion: An ingestion poison affects any creature that eats, drinks, or breathes it, depending on the type of poison. Ingestion poisons have no effect when touched or used to coat weapons.

Injury: An injury poison affects any creature loses hit points from something bearing the poison. Almost all injury poisons take liquid form, and are typically used to coat weapons.

Poison Forms

There are four forms of poison.

Gas: Gaseous poisons are difficult to store, but easy to affect foes with.

Liquid: Liquid poisons are the most common type of poison. Liquid poisons can be used to coat weapons, slipped into food, or simply thrown at foes. A dose of a liquid poison is usually about one ounce of the poison.

Pellet: Some rare poisons come in small, solid pellets or cubes. Typically, these pellets contain a powerful liquid poison that becomes inert quickly after being exposed. Pellet poisons cannot be used to coat weapons or thrown at foes, but can be slipped into food.

Powder: Poison in powder form cannot be used to coat weapons, but can be slipped into food or thrown at foes.

Poison Effects

Poisons can have a wide variety of effects, as determined by the type of poison used. However, most poison share certain common properties.

Becoming Poisoned: All poisons have an base accuracy. When a creature first comes into contact with a poison, the poison makes an attack roll using its accuracy against the Fortitude defense of the poisoned creature. On a hit, the target becomes poisoned and suffers the effects of the first stage of the poison. On a critical hit, the target becomes poisoned and suffers the effects of the two stages of the poison. On a miss, the target is not poisoned.

Some attacks make the target poisoned if they hit the target. In that case, the ability’s accuracy defines the poison’s accuracy.

Many poisons have an additional effect when they hit the target for the third time.

Poison Attacks: At the end of each subsequent round after the target becomes poisoned, the poison makes an attack roll against the Fortitude defense of the poisoned creature. Each hit increases the poison stage of the poison. For every 10 points by which the attack hits, the poison progresses by an additional stage. On a miss, the creature gets closer to resisting the poison (see Resisting Poisons, below).

Resisting Poisons: If a poison misses a creature three times with its attack at the end of each round, the creature stops being poisoned by that poison.

Multiple Doses: A creature can be affected by multiple doses of the same poison. This does not cause the same effect to occur multiple times. However, each extra dose increases the accuracy of the poison by 1, up to a maximum bonus of +10 more than the poison’s normal accuracy.

A poison is considered the same if it has the same name and comes from the same source. For example, a creature bitten multiple times by the same giant spider suffers multiple doses of the same poison. A creature bitten multiple times by different giant spiders considers each spider’s poison separately.

Poison Quality: Some poisons are unusually high or low quality.

Creating Poisons

You can use the Craft (poison) skill to create poisons. To create a poison, you must make a Craft (poison) check against a difficulty rating equal to 10 + the poison’s base accuracy. For every 2 points by which you beat this difficulty rating, the created poison’s accuracy gains a +1 bonus, up to a maximum bonus of +10 more than the poison’s base accuracy.

Creating a poison requires special materials. The type of materials required, and how those materials can be acquired, depend on the type of poison.

- Plant: Plant-based poisons can typically be harvested by making a Survival check to search in appropriate terrain. The difficulty rating of this check is usually equal to 10 + the base accuracy of the poison.
- Venom: Venom requires an appropriate body part from a creature – often, poison it naturally produces.
- Alchemical: Alchemical poisons require alchemical materials. These cannot normally be found in nature. In unusual circumstances, these components can be synthesized from natural chemicals or magical materials with a Craft (alchemy) check equal to 10 + the base accuracy of the poison.

Wealth And Money

Coins

The most common coin is the gold piece (gp). A gold piece is worth 10 silver pieces. Each silver piece is worth 10 copper pieces (cp). In addition to copper, silver, and gold coins, there are also platinum pieces (pp), which are each worth 10 gp.

The standard coin weighs about a third of an ounce (fifty to the pound).

Table 11.11: Coin Exchange Values

	CP	SP	GP	PP
Copper piece (cp)	= 1	1/10	1/100	1/1,000
Silver piece (sp)	= 10	1	1/10	1/100
Gold piece (gp)	= 100	10	1	1/10
Platinum piece (pp)	= 1,000	100	10	1

Wealth Other Than Coins

Merchants commonly exchange trade goods without using currency. As a means of comparison, some trade goods are detailed below.

Table 11.12: Trade Goods

Cost	Item
1 cp	One pound of wheat
2 cp	One pound of flour
1 sp	One pound of iron, or one chicken
5 sp	One pound of tobacco or copper
1 gp	One pound of cinnamon, or one goat
2 gp	One pound of ginger or pepper, or one sheep
3 gp	One pig
4 gp	One square yard of linen
5 gp	One pound of salt or silver
10 gp	One square yard of silk, or one cow
15 gp	One pound of saffron or cloves, or one ox
50 gp	One pound of gold
500 gp	One pound of platinum

Selling Items

In general, a character can sell something for a quarter its listed price.

Trade goods, such as gems, are the exception to this rule and can be sold for their full value. A trade good, in this sense, is a valuable good that can be easily exchanged almost as if it were cash itself.

Appendix A

Glossary

ability: An ability is a generic term for any unusual property a creature has or any special actions it can take to cause particular effects. Spells, racial traits, and the benefits from class archetypes can all be called abilities.

ability tag: An ability tag describes the effects of an ability. For details, see Ability Tags, page 391.

action phase: The action phase is the second of two phases in a combat round. During the action phase, creatures can attack, cast spells, and take other major combat actions.

attunement point: Attunement points allow you to attune to effects such as spells or items (see Attunement, page 17). In addition, you can use some special abilities by spending attunement points. For details, see Attunement Points, page 20.

accuracy: The bonus added to an attack roll.

alignment: Your alignment represents your general morality in broad terms. For details, see Alignment, page 308.

ally: Some beneficial abilities affect allies. An ally is any creature you consider an ally who also considers you an ally, not including yourself. For details, see Allies and Enemies, page 33.

archetype: An archetype is a collection of related abilities from a particular class. Each class has three archetypes that members of that class normally have. For details, see Archetypes, page 37.

archetype rank: Each ability from an archetype has a minimum rank required to gain the ability. For details, see Archetype Ranks, page 37.

armor: Armor is a form of equipment that protects your body from harm. There are two kinds of armor: body armor, which you wear on your body, and shields, which you wield in a hand. For details, see Armor, page 322.

attack: Anything that affects another creature in a potentially harmful way. There are two kinds of attacks: mundane attacks and magical attacks.

attack result: An attack result is the total you get on an attack roll, after taking to account any bonuses or penalties that apply to the roll.

attack roll: A roll required to succeed with an attack. To make an attack roll, roll 1d10 + your accuracy with the attack. If the result of the attack roll equals or exceeds the target's defense, the attack succeeds. Some attacks, especially magical attacks, have effects even if the attack roll fails.

attended: An attended item is an item currently being held or carried by a creature. Some abilities can only affect unattended items.

attribute: A core representation of a character's capacity in a wide range of areas. There are six attributes: Strength, Dexterity, Constitution, Intelligence, Perception, and Willpower.

attune: Some abilities last as long as you attune to them. Attuning to an ability costs an attunement point that you cannot recover as long as you maintain your attunement to that ability. For details, see Attunement, page 17.

Attune: An ability with this ability tag lasts as long as a creature attunes to it. For details, see Attunement, page 17.

attuned: If you are attuned to an ability, you have invested an attunement point in it to maintain its effect. For details, see Attunement, page 17.

Auditory: See Ability Tags, page 391.

base attribute: Your base attribute is the value base speed: Each size category has a base speed that indicates how far creatures of that size category can generally move. For details, see Base Speed, page 23.

briefly: An effect that lasts briefly, or a brief effect, lasts until after the end of the next round after the effect was applied. As normal, unless the effect has the Swift tag, it does not have any effect during the phase that it is applied.

blinded: See Circumstances and Debuffs, page 389.

blindsense: A creature with blindsense can sense its surroundings without any light, regardless of concealment or invisibility. It knows the location of everything around it, but it still takes normal miss chances for concealment, invisibility, and so on. It still needs line of effect to see its surroundings. Blindsense always has a range, and grants no benefits beyond that range.

blindsight: A creature with blindsight can "see" its surroundings perfectly without any light, regardless of concealment or invisibility. It still needs line of effect to see its surroundings. Blindsight always has a range, and grants no benefits beyond that range.

bright illumination: In an area with bright illumination, creatures can see clearly. A creature can't hide in an area with bright illumination unless it is invisible or has cover. For details, see Vision and Light, page 376.

brilliant illumination: In an area with brilliant illumination, creatures can see clearly. A creature can't hide in an area with brilliant illumination unless it is invisible or has cover. In addition, no shadows exist within an area of brilliant illumination. For details, see Vision and Light, page 376.

body armor: Body armor is a form of armor that you wear on your body. For details, see Armor, page 322.

broken: A broken object is damaged and unsuitable for use, though it retains its general structure and can be repaired. For details, see Broken Objects, page 377.

burst: A burst is a type of area that an ability can have (see Area Types, page 17). A burst ability has an immediate effect on all valid targets within an area.

cantrip: Some mystic spheres have minor spells called cantrips. Anyone who has access to a mystic sphere knows all cantrips from that sphere. For details, see Cantrips, page 31.

carrying capacity: Your carrying capacity defines the amount of weight you can carry without penalty. For details, see Weight Limits, page 374.

casting components: Spells generally require specific casting components. There are two types of casting components: somatic components and verbal components. Somatic components are only used by arcane and pact spellcasters while verbal components are used by all spellcasters. For details, see Casting Components, page 30.

challenge rating: The challenge rating of a monster indicates its approximate strength within its level. For details, see Challenge Rating, page 445.

charge: You can move up to a foe and attack it with the charge ability. This can allow you to make a melee attack during the action phase if you did not end up adjacent to a creature during movement phase. For details, see Charge, page 27.

character level: Your character level is your total level, including levels from all of your classes. Whenever text refers to your "level", without specifying a particular kind of level, it means your character level.

charmed: See Circumstances and Debuffs, page 389.

check: A check is a d10 roll required to accomplish an action that has a chance of failure that is not an attack. If the result of your roll, including your modifier, is high enough, you succeed. Otherwise, you fail. For details, see Checks, page 10.

class: Your class represents your fundamental source of power and the type of abilities you have. For example, barbarians draw power from the primal energy found deep within all living things, while clerics draw power from their worship of mighty deities. For details, see Classes, page 37.

class skill: A class skill is a skill that a class is particularly good at using. Each class has a specific set of class skills given in its description. Normally, it costs 3 skill points to make a skill mastered. It only costs 2 skill points to make a class skill mastered. For details, see Skill Training, page 21.

climb speed: A creature with a climb speed can climb as easily as a human walks on land. The effects of a climb speed are described at Climb Speed, page 123.

defeated: A creature is defeated if it dies, surrenders or is incapacitated for an extended period of time (such as by being knocked unconscious). Some abilities, such as a ranger's quarry ability (see Quarry, page 87), last until their target is defeated. If there is ambiguity about whether a surrendering or seemingly incapacitated enemy still poses a threat, you choose whether you consider the enemy to be defeated.

defense: A defense is a static number which represents how difficult you are to affect with attacks. There are four defenses: Armor, Fortitude, Reflex, and Mental. For details, see Defenses, page 21.

Similarly, a 2d6 dice pool that is decreased by one die increment also becomes a 1d10 die. For details, see Dice Increments, page 11.

its lingering effects are removed. Unless otherwise noted, all abilities with a duration can be dismissed.

disoriented: See Circumstances and Debuffs, page 389.

dominated: See Circumstances and Debuffs, page 389.

emanation: An emanation is a type of area that an ability can have (see Area Types, page 17). An emanation ability has effects within an area for the duration of the ability. It emanates from a specific creature or object, rather than a location. If that creature or object moves, the emanation moves with it.

Emotion: See Ability Tags, page 391.

encumbrance: Your encumbrance is a value that represents how much you are burdened by armor and weight. For details, see Encumbrance, page 22.

energy damage: There are five types of energy damage: acid, cold, electricity, fire, and sonic. For details, see Damage Types, page 12.

environmental damage: Environmental damage is a type of damage. Environmental damage does not reduce the damage resistance of creatures or objects, making small amounts of environmental damage irrelevant to healthy creatures. For details, see Environmental Damage, page 13.

exotic weapon: A rare few weapons are considered exotic weapons. They are unusually difficult to wield, and even being proficient with the associated weapon group does not grant you the ability to use an exotic weapon. Some class abilities grant proficiency with exotic weapons.

This damage is called falling damage, and it is equal to 1d6 per 10 feet you fell, up to a maximum of 20d6 damage. If you control your fall with the mitigate fall ability, you can reduce the falling damage you take (see Jump, page 131).

fascinated: See Circumstances and Debuffs, page 389.

If you have a fatigue penalty of at least –1, you are considered fatigued. When your fatigue penalty reaches –5, you fall unconscious until your fatigue penalty is reduced below –5. For details, see Fatigue Penalty, page 20.

fatigue tolerance: Your fatigue tolerance measures the maximum fatigue level you can reach before you suffer a fatigue penalty. For details, see Fatigue Tolerance, page 20.

through the air. Its speed is the distance it covers in a single move action. For details, see Flying, page 14.

Focus: See Ability Tags, page 391.

focus penalty: When you use a Focus ability, you take a -4 penalty to Armor and Reflex defenses. This penalty is called your focus penalty. For details, see Ability Tags, page 391.

forced movement: A forced movement ability can cause a creature to move unwillingly. There are two types of forced movement: knockback and push. Although teleportation can cause a creature's location to change unwillingly, it is not considered a type of forced movement.

free action: Each round, you take can any number of free actions. Free actions can be taken in any phase. For details, see Free Actions, page 9.

free hand: A free hand is a hand or similarly dexterous appendage that is not currently being used for any purpose. Many abilities require a free hand to use. You cannot use the same hand for two different purposes in the same phase.

frightened: See Circumstances and Debuffs, page 389.

glancing blow: When you miss on an attack by 2 or less, it is called a glancing blow. Some attacks have effects when you get a glancing blow, as indicated in their descriptions or in other abilities. Glancing blow effects are always weaker than the effect of a successful hit, but they are always better than missing entirely. For details, see Glancing Blows, page 11.

glide speed: A creature with a glide speed can glide through the air. It cannot fly upwards, but it can travel forward while it descends, and it descends at a significantly reduced rate. For details, see Gliding, page 14.

grappled: See Circumstances and Debuffs, page 389.

heavy undergrowth: A space overrun with thick bushes, vines, and similar natural obstacles has heavy undergrowth. Heavy undergrowth quadruples the movement cost required to move out of each square and provides concealment.

heavy weapon: A heavy weapon is a type of weapon that requires two hands to wield properly. For details, see Weapon Usage Classes, page 313.

hit point: Your hit points measure how hard you are to seriously injure or kill. You lose hit points when you take damage. If you run out of hit points, you gain vital wounds when you take damage instead, which can cause you to die quickly. For details, see Hit Points, page 20.

immobilized: See Circumstances and Debuffs, page 389.

impervious: A creature can be impervious to a particular damage type. It gains a +5 bonus to all defenses against attacks that would cause it to take damage of that type. If an attack deals damage of multiple types, a creature is impervious to that attack only if it is impervious to all of the attack's damage types. For attacks with random effects, such as the chromatic orb spell, determine the random effect before determining if the creature is impervious. An impervious creature gains no defensive benefit against attacks that do not deal damage.

improvised weapon: An improvised weapon is an object which could conceivably be used as a weapon, but which was not designed for that purpose. Common examples include doors and wine bottles. For details, see Improvised Weapons, page 314.

incorporeal: An incorporeal creature does not have a tangible body. It is impervious to physical damage, and it ignores all non-damage effects of attacks that deal physical damage. It moves silently and ignores the effects of abilities that only work if it has a corporeal body, such as difficult terrain and the grapple or shove abilities. This includes being grappled, detected by tremorsense, setting off pressure plates, and so on.

Many incorporeal creatures have no Strength attribute. If an incorporeal creature has a Strength attribute, it has some ability to manipulate the physical world despite being incorporeal. Unless otherwise noted, an incorporeal creature with a Strength attribute may selectively choose whether it wants to interact with physical objects.

An incorporeal creature can enter or pass through solid objects, but it must remain adjacent to the object's exterior at all times. If it is completely inside an object, it cannot see out or attack. It can fight while partially inside an object, which grants it cover and allows it to attack and see normally.

Creatures unable to see an invisible creature are at least partially unaware (-2 Armor and Ref) of its attacks, and they can be fully unaware (-5 Armor and Ref) as normal depending on their level of awareness. Attackers suffer a 50% miss chance even if they know the location of the invisible creature. See Awareness, page 118, and Stealth, page 141, for how to identify invisible creatures.

item level: Items have levels indicating their approximate value and rarity. For details, see Item Levels, page 392.

lifesense: A creature with lifesense knows the location of all living creatures within a given range. This can allow the creature to identify the presence of hidden living creatures or to identify that seemingly living creatures are not alive. It still takes normal miss chances for concealment, invisibility, and so on.

lifesight: A creature with lifesight can see any living creatures and their equipment perfectly within a given range. This ability works regardless of lighting conditions, blindness, invisibility, or any other means of concealment.

key attribute: The key attribute for a skill is the attribute associated with that skill. For example, Climb is a Strength-based skill. Some skills, such as Persuasion, do not have a key attribute.

knockback: Knockback is a type of forced movement. It represents being thrown backwards by a single large impact. If a creature or object being knocked back encounters an obstacle, it and the obstacle each take 1d6 bludgeoning environmental damage per 10 feet of movement remaining, up to a maximum of 20d6 damage.

low-light vision: A creature with low-light vision can see more clearly in conditions of shadowy illumination. It treats sources of light as if they had double their normal illumination range. In addition, the creature can see in environments with ambient shadowy illumination, such as a moonlit night, as if it was bright illumination when doing so is beneficial for it.

magic bonus: Some abilities provide a magic bonus instead of a regular bonus. Magic bonuses function like normal bonuses except that they do not stack with each other, even if the magic bonuses come from different sources. For details, see Stacking Rules, page 32.

minor action: Each round, you can take a single minor action in addition to your other actions that round. Minor actions can be taken in either the action phase or the delayed action phase. They are declared and resolved simultaneously with any other actions you take during that phase. For details, see Minor Actions, page 9.

miss chance: If you have a miss chance with an attack, you have a random chance to miss with the attack regardless of the result of your attack roll. If you have multiple miss chances, only the highest one applies.

move: When you move, you usually travel a distance equal to your speed. See Movement and Positioning, page 13, for details.

For specific actions that involve movement, see move action.

Your power with an ability depends on whether the ability is magical or mundane. Your power with magical abilities, or your magical power, is normally equal to half your Willpower. Similarly, your power with mundane abilities, or your mundane power, is normally equal to half your Strength. For details, see Power, page 21.

suppressed: A suppressed ability has temporarily ceased to function. It has no effect for as long as it remains suppressed. Time spent while suppressed counts against the ability's duration, and it may expire while suppressed if it lasts for a specific amount of time. Only magical abilities can be suppressed. Mundane results of magical abilities that have already occurred, such as the water created by a create water ritual, cannot themselves be suppressed, and do not disappear if they enter an area that suppresses magical abilities.

At the end of each round the ability is dismissed unless you used the ability that phase or took the action to sustain the ability that phase. For details, see Sustained Abilities, page 17.

Sustain: An ability with this ability tag lasts as long as you sustain it each round. The tag includes an action type, such as (minor), which indicates the type of action required to sustain the ability. For details, see Sustained Abilities, page 17.

Swift: An ability with this ability tag resolves its effects before other actions in the same phase. For details, see Swift Abilities, page 10.

swim speed: A creature with a swim speed can swim as easily as a human walks on land. The effects of a swim speed are described at Swim Speed, page 144.

take 10: If you have plenty of time to accomplish a task that requires a check, and there are no meaningful consequences for failure, you can take 10 to accomplish the task. If you do, the task takes ten times as long, but you treat your roll for the check as if you had rolled a 10. For details, see Taking 10, page 7.

target: A target is a creature or object directly affected by an ability. Many abilities only affect a single target, and some affect a specific number of targets.

target square: A target square is a particular square that an attack is made against. A target square is chosen to determine cover and concealment (see Cover, page 23).

targeted: A targeted ability is an ability that allows you to directly choose which targets the ability affects. A spell that affects an area is not a targeted ability, because you choose the area affected instead of choosing the targets directly.

task: A task is a particular way to use a skill. For example, balancing on slippery ground is a task that you can use the Balance skill for (see Balance, page 120). For details, see Tasks, page 117.

telepathy: A creature with telepathy can mentally communicate with other creatures within a given range. For details, see teleportation: A creature or object that is teleported instantly leaves one location and arrives at another. For details, see Teleportation, page 33.

thrown weapon: A thrown weapon is a weapon designed to be thrown at a target. For details about attacking with thrown weapons, see Thrown Strike, page 26.

total cover: Total cover is a type of cover. If a creature is completely behind a physical object that blocks sight, it has total cover from attacks. A creature with total cover cannot be targeted by any attacks. For details, see Total Cover, page 24.

trained: If you are trained in a skill, you have learned how to use it well, but you have not mastered it. Your modifier with a trained skill is equal to either half your level + 1 or the skill's key attribute (if any), whichever is higher. For details, see Skill Training, page 21.

tremorsight: A creature with tremorsight can "see" its surroundings perfectly without any light, regardless of concealment or invisibility. It needs an uninterrupted path through solid objects to sense its surroundings, but does not require line of effect. Tremorsight always has a range, and grants no benefits beyond that range.

tremorsense: A creature with tremorsense can sense its surroundings without any light, regardless of concealment or invisibility. It knows the location of everything around it, but it still takes normal failure chances for concealment, invisibility, and so on. It needs an uninterrupted path through solid objects to sense its surroundings, but does not require line of effect. Tremorsense always has a range, and grants no benefits beyond that range.

truesight: A creature with truesight can ignore all Sensation effects within a given range. Despite the name of the ability, it affects all senses, not merely sight.

unarmed attack: Every corporeal creature is capable of making an attack using its bare fists (or similar appendages). For details, see Unarmed Combat, page 25.

unattended: An unattended item is an item not being held or carried by a creature, or that is being held or carried by an ally. Some abilities can only affect unattended items.

unaware: See Circumstances and Debuffs, page 389.

undead: Undead creatures are animated by necromantic magic. For details, see Undead, page ??.

unconscious: See Circumstances and Debuffs, page 389.

undergrowth: The presence of a significant amount of roots, bushes, and similar plants that can obstruct movement is called undergrowth. There are two kinds of undergrowth: light undergrowth and heavy undergrowth. For details, see Undergrowth, page 14.

usage class: The usage class of a weapon or armor is a measure of how much effort it takes to use the item. For details, see Weapon Usage Classes, page 313 and Armor Usage Classes, page 322.

verbal components: Verbal components are words required to cast most spells. For details, see Casting Components, page 30.

Visual: See Ability Tags, page 391.

vital wound: A vital wound is a serious injury that inflicts negative effects on you. You gain one or more vital wounds when you take damage in excess of your hit points (see Reaching Zero Hit Points, page 20). For details, see Vital Wounds, page 12.

vulnerable: A creature can be vulnerable to a particular damage type or debuff. It takes a –5 penalty to all defenses against attacks that would cause it to take damage of that type, or that would cause it suffer that debuff. This penalty applies against the whole attack even if the attack would only inflict the debuff or damage under specific circumstances, such as if the attack gets a critical hit or if the attack causes the creature to lose hit points. For attacks with random effects, such as the chromatic orb spell, determine the random effect before determining if the creature is vulnerable.

wall: A wall is an area shape that an ability can have (see Area Shapes, page 16). A wall-shaped area has a length and height, but its width is not measured in squares.

weapon: A weapon is an object used to inflict damage. Some creatures can treat parts of their body as weapons. For details, see Weapons, page 313.

weapon group: A weapon group is a category of weapons with a similar design and fighting style. You have proficiency with some number of weapon groups based on your class. For details, see Weapon Groups, page 313.

weapon tag: A weapon tag describes the special effects of a weapon. For details, see Weapon Tags, page 315.

weight limit: Your weight limits define the amount of weight you can carry or push without penalty. For details, see Weight Limits, page 374.

weight category: The weight category of an object or creature is a broad measurement of how much it weighs. Weight categories are closely related to size categories. For details, see Table 11.1: Weight Categories (page 374).

Willpower: Willpower is an attribute that represents your ability to endure mental hardships. For details, see Willpower, page 19.

vital roll: When you gain a vital wound, you make a vital roll to determine the detrimental effect of the vital wound. To make a vital roll, roll 1d10 – the number of vital wounds you already had, ignoring the vital wound you are rolling for. For details, see Vital Wounds, page 12.

zone: A zone is a type of area that an ability can have (see Area Types, page 17). A zone ability has effects within an area for the duration of the ability. Unless otherwise noted, it does not move after being created.

Appendix B

Reference

Circumstances and Debuffs

blinded: A blinded creature cannot see. It automatically fails at actions which depend on vision, including simply seeing the locations of other objects and creatures (but see Awareness, page 118). In addition, it has a 50% miss chance with all attacks. It is at least partially unaware (-2 Armor and Ref) of all attacks against it, and it can be fully unaware (-5 Armor and Ref) as normal depending on its level of awareness.

charmed: A charmed creature is mentally influenced to like another creature. It always sees the words and actions of the creature that charmed it in the most favorable way, as a close friend or trusted ally. A charmed creature cannot be controlled like an automaton, but can be persuaded to take particular actions with the Persuasion skill (see Persuasion, page 135). It treats the creature that charmed it as a friend (a +10 relationship modifier) for the purpose of Persuasion checks.

confused: A confused creature takes a -4 penalty to all defenses and is unable to independently control its actions. This penalty does not stack with the dazed (-2 defenses) or stunned (-4 all defenses) effects. A confused creature cannot take actions normally. If it is attacked, it automatically attacks a random attacker. Otherwise, at the beginning of each round, it randomly decides to take one of four actions that round: babble incoherently, flee from the caster as if panicked, attack the nearest creature, or act normally. A confused character who can't carry out the indicated action does nothing but babble incoherently.

crouching: A crouching creature is ducking down instead of standing normally. It takes a -2 accuracy penalty and it moves at half speed. Melee strikes against it gain a +2 bonus to accuracy, while ranged strikes against it take a -2 accuracy penalty. You cannot crouch while flying or gliding.

dazed: A dazed creature takes a -2 penalty to all defenses. This does not stack with the stunned (-4 all defenses) or confused (-4 defenses, acts randomly) effects.

dazzled: A dazzled creature has difficulty seeing. It loses any special vision abilities it has, such as darkvision or low-light vision. In addition, it treats everything as if it had concealment.

deafened: A deafened creature cannot hear. It automatically fails at actions which depend on hearing. In addition, it has a 20% failure chance when casting any spell with verbal components.

decelerated: A decelerated creature moves at one quarter speed and takes a -4 penalty to Reflex defense. This does not stack with the slowed (half speed, -2 Ref) or immobilized (-4 Ref, cannot use movement speeds) effects.

disoriented: A disoriented creature cannot control the direction of its movement. If it tries to use one of its movement speeds to move a given distance, it moves that distance in a random direction instead of in its intended direction. A disoriented creature can remain in the same location without penalty. This does not affect abilities that change location without normal movement, such as teleportation.

dominated: A dominated creature is mentally compelled to obey another creature. It obeys the commands of the creature of the dominated it unquestioningly, as an automaton. If it does not understand the language of the creature that dominated it, it still attempts to obey as much as possible, and simple commands (such as "attack" or "follow") can usually be communicated successfully.

fascinated: A fascinated creature can take no actions. It remains in place, giving its total attention to some object, creature, or effect. It takes a -5 penalty to all checks made to observe anything other than the object of its fascination. If the creature notices any threat against it, such as an approaching enemy, it is no longer fascinated.

frightened: A frightened creature takes a -4 penalty to accuracy and Mental defense while it is within Medium (60 ft.) range of the source of its fear. This does not stack with the shaken (-2 accuracy and Mental within 60 ft.) or panicked (-4 Mental and must flee within 60 ft.) effects. If the source of a frightened creature's fear is defeated, this effect is broken.

goaded: A goaded creature takes a -2 penalty to accuracy against creatures other than the creature that goaded it as long as it is within Medium (60 ft.) range of that creature. If the goading creature is defeated, this effect is broken. If a creature is goaded by multiple different creatures simultaneously, it suffers the accuracy penalty on all of its attacks.

grappled: A grappled creature is wrestling or in some other form of hand-to-hand struggle with at least one other creature. While grappled, you suffer certain penalties and restrictions, as described below.

- You are unable to use one of your hands for any purposes other than grappling. This prevents humanoid creatures from taking any actions which would require having two free hands, such as attacking with heavy weapons.
- You take a -2 penalty to Armor and Reflex defenses.
- Abilities that have somatic components have a 50% chance to fail with no effect when used.
- You cannot move unless you push all creatures grappling you, such as with the shove ability (see Shove, page 28).

Other than the restrictions listed above, you can act normally. You can also try to move the grapple, escape the grapple, or pin your opponent. For details, see Grapple Actions, page 29.

helpless: A helpless creature is completely at an opponent's mercy. It takes a -10 penalty to its Armor and Reflex defenses. In addition, it is unaware (-5 Armor and Ref) of all attacks against it, but the penalty for being unaware does not stack with the penalty for being helpless. Paralyzed, bound, and unconscious creatures are helpless.

immobilized: An immobilized creature takes a -4 penalty to Reflex defense and can't use any of its movement speeds. Immobilized flying creatures that have the ability to hover can maintain their initial altitude. All other flying creatures subjected to this condition descend at a rate of 20 feet per round until they reach the ground, taking no falling damage. This does not stack with the slowed (half speed, -2 Ref) or decelerated (-4 Ref, quarter speed) effects.

nauseated: A nauseated creature takes a -4 penalty to all defenses. This does not stack with the sickened (-2 all defenses) effect.

panicked: While a panicked creature is within Medium (60 ft.) range of the source of its fear, it takes a -4 penalty to Mental defense and must flee from the source of its fear by any means necessary. If unable to flee, it must do nothing other than use the total defense ability every round (see Total Defense, page 29). The penalty from this effect does not stack with the frightened (-4 accuracy and Mental within 60 ft.) or panicked (-4 Mental and must flee within 60 ft.) effects.

If the source of a panicked creature's fear is defeated, this effect is broken.

paralyzed: A paralyzed creature is unable to take physical actions. It is helpless (-10 or more Armor and Ref), but can take purely mental actions. This can cause flying creatures to crash, swimming creatures to drown, and so on. Any creature can move through a space occupied by a paralyzed creature without slowing down, and creatures can stand in a square with a paralyzed creature without squeezing (-2 accuracy, Armor, and Ref).

partially unaware: An creature that is partially unaware of an attack knows that it is in danger, but is missing information about the exact location or nature of the attack. Creatures take a -2 penalty to Armor and Reflex defenses against attacks that they are partially unaware of. For details, see Awareness and Surprise, page 25.

prone: A prone creature is lying on the ground, rather than standing normally. It takes a -2 penalty to Armor and Reflex defenses, though it gains a +4 bonus to all defenses against ranged strikes. In addition, it takes a -2 accuracy penalty. It moves at a quarter of its normal speed until it stands up. A creature can stand up from being prone during the movement phase. This generally requires one free hand.

shaken: A shaken creature takes a -2 penalty to accuracy and Mental defense while it is within Medium (60 ft.) range of the source of its fear. This does not stack with the frightened (-4 accuracy and Mental within 60 ft.) or panicked (-4 Mental and must flee within 60 ft.) effects.

If the source of a shaken creature's fear is defeated, this effect is broken.

sickened: A sickened creature takes a -2 penalty to all defenses. This does not stack with the nauseated (-4 all defenses) effect.

slowed: A slowed creature moves at half speed and takes a -2 penalty to Reflex defense. This does not stack with the decelerated (-4 Ref, quarter speed) or immobilized (-4 Ref, cannot use movement speeds) effects.

squeezing: A squeezing creature is trying to move though an area too small for it to fight in normally. While squeezing, a creature moves at half speed and takes a -2 penalty to accuracy, as well as Armor and Reflex defenses. For details, see Squeezing, page 14.

stunned: A stunned creature takes a -4 penalty to all defenses. This does not stack with the dazed (-2 defenses) or confused (-4 defenses, acts randomly) effects.

surrounded: An creature is surrounded if every space adjacent to it either contains an enemy or is both empty and adjacent to an enemy. A surrounded creature suffers a -2 penalty to Armor and Reflex defenses.

unaware: An creature that is unaware of an attack makes no attempt to defend itself. Creatures take a -5 penalty to Armor and Reflex defenses against attacks that they are unaware of. For details, see Awareness and Surprise, page 25.

unconscious: While you are unconscious, you are helpless (-10 or more Armor and Ref) and completely unable to take any actions. Some sensory abilities, such as the Awareness and Spellsense skills, can be used while you are asleep, but not while you are forcibly knocked unconscious.

Ability Tags

Attune: Attune abilities require an attunement point to maintain. For details, see Attunement, page 17.

Auditory: Auditory abilities use sound to cause their effects. Creatures and objects that cannot hear the effect are immune to it.

Compulsion: Compulsion abilities forcibly alter a creature's actions, but do not necessarily affect its opinions or personality. They have no effect on objects or creatures without minds.

Creation: Creation abilities create permanent physical objects. Objects created with Creation abilities are identical to objects created through more mundane means.

Curse: Curse abilities lay supernatural curses on their targets. They cannot be dismissed, but can be removed with the dispel curse spell.

Detection: Detection abilities reveal magical auras or information within an area. They can penetrate up to 1 foot of stone, 1 inch of common metal, a thin sheet of lead, or 3 feet of wood or dirt. For its ability to penetrate other materials, use the most similar substance from the list above.

Emotion: Emotion abilities alter a creature's opinions or personality, but do not necessarily affect their actions. They have no effect on objects or creatures without minds.

Focus: Focus abilities require concentration to use. When you use a Focus ability, you take a -4 penalty to Armor and Reflex defenses until the end of the round. This penalty is called your focus penalty. It applies immediately, affecting attacks made against you during the current phase. Some abilities can reduce or increase your focus penalty. Most spells are Focus abilities.

When you use a Focus ability during the delayed action phase, the ability has a 50% chance to fail if you already took damage in the current round. If your focus penalty is reduced to 0, this failure chance no longer applies.

If a Focus ability has a Sustain tag, sustaining the ability does not require focus and does not cause the sustaining creature to suffer focus penalties.

Healing: This tag indicates that an ability restores hit points. When you use most Healing abilities, they briefly prevent you from using any other Healing abilities.

Magical: This tag indicates that an ability is magical, which means that its origin derives from magic. For details, see Magical Abilities, page 15.

Manifestation: Manifestation abilities create temporary constructs formed from raw magical energy. Objects and creatures created with manifestation abilities seem real on the surface, but they have no internal structure. When an object or creature created by a Manifestation ability is destroyed or killed, or when the duration of the ability that created it ends, it disappears without a trace.

Ritual: Ritual abilities have a number of shared properties.

For details, see Spell and Ritual Mechanics, page 30.

Scrying: Scrying abilities create one or more invisible magical sensors that send you information. Unless otherwise noted, the sensor created has the same powers of sensory acuity that you possess. This includes the effect of any abilities which target you personally, such as spells to increase your visual acuity, but not abilities which affect an area around you. However, the sensor is treated as a separate, independent sensory organ, and it functions normally even if you have been blinded, deafened, or otherwise suffered sensory impairment.

Any creature trained in Spell sense can notice the sensor by making a difficulty rating 20 Spell sense check. The sensor can be dismissed as if it were an active spell. You cannot create a sensor in a location with lead sheeting between you and the location, and you sense that the effect is blocked in this way.

Sensation: Sensation abilities create or manipulate light, sound, or other sensations. You can only create sensations you understand. For example, you cannot create an illusory figment which speaks coherently in a language you do not understand.

If a Sensation ability appears to create a physical object or creature, its defenses are equal to 0.

Speech: Speech abilities use words to achieve their ends. You must specify a language when using a Speech effect, and the language must be one you know (or have memorized the correct words to say). They have no effect on objects or creatures that do not understand the chosen language.

Spell: Spell abilities have a number of shared properties. For details, see Spell and Ritual Mechanics, page 30.

Subtle: Subtle abilities have no visual or otherwise perceivable manifestation. Creatures successfully affected by Subtle abilities do not generally know that they are being influenced. However, a creature that successfully resists a Subtle ability can generally notice that it resisted a special effect of some kind, just like a non-Subtle ability. Subtle magical abilities can still be identified with the Spell sense skill (see Spell sense, page 140), but the difficulty rating is equal to 20 + the ability's power.

Sustain: Sustain abilities require an action to maintain. For details, see Sustained Abilities, page 17.

Swift: Swift abilities take effect before non-Swift abilities used during the same phase. For details, see Swift Abilities, page 10.

Visual: Visual abilities use visible objects or forces to cause their effects. Creatures and objects that cannot see the effect are immune to it.

Wealth

Wealth By Level

Characters can generally expect to have a certain amount of total wealth, gained through the course of their adventures. The below chart summarizes the amount of wealth a character can expect to have. This may take the form of currency, precious gems, magic items, land, or anything else of significant value. For the purpose of character wealth, magic items are considered to be worth their market price, regardless of how they were acquired.

Gearing with Item Levels

You can equip a character using by using a number of items of appropriate levels instead of by individually spending all of the wealth allotted to the character. To do so, give the character one item of each level, starting with the character's level and ending three levels lower, for a total of four items. If the character is lower than 4th level, add 1/2-level items as necessary to total 4 items.

If you want more items, you can trade an item of one level for two items of a lower level. You can also trade two items of a lower level for an item of a higher level, but this should not be used to gain an item of a level higher than the character's level. Items can be traded according to the table below.

Item Levels

Each item has a level associated with it. An item's level is generally correlated with the item's effectiveness and rarity. It determines the normal power used for the item (see Item Power, page 333). The cost to buy an item in areas where buying items is possible is also generally determined by its level, as defined in Table C.2: Item Levels.

Gear and Consumables

Long-term items that are expected to be worn or otherwise used repeatedly are more expensive than items that are destroyed immediately after being used. Although consumable items are cheaper, they still use their full item level for the purpose of

Appendix D

Feats

This chapter describes a set of optional rules that you can use in a campaign. If you use these rules, characters gain feats which allow them to further specialize in specific areas, making characters more mechanically distinct from each other. Feats also make the system more mechanically complex, so they are not necessarily enjoyable for all groups. You cannot gain the same feat twice.

Gaining Feats

There are two main ways you can use feats in your game.

Species Feat Only: One simple option is that characters gain a single feat at 1st level based on their species, and no other feats. This makes your choice of species more significant without dramatically increasing character complexity.

Feat Progression: If you want characters to be more complex and to have more powerful abilities, you can also use a feat progression system. For example, you could gain a feat from your species at 1st level, and an additional feat at 3rd, 6th, and 9th level. Alternately, you could gain feats based on the completion of major story events. In general, it is inadvisable to gain more than four feats total, or to gain feats after about 10th level.

Species Bonus Feats

Each species grants a bonus feat at 1st level. Most species can only choose from a small group of feats, listed in the description of the species. A character must meet any prerequisites for these bonus feats, as normal.

Human: Any feat.

Dwarf: Any from the following list: Blindfighter, Craft Specialization, Iron Will, Martial Training, Regenerator, Toughness.

Elf: Any Casting feat (see Casting Feats, page 396), or any from the following list: Awareness Specialization, Balance Specialization, Sniper, Rapid Reaction.

Gnome: Any Casting feat (see Casting Feats, page 396), or any from the following list: Blindfighter, Craft Specialization, Stealth Specialization, Toughness.

Half-Elf: Any Skill feat (see Skill Feats, page 396).

Half-Orc: Any Combat feat (see Combat Feats, page 397), or any from the following list: Intimidate Specialization, Toughness.

Halfling: Any from the following list: Balance Specialization, Climb Specialization, Iron Will, Jump Specialization, Rapid Reaction, Stealth Specialization.

Changing Species

In extraordinary cases, a creature may change its species. For example, the reincarnation ritual returns a creature to life as a different species. Regardless of its new species, the creature keeps its original species bonus feat.

Feat Mechanics

Prerequisites

Some feats have prerequisites. Unless you meet all of the prerequisites, you cannot take the feat. Prerequisites can include a minimum base attribute score, another feat or feats, a minimum level of training in a skill, or some other property of a character. A character can gain a feat at the same level at which they gain the prerequisite.

A character who no longer meets all prerequisites for a feat loses all abilities from that feat.

Feat Tags

All feats are organized into different groups by tags.

General: General feats can have a wide variety of effects. They often grant new abilities or improve your defenses.

Combat: Combat feats improve your combat capabilities. They can increase the damage you deal, grant you new combat abilities, or improve your defenses.

Casting: Casting feats improve your spellcasting abilities. Casting feats are useless to characters who cannot cast spells.

Skill: Skill feats improve your skills. They can make you more likely to succeed with skill checks and grant you new abilities based on your skills.

Bloodline Feats: Some characters have traces of monstrous blood running in their veins. Most of those will never understand the full potential of their unusual heritage. Bloodline feats allow characters to explore those possibilities by gaining abilities related to their ancestry. You can only have one Bloodline feat.

Magical Feats: All abilities granted by feats with the Magical type are magical in nature. Many feats are not entirely magical, but have specific effects that are magical.

Feat Descriptions

Each feat has a set of benefits it provides to a character with the feat. Some feats also have specific requirements that a character must meet before taking the feat. These are listed under a Prerequisites heading. If a character loses the prerequisites for a feat, they lose all benefits of the feat until they meet the prerequisites again.

Awareness Specialization [Skill]

Prerequisite: Awareness as a mastered skill.

1st – Specialization: You gain a +3 bonus to the Awareness skill.

3rd – Extraordinary Senses: You gain one of the following senses: blindsight (30 ft.), darkvision (60 ft.), low-light vision, scent, or tremorsense (30 ft.).

6th – Quick Scan: When you use the search ability, you can notice things in a Small (15 ft.) radius within Short (30 ft.) range (see Search, page 119).

9th – Greater Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +5.

12th – Greater Extraordinary Senses: You gain one of the following senses: blindsight (120 ft.), blindsight (30 ft.), darkvision (240 ft.), tremorsense (120 ft.), or tremorsight (30 ft.).

15th – Supreme Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +7.

18th – Greater Quick Scan: When you use the search ability, you can notice things in a Medium (30 ft.) radius within Medium (60 ft.) range (see Search, page 119).

21st – Supreme Extraordinary Senses: You can choose an additional sense from the list given in your greater extraordinary senses ability. In addition, the range of all senses gained from this feat is doubled.

Balance Specialization [Skill]

Prerequisite: Balance as a mastered skill.

1st – Specialization: You gain a +3 bonus to the Balance skill.

3rd – Combat Tumble: During each phase, you may move through one creature's space during movement. You treat its space as difficult terrain. After moving through that creature's space, other creatures block you as normal for the remainder of your movement. Certain unusual creatures that occupy their entire space, such as gelatinous cubes, may be immune to this ability.

6th – Agile Movement: Whenever you use an ability that causes you to move using one of your movement speeds in a straight line, you can make a single turn of up to 90 degrees during the movement. This only affects voluntary movement, such as the charge ability or the reaping charge maneuver, and not forced movement imposed on you. This ability replaces the agile charge ability, and cannot be combined with it (see Agile Charge, page 120).

6th – Instant Stand: You can use the rapid stand ability as a free action instead of a minor action (see Rapid Stand, page 120).

9th – Greater Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +5.

12th – Balance On Air (Magical): You can attempt to move on surfaces that cannot support your weight. Surfaces that can support at least a quarter of your weight, such as thin tree branches and dense liquids, are difficulty rating 20. Surfaces that can support at least a tenth of your weight, such as water, are difficulty rating 25. Surfaces that can support at least a hundredth of your weight, such as tree leaves, are difficulty rating 30. Surfaces that cannot support your weight at all, such as air, are difficulty rating 40.

Success means you move along the surface at half speed. Failure means you fall through the surface. The difficulty rating increases by 5 for each consecutive round that you spend moving in this way.

15th – Supreme Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +7.

18th – Greater Agile Movement: Whenever you use an ability that causes you to move one of your movement speeds in a straight line, you can move in any path, not just in a straight line.

21st – Greater Balance On Air: You can move at full speed while using your air dancer ability. In addition, for each round that you spend using your air dancer ability, the difficulty rating increases by 2 instead of by 5.

Battle Armory [Combat]

Prerequisite: Base Strength of 1 and base Dexterity of 1.

1st – Overburdened Quickdraw: You can draw or sheathe medium weapons as a free action. You can combine this ability with your rapid redraw ability.

1st – Rapid Redraw: When you sheathe a weapon as a free action, you can also draw a different weapon with that same hand as part of that action. In addition, sheathing and drawing weapons becomes a Swift ability for you, so you can draw a weapon and attack with it in the same phase.

3rd – Legacy Armory (Magical): You do not choose an individual item as a legacy item (see Legacy Items, page 372). Instead, if you choose weapons as your legacy item category, you choose magic weapon abilities that apply to all nonmagical weapons you wield. If you wield a magical weapon, it keeps its own magical effects instead of your chosen legacy item properties.

6th – Versatile Force: You gain a +2 bonus to your mundane power.

9th – Greater Overburdened Quickdraw: You can draw or sheathe heavy weapons and medium shields as a free action. You can combine this ability with your rapid redraw ability.

12th – Greater Versatile Force: The bonus from your versatile force ability increases to +4.

15th – Surprising Quickdraw: When you make a strike with a weapon against a creature, if you drew that weapon in the same phase that you made the strike and did not wield any weapons at the start of that phase, you can use this ability. If you do, the creature is partially unaware (-2 Armor and Ref) of the attack. After you use this ability, the attacked creature and all creatures that observed the attack are immune to this ability until they take a short rest.

18th – Supreme Versatile Force: The bonus from your versatile force ability increases to +8.

21st – Greater Surprising Quickdraw: Your surprising quickdraw ability makes the creature unaware (-5 Armor and Ref) instead of partially unaware (-2 Armor and Ref).

Blindfighter [Combat]

Prerequisite: Base Perception 2.

1st – Blind Awareness: When you make an attack with a miss chance, you can roll the miss chance twice and take the better result. In addition, you are not partially unaware (-2 Armor and Ref) against foes if you know their location.

3rd – Blindsense: You gain blindsense (60 ft.).

6th – Unseeing Precision: You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy.

9th – Controlled Sight: You are immune to all abilities that depend on sight to affect you.

12th – Blindsight: The range of your blindsense increases by 60 feet. In addition, you gain blindsight (30 ft.). If you already have blindsight, the range of your blindsight increases by 30 feet.

15th – Greater Unseeing Precision: The bonus from your unseeing precision ability increases to +2.

18th – Blind Reaction: You are never unaware (-5 Armor and Ref) or partially unaware (-2 Armor and Ref).

21st – Greater Blindsight: The range of your blindsight increases by 90 feet. In addition, the range of your blindsense increases by 360 feet.

Blood Magic [Casting, Magical]

Prerequisite: Access to a mystic sphere, base Constitution of 2.

1st – Bloodspell: Whenever you cast a spell, you may use this ability. When you do, you lose hit points equal to the spell's rank (minimum 1). In exchange, you gain a +2 bonus to power with the spell, the spell does not require casting components, and it loses the Focus tag (if it had it).

3rd – Spare Blood: You gain a +4 bonus to your maximum hit points.

6th – Bloodbind (Magical): Whenever you make a living creature lose hit points using a spell, you can choose to bind the target's blood to yours. While the target is bound, you can see it through all forms of concealment and even if it is invisible (but not through cover). In addition, you constantly know the exact direction and distance to the target bound by your bloodbind ability. This binding lasts until you bind another creature with this ability.

9th – Greater Bloodspell: The bonus to power from your bloodspell ability increases to +4.

12th – Greater Spare Blood: The bonus from your spare blood ability increases to +10.

15th – Greater Bloodbind: You are always considered to have line of effect to the target bound by your bloodbind ability, regardless of intervening obstacles. The target must still be within the normal range of your spells.

18th – Supreme Bloodspell: The bonus to power from your bloodspell ability increases to +8.

21st – Supreme Spare Blood: The bonus from your spare blood ability increases to +25.

Boongiver [Casting, Magical]

Prerequisite: Access to a mystic sphere.

1st – Boon Lore: You learn an additional spell. The spell must have the Attune tag. As normal, you can exchange this spell for other spells as you gain access to new spell ranks, but the spell must always have the Attune tag.

3rd – Share Boon: When you cast a spell with the Attune (self) tag, you can use the share boon ability.

Share Boon

The spell's Attune tag changes to Attune (target). Choose one ally within Medium (60 ft.) range. That ally is the target of the spell, and the spell affects that creature as if it were you instead of affecting you.

You can only use this ability to affect one spell at a time. If you use it again, the original ally's attunement to the old spell is released, as the release attunement ability (see Attunement, page 17).

6th – Benevolent Transference: You can use the benevolent transference ability as a standard action.

Benevolent Transference

Choose an ally currently attuned to a spell you cast. In addition, choose another ally to transfer the spell to. Both targets must be within that spell's range of you, and must be valid targets for the spell. You cannot target yourself with this ability. After you use this ability, you briefly cannot use it again.

If the new target spends an attunement point to attune to the spell, the spell's effect is transferred from the first target to the second. The spell's old target immediately regains the attunement point it spent to attune to the spell.

9th – Replace Attunement: You can use the replace attunement ability as a standard action.

Replace Attunement

Choose a creature other than yourself currently attuned to a spell you cast. You may cast another Attune (target) spell on that ally as part of this action. If you do, it stops being attuned to the previous spell and becomes attuned to the new spell without spending or regaining any attunement points. After you use this ability, you briefly cannot use it again.

12th – Greater Share Boon: You can use your share boon ability on up to two different spells at once. If you use the ability while it already affects another spell, you choose which spells are affected by the ability.

15th – Personal Boon: You gain an additional attunement point. You can only use this attunement point to attune to spells and rituals that you use on yourself.

18th – Expert Boon Manipulation: You can use your benevolent transference ability as a minor action. In addition, using your benevolent transference and replace attunement abilities does not prevent you from using those abilities again.

21st – Supreme Share Boon: You can use your share boon ability on up to three different spells at once.

Brawler [Combat]

Prerequisite: Base Strength of 1, base Dexterity of 1.

1st – Unarmed Warrior: You become proficient with the unarmed weapons weapon group (see Weapon Groups, page 313). In addition, you gain a +2d damage bonus with unarmed weapons. For details about how to fight while unarmed, see Unarmed Combat, page 25. This ability does not stack with the ability of the same name from the Perfected Form monk archetype (see Perfected Form, page ??).

1st – Grapple Expertise: You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with the grapple ability (see Grapple, page 28), as well as with all grapple actions (see Grapple Actions, page 29).

3rd – Takedown: Whenever you hit a target with the grapple ability, the target also takes damage as if you had hit with your unarmed attack or a light natural weapon you wield.

6th – Greater Grapple Expertise: The bonus from your grapple expertise ability increases to +2.

9th – Large Grappler: You reduce your size-based penalties for being smaller than your target with the grapple ability by 2.

12th – Greater Grapple Expertise: The bonus from your grapple expertise ability increases to +3.

15th – Pin Mastery: You can use the pin ability with only one free hand (see Pin, page 152). In addition, you can keep the target immobilized with only one free hand if you hit.

18th – Greater Large Grappler: The penalty reduction from your large grappler ability increases to 4.

21st – Grapple Supremacy: When you grapple a target with the grapple ability, you do not become grappled by that target.

Celestial Heritage [Bloodline, Magical]

Prerequisite: Non-evil alignment.

Special: You can only have one Bloodline feat.

1st – Holy Smite: You can use the holy smite ability as a standard action. In addition, if you have the smite paladin ability and your devoted alignment is good, you gain a +2 bonus to power with the holy smite ability.

Holy Smite

Magical

Make a strike with a +1d damage bonus. Because this is a magical ability, you use your magical power to determine your damage instead of your mundane power. If your target is good, you take a single point of energy damage as feedback from the attack warning you that you are persecuting a good creature.

Level 6: The damage bonus increases to +2d.

Level 12: The damage bonus increases to +3d.

Level 18: The damage bonus increases to +4d.

3rd – Healing Light (Magical): When you use the recover ability, you briefly emit brilliant illumination in a Medium (30 ft.) radius from you, and shadowy illumination in twice that radius. Each ally in the radius of brilliant illumination regains 1d6 hit points. This healing increases by +1d at 6th level and every 3 levels thereafter.

6th – Angel Wings: You gain feathery wings that sprout from your back. These wings grant you a glide speed equal to the base speed for your size (see Gliding, page 14). The wings themselves are mundane, but the ability to fly and glide with them is magical.

9th – Celestial Soul: You gain a +4 bonus to your damage resistance.

12th – Angelic Flight (Magical): You gain a fly speed equal to the base speed for your size with a maximum height of 30 feet (see Flying, page 14). At the start of each phase, you can increase your fatigue level by one to ignore this height limit until the end of the round.

15th – Greater Healing Light: You add half your magical power to the healing from your healing light ability.

18th – Greater Celestial Soul: The bonus from your celestial soul ability increases to +10.

21st – Greater Angelic Flight: Your maneuverability with the fly speed from your angelic flight ability increases to perfect (see Flying Maneuverability, page 14).

Chameleon [General]

Prerequisite: Disguise as a mastered skill, base Intelligence of 1.

1st – Adaptive Archetype: Choose one archetype that you currently have, and two archetypes you do not have from among any of your classes. You cannot choose an archetype that you have which is a prerequisite for another archetype that you have. Whenever you finish a long rest, you can choose which one of those three archetypes you actually have access to. You gain all benefits of your chosen archetype, and temporarily lose all benefits from the archetypes you did not choose in this way.

You must track which choices you made for archetypes that you lose access to in this way, such as which spells and maneuvers you learned. When you regain access to that archetype, you must make the same choices.

3rd – Versatile Disguise: Whenever you use the disguise creature and emulate creature abilities on yourself, you may simultaneously create two different disguises. This takes twice as long as creating a single disguise, and you take a –2 penalty to the Disguise check. You can change your appearance between the two chosen disguises as a minor action.

6th – Adaptive Specialty: Whenever you finish a short rest, you may choose an effect from the list below. Each effect lasts until you take a short rest.

- Martial: You gain a +1 bonus to Armor defense and a +2 bonus to your mundane power.
- Mystic: You gain a +2 bonus to Mental defense and a +2 bonus to your magical power.
- Primal: You gain a +2 bonus to Fortitude defense and +1 bonus to your fatigue tolerance.
- Skilled: You gain a +1 bonus to all skills.

9th – Instant Adaptation: As a standard action, you can change your choice of adaptive archetype and adaptive specialty. When you do, you increase your fatigue level by two.

12th – Greater Adaptive Specialty: The effects of your adaptive specialty ability improve, as described below.

- Martial: The defense bonus increases to +2, and the power bonus increases to +4.
- Mystic: The defense bonus increases to +3, and the power bonus increases to +4.
- Primal: The defense bonus increases to +3, and the fatigue tolerance bonus increases to +2.
- Skilled: The bonus increases to +2.

15th – Greater Instant Adaptation: When you use your instant adaptation ability, you only increase your fatigue level by one.

15th – Greater Versatile Disguise: When you use your versatile disguise ability, the time required to create the disguise is not increased, and the penalty to the Disguise check is removed.

18th – Supreme Adaptive Specialty: The effects of your adaptive specialty ability improve, as described below.

- Martial: The defense bonus increases to +3, and the power bonus increases to +8.
- Mystic: The defense bonus increases to +4, and the power bonus increases to +8.
- Primal: The defense bonus increases to +4, and the fatigue tolerance bonus increases to +3.
- Skilled: The bonus increases to +3.

21st – Supreme Adaptive Archetype: Instead of choosing a single archetype to activate with your adaptive archetype, you may choose a blend of two archetypes simultaneously. For each rank you have access to, you choose one archetype, and gain all abilities of that rank from that archetype and no abilities of that rank from the other archetype. You cannot choose abilities from an archetype that reference abilities from that same archetype which you do not have. For example, you cannot choose the supreme wildspell ability unless you also have the wildspell ability.

Climb Specialization [Skill]

Prerequisite: Climb as a mastered skill.

1st – Specialization: You gain a +3 bonus to the Climb skill.

3rd – Climb Speed: You gain a climb speed equal to the base speed for your size. If you already have a climb speed, you gain a +5 foot bonus to your climb speed. A successful Climb check to move allows you to travel a distance equal to your climb speed.

6th – Creature Climber: You can use the creature climb ability against creatures one or more size categories larger than you instead of two (see Creature Climb, page 123). This does not cause you or the creature to suffer penalties for squeezing (–2 accuracy, Armor, and Ref).

9th – Greater Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +5.

12th – Rapid Climber: You gain a +5 foot bonus to your climb speed.

15th – Supreme Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +7.

18th – Greater Creature Climber: You can use the creature climb ability against creatures of the same size category as you or larger.

21st – Greater Rapid Climber: The speed bonus from your rapid climber ability increases to +15 feet.

Combat Style Versatility [Combat]

Prerequisite: Base Intelligence of 1, access to at least one combat style.

1st – Maneuver: You learn an additional maneuver. When you gain access to new maneuver ranks, you can change which maneuver you know.

3rd – Combat Style Flexibility: You gain access to three additional combat styles.

6th – Maneuver: You learn an additional maneuver. When you gain access to new maneuver ranks, you can change which maneuver you know.

9th – Precise Maneuvers: You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy.

12th – Maneuver: You learn an additional maneuver. When you gain access to new maneuver ranks, you can change which maneuver you know.

15th – Greater Combat Style Flexibility: You gain access to all combat styles.

18th – Maneuver: You learn an additional maneuver. When you gain access to new maneuver ranks, you can change which maneuver you know.

21st – Greater Precise Maneuvers: The bonus from your precise maneuvers ability increases to +2.

Craft Specialization [Skill]

Prerequisite: Any Craft skill as a mastered skill.

1st – Specialization: You gain a +3 bonus to all Craft skills.

3rd – Craft Magic Item (Magical): You can imbue items with magic using your crafting skill. Imbuing an item with magic takes material components, as described in Magic Item Creation, page 373. You can craft an item with an item level equal to your level or one item level lower than your level with 24 hours of continuous work. You can make weaker items more quickly. For every two item levels lower than your level, the time required to craft an item is halved, to a minimum of 15 minutes.

You can also mend a broken magic item if it is one that you could make. Doing so costs a tenth of the raw materials and a quarter of the time it would take to craft that item in the first place. You cannot mend a destroyed magic item.

6th – Crafting Savant: You gain two additional skill points which can only be spent on Craft skills.

9th – Greater Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +5.

12th – Item Attunement: You gain an additional attunement point. You can only use this attunement point to attune to the effects of items (see Item Attunement, page 332).

15th – Supreme Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +7.

18th – Greater Crafting Savant: The number of additional skill points from your crafting savant ability increases to five.

21st – Greater Item Attunement: You gain an additional attunement point. You can only use this attunement point to attune to the effects of items (see Item Attunement, page 332).

Creature Handling Specialization [Skill]

Prerequisite: Creature Handling as a mastered skill.

1st – Specialization: You gain a +3 bonus to the Creature Handling skill.

3rd – Battleforged Training: You can teach a creature the Battleforged trick. This does not work on creatures that are already significantly enhanced or altered from their natural state, such as a druid's natural servant or a ranger's animal companion. The difficulty rating to train the trick is 15. A creature with the trick gains the following benefits:

- It gains a bonus equal to your level to its damage resistance.
- It gains a +1 bonus to all defenses.
- It gains a +1 accuracy bonus with all attacks.
- It gains a +1d damage bonus with strikes.

6th – Greater Command: You can sustain the effect of the command ability from the Creature Handling skill with a minor action instead of with a standard action. For details, see Command, page 125.

6th – Efficient Training: You can teach a creature a trick with 12 hours of work, split as you choose, rather than in a week of 4 hour sessions (see Training Creatures, page 125). In addition, you can train creatures to learn two bonus tricks beyond their normal maximum (see Bonus Tricks, page 126).

9th – Greater Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +5.

12th – Greater Battleforged Training: You can teach a creature that has learned the Battleforged trick the Greater Battleforged trick. The difficulty rating to train the trick is 25. A creature with the trick gains the following benefits, which replace the benefits of the Battleforged trick:

- It gains a bonus equal to twice your level to its damage resistance.
- It gains a +2 bonus to all defenses.
- It gains a +2 accuracy bonus with all attacks.
- It gains a +2d damage bonus with strikes.

15th – Supreme Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +7.

18th – Greater Efficient Training: You can teach a creature with 4 hours of work, split as you choose (see Training Creatures, page 125). In addition, the number of bonus tricks you can teach from your efficient training ability increases to four.

18th – Supreme Command: You can sustain the effect of the command ability from the Creature Handling skill with a free action instead of with a standard action.

21st – Supreme Battleforged Training: You can teach a creature that has learned the Greater Battleforged trick the Supreme Battleforged trick. The difficulty rating to train the trick is 35. A creature with the trick gains the following benefits, which replace the benefits of the Greater Battleforged trick:

- It gains a bonus equal to four times your level to its damage resistance.
- It gains a +3 bonus to all defenses.
- It gains a +3 accuracy bonus with all attacks.
- It gains a +3d damage bonus with strikes.

Deception Specialization [Skill]

Prerequisite: Deception as a mastered skill.

1st – Specialization: You gain a +3 bonus to the Deception skill.

3rd – Dual Speech (Magical): When you speak, you can use the dual speech ability.

Dual SpeechSustain (minor)

You speak the same words with two different vocal patterns, such as tone or accent, though you cannot significantly change the volume. You can freely choose which creatures hear which pattern, treating all creatures you are not aware of as a single group.

You can freely choose different vocal patterns each round that you sustain this ability.

Level 9: You can speak entirely different words with your two voices.

Level 15: You can also speak with a third voice, using separate words and vocal patterns.

Level 21: You can also speak with a fourth voice, using separate words and vocal patterns.

6th – Undetectable Lies: As a minor action, you can use the undetectable lies ability.

Undetectable LiesAttune (self)

Any magical abilities which detect lies are unable to detect lies you speak.

9th – Greater Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +5.

12th – Deceive Magic (Magical): When you would be hit by a magical attack, you can use this ability in response.

Deceive MagicSwift

When you use this ability, you increase your fatigue level by two. After you use this ability, you briefly cannot use it again.

The attack must be rerolled with a –2 accuracy penalty. This can cause the attack to hit you instead of getting a critical hit, or it can cause the attack to miss entirely.

15th – Supreme Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +7.

18th – Greater Undetectable Lies: Your undetectable lies ability loses the Attune (self) tag. Instead, it lasts indefinitely, and can toggle its effect on or off as a free action.

21st – Greater Deceive Magic: Using your deceive magic ability increases your fatigue level by one instead of two.

Devices Specialization [Skill]

Prerequisite: Devices as a mastered skill.

1st – Specialization: You gain a +3 bonus to the Devices skill.

3rd – Disable Arcana (Magical): You can affect spell effects on objects or areas with the Devices skill as if they were merely complex devices. You must be aware of an effect to use the Devices skill to affect it, either through the Spellsense skill or because the effect is noticeable. You cannot affect effects on creatures. The difficulty rating to affect an arcane spell effect is equal to 15 + the effect's power.

6th – Rapid Improvisation: It takes you only a standard action to make a device of up to Diminutive size with the improvise ability (see Improvise, page 128).

9th – Greater Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +5.

12th – Greater Disable Arcana (Magical): You can affect all magical effects on objects or areas with the Devices skill, not just spell effects.

15th – Supreme Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +7.

18th – Greater Rapid Improvisation: It takes you only a standard action to make a device of up to Small size with the improvise ability (see Improvise, page 128).

21st – Supreme Disable Arcana: You can affect magical effects on creatures with the Devices skill.

Disguise Specialization [Skill]

Prerequisite: Disguise as a mastered skill.

1st – Specialization: You gain a +3 bonus to the Disguise skill.

3rd – Quick Change: You reduce the penalties for reducing the creation time of disguises with the disguise creature and emulate creature abilities by 5.

6th – Disguise Aura (Magical): When you use the disguise creature or emulate creature abilities, you can decide how the target and any items on the target appear when examined by Divination spells. For example, you could cause all of their equipment to appear nonmagical, or you could cause them to have a strong aura of good alignment. The maximum power you can emulate is equal to your Disguise check result – 10.

Anyone using divination magic on the creature must make a check with a bonus equal to the creature's power with the ability to perceive the truth. The difficulty rating is equal to your Disguise check result. Regardless of the result of the check, the caster is not aware that the check was made.

9th – Greater Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +5.

12th – Disguise Size (Magical): You can use the disguise size ability as a standard action.

Disguise SizeAttune (self)

You increase or decrease your size by one size category. Your physical form is not altered fully to match your new size, and your Strength and Dexterity are unchanged. This effect lasts as long as you attune to it.

15th – Supreme Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +7.

18th – Greater Quick Change: You do not suffer penalties for reducing the creation time of disguises with the disguise creature and emulate creature abilities.

21st – Greater Disguise Size: You can use your disguise size ability with the Sustain (free) tag instead of the Attune (self) tag.

Draconic Heritage [Bloodline]

Special: You can only have one Bloodline feat.

1st – Draconic Ancestry: Choose a type of dragon from among the dragons on Table D.2: Dragon Types. You have the blood of that type of dragon in your veins. You gain a +4 bonus to defenses against attacks that deal damage of the type dealt by that dragon's breath weapon.

1st – Draconic Weapons: You gain a bite natural weapon and two claw natural weapons, one on each arm. For details, see Natural Weapons, page 314.

3rd – Breath Weapon: You can use the breath weapon ability as a standard action.

Breath Weapon

Make an attack vs. Reflex against everything in the area defined by the type of dragon from your draconic ancestry ability (see Table D.2: Dragon Types). You may use your Constitution in place of your Strength to determine your power with this ability. After you use this ability, you briefly cannot use it again.

Hit: Each target takes damage equal to 1d10 plus half your power. The damage type is defined by your draconic ancestry ability.

Level 6: The damage increases to 2d6. In addition, the area affected by your breath weapon increases. A line breath weapon becomes a Large (60 ft.), 5 ft. wide line. A cone breath weapon becomes a Medium (30 ft.) cone.

Level 9: The damage increases to 2d8. In addition, if you miss by 2 or less, the target takes half damage. This is called a glancing blow.

Level 18: The damage increases to 4d8. In addition, the area affected by your breath weapon increases. A line breath weapon becomes a Gargantuan (240 ft.), 15 ft. wide line. A cone breath weapon becomes a Huge (120 ft.) cone.

6th – Draconic Wings: You gain leathery wings that sprout from your back. These wings grant you a glide speed equal to the base speed for your size (see Gliding, page 14). The wings themselves are mundane, but the ability to fly and glide with them is magical.

9th – Draconic Scales: You gain a +1 bonus to Armor defense.

12th – Draconic Flight (Magical): You gain a fly speed equal to 10 feet faster than the base speed for your size with a maximum height of 60 feet (see Flying, page 14). Your maneuverability with this fly speed is poor (see Flying Maneuverability, page 14). At the start of each phase, you can increase your fatigue level by one to ignore this height limit until the end of the round.

15th – Greater Draconic Ancestry: You become immune to damage of the type dealt by your dragon's breath weapon.

15th – Greater Draconic Scales: The bonus from your draconic scales ability increases to +2.

Duelist [Combat]

Prerequisite: Base Dexterity of 1, base Intelligence of 1.

1st – Duelist Strike: You can use the duelist strike ability as a standard action.

Duelist Strike

Make a melee strike. This strikes only targets a single creature, even if your weapon would normally have the Sweeping tag. If you are not surrounded (–2 Armor and Ref), you gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with the strike. If the target is not surrounded (–2 Armor and Ref), you gain a +1d damage bonus with the strike.

Level 6: The accuracy bonus increases to +2.

Level 12: The accuracy bonus increases to +3.

Level 18: The accuracy bonus increases to +4.

3rd – Defensive Stance: You gain a +1 bonus to Armor defense as long as you wield a melee weapon and are not surrounded (–2 Armor and Ref).

6th – Duel Focus: At the start of each round, you may choose a creature you can see. During that round, you gain a +1 bonus to Armor and Reflex defenses against that creature.

9th – Riposte: Whenever a creature misses you with an attack, you briefly gain a +1 accuracy bonus against that creature.

12th – Greater Defensive Stance: The bonus from your defensive stance ability increases to +2.

15th – Greater Duel Focus: The bonuses from your duel focus ability increase to +2.

18th – Greater Riposte: The bonus from your riposte ability increases to +2.

21st – Duel Serenity: Your duelist strike ability always has its full effects, regardless of whether you or the target are surrounded. In addition, the bonus from your defensive stance ability also applies to your Mental defense.

Endurance Specialization [Skill]

Prerequisite: Endurance as a mastered skill.

1st – Specialization: You gain a +3 bonus to the Endurance skill.

3rd – Delay Condition: Whenever you gain a condition, you can make an Endurance check. The difficulty rating starts at 10 and increases by 5 in each subsequent round. Success means that you do not suffer the effects of the condition. You must repeat this check at the end of each subsequent round to continue to delay the effects of the condition. Failure means that the condition has its normal effect on you.

You can only delay one of your conditions in this way. If you gain a new condition, you can choose to either delay the new condition or continue delaying the old condition.

6th – Endurance Sprinter: You can use the sprint ability without increasing your fatigue level. After you use this ability, you briefly cannot use it again.

9th – Greater Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +5.

12th – Greater Delay Vital Wound: When you use the delay vital wound ability, the difficulty rating does not increase for each subsequent round (see Delay Vital Wound, page 129).

15th – Supreme Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +7.

18th – Multiple Delay: You can delay up to two vital wounds and conditions with your delay vital wound and delay condition abilities.

21st – Greater Endurance Sprinter: After you use your endurance sprinter ability, you can use the sprint ability again after the end of the current round.

Entropist [General, Magical]

Prerequisite: Base Willpower of 1.

1st – Entropic Defense: Whenever you are hit by a critical hit from a strike, you may use this ability. When you do, you increase your fatigue level by two, and the attacker rerolls the attack against you, which may prevent the attack from getting a critical hit against you. This does not protect any other targets of the attack. You can choose to use this item after you learn the effects that the critical hit would have, but you must do so during the phase that the attack was made.

3rd – Sudden Entropy: You can use the sudden entropy ability as a standard action.

Sudden Entropy

Instant

Make an attack vs. Mental against one creature or object within Medium (60 ft.) range.

Hit: The target takes 1d10 + power damage. The damage is of a random damage type from among the following options: physical damage, energy damage, or all damage types simultaneously.

Level 6: The damage increases to 2d6.

Level 9: The damage increases to 2d10. In addition, if you miss by 2 or less, the target takes half damage. This is called a glancing blow.

Level 12: The damage increases to 4d6.

Level 15: The damage increases to 4d10.

Level 18: The damage increases to 5d10.

Level 21: The damage increases to 7d10.

6th – Improbable Vulnerability: Whenever you make an attack against an enemy that is immune or impervious to some aspect of the attack, you have a 10% chance to affect them as if they were not immune or impervious to the attack. This has no effect on objects.

6th – Things Fall Apart: All of your attacks deal double damage to objects.

9th – Greater Entropic Defense: You can use your entropic defense ability whenever you suffer a critical hit from any attack, not just a strike.

12th – Friend of Chaos: Whenever you roll for a random effect, such as a miss chance or a sorcerer's wild magic ability, you may roll twice and keep whichever result you prefer.

15th – Greater Improbable Vulnerability: The chance from your improbable vulnerability ability increases to 20%.

18th – Supreme Entropic Defense: When you use your entropic defense ability, you only increase your fatigue level by one.

21st – Master of Chaos: Whenever you roll for a random effect, such as a miss chance or a sorcerer's wild magic ability, you may use this ability. When you do, you increase your fatigue level by two, and you may freely choose the random result.

Executioner [Combat]

Prerequisites: Base Perception of 1.

1st – Marked for Execution: You consider living creatures that either have a vital wound, have less than their maximum hit points, or have no remaining damage resistance to be marked for execution. Several abilities from this feat affect creatures marked for execution.

1st – Execution: You can use the execution ability as a standard action.

Execution

Make a melee strike. If the target is marked for execution, you gain a +2d damage bonus.

Level 6: The damage bonus increases to +3d.

Level 12: The damage bonus increases to +4d.

Level 18: The damage bonus increases to +5d.

3rd – Blood Sense (Magical): You automatically know the location of all creatures that are marked for execution within 120 feet of you, regardless of concealment or invisibility. You must have line of effect to a creature to sense it in this way, but you do not need line of sight. You can automatically identify which creatures within this range are marked for execution, even if you can already see them normally.

6th – Purge the Weak: You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy against creatures that are marked for execution. In addition, your attack rolls against creatures that are marked for execution explode on a 9 in addition to the normal explosion on a 10. This does not affect additional rolls with exploding dice.

9th – Bloody Resilience: You gain a +1 bonus to Fortitude defense. In addition, you gain a +6 bonus to your maximum hit points.

12th – Greater Blood Sense (Magical): You gain lifesense with a 60 foot range. In addition, you can see creatures that are marked for execution perfectly instead of only knowing their location.

15th – Greater Bloody Resilience: The Fortitude defense bonus from your bloody resilience ability increases to +2. In addition, the hit point bonus increases to +12.

18th – Greater Purge the Weak: The bonus from your purge the weak ability increases to +2. In addition, the first die you roll for each attack roll against a creature that is marked for execution explodes on an 8 or 9 in addition to the normal explosion on a 10.

21st – Supreme Blood Sense (Magical): The range of your lifesense and blood sense abilities increases to 240 feet. In addition, you gain lifesight with a 60 foot range.

Flexibility Specialization [Skill]

Prerequisite: Flexibility as a mastered skill.

1st – Specialization: You gain a +3 bonus to the Flexibility skill.

3rd – Rapid Escape: You can squeeze and escape bindings and grapples as a move action, rather than as a standard action.

6th – Constraint Tolerance: You reduce your penalties for squeezing (–2 accuracy, Armor, and Ref) by 2 (see Squeezing, page 14).

9th – Greater Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +5.

12th – Escape Magic (Magical): You can use the escape magic ability as a standard action.

Escape Magic

You make an Flexibility attack against all magical effects on you. You may exclude any number of effects you are aware of from this attack, allowing you to maintain beneficial magical effects. The difficulty rating for each effect is equal to 10 + the effect's power.

Hit: Each effect is dismissed, if it is an effect that can be dismissed.

You can only dismiss effects with this ability which target you directly, not area effects which include you as a target. If an ability targets multiple creatures, you can only remove its effects on you.

15th – Supreme Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +7.

18th – Greater Constraint Tolerance: The penalty reduction from your constraint tolerance ability increases to 4. In addition, your movement speed is not halved while squeezing (–2 accuracy, Armor, and Ref).

21st – Greater Escape Magic: You can use your escape magic ability as a minor action. If you do, you briefly cannot use it as a minor action again.

Ghostblade [Combat, Magical]

Prerequisite: Base Dexterity of 1 and base Willpower of 1.

1st – Ghost Step: When you use the sprint ability, you can become invisible for the duration of the movement (see Sprint, page 28). This usually makes it impossible for creatures to react to your movement, such as by using the follow or withdraw abilities (see Movement Abilities, page 13). This ability has the Swift tag, so it affects attacks against you during the current phase.

3rd – Spectral Armament: The equipment you choose as your legacy item becomes ghostly and translucent (see Legacy Items, page 372). If you chose a weapon, all damage dealt with it is cold damage in addition to its other types. If you chose body armor or a shield, you are impervious to cold damage.

6th – Spectral Strike: You can use the spectral strike ability as a standard action.

Spectral Strike

Make a strike. The attack is made against each subject's Reflex defense instead of its Armor defense. Each creature that loses hit points from this strike is briefly slowed (half speed, –2 Ref). After it stops being slowed, it becomes immune to being slowed in this way until it takes a short rest.

Level 12: Each subject is no longer immune to being slowed after the first successful slow effect.

Level 18: Each subject is decelerated (–4 Ref, quarter speed) instead of slowed.

9th – Greater Ghost Step: When you use your ghost step ability, you can also become incorporeal for the duration of the movement. This grants you the defensive benefits of being incorporeal during the current phase.

12th – Greater Spectral Armament: The effect of your legacy item improves. If you chose a weapon, whenever you make a strike against a creature's Armor defense that misses, if the strike hit that creature's Reflex defense, it is considered a glancing blow and deals half damage. If you chose body armor or a shield, whenever an attack hits your Reflex defense, if the attack missed your Armor defense, you take half damage from that attack. This does not protect you from any non-damaging attack effects.

15th – Spectral Reap: You can use the spectral reap ability as a standard action.

Spectral Reap

Move up to your movement speed in a straight line. For the duration of the movement, you can move through creatures and objects as if you were incorporeal, but you do not gain the defensive benefits of being incorporeal during this phase. In addition, you can make a melee strike. Your power with the strike is halved. The strike targets any number of creatures and objects within your reach at any point during your movement.

Level 21: You gain a +1d bonus to damage with the strike.

18th – Supreme Ghost Step: You can use your ghost step ability to affect any movement you make during the movement phase, even if you do not use the sprint ability.

21st – Supreme Spectral Armament: The effect of your legacy item improves. If you chose a weapon, whenever you make a strike, you can make the strike against each subject's Reflex defense in place of its Armor defense. This has no effect on strikes that are not made against Armor defense. If you chose body armor or a shield, you may use your Armor defense in place of your Reflex defense against all attacks.

Greatweapon Warrior [Combat]

Prerequisite: Base Strength of 2.

1st – Cleave: Whenever you wield a melee weapon in two hands, it gains the Sweeping (1) tag (see Sweeping, page 315). If the weapon already has the Sweeping tag, you increase the number of secondary targets by 1. In addition, you can choose secondary targets within 10 feet of the primary target instead of the normal 5 feet. Each secondary target must still be within your reach with the weapon.

3rd – Power Attack: Whenever you make a non-projectile strike with a weapon you wield in two hands, you may take a -1 penalty to accuracy. If you do, you gain a +1d damage bonus.

6th – Destructive Force: You gain a +2 bonus to accuracy with the disarm ability with weapons you wield in two hands (see Disarm, page 27). In addition, whenever you make a non-projectile strike with a weapon you wield in two hands, it deals double damage to objects.

9th – Greater Cleave: The tag granted by your cleave ability changes to be Sweeping (2). If the weapon already has the Sweeping tag, you instead increase the number of secondary targets by 2.

12th – Greater Power Attack: The damage bonus from your power attack ability increases to +2d.

15th – Greater Destructive Force: The accuracy bonus from your destructive force ability increases to +4. In addition, the damage multiplier from your destructive force ability increases to triple damage.

18th – Supreme Cleave: The tag granted by your cleave ability changes to be Sweeping (3). If the weapon already has the Sweeping tag, you instead increase the number of secondary targets by 3.

21st – Greater Power Attack: The damage bonus from your power attack ability increases to +3d.

Herbalist [Skill]

Prerequisite: Knowledge (nature) as a mastered skill.

1st – Esoteric Concoction: You can use your Knowledge (nature) skill in place of Craft (alchemy) or Craft (poison) to create poisons and potions. This does not help you create other alchemical items, such as alchemist's fire. When you do, you must use esoteric natural ingredients in place of the normal ingredients. The replacement ingredients must be difficult to acquire in large quantities and impossible to acquire in a normal city. For example, you can use the tail of a blind mouse or the dew from a four-leafed clover, but you could not use dirt or ordinary tree bark. Once you have determined a purpose for a particular replacement ingredient, you cannot use that ingredient as a replacement in any other poison or potion.

In general, it requires an hour of work and a Knowledge (nature) check equal to 5 + the level of the item to find ingredients for an item in this way. Each time you find ingredients for an item this way, the time required to find ingredients again increases by an hour and the difficulty rating increases by 5. Whenever you finish a long rest or enter a different environment with different ingredients, these penalties reset.

3rd – Potent Poisons: You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with any poisons you create, including poisonous spells you cast.

6th – Tempting Concoction: You can use the tempting concoction ability as a standard action.

Tempting ConcoctionAttune (self)Emotion, Magical, Subtle

Targets: See text

Choose one liquid poison or potion you created, or an object containing one of those liquids, within Short (30 ft.) range. Whenever an enemy notices the chosen object, make an attack vs. Mental against it. If the poison or potion is not concealed inside a less suspicious object, such as a tankard of ale or an apple, you take a -4 penalty to accuracy. You cannot make this attack more than once against any individual target during this ability's duration.

Hit: The target is filled with the desire to investigate and try to consume the liquid or the object containing the liquid. It will not generally interrupt combat or wander into obvious danger to fulfill its desire, but individual creatures may react more or less strongly. This effect lasts until the target consumes the object or until it takes a short rest.

Level 12: You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with the attack.

Level 18: The accuracy bonus increases to +2.

9th – Efficient Concoction: The time required to find ingredients with your esoteric concoction ability is halved.

12th – Greater Potent Poisons: The bonus from your potent concoction ability increases to +2.

15th – Poison Tolerance: You gain a +2 bonus to Fortitude defense.

18th – Blended Poison: You can create poisons that combine two poison effects into a single dose. This requires twice the normal time to create a poison, and requires all ingredients required to make both poisons. A creature affected by the blended poison suffers the full effects of both poisons.

21st – Greater Efficient Concoction: The time required to find ingredients with your esoteric concoction ability is reduced to one-tenth of the normal time.

Intimidate Specialization [Skill]

Prerequisite: Intimidate as a mastered skill.

1st – Specialization: You gain a +3 bonus to the Intimidate skill.

3rd – Greater Demoralize: When you use the demoralize ability, the target is shaken (-2 accuracy and Mental within 60 ft.) by you as a condition instead of being shaken the end of the next round. For details, see Demoralize, page 131.

6th – Threatening Presence: You are considered to be adjacent to all unoccupied spaces within a 10 foot radius emanation from you for the purpose of determining whether your enemies are surrounded (-2 Armor and Ref) (see Being Surrounded, page 23) This can allow you to surround isolated creatures by yourself.

9th – Greater Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +5.

12th – Supreme Demoralize: When you use the demoralize ability, the target is frightened (-4 accuracy and Mental within 60 ft.) by you instead of being shaken.

15th – Supreme Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +7.

18th – Greater Threatening Presence: The area of your threatening presence ability increases to a Small (15 ft.) radius emanation.

21st – Mass Demoralize: When you use the demoralize ability, it affects all enemies within a Large (60 ft.) radius.

Iron Will [General]

Prerequisite: Base Willpower of 1.

1st – Mental Discipline: You gain a +2 bonus to Mental defense. In addition, you gain a +1 bonus to your fatigue tolerance.

6th – Controlled Self: You gain a +10 bonus to notice Subtle abilities that affect you.

6th – Unclouded Mind: You are immune to being dazed (-2 defenses) and stunned (-4 all defenses).

12th – Greater Mind over Matter: You gain a +6 bonus to your maximum hit points.

15th – Greater Controlled Self: The bonus from your controlled self ability increases to +20.

15th – Greater Unclouded Mind: You are immune to being disoriented (moves in random directions) and confused (-4 defenses, acts randomly).

18th – Supreme Mental Discipline: The defense bonus from your mental discipline ability increases to +6. In addition, the fatigue tolerance bonus increases to +2.

21st – Supreme Unclouded Mind: You are immune to all Compulsion and Emotion attacks.

Jump Specialization [Skill]

Prerequisite: Jump as a mastered skill.

1st – Specialization: You gain a +3 bonus to the Jump skill.

3rd – Instant Leap: You suffer no penalty for jumping without a running start (see Running Start, page 131).

6th – Featherlight Leap: When you leap, your maximum height is equal to your Jump check result, rather than half your Jump check result. This does not affect the forward distance you can reach with your jumps.

9th – Greater Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +5.

12th – Impact Tolerance: You take half damage from falling damage.

15th – Supreme Specialization: The bonus from your spe- cialization ability increases to +7.

18th – Greater Rebounding Leap: You take no penalty when using the rebounding leap ability.

21st – Greater Impact Tolerance: You are immune to falling damage.

Knowledge Specialization [Skill]

Prerequisite: Any Knowledge skill as a mastered skill.

18th – Greater Studied Defense: You gain a +1 bonus to Armor defense.

21st – Studied Offense: You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy.

Leadership [Combat]

Prerequisite: Either base Intelligence of 2 or base Willpower of 2.

1st – Battle Command: You can use the battle command ability as a standard action.

Battle Command

Swift

Choose an ally within Medium (60 ft.) range. During the current phase, the target gains a +2 bonus to accuracy and rolls twice for any attacks it makes, keeping the better result.

Level 6: The accuracy bonus increases to +3.

Level 12: The accuracy bonus increases to +4.

Level 18: The accuracy bonus increases to +5.

6th – Bolster: You can use the bolster ability as a standard action.

Bolster

Emotion

Level 12: You may target an additional ally within range.

Prerequisite: Linguistics as a mastered skill.

1st – Specialization: You gain a +3 bonus to the Linguistics skill.

3rd – Linguistic Savant: You learn two additional common languages, or one additional rare language.

6th – Language Focus: By spending a day in focused concentration on learning a specific common language, you can use the language focus ability. You must have access to either a creature fluent in the language willing to help you or at least a book's worth of material written in the language.

Language Focus

If you had access to written material on the language, including from a teacher, you can read or write the language. If you had access to a speaker of the language, you can speak and understand the language.

This ability's effect lasts until you use this ability again.

9th – Greater Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +5.

18th – Greater Linguistic Savant: You learn four additional common languages, or two additional rare languages.

21st – Supreme Language Focus: The effect of your language focus ability is permanent.

Maneuverist [Combat]

Prerequisite: Base Intelligence of 1.

1st – Maneuver Access: You gain access to one combat style that you did not already have access to (see Combat Styles, page 145). In addition, you learn one rank 1 maneuver from that combat style. You may spend insight points to learn to one additional maneuver from that combat style per insight point. Unless otherwise noted in an ability's description, using a maneuver requires a standard action.

After you use a maneuver you know from this feat, you briefly cannot use any maneuver from this feat.

3rd – Trained Maneuverist: Using a maneuver from this feat does not prevent you from using maneuvers from this feat.

6th – Maneuver Rank: You become a rank 2 combat style user. This gives you access to maneuvers that require a minimum rank of 2.

9th – Maneuver Rank: You become a rank 3 combat style user. This gives you access to maneuvers that require a minimum rank of 3 and can improve the effectiveness of your existing maneuvers.

21st – Maneuver Rank: You become a rank 7 combat style user. This gives you access to maneuvers that require a minimum rank of 7 and can improve the effectiveness of your existing maneuvers.

21st – Maneuver Knowledge: You learn one maneuver.

Martial Training [Combat]

1st – Trained Strike: You can use the trained strike ability as a standard action.

Trained Strike

Make a strike with a +1 bonus to accuracy.

Level 6: The accuracy bonus increases to +2.

Level 12: The accuracy bonus increases to +3.

Level 18: The accuracy bonus increases to +4.

3rd – Equipment Training: You choose one of the following benefits.

- You gain proficiency with an additional weapon group of your choice.
- You gain proficiency with exotic weapons from a weapon group of your choice that you are already proficient with.

Medicine Specialization [Skill]

Prerequisite: Medicine as a mastered skill.

1st – Specialization: You gain a +3 bonus to the Medicine skill.

3rd – Healing Touch: You can use the healing touch ability as a standard action. In addition, if you have the restoration cleric ability, you gain a +2 bonus to power with both the healing touch and restoration abilities.

Healing Touch

Instant

Healing

Choose yourself or a living ally within your reach. The target regains 2d6 + power hit points. After you use this ability, you briefly cannot use it or any other Healing ability.

Level 6: The healing increases to 2d8.

Level 9: The healing increases to 4d6.

Level 12: The healing increases to 4d8.

Level 15: The healing increases to 5d10.

Level 18: The healing increases to 6d10.

Level 21: The healing increases to 8d10.

6th – Purging Touch: You can use the purging touch ability as a standard action.

Purging Touch

Instant

Make a Medicine check on yourself or an ally you can touch. For each poison and disease on the target, if your check result is at least 10 higher than the power of the effect, the effect is removed.

Level 12: You can target yourself and any number of allies within your reach.

Level 18: You gain a +5 bonus to the check.

9th – Greater Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +5.

12th – Lifesaver: You can use the first aid ability as a minor action (see First Aid, page 134). If you do, you briefly cannot use it as a minor action again.

15th – Supreme Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +7.

18th – Preventative Medicine: You are immune to poisons and diseases.

21st – Greater Lifesaver: Using the first aid ability as a minor action does not prevent you from using it as a minor action again. In addition, using the first aid ability to affect multiple creatures simultaneously does not cause you to suffer a penalty to the Medicine check.

Mental Magic [Casting, Magical]

Prerequisite: Spellcasting ability, base Willpower of 1.

1st – Mental Casting: You connect to the magical essence of the universe differently from other spellcasters, allowing you to cast spells with purely mental effort. None of your spells have somatic components or verbal components. However, casting spells without components is more challenging. You increase your focus penalty by 1.

3rd – Hardened Mind: You gain a +2 bonus to Mental defense.

6th – Potent Mind: You gain a +2 bonus to magical power.

9th – Fractured Mind: Once per round, you can sustain an ability with the Sustain (minor) tag as a free action.

12th – Greater Potent Mind: The bonus from your potent mind ability increases to +4.

15th – Greater Hardened Mind: The bonus from your hardened mind ability increases to +4.

18th – Supreme Potent Mind: The bonus from your potent mind ability increases to +8.

21st – Greater Fractured Mind: You can use your fractured mind ability on abilities with the Sustain (standard) tag in addition to the Sustain (minor) tag.

Metacaster [Casting, Magical]

Prerequisite: Access to a mystic sphere.

1st – Sphere Access: You gain access to an additional mystic sphere. Each mystic sphere has a set of spells associated with it. You automatically learn all cantrips from any mystic sphere you have access to. If you have multiple magic sources, you can cast spells from that sphere with any magic source that the mystic sphere belongs to.

3rd – Alter Damage: Whenever you cast a spell that deals damage, you can change the type of damage it deals based on the mystic spheres you have access to. You can use this ability to affect both spells that deal damage directly and spells that cause effects or summon creatures that later deal damage. If you change a spell's damage type in this way, you change all damage done by the spell, even if the spell would originally deal damage of multiple types.

The damage types for each mystic sphere are given in Table D.3: Mystic Sphere Damage Types. Not all mystic spheres have associated damage types.

Table D.3: Mystic Sphere Damage Types

Mystic Sphere	Damage Type
Aeromancy	Bludgeoning
Aquamancy	Bludgeoning
Astromancy	Energy
Barrier	—
Bless	—
Channel Divinity	Energy
Chronomancy	—
Cryomancy	Cold
Electromancy	Electricity
Enchantment	—
Fabrication	Physical
Photomancy	Energy
Polymorph	Physical
Pyromancy	Fire
Revelation	—
Summoning	—
Telekinesis	Physical
Terramancy	Bludgeoning
Thaumaturgy	Energy
Toxicology	Acid
Umbramancy	Cold
Verdamancy	—
Vivimancy	—

6th – Spell Fusion: You can use the spell fusion ability as a standard action.

Spell Fusion

Choose two spells that you know which do not have the Sustain or Attune tags. You cast both spells simultaneously. Both spells that you fuse in this way must have the same area shape, such as a cone or sphere, and targeting restrictions, such as affecting only enemies or living creatures. If one spell affects a strictly larger area or a strictly larger number of targets than the other, you must use the smaller of the two areas or target counts. You must choose the same targets and area for both spells, if applicable. Roll the attack roll and damage for each spell separately.

After you use this ability, you are unable to take any actions during the following round.

9th – Alter Conditions: When you cast a spell that inflicts a debuff with a standard effect as a condition, you can change that effect to another effect of the same rank. Debuff effect ranks are described in Table D.4: Debuff Effect Ranks. To change the spell to inflict a particular effect, you must know another spell that inflicts that effect.

Table D.4: Debuff Effect Ranks

Rank	Condition effects
1	Dazed, dazzled, goaded (by you), shaken (by you), sickened, slowed
2	Decelerated, frightened (by you), nauseated, stunned
3	Blinded, confused, disoriented, immobilized, panicked (by you)
4	Asleep ¹ , paralyzed

1. The target wakes up if it takes a vital wound, but cannot otherwise wake up during the condition.

12th – Greater Spell Fusion: Using your spell fusion ability does not prevent you from acting during the movement phase of the following round.

15th – Greater Alter Conditions: You can now exchange debuffs for other debuffs of the same rank with all spells and abilities, not just spells and abilities that inflict conditions. In addition, you can exchange a debuff for any debuff of a lower rank.

18th – Sphere Access: You gain access to an additional mystic sphere. You automatically learn all cantrips from that mystic sphere. In addition, you may forget spells from your existing mystic spheres in exchange for spells from that mystic sphere.

21st – Supreme Spell Fusion: Using your spell fusion ability does not prevent you from taking minor actions during the following round.

Mystic Archer [Casting]

Prerequisite: Access to a mystic sphere.

1st – Magical Strikes (Magical): Whenever you make a ranged strike, you can choose to treat that as a magical ability. This allows you to use your power with magical abilities to determine your damage.

1st – Imbued Shot: You can use the imbued shot ability as a standard action.

Imbued Shot Magical
Make a ranged strike with a +1 bonus to accuracy using a projectile weapon you wield. Because this is a magical ability, you use your magical power to determine your damage instead of your mundane power.

Level 6: The accuracy bonus increases to +2.

Level 12: The accuracy bonus increases to +3.

Level 18: The accuracy bonus increases to +4.

3rd – Guided Projectiles (Magical): Your attacks with projectiles ignore cover, but not total cover.

6th – Imbue Projectile: When you cast a spell that does not have the Attune or Sustain tags, you can use the imbue projectile ability.

Imbue Projectile

Attune (self)

Magical

The spell does not have its effect immediately. Instead, its power is imbued in a projectile you hold. An individual projectile can only be imbued with this ability once, even if multiple creatures use this ability on the same projectile.

When you use your imbued shot ability to attack with that projectile, the spell takes effect on the target of your imbued shot ability. You must make any attack rolls required for the spell separately from your attack roll with the strike. After the spell takes effect this way, your attunement to this ability ends.

9th – Phasing Projectiles (Magical): When attacking with projectiles, you can ignore all physical obstacles in single one-foot span. This can allow you to fire projectiles through creatures or solid walls, though it does not grant you the ability to see through a wall.

12th – Greater Guided Projectiles: Your attacks with projectiles ignore concealment, and you can roll twice for miss chances with projectile attacks (such as when attacking creatures you cannot see).

15th – Greater Phasing Projectiles (Magical): Your phasing projectiles ability improves, allowing you to ignore obstacles in up to five one-foot spans. The spans can be contiguous or independent, which can allow you to ignore a single obstacle up to five feet deep.

18th – Supreme Guided Projectiles: You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with projectile attacks. In addition, you ignore all miss chances with projectile attacks.

21st – Supreme Phasing Projectiles: The distance you can ignore with your phasing projectiles ability increases to fifteen feet.

Null [General]

Prerequisite: Base Willpower of 2.

1st – Nullify Magic: You gain a +4 bonus to defenses against magical abilities. In addition, you are never considered an ally for a magical ability, even while unconscious. In exchange, you lose the benefits of all magical abilities you possess. In addition, you are unable to attune to any magical abilities, such as magic items or spells cast by other creatures.

1st – Sever Magic: You can use the sever magic ability as a standard action.

Sever Magic

Make a strike. You take a -1d damage penalty with the strike. If the target takes damage from the strike, it stops being attuned to one effect of its choice that it is currently attuned to. On a critical hit, the target takes double damage and it stops being attuned to two abilities of its choice that it is currently attuned to. In addition, as a condition, it stops being able to attune to abilities.

Level 6: You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with the strike.

Level 12: A struck target stops being attuned to an additional effect of its choice.

Level 18: The accuracy bonus increases to +2.

1st – Spell Sensitivity: You treat the Spellsense skill as a class skill (see Spellsense, page 140).

3rd – Mundane Resilience: You gain a +4 bonus to damage resistance.

3rd – Personal Legacy: You do not gain any legacy item upgrades (see Legacy Items, page 372). Instead, each time you would gain a legacy item upgrade, you instead gain a +1 bonus to accuracy, all defenses, and fatigue tolerance.

6th – Disruptive Presence: Whenever an enemy within an Medium (30 ft.) radius from you casts a spell, the spell has a 50% chance to fail with no effect.

6th – Greater Nullify Magic: The bonus to defenses from your nullify magic ability increases to +6.

9th – Greater Mundane Resilience: The bonus from your mundane resilience ability increases to +8.

9th – Itembane: Whenever you touch a magical item or hit it with a melee weapon, such as with the disarm ability, it briefly loses all magical abilities (see Disarm, page 27). This does not prevent you from suffering the normal effects of the item's initial hit, if the item was used to strike you. Under normal circumstances, removes the abilities of items that hit you with melee strikes, but does not affect magical projectile weapons. Items with an intrinsic power at least 10 higher than your level are immune to this effect. The power of the item's wielder, if any, does not affect whether the item can be affected in this way.

12th – Supreme Nullify Magic: The bonus to defenses from your nullify magic ability increases to +8.

15th – Supreme Mundane Resilience: The bonus from your mundane resilience ability increases to +16.

15th – Greater Disruptive Presence: Your disruptive presence ability affects all enemies in a Huge (120 ft.) radius emanation from you.

18th – True Null: You are unaffected by all magical abilities.

21st – Legendary Mundane Resilience: The bonus from your mundane resilience ability increases to +32.

21st – Supreme Disruptive Presence: The miscast chance from your disruptive presence ability increases to 90%.

Prerequisite: Any Perform skill as a mastered skill.

1st – Specialization: You gain a +3 bonus to all Perform skills.

3rd – Synergistic Performance: You can use your Perform skills in place of other related skills. Each Perform skill has an associated skill that it can be used to replace, as listed below. When you replace a skill in this way, you add half your modifier with the Perform skill instead of your full modifier since the two skills do not exactly match.

- Acting: Deception
- Comedy: Deception
- Dance: Balance
- Keyboard instruments: Devices
- Oratory: Persuasion
- Percussion instruments: Creature Handling
- Singing: Persuasion
- String instruments: Devices
- Wind instruments: Creature Handling

6th – Inspiring Performance (Magical): Whenever you perform with the Perform skill, each ally that can observe the performance gains a +2 bonus to Mental defense. This effect has the Swift tag, so it protects allies in the same phase that you begin performing. This includes both normal performances and any special abilities that require performances. This bonus lasts as long as the performance lasts.

9th – Greater Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +5.

12th – Greater Inspiring Performance: The bonus from your inspiring performance ability increases to +3.

15th – Supreme Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +7.

18th – Greater Inspiring Performance: The bonus from your inspiring performance ability increases to +4.

21st – Endless Performance: You can sustain performances for any length of time. This affects both normal performances and any special abilities that require performances to sustain them, allowing you to sustain those abilities beyond the normal 5 minute limit.

Persuasion Specialization [Skill]

Prerequisite: Persuasion as a mastered skill.

1st – Specialization: You gain a +3 bonus to the Persuasion skill.

3rd – Compel Attention (Magical): You can use the compel attention ability as a standard action.

Perform Specialization [Skill]

Compel Auditory, Compulsion, Sustain (minor), Subtle Attention

Make an attack vs. Mental against a creature within Medium (60 ft.) range. Your accuracy is equal to your Persuasion skill. You take a -10 penalty to accuracy with this attack against creatures who are engaged in combat during the current phase. You must talk loud enough for the target to hear to draw its attention.

Hit: The target is fascinated (cannot act, -5 to observe anything) by you as long as you sustain this ability, which requires maintaining your conversation with it. Any act by you or by creatures that appear to be your ally that damages a target or that causes it to feel that it is in danger breaks the effect for that creature. An observant target may interpret overt threats to its allies as a threat to itself.

Level 9: You may target up to five creatures within range.

Level 15: You may target any number of creatures within range.

Level 21: The range increases to Distant (240 ft.) range.

6th – First Impressions: When you first meet creatures, you have an Ally relationship instead of a Just Met relationship (see Table 5.18: Relationship Modifiers (page 136)). This does not improve your relationship with creatures who already have an impression of you, whether positive or negative.

9th – Greater Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +5.

12th – Suggestion (Magical): You can use the suggestion ability as a standard action.

Suggestion Emotion, Subtle, Sustain (minor)

Make an attack vs. Mental against a target within Medium (60 ft.) range. Your accuracy is equal to your Persuasion skill. You must also make a verbal suggestion of a particular course of action to the target. If your suggestion does not seem reasonable, you take a -5 accuracy penalty on this attack. Exceptionally unreasonable suggestions can impose even greater penalties, and exceptionally reasonable suggestions can give accuracy bonuses.

Hit: As a condition, the target thinks your suggestion is a good idea and will try to follow it to the best of its abilities. Any act by you or by creatures that appear to be your ally that damages the target or makes it feel that it is in danger breaks the effect. An observant target may interpret overt threats to its allies as a threat to itself.

Level 18: You may target up to five creatures within range.

15th – Supreme Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +7.

18th – Greater First Impressions: When you first meet creatures, you have a Friend relationship instead of a Just Met relationship. This does not improve your relationship with creatures who already have an impression of you, whether positive or negative.

21st – Rapid Persuasion: You can make a Persuasion check within the first round of a conversation at no penalty instead of the normal requirement to talk for a minute or longer.

Precognition [General]

Prerequisite: Base Intelligence of 2.

1st – Precognitive Reaction: You can use your Intelligence in place of your Perception to determine your accuracy with mundane abilities and your initiative.

3rd – Combat Prediction: You can use the combat prediction ability as a standard action.

Combat Prediction Sustain (free)

Make an attack vs. Mental with a +3 accuracy bonus against a creature within Medium (60 ft.) range of you.

Hit: That creature's intentions become obvious to you as long as you sustain this ability. This gives you a +2 bonus to accuracy and defenses against that creature. At the start of each phase, you can see and hear what actions that creature intends to take. You do not gain any knowledge of actions that have no obvious signs, such as purely mental actions, or actions which you are not observant enough to notice. In addition, you do not know the results of actions with a chance of failure, such as attacks.

The creature may change its actions based on your interference if you communicate your insight in a way it understands.

You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with the attack at 6th level and every 3 levels thereafter.

6th – Foresight: During the movement phase, you choose your action after all other creatures have chosen their actions. When you choose your action, you have insight into the actions chosen by any creatures within Short (30 ft.) range of you that you can see. This insight gives you the same information as the insight from your combat prediction ability, except that it only provides information about their actions during the movement phase. You choose your actions simultaneously with any other creatures who have a similar ability.

Knowing another creature's action does not automatically allow you to interrupt that action. If you want to interrupt an action, such as by blocking a creature's intended movement, you must make an initiative check as normal.

9th – Precognitive Precision: You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy.

12th – Greater Precognitive Reaction: You gain a +4 bonus to initiative checks.

15th – Greater Foresight: The range of your foresight ability increases to Long (120 ft.) range.

18th – Greater Precognitive Precision: The bonus from your precognitive precision ability increases to +2.

21st – Supreme Precognitive Reaction: The bonus from your greater precognitive reaction ability increases to +10.

Prepared Spellcasting [Magical, Spell]

Prerequisite: Access to a mystic sphere, base Intelligence of 2.

1st – Spellbook: Choose up to three spells you do not know from among mystic spheres you have access to. The spells in your spellbook can come from any combination of magic sources you can cast spells with. The spells must be of a rank that you know how to cast. Whenever you gain access to a new spell rank, you may change the spells in your spellbook for any other spells you can cast. You inscribe the knowledge of those spells into a book you carry with you. This book is your spellbook.

Whenever you finish a long rest, you may choose one of the spells in your spellbook. You learn how to cast that spell until you choose a different spell with this ability.

3rd – Studious Learning: You gain a +2 bonus to all Knowledge skills.

6th – Study of Magic: You gain a +2 bonus to your magical power.

9th – Expanded Spellbook: You can choose up to five spells to be in your spellbook instead of only three.

12th – Greater Study of Magic: The bonus from your study of magic ability increases to +4.

15th – Greater Spellbook: Whenever you finish a long rest, you may choose two spells in your spellbook with your spellbook ability instead of one. You learn how to cast both spells until you choose a different pair of spells in this way.

18th – Supreme Study of Magic: The bonus from your study of magic ability increases to +8.

21st – Greater Expanded Spellbook: You can choose up to seven spells to be in your spellbook instead of only three.

Rapid Reaction [General]

Prerequisite: Base Dexterity of 1.

1st – Lightning Reflexes: You gain a +2 bonus to Reflex defense and initiative checks.

3rd – Sidestep: If you have at least five feet of movement remaining after the movement phase, you may move up to five feet during the action phase or the delayed action phase as a free action.

6th – Evasive Reaction: You take half damage from abilities that affect an area and attack your Armor or Reflex defense. This does not protect you from any non-damaging effects of those abilities, or from abilities that affect multiple specific targets without affecting an area. If you have the evasion monk or rogue ability with the same effect as this ability, you reduce the total damage you take to one quarter of the normal value instead.

9th – Greater Lightning Reflexes: The bonuses from your lightning reflexes ability increase to +4.

12th – Greater Sidestep: The movement you can carry over with your sidestep ability increases to half your land speed.

15th – Greater Evasive Reaction: Your evasive reaction ability also protects you from area attacks against your Fortitude and Mental defenses.

18th – Supreme Lightning Reflexes: The bonuses from your lightning reflexes ability increase to +6.

21st – Supreme Sidestep: The movement you can carry over with your sidestep ability increases to your full land speed.

Regenerator [General]

Prerequisite: Base Constitution of 2.

1st – Diehard: You gain a +2 bonus to vital rolls.

3rd – Regenerative Recovery: You can use the regenerative recovery ability as a standard action.

Regenerative Recovery

Instant

Healing

You must use your Constitution in place of your Strength to determine your power with this ability. You regain 2d6 + power hit points. After you use this ability, you briefly cannot use it or any other Healing ability.

Level 6: The healing increases to 2d8.

Level 9: The healing increases to 4d6.

Level 12: The healing increases to 4d8.

Level 15: The healing increases to 5d10.

Level 18: The healing increases to 6d10.

Level 21: The healing increases to 8d10.

6th – Regenerative Rest: When you take a short rest, you can remove any number of vital wounds affecting you. If you do, you increase your fatigue level by three per vital wound removed this way. Once you increase your fatigue level to the point of unconsciousness, you cannot remove additional vital wounds with this ability.

9th – Greater Diehard: The bonus from your diehard ability increases to +3.

12th – Greater Regenerative Rest: Your regenerative rest ability only causes you to increase your fatigue level by two per vital wound.

12th – Battlefield Regeneration: When you use the recover action, you can also remove a single vital wound. You cannot use this ability to remove a vital wound that you gained during the current round.

15th – Deep Rest: You can use your regenerative rest ability to remove vital wounds even once your fatigue level would already make you unconscious. This allows you to recover any number of vital wounds regardless of your maximum fatigue level if you go unconscious to do so.

18th – Supreme Diehard: The bonus from your diehard ability increases to +4.

21st – Supreme Regenerative Rest: Your regenerative rest ability only causes you to increase your fatigue level by one per vital wound.

Ride Specialization [Skill]

Prerequisite: Ride as a mastered skill.

1st – Specialization: You gain a +3 bonus to the Ride skill.

3rd – Mounted Defense: Your mount gains a +3 bonus to all defenses, up to a maximum of your own corresponding defense.

Prerequisite: Base Strength of 2.

3rd – Wall Slam: Whenever you push a creature with a mundane ability and the creature's movement is interrupted by a solid object, the object and creature both take bludgeoning damage equal to 1d10 plus half your power. This damage is not doubled when you get a critical hit with the ability that caused the push. Any individual creature or object cannot take damage in this way more than once per round. This damage increases by +1d at 6th level and every 3 levels thereafter.

6th – Trample: You can use the trample ability as a standard action. This ability functions like the overrun ability, except that it does not cause you to increase your fatigue level and creatures may not choose to avoid you. In addition, if you move through a creature's space, it takes bludgeoning damage equal to 1d10 plus half your power. This damage is doubled when you get a critical hit on the trample attack. This damage increases by +1d at 9th level and every 3 levels thereafter.

You must be able to reach at least one of your fingers into the bag, such as through a narrow gap at the opening. This does not allow you to retrieve objects from locked containers with no openings. The container's size cannot exceed your own size.

6th – Extradimensional Concealment (Magical): When you use the conceal object ability, you can use the extradimensional pocket ability.

Extradimensional Pocket

Attune (self)

Magical

You conceal the object in a pocket dimension that cannot be accessed by nonmagical means. When your attunement to this ability ends, the object appears in a free hand. If you have no free hands, it drops to the ground.

9th – Greater Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +5.

12th – Greater Conceal Object: The maximum size of object you can hide with your conceal object ability increases to be equal to your size category. You take a –10 penalty if the object is the same size category as you instead of one size category smaller.

Read Emotions Emotion, Sustain (minor), Subtle
Make an attack vs. Mental against a creature within Short (30 ft.) range. Your accuracy is equal to your Social Insight skill.

Hit: You know the target's current emotions. In addition to the obvious effects, this grants you a +3 bonus to Deception, Persuasion, Intimidate, and Social Insight attacks and checks against the target.

Level 12: The range increases to Long (120 ft.) range.

Level 18: You can use this ability as a minor action.

12th – Truthsense: Whenever a creature within a Large (60 ft.) radius emanation from you that you can hear and see speaks truth to the best of its knowledge with no attempt at evasion, concealment, or creative wording, you automatically recognize that. You do not recognize truth in this way if a creature is using the Deception skill in any way, even if it is speaking the truth.

15th – Supreme Specialization: The bonus from your specialization ability increases to +7.

18th – Greater Social Intuition: You take no penalty for making a social assessment after only a single round of observation, and you take no penalty for not knowing the language (see Social Assessment, page 140).

Spellsense Specialization [Skill]

Prerequisite: Spellsense as a mastered skill.

1st – Specialization: You gain a +3 bonus to the Spellsense skill.

3rd – Sense Spellcasting (Magical): You can use the sense spellcasting ability as a standard action.

Sense SpellcastingSubtle

Target: One creature within Medium (60 ft.) range

Make a attack vs. Mental against the target. Your accuracy is equal to your Spell sense skill.

Hit: You know whether the target is capable of casting spells. If the target can cast spells, you know what sources the target can cast spells from.

Critical hit: As above, except that you also know all mystic spheres the target is capable of casting. This does not grant you knowledge of any specific spells the target knows.

After using this ability on a target, you cannot use it again on the same target for 24 hours regardless of whether you hit or miss.

You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with the attack at 6th level and every 3 levels thereafter.

6th – Unweave Magic (Magical): You can use the unweave magic ability as a standard action.

Unweave Magic

Make a Spell sense check on an active spell effect within Medium (60 ft.) range. This can affect spells with the Sustain tag, but it cannot affect spells with the Attune tag. The difficulty rating is equal to 5 + the power of the effect. Success means the effect is dismissed if it is an effect that can be dismissed.

Level 12: You can target up to two spell effects within range.

Level 18: You can affect spells with the Attune tag. The difficulty rating to affect those spells is increased by 10.

Spellword [Magical, Spell]

Prerequisite: Access to a mystic sphere.

1st – Imbued Blow: You can use the imbued blow ability as a standard action.

Imbued Blow

Make a melee strike with a +1 bonus to accuracy. Because this is a magical ability, you use your magical power to determine your damage instead of your mundane power.

Level 6: The accuracy bonus increases to +2.

Level 12: The accuracy bonus increases to +3.

Level 18: The accuracy bonus increases to +4.

3rd – Spellword Conduit: You can cast spells using a melee weapon as if it were an implement (see Implements, page 359). When you do, you reduce your focus penalty by 2. In addition, if your legacy item is a weapon, you may choose both weapon and implement magic item effects for it.

6th – Imbue Weapon: When you cast a spell that does not have the Attune or Sustain tags, you can use the imbue weapon ability.

Imbue WeaponAttune (self)Magical

The spell does not have its effect immediately. Instead, its power is imbued in a melee weapon you hold. An individual weapon can only be imbued with this ability once.

When you use your imbued blow ability to make a strike with that weapon, you may choose to activate the spell. If you do, the spell takes effect on the target of your imbued blow ability as if you had just cast it. You must make any attack rolls required for the spell separately from your attack roll with the strike. After the spell takes effect this way, your attunement to this ability ends.

9th – Personal Enhancement: You gain a +1 magic bonus to accuracy and defenses. Because this is a magic bonus, it does not stack with other magic bonuses (see Stacking Rules, page 32).

12th – Greater Spellword Conduit: Whenever you cast a spell using a melee weapon as an implement, you gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with the spell.

15th – Greater Personal Enhancement: The bonuses from your personal enhancement ability increase to +2.

18th – Greater Imbue Weapon: You may imbue two spells with your imbue weapon ability instead of only one. This only costs a single attunement point. When you activate a spell imbued in this way, you briefly cannot activate the other spell.

You know exactly what direction you must travel to reach your chosen destination by the most direct physical route. You are not always led in the exact direction of the destination – if there is an impassable obstacle between the target and the destination, this ability will direct you around the obstacle, rather than through it.

The guidance provided by this ability adjusts to match whatever your current physical capabilities are, including flight and other unusual movement modes. It does not consider teleportation spells or any other activated abilities you may have which could allow you to bypass physical obstacles. It does not see into the future, and changing circumstances may cause the most direct path to change over time. It also does not consider hostile creatures, traps, and other passable dangers which may endanger or slow progress.

In addition to the obvious effects, this grants you a +5 bonus to Deception, Persuasion, Intimidate, and Social Insight attacks and checks against the target. This does not allow you to search their mind for arbitrary thoughts or information, but creatures often think about questions they are asked, and their thoughts may reveal much more than their words.

You gain a +2 bonus to accuracy with the attack at 9th level and every 3 levels thereafter. In addition, at 9th level, the effect lasts briefly on a glancing blow.

9th – Greater Telepathy: The range of your telepathy ability increases to 120 feet. In addition, you automatically know the location of any creature with an Intelligence of 0 or higher within half the maximum range of your telepathy. Unlike abilities like blindsight, the Stealth skill does not prevent you from learning the location of creatures in this way.

12th – Fragmented Mind: You gain a +2 bonus to Mental defense. In addition, you can maintain mental channels with up to 5 creatures at once with your telepathy. You can send separate thoughts to each creature.

15th – Greater Read Mind: On a critical hit with your read mind ability, you can delve through the subject's mind to answer a specific question. You can pose a question to it mentally and search its mind to know the exact answer to that question. This takes five rounds of continuous concentration, and you can only get answers to one such question each time you use this ability. The process of searching a creature's mind in this way is no easier to notice than normal for a Subtle ability.

18th – Supreme Telepathy: The range of your telepathy ability increases to 240 feet. In addition, you can see perfectly any creature with an Intelligence of 0 or higher within half the maximum range of your telepathy. Unlike abilities like blindsight, the Stealth skill does not prevent you from seeing creatures in this way.

21st – Mental Domination: Whenever a creature stunned (-4 all defenses) by your mind crush ability reaches 0 hit points, you can attune to this ability. When you do, that creature becomes dominated (must obey commands) by you as long as you maintain that attunement. As normal, you can only maintain one instance of this attunement at a time.

Toughness [General]

Prerequisite: Base Constitution of 1.

1st – Fortified Body: You gain a +2 bonus to Fortitude defense. In addition, you can sleep while you have encumbrance without penalty (see Encumbrance, page 22).

3rd – Durability: You gain a +4 bonus to your maximum hit points.

6th – Ailment Tolerance: You are immune to being sickened (-2 all defenses) and nauseated (-4 all defenses).

6th – Sleepless: You need half the normal amount of rest and sleep each day to function normally. For example, a human would only need four hours of sleep per night. This does not reduce the time required for you to take a long rest.

9th – Greater Fortified Body: The defense bonus from your fortified body ability increases to +4.

12th – Greater Durability: The bonus from your durability ability increases to +10.

15th – Greater Ailment Tolerance: You are immune to poisons and diseases.

15th – Greater Sleepless: The amount of rest and sleep you need each day is reduced to a quarter of the normal value. For example, a human would only need two hours of sleep per night.

18th – Greater Fortified Body: The defense bonus from your fortified body ability increases to +6.

21st – Supreme Durability: The bonus from your durability ability increases to +25.

Twinhand Spellcaster [Casting, Magical]

Prerequisite: Base Dexterity of 1.

1st – Twinhand Focus: You can always choose to use somatic components to cast your spells (see Casting Components, page 30). As long as you have two free hands, you reduce your focus penalty by 2 with spells that you cast using somatic components.

3rd – Freehand Implement: You can gain the benefits of one magical implement, such as a staff or wand, without having to hold it in your hands. You must still have it on your person, such as in a pocket or strapped to your back, and you must still be attuned to it to gain its benefits. This ability only affects one implement at a time. In addition, if your legacy item is an apparel item, you may choose both apparel and implement magic item effects for it.

6th – Double Spell: You can use the double spell ability as a standard action.

Double Spell

You can only use this ability if you have two free hands.

Choose two spells that you know which do not have the Sustain or Attune tags. You cast both spells simultaneously, one with each hand. This gives the spells somatic components, regardless of any other effects which would normally prevent you from requiring somatic components. Both spells must affect completely different targets, with no overlap between their targets or areas (if any).

After you use this ability, you are unable to take any actions during the following round.

9th – Twinhand Precision: As long as you have two free hands, you gain a +1 accuracy bonus with spells that you cast using somatic components.

12th – Greater Double Spell: Using your double spell ability does not prevent you from acting during the movement phase of the following round.

15th – Greater Freehand Implement: You can use your freehand implement ability to affect an additional implement.

18th – Greater Twinspell Precision: The bonus from your twinhand precision ability increases to +2.

21st – Supreme Double Spell: Using your double spell ability does not prevent you from taking minor actions during the following round.

Two-Weapon Fighting [Combat]

Prerequisite: Base Dexterity of 2.

1st – Offhand Freedom: You can use the offhand strike ability as a free action instead of as a minor action. However, you cannot use the offhand strike ability more than once per round. In addition, you can use the offhand strike ability during any phase that you take a standard action, regardless of whether that standard action causes you to make a strike.

3rd – Offhand Force: You gain a +1d damage bonus with the offhand strike ability.

6th – Dual Precision: You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with strikes while you wield two weapons.

9th – Greater Offhand Force: The bonus from your offhand force ability increases to +2d.

12th – Greater Offhand Freedom: When you use your offhand strike ability, you treat all other weapons you attack with during that phase as being light for the purpose of determining your accuracy penalties. In addition, you may add half your power to damage with the strike from your offhand strike ability if it is the only strike you make during that phase.

15th – Supreme Offhand Force: The bonus from your offhand force ability increases to +3d.

18th – Greater Dual Precision: The bonus from your dual precision ability increases to +2.

21st – Offhand Flurry: You can use the offhand strike ability twice per round.

Weapon Focus [Combat]

1st – Focused Weapon: Choose one type of weapon, such as a broadsword. This is your focused weapon, and many abilities from this feat give you benefits with your focused weapon.

1st – Perfect Strike: You can use the perfect strike ability as a standard action.

Perfect Strike

Make a strike using your focused weapon. You gain your choice of either a +1 accuracy bonus or a +1d damage bonus with the strike.

Level 6: The accuracy bonus increases to +2, and the damage bonus increases to +2d.

Level 12: The accuracy bonus increases to +3, and the damage bonus increases to +3d.

Level 18: The accuracy bonus increases to +4, and the damage bonus increases to +4d.

3rd – Firm Grip: Your focused weapon is considered to be well-secured whenever you want it to be, making it difficult or impossible for you to be disarmed.

6th – Focused Power: You gain a +2 bonus to power with attacks using your focused weapon.

9th – Focused Precision: You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy with attacks using your focused weapon.

12th – Greater Focused Power: The bonus from your focused power ability increases to +4.

15th – Greater Focused Precision: The bonus from your focused precision ability increases to +2.

18th – Supreme Focused Power: The bonus from your focused power ability increases to +8.

21st – Supreme Focused Precision: The bonus from your focused precision ability increases to +3.

Whirlwind Warrior [Combat]

Prerequisite: Base Dexterity of 1.

1st – Cyclone: You can use the cyclone ability as a standard action.

CycloneSustain (standard)

When you use this ability, make a melee strike with a slashing weapon. Your power with the strike is halved. The strike targets any number of creatures adjacent to you. Whenever you sustain this ability, you can move up to half your speed and make a melee strike with a slashing weapon. The strike targets any number of creatures adjacent to you at any point during your movement.

Level 6: You gain a +1d damage bonus with the strike.

Level 12: The damage bonus increases to +2d.

Level 18: The damage bonus increases to +3d.

3rd – Unfettered Movement: During each phase, you may move through one creature’s space during movement. You treat its space as difficult terrain. After moving through that creature’s space, other creatures block you as normal for the remainder of your movement. Certain unusual creatures that occupy their entire space, such as gelatinous cubes, may be immune to this ability. If you end your movement in a creature’s space with this ability, you and that creature are squeezing if you are no more than one size category larger or smaller than it.

6th – Windrush: You gain a +5 foot bonus to your speed with all of your movement modes.

9th – Eye of the Storm: You cannot be surrounded (–2 Armor and Ref).

12th – Greater Unfettered Movement: Using your unfettered movement ability does not cause you to treat spaces occupied by creatures as difficult terrain.

15th – Greater Windrush: The bonus from your wind dance ability increases to +10 feet.

18th – Greater Eye of the Storm: You take no penalties for squeezing with other creatures. This does not reduce your penalties for squeezing in tight spaces.

21st – Supreme Unfettered Movement: You may move through any number of creatures with your unfettered movement ability.

Optional Rules

Attributes

Other Methods of Attribute Generation

Point buy offers the fairest and most customizable system for determining attribute scores, ensuring that players can be almost any character they want to be. However, some groups may wish to determine attribute scores differently. Other options are provided below.

Simple Random Point Buy

With this method, you have only a small degree of control over your attribute scores, but all characters generated in this way are equally powerful. As with the point buy method, all your attribute scores start at 0, and you get 10 points to distribute among your attribute scores. However, you do not have full control over how to distribute those points.

For each attribute, starting with the attributes you care about most, roll 1d6. You spend that many points on that attribute, ignoring any extra points that can't be spent. For example, if you roll a 5, you spend 4 points on the attribute, causing you to start with a 3. If you do not have enough points remaining to spend the amount indicated by the die roll, spend as many as you can and move on to the next attribute.

If you have points remaining after rolling all of your attribute scores, you may distribute the points freely among your abilities, using the normal point buy rules. You cannot increase the starting value of any individual attribute by more than 1 during this stage. If any of your attributes start as a 0, you may choose to lower them to gain the normal benefits from having low attributes (see Attribute Penalties, page 19).

To further limit your character creation options, you may choose to randomize the order in which you roll your attributes instead of rolling them in an order of your choice.

Smoothed Random Point Buy

This method functions like the Simple Random Point Buy method, except that the resulting attribute values have a smoother distribution, and you can randomly end up with attribute penalties.

For each attribute, starting with the attributes you care about most, roll 4d6. Then, remove any one of the rolls after seeing the results. Sum the results of the remaining three dice and spend the appropriate number of attribute points as indicated in Table E.1: Smoothed Random Point Buy Results. If you do not have enough points remaining to spend the amount indicated by the die roll, spend as many as you can and move on to the next ability.

If you have points remaining after rolling all of your attribute scores, you may distribute the points freely among your abilities, using the normal point buy rules. You cannot increase the starting value of any individual attribute by more than 1 during this stage.

To further limit your character creation options, you may choose to randomize the order in which you roll your attributes instead of rolling them in an order of your choice.

Table E.1: Smoothed Random Point Buy Results

Roll	Base Attribute	Point Cost
3-4	-2	0 ¹
5-6	-1	0 ²
7-8	0	0
9-10	1	1
11-12	2	2
13-15	3	4
16-18	4	6

1 You gain one insight point.

2 You gain one skill point.

Classic Hardcore

This method is completely random and can generate very overpowered or underpowered characters. It represents the unfairness of the world, where some people are just better or worse than others. For each attribute, roll 2d6, take the average (rounded down), and subtract 2. If you roll a 1 on both dice, treat the average as a 0. The result is your base value for that attribute.

Epic Fate

After 21st level, characters no longer gain levels normally. However, they can still increase their personal power as they make progress towards their ultimate fate.

When you reach 21st level, you may choose an epic fate that you qualify for, or you may delay choosing until you meet the prerequisites for your desired fate. You do not start with any ranks in your chosen epic fate. Each epic fate specifies ways that you can make progress towards that epic fate. Whenever you make dramatic progress towards your epic fate, your rank in that epic fate may increase, at the discretion of the Game Master.

None of the epic fate abilities have a tag to indicate that they are magical abilities. Many of them are not fundamentally mundane in nature, but they are beyond normal magic, and effects like an antimagic field cannot interact with or suppress them.

Artificial Immortality

You have sought out strange magical power in search of a way to artificially prolong your life. As your power grows, you become increasingly able to resist death and return from it. Eventually, you will transcend death entirely.

Prerequisites: You must perform a series of rituals to prepare yourself for immortality, at least one of which must be rank 7 or higher. There are many kinds of immortality that you can pursue with this epic fate, and the exact nature of the rituals will change depending on the type of immortality you pursue. For example, you can have a phylactery regenerate a new body for you like a lich, you can create clones of yourself that you inhabit if your first body dies, or you can modify your body to regenerate after death from mortal wounds. This immortality may change your base species, such as if you become a lich or move your body into a flesh golem. If it does, you retain all benefits and modifiers from your original species other than size and gain the effects of the new species in addition.

Progression: You must discover powerful new magic rituals that support your particular form of immortality. This generally requires exploring sites of ancient magic, gaining favor with powerful creatures who have relevant knowledge or abilities, and independent experimentation based on your findings.

Artificial Immortality Ranks

Rank 1 – Life After Death: If you die from any cause other than old age, you resurrect according to nature of your chosen immortality. Your specific form of immortality determines where you return, such as at the site of your death, at the current location of your corpse, or in an entirely separate location. The timing of your resurrection may also differ based on your immortality, but you cannot complete your resurrection sooner than one day after the time of your death. After you resurrect in this way, this ability does not function for one week, allowing you to be killed normally.

Rank 2 – Death Familiarity: You become so familiar with the trauma of injury and death that your body adapts to it. You gain a +2 bonus to vital rolls. In addition, you cannot gain more than two vital wounds from a single damage roll, regardless of the amount of damage you take.

Rank 3 – Artificial Life: Whenever you resurrect with your life after death ability, your new body gains a +1 bonus to Strength, Dexterity, and Constitution. This bonus does not stack if you resurrect multiple times. In addition, that resurrection functions even if the cause of your death was old age, and you can control the physical age of your new body.

Rank 4 – Deathcaller: You are deeply familiar with death, and know how to most effectively inflict it on others. Whenever you inflict a vital wound on a living creature, you may kill that creature outright.

Rank 5 – True Immortality: You become fully immortal. There is no time limit after the resurrection from your life after death ability where you become vulnerable to a true death. In addition, the resurrection can complete as quickly as the end of the next round after your death. If a physical component limits your immortality, such as a phylactery, it can no longer be damaged or destroyed without the direct intervention of a rank 5 Slayer.

Deity

People have begun to worship you, putting you on the path to become a deity. As your followers grow, you become capable of ever greater miraculous acts, and you can grant your followers some of your power. Eventually, you ascend into the pantheon of gods.

Prerequisites: You must have at least a hundred sentient worshippers to choose this epic fate. In addition, you must not have any cleric archetypes.

Progression: To progress towards this epic fate, you must gain a significant number of additional worshippers. In general, you must at least double your worshippers to progress towards each new rank of this fate, though this can vary widely. Having worshippers among many different places is more valuable than converting an isolated group to worship you, though both are helpful.

Deity Ranks

Rank 1 – Domain Influence: Choose a cleric domain. You gain all abilities from that domain except for its mastery ability. In addition, your worshippers become eligible to gain cleric archetypes, though they cannot exceed a maximum rank in those archetypes of twice your rank in this epic fate (to a maximum of 8). This does not grant additional archetypes to worshippers who have already chosen their three archetypes, and is usually only relevant to NPC worshippers.

Rank 2 – Prayers: You hear all prayers directed to you. Once per week, you can teleport yourself and up to ten allies any distance within the same plane as a standard action. Your destination must either be a worshipper actively praying to you or a holy place dedicated to you. In addition, choose a second cleric domain. You gain all abilities from that domain except for its mastery ability.

Rank 3 – Domain Mastery: Choose a third cleric domain. You gain all abilities from that domain. In addition, you gain the mastery ability from the domains you chose with your domain influence and prayers abilities.

Rank 4 – Demigod: You become a demigod. You no longer age normally, and you cannot die from old age. You become a planeforged native to an Aligned Plane matching your alignment (see Planes, page 309). While you are on that plane, you can teleport to any plane with your prayers ability from this epic fate. In addition, you can use that teleportation ability once per hour instead of once per week.

Rank 5 – Deification: You become a deity. You are transported to an Aligned Plane matching your alignment, and you gain divine dominion over an amount of territory in that plane. While you are in your territory, you can freely reshape your territory with a thought to match your desires, and you are immune to all damage and conditions.

Regardless of which plane you are on, you can teleport to anywhere within your home plane as a standard action. In addition, there is no limit on the number of times you can teleport with your prayers ability from this epic fate.

Hero of Legend

You are widely known as a hero, rescuing those in need. As your deeds of heroism spread, you gain abilities to help you protect others. Although you will eventually die, your legend will live on, inspiring others to save people as you did.

Prerequisites: You must be publicly known to be involved with saving at least one major country or similarly large group of people from some sort of disaster to choose this epic fate. In addition, you must have a base Willpower of at least 1.

Progression: To progress towards this epic fate, you must publicly contribute to saving large numbers of people from death or other major disasters in a way that builds your reputation.

Hero of Legend Ranks

Rank 1 – Heroic Intervention: At the start of each phase, you may choose an ally adjacent to you. Whenever that creature would be the target of an attack that phase, you are targeted by that attack instead. If the attack would have targeted both you and that ally, the attack only targets you once, not twice.

Rank 2 – Unstoppable Hero: You gain a +4 bonus to all defenses, and you gain a +50 bonus to your maximum hit points. In addition, you gain a +20 foot bonus to your speed with all of your movement modes.

Rank 3 – Sheltering Aura: Your heroic intervention ability from this epic fate affects any number of allies within a Medium (30 ft.) radius emanation from you. Whenever an affected ally is attacked, you teleport into an empty space next to that creature, or into its space if no empty space is available. If multiple allies are attacked simultaneously, you can choose where you end up at the end of the series of teleportations.

Rank 4 – Inspiring Hero: The area of your heroic intervention ability increases to a Gargantuan (240 ft.) radius emanation. In addition, each creature with a mind affected by that ability is so inspired by your example that it gains a +1 bonus to its base Willpower permanently. This bonus does not stack.

Rank 5 – Answer the Call: You gain an intuitive sense for when people need your aid. Whenever someone on the same plane as you is in danger, you are aware of the existence of that danger. You can sense the general category of danger (fire, combat, drowning, etc.) and a very approximate direction and distance. This generally allows you to sense if a large number of people are in danger from the same thing. As a standard action, you can teleport any distance within that plane to reach a person in danger.

Slayer

You are widely known as a killer of legendary skill. As your body count increases, you gain abilities to help you track down and kill increasingly powerful foes. Eventually, your powers threaten the gods themselves, allowing you a unique ability to transcend death.

Prerequisites: You must be publicly known to be involved with slaying at least one creature with a challenge rating of 4 and a level of at least 21.

Progression: To progress towards this epic fate, you must publicly contribute to slaying increasingly dangerous and fearsome foes in a way that builds your reputation.

Slayer Ranks

Rank 1 – Lethality: You gain a +4 bonus to power. In addition, whenever you would inflict any number of vital wounds on a creature, you may inflict twice that many vital wounds.

Rank 2 – Precision Killer: You gain a +4 bonus to accuracy. In addition, you can inflict critical hits on creatures that would otherwise be immune to critical hits from you due to their size or body structure.

Rank 3 – Mark of the Slayer: As a standard action, you can choose to mark any creature you can unambiguously identify. This includes any creature you can see, as well as any creature you know the name of and can differentiate from other similar creatures. You can only mark one creature at a time, and applying a new mark replaces any previous mark. You cannot use this ability to replace a mark that is less than a week old if the recipient of the previous mark still lives.

This mark is visible on the creature's body with a design that is recognizably yours. It appears on top of any clothing or other attempt to conceal it, even if the creature is invisible. Anyone can recognize the significance of the mark with a difficulty rating 15 Knowledge (arcana or local) check, and creatures that understand the significance of the mark may refuse to give your target aid of any kind to avoid risking your wrath.

You know the exact distance and direction to any creature you have marked with this ability that is on the same plane as you. As a standard action, you can create a scrying sensor adjacent to them that you can see and hear through. The sensor lasts as long as you sustain it as a free action. It moves to stay adjacent to the target, regardless of its speed.

Rank 4 – Slayer's Journey: As a standard action, you can teleport yourself and up to ten allies any distance within the same plane to the location of a creature affected by your mark of the slayer ability from this epic fate. You cannot precisely choose the destination of this ability, and it does not leave you immediately adjacent to the marked creature. Generally, it leaves you just outside any sort of fortress or defenses the marked creature has constructed. After you use this ability, you cannot use it to travel to the same creature for a day. This does not limit your ability to travel to a different creature if you mark a different creature.

Rank 5 – Godslayer: Your attacks ignore most forms of general immunity. This does not help you ignore specific immunities, such as fire elemental's immunity to fire damage. However, you can destroy artifacts and even inflict damage and conditions on deities in their divine dominion. As a result, even deities fear to interfere with you directly. If you ever die, you can generally threaten or fight your way past any planar guardians to leave your afterlife whenever you want. After you do this once, you become a plane-forged native to your afterlife plane, since your new body is formed from the raw material of that plane (see Planes, page 309).

Bonus Languages: Any.

Species Feat Options: any Skill feat.

Automatic Languages: Common, any two common languages.

Drakkenfel

A drakkenfel is created when a dragon's scales are removed while the dragon still lives. The scales retain much of the dragon's power, and without them, the dragon is cursed to continue its life as a diminished, mortal creature. Drakkenfel are extremely rare, as there are few who are powerful enough to subdue a dragon to extract its scales – and fewer still who would dare to do so, knowing that they would earn the eternal enmity of dragonkind.

Physically, a drakkenfel resembles a wyrmling dragon, except that it is completely scaleless. Its skin is leathery and rough, and some drakkenfel bear scars from the ritual that removed their scales. Most drakkenfel retain tatters of their wings, but they are always nonfunctional.

Size: Small.

Attributes: No change. This replaces the normal bonuses and penalties to attributes from being Small.

Speed: 25 feet.

Special Abilities:

- Low-light Vision: Drakkenfel treat sources of light as if they had double their normal illumination range.
- Draconic Essence Each drakkenfel was once a type of true dragon. When creating a drakkenfel, choose which type of dragon it used to be. This is inherent to the drakkenfel, and cannot be changed. A list of dragons and their associated energy type is given on Table D.2: Dragon Types (page 404).
- Damage Tolerance A drakkenfel gains +4 bonus to defenses against attacks that deal damage of the type associated with its draconic essence.
- Bite A drakkenfel's mouth can be used to bite (see Natural Weapons, page 314). A drakkenfel's bite attack deals +0d damage.
- Sleeping Dragon If a drakkenfel recovers its stolen scales, it immediately becomes a true dragon again. Its statistics become identical to its statistics before losing its scales, including level.

Species Feat Options: Draconic Heritage. The type of dragon chosen for the drakkenfel's draconic ancestry must match its draconic essence.

Automatic Languages: Common, Draconic, any one common language.

Dragon

Ancient dragons are magical creatures of immense power and wisdom, and are far more powerful than any ordinary character of the same level. However, young dragons can be played as characters, though their unique abilities do pose unique challenges.

Size: Small.

Attributes: -2 base Strength, +1 base Dexterity.

Speed: 20 feet.

Special Abilities:

- Dragon Archetype You only gain two class archetypes instead of three. Instead, you treat the Dragon Archetype as one of your archetypes, and you gain ranks in that just like you gain ranks in class archetypes.

Automatic Languages: Common, Draconic, any one common language.

Dragon Archetype

Rank 0 – Draconic Scales

You gain a +1 bonus to Armor defense.

Rank 0 – Draconic Senses

You have darkvision with a range of 60 feet and low-light vision.

Rank 0 – Draconic Weapons

You have a bite natural weapon and two claw natural weapons. For details, see Natural Weapons, page 314.

Rank 0 – Draconic Wings

You gain scaly wings that sprout from your back. These wings grant you a glide speed equal to the base speed for your size (see Gliding, page 14). The wings themselves are mundane, but the ability to fly and glide with them is magical.

Rank 0 – Dragon Type

Choose a type of dragon from among the dragons on Table D.2: Dragon Types. You are that type of dragon. You are immune to the damage type dealt by that dragon's breath weapon.

Rank 0 – Limited Equipment

A dragon's claws are not able to effectively wield shields or manufactured weapons. They can wear armor, but it is treated as barding instead of normal armor, increasing its cost. In general, dragon-fitted barding is rare or nonexistent even in large cities, so a dragon's armor must usually be created specifically for them.

Rank 1 – Draconic Breath

You can use the breath weapon ability as a standard action.

Breath Weapon

Make an attack vs. Reflex against everything in the area defined by your dragon type (see Table D.2: Dragon Types). You may use your Constitution in place of your Strength to determine your power with this ability. After you use this ability, you briefly cannot use it again.

Classes

Bard

A bard is a rogue with the ability to perform magical feats through music. It is unclear whether bards actually draw power from music in the same way that druids draw power from nature, or whether they simply channel their innate magical talent through music. The bard class functions like the rogue class, with the following exceptions:

- A bard cannot choose the assassin archetype. However, the arcane magic sorcerer archetype is considered to be part of their class, and they may choose that archetype without spending insight points to multiclass.
- A bard casts spells without somatic components.
- A bard can only cast spells while sustaining a performance with the Perform skill. In addition, they can cast bard spells with the Focus tag while sustaining a performance, despite the normal limitation that Focus abilities cannot be used during a performance. This performance can be either a mundane performance or a bardic performance ability.

Faebonder

A faebonder is a warlock who made their pact with a fae creature instead of a demon or devil. The faebonder class functions like the warlock class, with the following exceptions:

- The magic source for the faebonder class is nature magic instead of pact magic. This changes the mystic spheres a faebonder has access to and all other effects based on their source of magic. However, they still require both verbal components and somatic components to cast spells from the faebonder class (see Casting Components, page 30).

- A faebonder cannot choose the blessings of the abyss archetype. However, the elementalist druid archetype is considered to be part of their class, and they may choose that archetype without spending insight points to multiclass.
- Faebonders add Knowledge (nature) to their class skill list and remove Knowledge (planes).

Favored Soul

A favored soul is a warlock who made their pact with a deity instead of a demon or devil. This is an unusual arrangement, as deities would normally influence their clerics to achieve their aims. However, in special circumstances, a deity may want to take a more direct hand in mortal affairs. The favored soul class functions like the warlock class, with the following exceptions:

- The magic source for the favored soul class is divine magic instead of pact magic. This changes the mystic spheres a favored soul has access to and all other effects based on their source of magic. However, they still require both verbal components and somatic components to cast spells from the favored soul class (see Casting Components, page 30).
- A favored soul cannot choose the blessings of the abyss archetype. However, the domain influence cleric archetype is considered to be part of their class, and they may choose that archetype without spending insight points to multiclass.
- Favored souls add Knowledge (religion) to their class skill list and remove Knowledge (planes).

Shaman

A shaman, like a cleric, is a divine worshipper. However, while clerics worship powerful, well-established deities, shamans worship more primitive deities of lesser power. As a result, their divine powers are more limited and take different forms. Shamans are common among less civilized humanoid societies like bugbears. The shaman class functions like the cleric class, with the following exceptions:

- The magic source for the shaman class is nature magic instead of divine magic. This changes the mystic spheres a shaman has access to and all other effects based on their source of magic.
- A shaman cannot choose the divine spell mastery archetype. However, the elementalist druid archetype is considered to be part of their class, and they may choose that archetype without spending insight points to multiclass.
- A shaman cannot gain access to more than two mystic spheres from the magic source granted by the shaman class by any means.
- Shamans add Knowledge (nature) to their class skill list and remove Knowledge (planes).

water (not salt water). Forming a bond or severing a bond takes one week of meditation and ritual, periodically interrupted by rest. Forming a bond also requires asking permission from the water. Any individual body of water can only be bonded to one naiad or naiaidi in this way.

As long as your bonded water remains clean, pure, and large enough to be a valid subject of bonding, you gain a +1 bonus to Mental defense and a bonus to your maximum hit points equal to your level. If your bonded water becomes contaminated or shrinks below the minimum size, you take a –1 penalty to Mental defense and a penalty to your maximum hit points equal to your level until you sever the bond. 16th – Fluidseeker (Magical): You gain a +1 bonus to accuracy against creatures significantly composed of water or watery fluids. This is true of almost all living creatures.

19th – Supreme Water Bond (Magical): The number of hit points granted by your water bond ability increases to twice your level, and the bonus to Mental defense increases to +3.

Gameplay Options

Tap Out

With this optional rule, whenever you gain a vital wound, you can “tap out” to guarantee that you survive while taking your character out of the fight. If you tap out, you treat the result of the vital roll for that vital wound as a 10, regardless of any bonuses or penalties you would normally have to the vital roll. However, you fall unconscious immediately, and you cannot regain consciousness by any means until you take a short rest.

This optional rule significantly reduces the likelihood of character death, and makes fights less likely to impose long-term consequences on characters. However, it also makes vital wounds more likely to entirely knock characters out of a fight, which can increase the risk that the entire party is defeated.

Appendix F

Campaign Settings

Praxis

The world of Praxis is a limited one, fraught with danger in the wilderness beyond a small region of safety and civilization.

History

The Apocalypse

A thousand years ago, the world was destroyed in a great magical apocalypse. Civilization survived in only one place: Praxis, a city sheltered by a massive and mysterious shield-dome. The details of this event, and the nature of the world before the apocalypse, are lost to time. Most of the life in the world was also wiped out in the apocalypse. Of the species that survived, most were kept safe in Praxis and released into the wild after it ended. A rare few specimens of other species apparently also survived, but no living creature was alive before the apocalypse - even of species with lifespans that can stretch that far back, such as dragons.

The Long Reconstruction

In the aftermath of the world's destruction, the inhabitants of Praxis decided to ban magic after the devastation it had caused. For about nine hundred years, this worked fairly well, and Praxis very slowly expanded and rebuilt its civilization. Most of the interior of the dome was devoted to farmland during that time. Praxis developed its own government and guilds, and the four major power sources in Praxis developed at this time: the city government, the Boundary Wardens, the Nullwardens, and the Landowners' Association. The Boundary Wardens and Nullwardens made efforts to expand the influence of Praxis beyond the dome and into the untamed wilds beyond. However, their progress was slow and dangerous thanks to the monsters that had taken over the wilds beyond Praxis.

Periodically, Praxis encountered civil unrest or the threat of hidden magic users violating the city's prohibition. The greatest punishment the city imposed on its worst members was exile. Many of those exiled from the city died in the inhospitable world beyond, but there are some groups outside Praxis that can trace their origins back hundreds of years before the Great Harrowing to groups of people exiled from Praxis. Most of these long-lived groups are druidic circles.

The Great Harrowing

Nine hundred and twenty years after the apocalypse, Praxis was attacked by a pair of massive red dragons. They flew in through the open gates, destroyed the city's few static weapons that could pose them any threat, and began torching the city and all of its farmland. The city tried to defend itself, but without magical defenses they had little ability to stop the dragons. Although Nullwardens had found success slaying dragons before in more controlled circumstances, their near invulnerability to magic could only stop the dragons from killing them - not from destroying the rest of the city around them.

In Praxis's darkest hour, it was finally saved by people who had been concealing their magical powers from Praxis's ban: the Eldritch Knights and the Divine Chorus. The Eldritch Knights were an order of mage-knights whose founders had been exiled from Praxis centuries ago. When they discovered that Praxis was under attack, they had come to help defend it. They were joined by the clerics of the major churches in Praxis, who had been concealing their divine power. They did not immediately claim a specific name for their alliance, but in the years since the Great Harrowing they have become known as the Divine Chorus.

The Eldritch Knights and the Divine Chorus with the remaining defenders of the city to seal the gates of Praxis to trap the dragons inside. Then, in a fearsome magical battle, they defeated the dragons and saved the charred remains of the city.

The Era of Rebirth

In the aftermath of the Great Harrowing, much of the old power structure of the city was destabilized, and many of its previous power holders were dead. When the city started to function normally again, the first major act was to revoke the ban on magic in gratitude for the role that magic users had played in saving the city. The power offered by magic dramatically accelerated the rate of Praxis's reconstruction and expansion. For the first time in centuries, Praxis was able to make significant progress against the monsters at its gates.

Eighty years have passed since the Great Harrowing, and in that time, Praxis has pushed most of its farmland outside of the city. The inside of the city is being developed and magically renovated, and living quarters are becoming far less crowded for most of the city's inhabitants. The power of the Nullwardens has waned with the acceptance of magic, though they still argue strenuously against its dangers and use each magic-wielding criminal as evidence that magic should be more aggressively controlled - or banned once more. The Boundary Wardens are stretched thin patrolling the ever expanding territory, and they are eager to recruit anyone with the skills to help them keep the peace in the wilderness and ensure that the road networks are safe.

The City of Praxis

The city of Praxis occupies a nearly perfect circle with a ten mile radius, all of which is protected by an immense dome. The city sits atop a massive plateau with a thin rim around the outside. Roads zigzag up the side of the plateau to reach each of Praxis's three gates.

The Shield-Dome

The shield-dome over Praxis is made of a mysterious metal alloy that is harder than any known substance. Though it is apparently mundane in nature, no known weapon or spell has ever been able to harm it. The gates to the city are massive doors that can swing open and closed, and were apparently part of the dome at the time of its construction. For many centuries, the entire dome has been magically invisible, allowing sunlight to enter the city. The gates have only closed once in that time - during the Great Harrowing, to trap the dragons inside the city.

Most people think that the dome is a magical forcefield, like an immense wall of force, instead of physical metal that is rendered invisible. Of the few who do know the dome's true nature, even fewer know what sustains the invisibility effect. The power to sustain the dome's invisibility comes from an ancient magical device deep in the Praxis Labyrinth.

The Praxis Labyrinth

The plateau that supports Praxis also contains an immense labyrinth. An ancient magic makes the labyrinth impossible to navigate by confusing both the minds of intruders and the physical space they walk through, creating twisted and impossible passages that layer over themselves. Many people have tried to explore it, but the labyrinth has never been navigated within recorded history. Only the most learned historical scholars know of reports centuries ago that an unknown woman walked out of the labyrinth without having entered it. She was never seen again.

Modern Geography

Praxis is the only major city. It sits at the intersection of the four major biomes: the Northern Forest, the Southern Forest, the Expanse, and the Storm Peaks. There are a number of farmsteads expanding from Praxis towards the Northern Forest and Southern Forest, and several towns of importance outside Praxis.

Major Organizations

Boundary Wardens

The Boundary Wardens are responsible for patrolling the wilderness around Praxis, maintaining the safety of the road networks, and generally keeping the boundary between civilization and nature intact. They have legal jurisdiction over all areas outside of the Praxis shield-dome.

City Guards

The city guards are responsible for maintaining peace and order within Praxis. They have legal jurisdiction over all areas within the Praxis shield-dome.

Landowners' Association

The Landowners' Association is a loose collection of rich merchants and real estate owners within Praxis. They have no formal responsibility or jurisdiction, but they wield great wealth to accomplish their objectives, which mostly revolve around acquiring greater wealth.

Nullwardens

The Nullwardens are a group of strictly mundane warriors who fight against the dangers of magic. All Nullwardens above the entry ranks are Null, making them virtually immune to magic. Centuries ago, the Nullwardens were indisputably the most important power brokers in Praxis, surpassing even the legal government. They were a mix of elite mercenaries and witch hunters, searching for magical dangers both within Praxis and beyond its walls. After their failure to protect Praxis during the Great Harrowing, their power has waned, though they are still deeply influential. Since magic is now legal, they spend less time hunting for mages in Praxis and more time advocating for political change.

Unlike the Boundary Wardens or the city guard, the Nullwardens do not primarily define their influence in terms of territory. The Nullwardens send surgical strike teams anywhere in the world to stop magical threats. To the extent necessary, they generally obey the authority of whoever claims legal jurisdiction over the territory they have to operate in, and any extra-legal operations they undertake are well hidden.

Dreadbore Isles

The world of Dreadbore Isles is composed of a ring of islands that surround an immense whirlpool named the Dreadbore.

Geography

The islands surrounding the Dreadbore vary significantly in their size and culture, and the influence of the Dreadbore tends to make it impractical for any given island to have significant contact with any islands beyond its close neighbors.

Beyond the ring of islands lies the Great Ocean. Its depths are beyond reckoning, and no significant land mass has ever been discovered outside of the ring of islands. The deep waters of the Great Ocean also contain very limited sea life, especially compared to the rich variety around the islands.

Island Descriptions

Dragonsguard

The island of Dragonsguard is ruled by dragons. Most ships that approach the island are destroyed on sight by dragons, regardless of their intentions. There are two known exceptions that the dragons allow to pass: ships carrying an immense wealth of treasure to offer as tribute to the dragons, and ships crewed entirely by dwarves. The tribute ships are allowed to leave Dragonsguard unscathed, save for the loss of their tribute. Dwarf-crewed ships have been observed to reach the island unscathed, but the ships never return, and their crews are never seen again.

The few people who have been to Dragonsguard and returned on tribute ships tell fantastical stories of a draconic paradise, filled with works of magical genius and incredible wealth. However, they have never seen dwarves on the island, and no one knows what happens to the dwarf-crewed ships.

Darren's Land

The island of Darren's Land is flat and dry, and long ago it was an uninhabited desert. Thanks to the mighty and continual efforts of the druidic Circle of Unity, a collective representing the variety of druid circles present on the island, the barren land provides enough food to sustain the island's population. This gives the Circle of Unity far more influence on the politics of civilization than druids normally possess, which has posed challenges for both the civilization on the island and the integrity of the druids who wield that power.

Long ago, a mighty warrior named Darren came to the island and cleansed it entirely of monsters. He sought to establish a utopia free from any danger, where common people could explore any part of the island freely. Although he succeeded at rendering the island safe, he failed to render it inhabitable, and was forced to flee the island to avoid starvation. Decades later, he returned with a group of druids and colonists to establish a sustainable civilization there, and it has persisted ever since.

Elysland

The island of Elysland is overgrown with an ancient forest. It is divided into five forest-dwelling nations. The different nations have deep divisions in their attitudes towards society, and some share ancient grudges against each other. However, all are unified in their reverence for the towering trees that shade and protect them, and they will put aside their differences when necessary to push back against outsiders who would defile the forests.

Reinward

Reinward is one of the largest islands, and is the most thoroughly developed and civilized.

The Savage Lands

The Savage Lands are bordered by mountains on all sides but the easternmost side, which extends deep into the Dreadbore. Only the largest and most well-crewed ships are capable of navigating that port, and no ship built on the Savage Lands has ever escaped to safety. It is not a barren island, but it is an unwelcoming one. There are three main power groups on the island: the orc tribes, the undead, and the Old Fae.

The Soulforge

The Soulforge is a plane of infinite smooth, grey ground stretching to every horizon. The only location of any distinction or relevance on the plane is the Soulspire. It is a metal tower, five hundred feet across at the base and one mile high. The outside of the tower is adorned with beautiful and intricate sigils in an unknown language. Around the base of the tower, a small encampment of doomed souls repeatedly struggle to ascend the Soulspire, die in the process, and take corporeal form once again.

The Trapped Souls

The Soulspire seems to function similarly to an unusually limited afterlife. Every creature surrounding the Soulspire is a plane-forged made from the essence of the plane. As normal, when a plane-forged creature of strong will dies, they can maintain the cohesion of their soul and reconstitute a new body from the essence of their native plane. The essence of the Soulspire plane is highly malleable, allowing these new bodies to be formed in hours instead of the years or even centuries it can take on more established planes.

A long-standing legend based on murals at the base of the tower claims that anyone who reach to the top of the Soulspire can find their heart's desire, which is generally interpreted to mean leaving the plane. Many inhabitants of the Soulspire take advantage of their effective immortality to lay reckless siege to the Soulspire, returning after each demise as long as their willpower holds.

There is a semblance of culture at the tower's base. It shifts slowly, as over long centuries the old inhabitants give up on maintaining their individuality and become part of the plane itself. Traditionally, this is done by attempting one final tower ascent and not returning from the inevitable death that follows, though some have wandered off into the grey void outside the tower and never returned. Whenever an old soul gives up its sense of self, a new arrival appears within a day. There are three classes of people in Soulforge: the ascendants, who actively try to climb the tower; the fledglings, who have never tried; and the sages, who once sought to climb the tower and have now given up.

The Impossible Ascent

Each floor of the Soulspire is a separate demiplane, most of which are far larger than the tower's radius would suggest. There is always a portal on each floor to ascend to the next level, and there are often windows in incogruous locations that look out onto the original plane. The view from each window has an elevation about twenty feet higher than the previous window, and looks out onto the Soulforge. The windows can be seen from outside the Soulspire, and ascendants looking out can be observed, through their surroundings are never visible - only the ascendants themselves. This allows the fledglings and sages at the base to track the progress of ascendants. It gives the ascendants confidence that the Soulspire is finite, and that actually reaching the top is an achievable goal - though not an easy one. Based on the exterior windows, the Soulspire has two hundred and fifty-one floors. No ascendant has ever passed the fiftieth floor.

Aside from the constant presence of the portal and the windows, each floor of the Soulspire can be dramatically different. In addition to having highly varied terrain, each floor can have different gravity or otherwise break different fundamental laws. In general, the floors seem to expand in size and complexity as their apparent height in the tower increases.

Almost all floors are populated with planeforged imitations of creatures native to other planes. These creatures are almost universally hostile. In the unusual event that the creatures communicate with ascendants, they have never displayed any knowledge of the Soulspire's nature or of any world beyond their current floor.

The Soulspire is entered through a large, golden gate at its base. It is activated by placing a hand against it for thirty continuous seconds. Once it activates, it remains open for thirty seconds before closing. Portals within the Soulspire behave in the same way, though their color and size may vary significantly. During the time that the portals are open, any ascendants who enter it always arrive at the same floor as each other. On rare occasions, ascendants may arrive at different locations in the next floor, but they usually arrive in the same location as each other.

Appendix G

Monsters

Monsters are all of the various non-humanoid creatures that exist in the world of Rise. Many of them are dangerous, and adventurers may need to fight them. This chapter describes the rules for monsters, and the combat statistics for a variety of monsters.

Monster Statistics

Like player characters, monsters have levels, attributes, and abilities. However, they do not have classes, legacy items, or many other elements of characters. This section defines how monsters function.

Level

Each monster has a level that indicates its approximate strength. This has all of the same effects as the level for a player character, except that monsters do not gain legacy items or attunement points as described in Table 2.8: Character Advancement (page 34).

Challenge Rating

Each monster has a challenge rating that indicates its approximate strength within its level, ranging from 1/2 to 4. A monster's challenge rating is a guideline to how many of that monster should typically be present in an encounter (see Encounter Balancing, page 446). This has several effects on the monster's statistics, as described in Table G.1: Challenge Rating Effects.

Table G.1: Challenge Rating Effects

CR	HP	DR	AP	Accuracy	Defenses	Damage ¹
1/2	x1/2	x0	0	+0	+0	-2d
1	x1	x0	1	+0	+0	-1d
2	x1	x1	1	+1	+1	—
3	x2	x2	2	+2	+2	—
4	x3	x4	3	+3	+3	+1d

1. This modifier applies to all damage dice rolled by the monster, including both strikes and magical abilities.

Monster Vital Wounds

Monsters do not normally make vital rolls like player characters do. Unless otherwise specified on the monster's description, vital wounds have no negative effects on monsters. Instead, once a monster gains a vital wound, it is defeated. Defeated monsters may be unconscious, dead, or merely flee the fight at the discretion of the Game Master.

Monster Resources

Unless otherwise noted in their description, monsters have no resources, and their fatigue tolerance is treated as 0. They are unable to use abilities that would cause them to increase their fatigue level, such as the desperate exertion ability.

Recovering Conditions

Monsters cannot normally use the recover ability. However, monsters with a high challenge rating can remove conditions automatically. At the end of each round, monsters with CR of 2 or higher roll 1d10 + their CR. Monsters gain a +1 bonus to this roll at 4th level and every 6 levels thereafter. If the result is 10 or higher, the monster removes one condition of its choice. This effect cannot remove a condition applied during the current round. Monsters without a sufficient understanding of the conditions affecting them generally choose randomly.

Rank-Based Ability Access

Although monsters do not gain archetypes, their special abilities should still be balanced appropriately for their maximum accessible rank. Like a player character, a monster's maximum accessible rank is based on its level, as shown in Table G.2: Monster Advancement (page 447). CR 3 and CR 4 monsters gain a +1 bonus to their maximum rank, allowing them to use powerful abilities before players can.

Attributes

Each of a monster's base attributes can range from -9 to 3, as appropriate for the type of monster. A monster's attributes scale with level in the same way as character attributes. A monster can also have up to two attributes starting at 4 or 5. In general, a monster with higher starting attributes will be stronger, but not all monsters need to start with the same starting attribute total.

Level Scaling

Monster level scaling is described in Table G.2: Monster Advancement (page 447). This summarizes the following effects:

- At almost all levels, the base hit points of a monster are 50% higher than the base hit points of a player character
- At all levels, the base damage resistance of a monster is three times the base damage resistance of a player character
- Monsters gain a +1 bonus to all defenses at 3rd level and every 6 levels thereafter
- Monsters gain a +1 bonus to power with all abilities at 3rd level that gradually increases every 3 levels thereafter
- Monsters gain a +1d damage bonus with strikes at 4th level and every 3 levels thereafter
- Monsters gain a +1 accuracy bonus at 5th level and every 6 levels thereafter

These scaling values are designed to keep monsters at a similar power level to player characters without having to repetitively define specific bonuses for each monster. In general, monsters that are designed to have unusually high or low values for any particular statistic define that with their attributes, though some monsters have more specific abilities.

Monster Armor

In general, monsters gain Armor Defense bonuses ranging from +2 to +4 in the same way that player characters do. Of course, not all monsters wear physical armor. The narrative justification is that the bonus is caused by their scales, an unusually tough hide, or similar effects.

Monster damage resistance is generally calculated more simply than player damage resistance. Player characters can have damage resistance bonuses from a variety of sources, especially armor. Since the vast majority of monsters do not wear armor, tracking their resistances explicitly with armor-equivalent mechanics would just be unnecessary bookkeeping. Instead, monsters have twice the normal base value for their damage resistance, and high CR monsters have additional multipliers on top of that.

Monster Natural Weapon Bonuses

Monsters do not use the offhand strike ability in combat. In general, rolling offhand strikes for each monster in a combat isn't worth the time and effort. Instead, if a monster has two copies of the same light natural weapon and the free hands to use both, it gains a +1 accuracy bonus with that natural weapon.

In addition, monsters that do not use hands for any purpose gain a +1d damage bonus with all strikes. The base statistics for natural weapons that do not require free hands, like bite and gore, are balanced for player usage. Being able to attack while both of your hands are occupied is powerful. However, monsters that do not take advantage of that opportunity need increased damage to keep pace with other attack options.

All monsters are able to take free actions. CR 1 or higher monsters can take minor actions, though many monsters do not have any relevant minor actions to take. Some monsters, including many high CR monsters, can either take additional actions each round or use powerful abilities as minor actions. These special abilities are listed in their descriptions.

In general, all monsters of CR 3 or 4 should be designed to attack multiple different PCs in every round. If the full damage output of a high-CR monster is brought to bear on a single PC, it will likely kill that PC quickly, taking a player out of the fight too early. Alternately, if that PC is able to avoid or resist the damage, it will trivialize the fight and remove the sense of danger. Instead, damage should be spread throughout the party to ensure that multiple people feel threatened and have to adjust their actions based on their personal danger tolerance.

Encounter Balancing

In general, a group of PCs of a given level will have an appropriate challenge from fighting monsters of the same level with a combined challenge rating equal to the number of PCs. Fighting monsters of a lower level, or monsters whose combined challenge rating is less than the number of PCs, will yield an easier encounter. Fighting monsters of a higher level, or fighting monsters whose combined challenge rating is greater than the number of PCs, will yield a more difficult encounter.

It is generally not a good idea for PCs to fight monsters more than three levels higher or lower than their own. They may find that their attacks always miss, or never miss, and other aspects of the encounter may be similarly imbalanced in ways that are not easily remedied by simply changing the number of enemies.

However, intentionally using lower-level monsters with a high CR can change the tone of an encounter in ways that may be beneficial. A fight against four CR 1 monsters of your level has a different pace and tone than a fight against four CR 2 monsters that are two or three levels lower than you, but both encounters can be similarly challenging.

Monster Knowledge

You can remember relevant knowledge about monsters by making Knowledge checks (see Knowledge, page 132). Each monster has a set of associated information that you can learn with a knowledge check of the listed difficulty rating. Most monsters have multiple tiers of information that you can learn depending on how good your Knowledge check is. All information recorded in these descriptions is accurate, though lower check results may not provide full context for a monster's behavior or nature.

At the end of each subsequent round, make an attack with the same accuracy against each poisoned creature's Fortitude defense, as normal for poisons (see Poison, page 377). If a creature reaches the third poison stage, it gains a vital wound. Instead of making a vital roll for the vital wound, the target's skin is transformed into a clear, slimy membrane. Every 5 minutes, an afflicted creature must be moistened with cool, fresh water or it will gain two fatigue points. This effect lasts until the vital wound is removed.

Glancing blow: The subject takes half damage.

Knowledge (arcana) 8: Black dragons are associated with death and decay. As black dragons age, the fleshy hide around their horns and face deteriorates, causing their heads to increasingly resemble a skull. Young black dragons usually inhabit marshes and swamps, though older dragons tend to migrate to caves that are better equipped to support large dragon hoards.

Knowledge (arcana) 13: Black dragons are the only type of dragon that commonly kills for no purpose other than sport. They are sadistic beyond measure, and even their typical draconic greed may be set aside so they can torment and eventually kill hated foes.

Knowledge (arcana) 18: Adult dragons naturally corrupt the areas around their lairs. Good farmland becomes marshy and impassable, and trees become twisted and rotten. Creatures in the area feel a mental pressure to be more cruel and sadistic. This warps the behavior of the few ordinary animals that remain, as well as the reptilian creatures that thrive in such conditions.

Knowledge (arcana) 19: The lair of an adult blue dragon is usually surrounded by thunderstorms and dangerous weather. Brass Dragons Knowledge (arcana) 7: Brass dragons are the most talkative and outgoing dragons. They inhabit desert climates, and roam them widely searching for travellers or towns that can provide small talk and updates on current events.

Knowledge (arcana) 12: Brass dragons are the only type of dragon who often have no consolidated hoard. Instead, they tend to bury their treasures deep in the desert, and trust the isolation of the desert to keep them safe. A brass dragon's favorite treasures are those that help it converse, such as intelligent items or magic items that allow communication at a distance.

Knowledge (arcana) 17: The lair of an adult brass dragon is usually surrounded by sandstorms that make it impossible to identify any digging it has done. Since the dragon has no desire to trap unwary travellers in its lair, creatures moving away from the lair find that the sandstorms clear up quickly. Creatures in the area feel more talkative, and natural desert animals tend to be much more noisy and communicative than normal.

Bronze Dragons

Knowledge (arcana) 9: Bronze dragons are the most warlike and military dragons. They are not easily roused to anger, but they love the practice of warfare and the use of majestic warships, and they eagerly look for opportunities to become involved on the right side of a brewing conflict. They live on coasts, and spend most of their time flying over the sea instead of over land.

Knowledge (arcana) 14: Pirates foolish enough to practice their trade within a bronze dragon's territory quickly learn the error of their ways. Bronze dragons also enjoy searching sunken ships for valuables, especially novel weapons - including siege weapons - which it may carry all the way back to its lair for decoration.

Knowledge (arcana) 19: The lair of an adult bronze dragon is usually set in a cliff surrounded by churning waves and strong currents. The currents guide ships away from the lair, making it difficult to approach accidentally. Ships that get too close despite those currents may find themselves trapped in dangerous whirlpools and dashed against the cliff face. Creatures in the area feel a greater sense of military honor and may feel shamed into abandoning any pirating or pillaging intentions.

Copper Dragons

Knowledge (arcana) 8: Copper dragons are the most amusing and mischievous dragons. They adore harmless tricks and illusions, and delight in surprising or deceiving both strangers and their closest friends. They are social, though they prefer to host visitors in their lairs in the hills and lower parts of mountains instead of seeking out random travellers for conversation.

Knowledge (arcana) 13: A copper dragon views any visitors to its lair as having implicitly agreed to engage in its games of deception. Unlike most dragons, they generally make the location of their lair widely known among nearby civilized towns, and they are often found there awaiting guests.

Knowledge (arcana) 18: The lair of an adult copper dragon is usually set in a large and well-crafted cave in a hill. The surrounding area has a variety of illusory paths leading to other caves and distractions in the area. These illusions are intended to test the observational skills of visitors and ensure that they are worth talking to, not to form a serious defense. A copper dragon's publicly known lair is almost never the location of their true hoard, though it typically has a false hoard to trick would-be looters. Creatures in the area find everything more humorous than they normally would, and may break into fits of laughter when surprised.

Knowledge (arcana) 10: Gold dragons are the wisest and most ostentatious dragons, and arguably the most powerful of all. They are intensely serious in all of their pursuits, especially the vanquishing of evil. They make their lairs in any terrain, but they prefer deeply secluded and mysterious areas with preexisting magical power.

Knowledge (arcana) 15: Gold dragons hold themselves aloof from the world, and seldom bother to interact with other dragons, much less mortals. They have a high - but well-founded - opinion of their own wisdom and power, and seldom deign to interact with lesser creatures except as necessary to compel agreement with the dragon's complex plans. In rare circumstances, they may give advice or aid to especially worthy supplicants, but great deeds of valor and altruism are necessary to impress a gold dragon. They can also be impressed by sheer gifts of wealth, since they freely consume gold and gems from their own hoards as necessary to sustain their battles against evil.

Knowledge (arcana) 20: The lair of an adult gold dragon is surrounded by an eerie, magical light that emanates from all earth-based materials and metals, especially gems and jewels. In addition, any natural magical effects in the area are amplified dramatically. Creatures in the area suffer from a deep awareness of all of their imperfections and flaws, and are inspired to improve themselves - though they are aware that no mortal efforts can approach the majesty and perfection of a gold dragon.

Green Dragons

Knowledge (arcana) 9: Green dragons are the most jealous and greedy dragons. Their lust for wealth, especially the wealth of others, is insatiable. Villages and farmsteads near a green dragon's territory may never know peace until it leaves. They tend to inhabit forests - the older, the better.

Knowledge (arcana) 14: Younger green dragons sometimes get themselves into trouble by trying to steal from more powerful creatures, or by pillaging cities with the resources to pay for a hefty bounty. Green dragons that have survived to old age are usually more reasonable than the average green dragon, and recognize the necessity for other creatures to temporarily have nice things.

Knowledge (arcana) 19: The lair of an adult green dragon is surrounded by a poisonous mist that obscures sight and kills any lesser creatures that dare to approach too close. The poison leaves trees and bushes mostly intact, but they still wither without the full heat of the sun and the care of forest animals. Creatures in the area feel sickly and tired, even if they resist the lethal effects of the mist.

Red Dragons

Knowledge (arcana) 10: Red dragons are extremely confident in their own abilities. They are easily enraged, and they lay claim to vast swaths of territory, regardless of its inhabitants or defenses. They typically make their home in the lower slopes of great mountains, but their expansive view of their domain means they are commonly found in other environments as well. Their aggression and boldness makes them the most feared type of dragon in most locations.

Knowledge (arcana) 15: Red dragons are less intelligent and more impulsive than most dragons, though older red dragons are still far above average human intelligence. Older red dragons know that their fire breath is hot enough to destroy valuable treasure, so they tend to avoid using it in fights that they expect to be both easy and profitable.

Knowledge (arcana) 20: The lair of an adult red dragon is surrounded by stifling heat regardless of the area’s natural climate, and the air is tinged with sulfurous fumes. This heat makes the area an attractive location for creatures from the Plane of Fire, and they often find their way there. If possible, red dragons prefer to claim a lair within an active volcano, but they must be able to defend such a valuable location against other red dragons. Creatures in the area are short-tempered and easily provoked, even if they are unaffected by the heat.

Knowledge (arcana) 9: Silver dragons are the most scholarly dragons. They study the history of magic and the mortal races from their lairs atop frozen mountain peaks. They sometimes leave their lairs to do research on topics of interest to them, either with their own observations or by gathering tomes of knowledge.

Knowledge (arcana) 14: On rare occasions, silver dragons will come to some grand conclusion based on their research. When they do, they take their knowledge and travel the civilized world to avert some foreseen disaster or to spread their knowledge with mortals who need it. They require no payment for these services, but they do take the opportunity to seek out new developments in the world and gather research to fuel their next obsession.

Knowledge (arcana) 19: The lair of an adult silver dragon is typically covered in a blinding snowstorm that drives any interlopers safely to the edges of the storm. The surrounding terrain is sculpted into a frozen labyrinth of ice and stone that makes it difficult for creatures to find the center, while also preventing the winds from driving unwary creatures off of cliffs. Creatures in the area feel a deeper sense of curiosity, and are easily distracted by new phenomena or information they encounter.

White Dragons

Knowledge (arcana) 7: White dragons are the most bestial dragons. They are isolationists, and prefer the simplicity of a solitary hunt over any interaction with civilization or conversation. They pose little threat to towns, even within their territory, but are likely to prey on any small groups wandering the mountain peaks they call home.

Knowledge (arcana) 12: White dragons lack the cultivated cruelty of black dragons, but they have an insatiable hunger that makes their attacks on trespassers no less relentless. They dream of having vast caves full of frozen corpses to feed on at their whim. However, few have the patience and bounty of prey to seal meat into statues instead of consuming it on the spot.

Knowledge (arcana) 17: The lair of an adult white dragon is surrounded by perilous cold. Even some creatures adapted to mountain peaks can be found frozen solid around the landscape. Creatures in the area think and talk more slowly and struggle to grasp complex concepts.

Acknowledgements

A number of marvelous people have helped me make this revision possible, and many clever minds produced ideas I that have incorporated into the new system. I cannot hope to properly credit everyone who contributed, knowingly or otherwise, but I can at least make an attempt here. The following individuals have my gratitude:

Connor Haines, for being a great brainstorming partner and excellent roommate.

Zontan Ferrah, for frequently telling me when my ideas were stupid. Sometimes he was even right.

Desmond Henderson, for his remarkably thorough and insightful feedback, and for being the first person brave enough to run a game with Rise.

Kyle McCauley, Linchaun Zhang, and Scott Kottkamp for helping to correct foolish errors that once littered this document and for providing ideas about how to improve the system.

Tarkisflux, for his excellent Tome of Prowess, feedback on spell design, and more.

Kholai, for keeping me on my toes in our monstrously long discussions of rules minutia.

Douglas Milewski, for his insightful essay on the nature of fighters. It helped inspire me to think that I could make D&D right.

Rich Burlew, for providing a forum for house rule enthusiasts like myself to gather and for his insightful articles that guided my thought.

Shannon Carty, for the donation of her vocabulary.

Dave Rosenberg, for his insight into the nature of druids.

Ryan Beck, for his helpful commentary and criticism.

Jordan MacAvoy, for his endless patience and creativity that repeatedly revealed flaws in the wording and design of this book.

Wizards of the Coast, for making a great game and releasing it under the OGL license, which makes all of this tinkering possible.
